No Cloth ſhall be tranſported, vntill it be barbed, rowed, and ſhorne.

St.7.Ed.4.3.

ITem, Where in the ſaid Parliament it was ſhewed by Shermen, Fullers, and other artificers, that ſhould liue and obtaine their needie ſuſtentation, by meane of Drapery made and draped within this Realme, as well throughout the ſame Realme, as within the Citie of London, that where in a Statute made the ſeuenth yeare of the raigne of King Edward the fourth among other it is conteined, that no perſon denizen ne ſtranger, ſhould carie, or doe to be caried to any parties beyond the ſea, any wollen yarne or cloth vnfulled, but the wollen yarne to be made in this Realme, ſhould be wouen in the ſame, and alſo all cloth in the ſame made ſhould be fulled and fully wrought within this Realme, before that any of the ſame ſhould be had or caried out of this Realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of the verie valure of ſuch yarne not weaued and cloth not fulled, had or caried out of this Realme. The one halfe of the forfeiture to be leuied to the vſe of the King and the other halfe to him or them that ſhould eſpie or make proofe of any ſuch yarne not wouen, or cloth not fulled, caried to any place beyond the ſea.

And foraſmuch as in the ſaid ſtatute of King Edward there is no expreſſe mention made, that the ſaid clothes ſhould be rowed and ſhorne, afore that they be caried and conueyed out of this realme, whereby the ſaid poore Commons of the crafts aforeſaid, might be ſet in labour and occupation:

cupation: therefore the ſaid Clothes euer ſithen vnto this day haue béene, and yet dayly are in great number caried out of this realme, vnrowed and vnſhorne, into the parts of beyond the ſea, as well by denizens as ſtrangers, whereby outlandiſh nations, with the ſame Draperie, are ſet in labour and occupation, to their great enriching, and the poore Commons of the crafts aboueſaid, through all this realme, that of naturall reaſon as the Kings true liege men, ſhould haue and obtaine their néedie ſuſtentation and liuing, by meanes of the ſame drapery, for lack of ſuch occupation daily fall in great number into idleneſſe and pouertie, to their vttermoſt deſtruction, if it ſhould any longer continue. The King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aduiſe of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the prayer of the commons in this ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that no ſtranger nor denizen carie, or make to be caried out of this realme any woollen clothes, but that they before bée barbed, rowed, and ſhorne within the ſame realme, for the reliefe and ſetting on worke of the ſaid poore commons, vpon the paine and forfeiture limitted in the ſaid ſtatute of King Edward, made vpon cloth caried out of this land not fulled, to be diuided in manner and forme as in the ſame ſtatute it is conteined. Prouided alway, that clothes called Ueſſes, Raies, Sailing clothes, and other clothes commonly ſold at fourtie ſhillings and vnder, be not compriſed in this preſent Act. Conſpiring to deſtroy the King, or any Lord Councellor or great Officer ſhall be felony.

ITem, foraſmuch as by quarels made to ſuch as haue béene in great authoritie, office, and of councell with Kings of this Realme, hath enſued the deſtruction of the Kings, and the vndoing of this Realme: ſo as it hath appeared euidently: when compaſſing of the death of ſuch as were of the Kings true ſubiects was had, the deſtruction of the Prince was imagined thereby, and for the moſt part it hath growne and béene occaſioned by enuie and malice of the Kings owne houſhold ſeruants, as now of late ſuch a thing was likely to haue enſued: and for ſo much as by the Law of this Land if actuall déedes be not had, there is no remedie for ſuch falſe compaſſings, imaginations, and confederacies had againſt any Lord, or any of the Kings Counſell, or any of the Kings great Officers in his houſhold, as Steward, Treaſorer, and Comptroller: and ſo great inconueniences might enſue if ſuch vngodly demeaning ſhould not bée ſtraightly puniſhed before that actuall déed were done. Therefore it is ordeined by the King, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons of the ſaid Parliament aſſembled and by authoritie of the ſame, that from hence forward, the Steward, Treaſorer, and Comptroller of the Kings houſe, for the time being, or one of them haue full authoritie and power to enquire by xii. ſad men and diſcréet perſons of the Chequer roll of the Kings honourable houſhold, if any ſeruant admitted to be his ſeruant ſworne, and his name put into the Chequer roll of his houſhold whatſoeuer he be ſeruing in any maner office or roome reputed, had, and taken vnder the ſtate of a Lord, make any confederacies, compaſſing conſpiracies, or imaginations, with any perſon or perſons, to deſtroy or murder the King, or any Lord of this Realm, or any other perſon ſworne to the Kings Counſel, Steward, Treaſorer, or Comptroller of the Kings houſe, that if it bée found afore the ſaid Steward, for the time being, by the ſaid xii. ſad men, that any ſuch of the Kings ſeruants as is aboueſaid, hath confedered, compaſſed, conſpired, or imagined, as is aboue ſaid, that he ſo found by that enquiry, be put thereupon to anſwere. And the Steward, Treaſorer, and Comptroller, or two of them haue power to determine the ſame matter, according to the law. And if he put him in triall that then it be tried by other xii. ſad men of the ſame houſhold: and that ſuch miſdoers haue no challenge, but for malice: And if ſuch miſdoers be found guiltie by confeſſion or otherwiſe, that the ſaid offence be iudged felony: and they to haue iudgement and execution as felons attainted ought for to haue by the Common Lawe. CAP. II.

Allaying of Gold and Silver, melting, ſelling, and marking the ſame.

ITem, whereas it was of old time vſed and continued till now of late yeares, that there was for the auaile of the King and the Realme, finors and parters of gold and ſiluer, by fire and water, vnder a rule and order belonging vnto the Mints of London, Caleys, Canterbury, Yorke, and Durham, and other places where Mints béen holden, and at the Goldſmithes Hall in London, to fine and part all gold and ſiluer belonging and néedfull for the ſaid Mints and fellowſhip of Goldſmithes, for the amendment of money, and plate of the Realme, that euery thing might be reformed to the right Standard, as well in money as plate to the leaſt coſt, for the weal of the Kings, Noble men of the Land, and common people. But ſo it is now, that ſuch finors & parters of gold and ſiluer by fire and water dwell abroad in euery place of this Realme, out of the rules aforeſaid, and buy gilt ſiluer from the Mints, changes and Goldſmithes, and part and fine it as is aforeſaid, and for the moſt part the ſiluer ſo fined, they doe alay in diuers maners, and ſell it at their pleaſures to euerie man of what eſtate or degrée ſoeuer he be, that will buy of them to make ſuch works as pleaſeth the buyers: therefore men can get no fine ſiluer when they néed it for their money, for the amendment of money and plate as hath béene in times paſt: wherefore it cauſeth money and plate in diuers places of the Realme, to be made worſe in fineneſſe than it ſhould be, as it appeareth euidently in diuers places, to the great hurt of the Kings, Noble men of the Land, and common people. Wherefore the King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordained, enacted, and eſtabliſhed, that no finor of gold & ſiluer, nor parter of the ſame by fire or water from henceforth alay any fine ſiluer or gold ne none ſell in any other wiſe, ne to any perſon or perſons, but onely to the officers of Mints changes and Goldſmithes within this Realme, for augmentation and amending of coyne and plate as is aforeſaid: and that the Maſters of Mints, changes and Goldſmithes, for all ſuch fine gold or ſiluer comming to them, to anſwere the valure as it is worth according as it is now and hath béene in ancient time accuſtomed after the rate of finneſſe. Ne that no finor nor finors, parter nor parters, ſell to no perſon, neither to one nor to other any maner of ſiluer in maſſe molten and alayed, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, the King thereof to haue one halfe, and the finder that can proue and will ſue for it in the Kings Eſchequer, the other halfe. And if any finor or finors, parter or parters of gold and ſiluer, either by fire or water, alay or ſell any maner fine gold or ſiluer, otherwiſe than it is ordained in this laſt act, he or they to loſe the valure of the ſame gold or ſiluer ſo alayed or ſold, the King to haue the one halfe, and the finder that can proue it and will ſue for it in the Kings Eſchequer, the other halfe. And all ſuch fine ſiluer as ſhall be parted & fined, as is aforeſaid, that it be made ſo fine, that it may beare xii. peny weight of alay in a pound weight, and yet it be as good as ſterling and rather better than worſe, And that euery finor put his ſeuerall marke vpon ſuch fine ſiluer, to beare witneſſe of the ſame to be true, as is aforeſaid, vpon the paine of the valure found contrarie to be forfait, the King thereof to haue the one halfe and the finder that can proue it and will ſue for it in the Eſchequer, the other halfe. And that no Goldſmith, nor Goldſmiths within this Realm, melt or alay any fine ſiluer, to be for any works or other intent, but onely for making of angels, for diuers works of Goldſmithrie, and for amending

This ordinance to be kept by the Goldſmiths in euery point vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame ſiluer or the value thereof. The King thereof to haue the one halfe, and the finder that can proue it, and will ſue for it in the Kings Eſchequer, the other halfe.

Butchers ſhall kill no beaſts in London, any walled Towne, or in Cambridge.

ITem, it was ſhewed by a petition put to the King our ſaid Soueraigne Lord in the ſaid Parliament, by his ſubiects and Pariſhioners of the Pariſh of S. Faiths and S. Gregories in London, neere adioyning vnto the Cathedrall Church of Paules, that whereas great concourſe of people, as well of his Royall Perſon, as of great Lords and States, with other his true Subiects, oftentimes was had vnto the ſaid Cathedrall Church, and that moſt part throughout the Pariſh aforeſaid, the which oftentimes beene greatly annoyed and diſtempered by corrupt ayres engendred in the ſaid Pariſhes, by occaſion of blood and other fouler things, by reaſon of the ſlaughter of beaſts, and ſcalding of ſwine, had and done in the Bocherie of S. Nicholas fleſhſhambles, whoſe corruption and foule ordure, by violence of vncleane, corrupt, and putrified waters, is borne downe through the ſaid Pariſhes, & compaſſeth two parts of the Pallace, where the Kings moſt royal perſon is wont to abide, when he cõmeth to the Cathedral Church for any act there to be done, to the ieoperdous abiding of his moſt noble perſon, and to ouer great annoyance of the Pariſhioners there, and of other the Kings ſubiects and ſtrangers that paſſe by the ſame; Complaint whereof at many and diuers ſeaſons, alſo by the ſpace of xvi. yeares continually, as well by the Canons and petty canons of the ſaid Cathedrall Church, Landlords there, as alſo by many other of the Kings ſubiects of right honeſt behauiour hath béene made vnto diuers Maires and Aldermen of the City of London, and no remedy had ne found. That it pleaſe our ſaid Soueraigne Lord of his aboundant grace to prouide for the conſeruation as wel of his moſt Royal perſon, as to ſuccour his poore ſubiects, and ſuppliants in this behalfe, conſidering that in few noble Cities and Townes or none within Chriſtendome, whereas trauelling men haue laboured, the common ſlaughter houſe of beaſts ſhould be kept in any ſpeciall part within the walles of the ſame, leaſt it might ingender ſickneſſe, vnto the deſtruction of the people. The King our Soueraigne Lord, in conſideration of the premiſſes, hath by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, ordeined and enacted, that no Butcher nor his ſeruant ſlay no maner beaſt within the ſaid houſe, called the ſcalding houſe, or within the wall of London, vpon paine to forfait for euerie Oxe xii. pence, and euery Cow and euery other beaſt viii. pence. And ouer this it is ordained and enacted by the ſaid authority, that the ſaid ordinance, act, and law extend and be obſerued and kept in euery City, Borough, and Towne walled within his Realme of England, and in the Towne of Cambridge (the Townes of Barwicke and Carlile, except and forepriſed.) All Iuſtices of Peace ſhall execute their Commiſſion, redreſſe iniuries, and maintaine the Lawes.

ITem, the King our Soueraigne Lord conſidereth, that by the negligence, miſdemeaning, fauour, and other inordinate cauſes of Iuſtices of Peace in euery Shire of this his Realme, the Lawes and ordinances made for the politique weale, peace and good rule of the ſame, and for the profit, ſuertie and reſtfull liuing of his ſubiects of the ſame, be not duely executed, according to the tenour and effect that they were made and ordained for: wherefore his ſubiects béene grieuouſly hurt, and out of ſuertie of their bodies and goods to his great diſpleaſure, for to him is nothing more ioyous then to know his ſubiects to liue peaceably vnder his lawes, and to encreaſe in wealth and proſperity, and to auoid ſuch enormities and iniuries, ſo that his ſaid ſubiects may liue reſtfully vnder his peace, and lawes to their encreaſe, He will that it be ordained and enacted by autority of this ſaid Parliament that euery Iuſtice of peace, within euery Shire of this Realme, within the Shire where he is Iuſtice of peace, doe cauſe openly and ſolemnely to be proclamed yearely, foure times a yeare, in foure principall Seſſions, the tenour of this proclamation to this bill annexed: and that euery Iuſtice of peace being preſent at any of the ſaid Seſſions, if they cauſe not the ſaid proclamation for to be made in forme aboue-ſaid, ſhall forfait vnto our Soueraigne Lord at euery time xx. ſhillings.

Therefore the King will, it be ordained, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaid Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that his Subiects, & the Comminaltie of this his Realme from henceforth in no wiſe be changed by any ſuch charge, exaction, or impoſition, called a beneuolence nor by ſuch like charge: And that ſuch exactions, called beneuolences, before this time taken, be taken for no example, to make ſuch, or any like charge of any his ſaid ſubiects of this Realme hereafter, but it ſhall be damned, and annulled for euer.

CAP. IX.

In what ſort Italian Merchants may ſell their Merchandiſes, ſeuerall reſtraints of Aliens.

The grieuances done by merchants ſtrangers, to the King and the Realme.

ITem, becauſe our ſaid Soueraign Lord the King, vpon petition made to him in his ſaid Parliament, by the Commons of England, hath conceiued and vnderſtood, that whereas Merchants Strangers of the nation of Italy, as Venetians, Florentines, Apulians, Cicilians, Lucaners, Catelions: and other of the ſame nation in great number doe inhabite and keepe houſes as well in the City of London as in other Cities and Boroughes within this his Realme, and doe take Warehouſes and Cellors, and therein put their Wares and Merchandiſes, which they bring into this ſaid Realme, and in the ſaid Cellors and Warehouſes deceitfully doe pack, mingle and keep the ſame till ſuch time the prices thereof be greatly enhanced for their great lucre, and the ſame Merchandiſes and Wares they then ſell to all maner people, as well within the Ports where they bring the ſaid Wares and Merchandiſes, as to other diuers and many places, within this Realme as well by retaile as otherwiſe.

And alſo doe buy in the ſaid Ports and other places at their owne liberty, the commodities of this Realme and ſell the ſame againe at their pleaſure within the ſame, as commonly and freely, as any of the Kings liege people doth, and doe not employ, a great part of the mony comming thereof, vpon the commodities of this Realme, but make it ouer the Sea by exchange to diuers other Countries, to the Kings great damage in loſſe of his Cuſtomes, and to the great impoueriſhing of his ſaid ſubiects, of whom they ſhould buy the commodities of this Realme.

And the ſame Merchants of Italy and other Merchants Strangers be hoſts, and take to them people of other nations, and be with them daily and doe buy, ſell and make priuy and ſecret contracts and bargaines with the ſame people, to their great encreaſe and profit, and to the importune damage of the Kings ſaid ſubiects, and contrary to diuers Statutes in this caſe prouided and ordained.

Alſo the ſaid Merchants of Italy doe buy in diuers places within this Realme a great quantity of Wool and Woollen Cloth and other Merchandiſes of the Kings ſubiects, and part thereof they ſell again to the ſame ſubiects and other within this Realm, to their greater aduantage, & much of the ſaid Wools they doe deliuer to Clothmakers, therof to make cloth at their pleaſure.

Moreouer a great number of Artificers and other Strangers not borne vnder the Kings obeyſance, doe daily reſort and repaire to the Citie of London, and to other Cities, Boroughes, and Townes of the ſaid Realme, and much more then they were wont to doe in times paſt, and inhabite by themſelues in the ſaid Realme with their wiues, children and houſhold, and will not take vpon them any laborious occupation, as going to plough, or cart, and other like buſineſſe, but vſe the making of Cloth, and other handicrafts and eaſie occupations, and bring and conuey from the parties beyond the Sea, great ſubſtance of Wares and Merchandiſes to Faires and Markets, and all other places of this Realme at their pleaſure, and there ſell the ſame aſwell by retaile, as otherwiſe, as freely as any of the Kings ſubiects vſe to do, to the great damage and impoueriſhment of the Kings ſaid ſubiects, and will in no wiſe ſuffer nor take any of the Kings ſaid ſubiects to worke with them, but they take only into their ſeruice people borne in their owne Countrey, whereby the Kings ſaid ſubiects for lacke of occupation fall into idleneſſe, and bee theeues, beggars, vagabonds, and people of vicious liuing, to the great perturbance both of the King and of all his Realme, and when the Merchants Artificers and Strangers before rehearſed, haue gained within this Realme, by buying and ſelling, or by ſuch eaſie occupations and handy crafts, great ſubſtance of goods, with the ſame ſubſtance they goe out of this ſaid realm, to ſuch parts beyond the Sea, as them liketh beſt, and there ſpend the ſame goods oftentimes amongſt the Kings aduerſaries and enemies, to the great damage of our Soueraigne Lord the King, and his ſubiects, and impoueriſhment of this Realme, and the Commons of the ſame.

And ſo by the occaſion of the premiſſes, the ſubſtance of the Inhabitants in the ſaid Cities, Boroughes, and Townes now late hath fallen and daily doth fall into great pouertie and decay, to their great vndoing, vnleſſe the Kings gracious aide be to them in this behalfe ſhewed.

Italian merchants ſhall ſell their merchandiſes in groſſe, and imploy their money in the commodities of this Realme.

Our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, of his abundant grace, willing againſt the premiſſes to prouide remedy in this behalfe, by the aduice and aſſent of his Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the prayer of the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, hath ordained, eſtabliſhed and enacted, That all Merchants of the nation of Italy before recited, not made denizens, which haue now within this Realme Wares and Merchandiſes brought from beyond the Sea, and before the Feaſt of Eaſter next comming ſhall haue, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be ſold or bartred in groſſe, and not by retaile to the Kings ſubiects before the firſt day of May, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God, one thouſand foure hundred foure ſcore and fiue, and ſhall imploy the money comming of that ſale, before the firſt day of May within the ſame Port or Ports, where they dóe arriue, vpon the commodities and merchandiſes of this Realme, Their reaſonable coſts and expences alwaies except and deducted, vpon paine of forfeiture of the value as well of all the ſaid Wares and Merchandiſes kept and not ſold before the ſaid firſt day of May, or otherwiſe ſold then is aboue rehearſed, as of as much money as ſhall be made ouer by exchange contrary to this Act. And alſo that all the Marchants of Italy, which after the Feaſt of Eaſter next comming, ſhall bring any marchandiſes or wares into this Realme, to be ſold, ſhall ſell or barter the ſaid wares and marchandiſes in groſſe and not by retaile to the Kings ſubiects, vpon paine of forfeiture of the value of the ſame wares and marchandiſes, which they (as afore is ſaid) ſhal bring after the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter. And the ſaid Marchants, which ſhall bring in ſuch wares and marchandiſes after the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter, to ſell or barter, ſhall ſell or elſe barter the ſame within eight moneths next after their firſt arriuall in this Realme, in the forme aforeſaid, and ſhall employ the money comming of or by the ſaid ſale or bartering, and euery of them, and with the ſame buy the commodities or marchandiſes of this Realme, within the ſaid eight months in the ſaid Port or Ports where they doe firſt arriue, Their reaſonable coſtes and expences, alwaies excepted and deducted, & in no wiſe to make ouer ſuch money by exchange.

Strangers ſhall ſell their wares within 8. moneths after their arriuall, & imploy their money, &c.

And that the ſaid Marchants doe in no wiſe ſell nor barter within the ſaid Realme, their ſaid wares and marchandiſes, which remaineth vnſold after the end of the ſaid eight moneths, but cary and conuey the ſame out of this Realme within two moneths next enſuing after the ſaid eight moneths, if winde and time will that ſuffer, or otherwiſe, as ſoone as winde and time will ſuffer them after the ſaid two moneths, vpon paine of forfeiture as well of as much money as ſhalbe made ouer by exchange, as of the ſaid wares and marchandiſes, ſo ſolde or bartered after the end of the ſaid eight moneths, not carried nor conueyed out of this ſaid Realme in the forme aforeſaid, or the value thereof. The penalties, forfeitures, and loſſes of all the premiſſes alwayes to run and bée vpon the ſaid Marchants of the nation of Italy, doing contrary to this Act.

Strangers ſhall cary away ſo much as they cannot ſel within eight moneths.

Prouided alwaies, that it be lawfull to the ſaid Marchants of the nation of Italy, all ſuch wares and marchandiſes, and euery parcell thereof, which after the Feaſt of Eaſter next comming ſhall be brought to any other Port or Ports of this Realme of England, to be ſold, to conuey the ſame wares, and marchandiſe at their liberties to any Port or Ports, or other place within this Realme, and there to ſell the ſame as afore is ſaid, ſo that they ſell or barter the ſame marchandiſes or wares in the Realme within eight moneths next after their firſt arriuall in any of the ſaid Ports of this Realme. And alſo that no Marchant ſtranger of what Countrey ſoeuer he be, ſhall be Hoſte, or take to ſoiourne with him in the ſaid realme any marchant ſtranger, not being of his nation or countrey, vpon paine of xl. pound.

Strangers may remoue their goods from one port to another.
A ſtranger ſhall not be hoſt to a ſtranger, vnleſſe he be of his own country.

Alſo that none of the ſaid Marchants of Italy, not made Denizen, ſhal ſel or barter any Woollen clothes, Wools or other marchandiſes in this ſaid Realme, which the ſame Marchants of Italy ſhall buy within this ſaid Realme. Nor that the ſame Marchants nor any other for them ſhall deliuer any Wool to any perſon, thereof to make Cloth in this realme, but ſhall haue and conuey the ſame Woollen cloth, Wools, and other marchandiſes ouer the Sea by the ſtreits of Marrocke, vpon paine to forfeit the value of all the wollen cloth, wools, and other marchandiſes which by them ſhalbe ſo ſold or deliuered, in whoſe hands they ſhalbe found. The forfeiture of the ſame to runne and be vpon the Marchant Stranger.

Aliens ſhall not buy & ſell wooll or wollen cloth within this realme.

17.E.4.2.

Prayen the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that where in a Statute made in the ſeuenteenth year of the Raigne of King Edward the fourth, It was ordained amongſt other, that where diuers Faires haue beene holden and kept in diuers places within this Realme ſome by preſcription allowed afore Iuſtices in Eyre, and ſome by the grant of your noble progenitors and predeceſſors, and to euery of the ſame Faires, is of right pertaining a Court of Pypowders, to miniſter therein due Iuſtice in that party: in which Court it hath euer beene accuſtomed, that euery perſon comming to ſuch Faires ſhould haue lawfull remedy of all manner contracts, treſpaſſes, couenants, debts, and other deeds made or done within any of the ſaid faires during the time of the ſaid Faires, within the iuriſdiction of the ſame, and to be tried by Merchants being at the ſame Faires, which Courts in theſe daies beene miſuſed by Stewards, Bailiffes, Commiſſaries and other Miniſters, holding and ruling the ſaid Courts of the ſaid Faires for their ſingular profit, holding plea by plaints, as well contracts, debts, treſpaſſes, as other deeds done and made out of the time of the ſaid Faires or Faire and iuriſdiction of the ſame, whereof in troth they haue no iuriſdiction, ſurmiſing the contracts, debts, treſpaſſes, couenants, or other deeds to be done within the time of the Faires, and within the iuriſdiction of the ſame Faires where in troth they were not ſo. And ſometime vpon fained plaints, by imagination, by euill diſpoſed people, to trouble them to whom they owe euill will, ſome to the intent to make them loſe their Faire, and ſome to the intent that they ſhould haue for lucre, fauourable enqueſts of Commers to the ſame Faires, where they take their actions, whereby much people comming to the ſaid Faires, be grieuouſly vexed and troubled by fained actions, ⁊ alſo by actions of debts, treſpaſſes, deeds and contracts made and done out of the time of the ſaid Faires or iuriſdiction of the ſame, contrary to equity and good conſcience, Whereby the Lords of the ſaid Faires loſe great profits by the not comming of diuers Merchãts to their Faires, which for that caſe abſtain them, and alſo the Commons for that caſe be worſe ſerued of ſuch ſtuffe and Merchandiſes, as elſe ſhould come to the ſaid Faires: Pleaſe it therefore your highneſſe, the premiſſes conſidered, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall in this your preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, to ordaine and to eſtabliſh, that from the firſt day of May next comming, no Steward, Underſteward, Bailiffe, Commiſſary, nor other Miniſter of ſuch courts of Pipowders, hold plea vpon any action at the ſuit of any perſon or perſons without the plaintiffe or plaintiffes, or his or their Atturnies, in preſence of the defendant or defendants (if he or they or his or their Atturnies deſire it) make oath vpon the holy Euangeliſts, vpon the declaration, that the contract, treſpaſſe, or other deed compriſed in the ſame declaration, were made or done within the Faire time of the ſaid Faire, where he taketh his action, and within the bounds and iuriſdiction of the ſame faire. And although the ſaid plaintiffe or plaintiffes by their oath affirme the ſame, that the ſaid defendant or defendants be not concluded thereby, but that they may anſwere and plead to the action, or in abatement of the plaints and to tender an iſſue, that the ſame contract, treſpaſſe, or other deed compriſed within ſuch declaration, whereupon the plaintiffe or plaintiffes declaration, was not done nor made within the Faire time ⁊ iuriſdiction of the ſaid Faire, but out of time of the Faire, or at other places out of the iuriſdiction of the ſame Faire after the troth in that party.

And if it be ſo tryed, or that the plaintiffe or plaintiffes or their Atturnies, refuſe to be ſworne in the forme aforeſaid. That then the defendant or defendants be quite diſmiſſed and diſcharged in that behalfe out of that Court. And that the Ordinance touching Faires as is aforeſaid, ſhould endure to the next Parliament, which Ordinance is now expired. And for certaine the ſaid Ordinance is full neceſſary and requiſite to endure for ever, and full profitable to all the Commons of this Realme. Be it therefore ordained and eſtabliſhed by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the aforeſaid Ordinance be and ſtand in vertue and ſtrength. For remedy whereof it is ordained, enacted & eſtabliſhed, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that from henceforth no manner of perſon, of what eſtate, degrée or condition he is, or ſhall be, take any ſeuerall Fermes, mo than one of any Manors, Lands, and Tenements, Parſonages or Tythes within the ſaid Iſle, whereof the Ferme of them altogether ſhall not excéed the ſum of x. Sith the making of which Eſtatute many imaginations haue beene had, and yet been vſed, as well by Feoffements, Fines, and Recoueries, as otherwiſe, to put Lords from their Wards of Lands holden of them by Knights ſeruice: It is therefore ordained, ſtabliſhed and enacted, by authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Statute of Marlebridge be obſerued and kept in all manner of things after the fourme, and effect thereof. And ouer that it is ordained and enacted by the ſaid authority, that if any perſon or perſons of what eſtate, degrée, or condition he or they be of, or hereafter ſhall bee, ſeiſed in demean or reuerſion of ſtate of inheritance, being Tenant immediate to the Lords of any Caſtell, Manors, Lands, and Tenements, or other Hereditaments, holden by Knights ſeruice in his or their Demeane, as of Fee, to the vſe of any other perſon or perſons, and of his Heires onely, he to whoſe vſe he or they be ſo ſeiſed dyeth, his Heire being within age, no Will by him declared, nor made in his life touching the premiſſes or any of them: the Lord of whõ ſuch Caſtels, Manors, Lands, Tenements, and hereditaments béene holden immediately, ſhall haue a writ of right, of Ward, as well for the body as for the * land, as the Lord ſhould haue had, if the ſame Anceſter had béene in poſſeſſion of that eſtate ſo being in vſe at that time of his death, and no ſuch ſtate to his vſe made. Actions popular proſecuted by colluſion, ſhall be no barre to thoſe which be purſued with good faith.

Item, that where Actions popular in diuers cauſes haue been ordained by many good Acts and Statutes afore this time made, for the reformation of extortions, maintenance, oppreſſions, iniuries, exactions and wrongs, vſed and committed within this Realme, which actions been very penal to all miſdoers and offenders, in ſuch actions condemned, and much profitable as wel to the King, as to euery of his ſubiects, that them will ſue and maintaine, if the ſame Actions ſo ſued and commenced, might be truly purſued without couin or colluſion. But now it is ſo commonly vſed within this Realme, that if any ſuch offenders, offending in cauſes where any of the ſaid actions lie, then the ſaid miſdoers or offenders, in eſchuing to leeſe the ſaid penalties, will cauſe an action popular to be commenced againſt them by couin of the plaintife vpon that caſe, wherin they haue ſo offended: or elſe if any ſuch action popular be commenced againſt any ſuch ſaid offender by good faith, then the ſame offender will delay the ſaid Action, either by none appearance, or by trauerſe, and hanging the ſame Action, the ſame offender will cauſe like Action popular, to be brought againſt him by couin, for the ſame cauſe and offence, that the firſt action was ſued, and then by couin of the Plaintife in that ſecond action, he will be condemned, either by confeſſion, fained triall, or releaſe, which condemnation or releaſe ſo had by colluſion and couin pleaded by the ſaid offender, ſhall barre the Plaintife in the action ſued in good faith, & by theſe ſubtill means of colluſion and couin, the ſaid good Acts and Statutes ſeldome beene executed againſt ſuch offenders, which cauſeth them to be bolder to offend the King, as well in breaking of the ſaid Statutes, Lawes, & Peace, as in robbing, murdering, exactious taking, quarrelles maintaining and the Kings poore Subiects by extortion and many other vnlawfull meanes oppreſſing. Therefore the King our Soueraigne Lord, in reforming of the premiſſes, by the aduice of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons in this ſaid preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, hath ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that if any perſon or perſons hereafter ſue with good faith any Action popular, and the Defendant or Defendants in the ſame Action plead any manner of recouery of Action popular, in barre of the ſaid Action; or elſe that the ſame Defendant or Defendants plead, that he or they before that time barred any ſuch Plaintife or Plaintifes, in any ſuch Action popular, that then the Plaintife or Plaintifes in the Action taken with good faith, may auerre, that the ſaid recouery in the ſaid Action popular, was had by couin, or elſe to auerre, that the ſaid Plaintife or plaintifes was or were barred in the ſaid Action popular, by couin, that then if after the ſaid colluſion or couin ſo auerred, be lawfully found, the plaintife or Plaintifes in that Action ſued with good faith, ſhall haue recouery according to the nature of the Action, and execution vpon the ſame, in like wiſe & effect, as though no ſuch afore had been had. And ouer that it is enacted and ordained by the authority aforeſaid, that in euery ſuch Action popular, wherein the Defendant or Defendants ſhal be lawfully condemned or attainted of couin or colluſion, as is aforeſaid, that euery of the ſame Defendants haue impriſonment of two yeares by Proceſſe of Capias and Vtlegary, to be ſued within the yeare after ſuch iudgement had, or at any time after, till the ſaid Defendant or Defendants ſhall be had and impriſoned, as is aforeſaid, and that as well at the Kings ſuit, as of euery other that will ſue in that behalfe. And that no releaſe of any common perſon hereafter to be made to any ſuch partie, whether before or after any Action popular or Inditement of the ſame had or commenced or made, hanging the ſame Action, be in any wiſe auaileable or effectuall to let or ſurceaſe the ſaid Action, Inditement, Proceſſe, or Execution. Prouided alway that no Plaintife or Plaintifes be in any wiſe receiued to auerre any couin in any action popular, where the point of the ſame Action, or elſe the couin or colluſion haue beene once tried or lawfully found with the Plaintife or Plaintifes, or againſt them, by triall of twelue men, and not otherwiſe.

The enormities of colluſion practiſed in ſuing of Actions popular

Recouery in an Action popular by couin, or a barre in the ſame, is no plea in an action ſued with good faith.

The puniſhment of the Defendant attainted of colluſion.

No releaſe of a common perſon can diſcharge a popular action.

CAP. XXIIII.

How often a fine levied in the Common Pleas ſhall be read and Proclaimed, and who then ſhall be bound thereby.

ITem, where it was ordained in the time of King Edward the firſt, by the Statute de finibus, that notes and fines to be leuied in the Kings Court afore his Iuſtices ſhould be openly and ſolemnely read, and that pleas in the meane time ſhould ceaſe, and this to be done by two dayes in the weeke, after the diſcretion of the Iuſtices, as in the ſaid Statute more plainly appeareth. The King our Soueraigne Lord conſidereth, that fines ought to be of the greateſt ſtrength to auoid ſtrifes and debates and to be a finall [p] end and concluſion: and of ſuch effect were taken afore a Statute made of none claime, and now is vſed the contrary, to the vniuerſall trouble of the Kings ſubiects, will therefore it be ordained, by the aduice of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that after the ingroſſing of euery fine to be leuied, after the Feaſt of Eaſter, that ſhall bee in the yeare of our Lord, M. And the ſaid Proclamations ſo had and made, the fine to be a finall end, and conclude as well priuyes as [r] ſtrangers to the ſame, except women couert, other then beene parties to the ſaid fine, and euery perſon then being within age of xxi. yeares, in priſon, or out of this Realme, or not of whole minde, at the time of the ſaid fine leuied not parties to ſuch fine: And ſauing to euery perſon or perſons, and to their heires, other then the parties in the ſaid fine, ſuch right, claime and intereſt, as they haue to, or in the ſaid Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, the time of ſuch fine ingroſſed: So that they purſue their title, claime or intereſt by way of action, or lawfull entre, within [ſ] fiue yeares next after the ſaid * Proclamations had, & made. And alſo ſauing to all perſons ſuch action, right, title, claime, and intereſſe, in or to the ſaid Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, as firſt ſhall grow, [t] remaine, or deſcend, or come to them after the ſaid fine ingroſſed, and Proclamation made, by force of any gift in the taile, or by any other cauſe or matter had and made before the ſaid fine leuied, So that they take their action, or purſue their ſaid right, and title according to the law within fiue yeares next after ſuch action, right, claime, title, or intereſſe to them accrued, deſcended, fallen, or come: And that the ſaid perſons, and their heires may haue their ſaid action againſt the pernour of the profits of the ſaid Lands, and Tenements, and other Hereditaments at the time of the ſaid action to be taken, and if the ſame perſons at the time of ſuch action, right and title accrued, deſcended, remained, or come vnto them, be couert de baron, or within [t] age, in priſon, or out of this land, or not of whole minde, then it is ordained by the ſaid authority, that their action, right, and title to bee reſerued and ſaued to them and to their heires, vnto the time they come and be at their full age of xxi. yeares, out of priſon, within this land, vncouert, and of whole minde, ſo that they or their heires take their ſaid actions, or their lawfull entry according to their right and title, within fiue yeares next after that they come and be at their full age, out of priſon, within this land, vncouert and of whole minde, and the ſame actions purſue, or other lawfull entry take according to the Law. And alſo it is ordayned by the authority aforeſaid, that all ſuch perſons as be couert de baron, not party to the fine, and euery perſon being within age of xxi. yeares, in priſon, or out of this land, or not of whole mind at the time of the ſaid fines leuied and engroſſed, and by this ſaid Act afore except, [u] hauing any right, or title, or cauſe of action to any of the ſaid lands and other hereditaments, that they or their heires inheritable to the ſame, take their ſaid actions or lawfull entry according to their right and title, within v. yeares next after they come

Cap. I.

The penalty of a Captaine or Souldier retained to ſerue the King in his intended warres, not doing their duties.

FOr as much as it is notoriouſly knowne, that the King to his great coſts and charges hath ſent his Ambaſſadors to Charles his Aduerſary of France, to haue had conuenient peace with him, and to haue his right without effuſion of Chriſtian blood, which was refuſed: Wherefore the King, by the grace of God, in whoſe hands and diſpoſition reſteth all victorie, hath determined himſelfe to paſſe ouer the ſea, into his Realme of France and reduce the poſſeſſion thereof by the ſaid grace to him and to his heirs Kings of England, according to his rightfull title, whereby he truſteth not onely to bring this his Realme to the ancient forme & honor, but alſo to enrich and ſet in perfect peace & tranquillity, his ſubiects of the ſame, truſting that therby the more part of al Chriſten Realmes ſhall be in more perfit peace and tranquillity, & the better diſpoſed to ſerue God, which cannot bee done by all likelihood without battaile, as well on the ſea, as in other places beyond the ſea, wherein Almighty God muſt be iudge, in whoſe defence, mercy, and goodneſſe, the King putteth his full truſt aboue all other things: howbeit many times by the inordinate couetiſe of Captaines retained with Princes afore this time, great part of the number of Souldiers, for whom ſuch Captaines haue endented with Princes at time of need, haue lacked of their number of ſouldiers, whereby great ieopardies haue enſued, and irrecuperable damages thereby may enſue, if remedie be not therefore foreſeene and had. Be it therfore ordained by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that if any Captaine be retained, or hereafter ſhall be, to ſerue the King on the ſea or beyond the ſea in feat of warre, which hath not his or their whole and perfit number of men and ſouldiers, according as he ſhall be retained with the King, or giue not them their full wages without ſhorting as he ſhall receiue of the King for them, except for Iackets for them that receiue land wages, that is to ſay vi.s. and viii.d. for a yeoman, and xiii.s.iiii.d. for a Gentleman for a whole yeare, he ſhal for ſuch default forfeit to the King all his goods and cattels, and their bodies to priſon.

The penalty of a Captaine which ſhall not haue the whole number of his Souldiers, or not pay them their wages. Stat.3.H.8.5.

And that euery Captaine, petie Captaine, and all other hauing vnder them retinue of any ſouldier or ſouldiers at the Kings wages, ſhall vpon the paine aforeſaid, pay to their retinue of ſouldier or ſouldiers, and euery of the ſame, the wages ratably, as is allowed vnto them by the King our ſoueraigne Lord, or the Treaſorer of his Wars, without leſſening or withdrawing any part thereof: And for as long time as they ſhall receiue wages for them, this payment vnto the ſaid retinues, and euery ſouldier of the ſame, of their Captaines and petie captaines allwayes ſhall be within vi. dayes, next and immediately after that the ſaid Captaine, petie Captaine, or other ſhall haue receiued their wages of the King, or of the Treaſorer of his Warres, or their Lords or Maſters. And if any ſouldier being no Captaine, immediately retained with the King, which herafter ſhall be in wages and retained, or take any preſt to ſerue the King vpon the ſea,

The Captaine ſhall pay to his Souldiers their wages within vi. dayes after their receit thereof.

The penalty of a Souldier departing without licence ſhall be felony. Stat.18.H.6.19. 2.Ed 6.2.

And for as much as his offence ſtretcheth to the hurt and ieopardy of the King our ſoueraigne Lord, the Nobles of the Realme, and of all the Common weale thereof, that therefore hee or they ſo offending enioy not the benefit of his Clergy. And that it be ordained by the ſaid authority, that all the Iuſtices in euery Shire of England, whereas any ſuch offendors be taken, haue power to enquire of the ſaid offences, and the ſame to heare and determine as they doe and may doe of felony, treſpaſſes, and of other offences expreſſed in the Kings Commiſſion to them made, as though the ſaid offences were done in the ſame Shire. And alſo that the ſaid departing of ſuch ſouldiers, and alſo their retainours, if it be trauerſed, be tryed in the ſame ſhire, where they be for ſuch cauſe arreſted and arraigned. Prouided alway, that no maner of Captaine be charged by this Act for lacke of his number retained, as is aboueſaid, whoſe ſouldiers ſhal hap to die, or otherwiſe depart, not in the default of the Captaine, ſo that the ſaid Captaine, if he be at land wages, ſhew the departing or lacking of his ſouldier within ten dayes after the lacking of the ſaid ſouldier, vnto the Treaſorer of the warres: or if the Captaine be at ſea wages, he ſhew the departing or lacking of the ſaid ſouldier, ſo lacking, to the Admirall of the Nauy where he is retained, at next méeting with the ſaid Admirall. Coke li.6.fol.27.

Iuſtices of P. may enquire of, heare and determine the offences of Souldiers departing without licence.

The Captaine ſhall not be charged for the Souldiers offence.

Riens deins le gard ſhall be no challenge vpon any Iſſue to be tried in London.

PRayen the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that where of long time vſed in any iſſue to be tried within the City of London, a challenge commonly called Riens deins le gard hath béene admitted for a good challenge, ſo that no iſſue could be tryed in any Ward, without that there were foure ſufficient perſons of liuelode to the yearely value of xl. ſhillings, aboue all charges within the ſame Citie, and dwelling or hauing any liuelode within the ſame Ward: and it is ſo now (the cauſe God knoweth why) that there is no Ward, or elſe but few, and in eſpeciall in plée of land, that any plaintife or demaundant can haue ſufficient tryall in this matter, as euidently is knowne, for cauſe of that challenge aforeſaid, for in the moſt part of Wardes as now, there be none ſufficient, and if any be, there are no officers that dare ſummon them, or elſe if they be ſummoned, they will not appeare, their honour is ſo great, and their amerciaments ſo little: That it pleaſe your moſt abundant grace, by the aduice of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and by the authority of this preſent Parliament to ordaine, and for the Common wealth of your true ſubiects, eſtabliſh and enact, that from henceforth the challenge commonly called Riens deins le gard, be no challenge: but vtterly void and of none effect: Sauing to euery perſon all maner of other challenges whatſoeuer they be according to the law.

The ſelling of Salmons and Eeles, their veſſels, packing, and gauging of them.

WHere at a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the xxii. yeare of the raigne of King Edward the fourth, among other things it was enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed, That no Marchant ſtranger nor denizen, after the Feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell then next comming, ſhould ſell nor put to ſale any Salmon by Butt, Barrel, half Barrel, or any other Veſſel, afore it ſhould be ſéene, except the ſame Butt ſhould hold and containe lxxxiiii. gallons, the Barrell xlii. gallons, the halfe Barrell xxi. gallons, well and truely packed, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery Butt, Barrell, & halfe Barrell, ſo lacking their ſaid meaſure, vi.s. viii.d. And that no ſuch Marchant, being vnder the ſaid Kings obeyſance, after the Feaſt of S. Michaell, ſhould ſell or put to ſale any manner of Salmon by Butt, Barrell, or other Veſſell, except it ſhould be well and truely packed, that is to ſay, the great Salmon by it ſelfe, without medling of any Grilles or broken bellied Salmon with the ſame: and that all ſmall fiſh, called Grilles, ſhould be packed by themſelues onely without any medling, vpon paine of forfeiture and léeſing vi.s. viii.d. for euery Butt, Barrell, or halfe Barrell, contrary to the ſaid Act, medled, packed, and put to ſale: And that no ſuch Marchant nor other perſon ſhould put any Herring to ſale by Barrell, demy Barrell, or Firkin, except the ſame Barrell containe xxxii. gallons, the halfe Barrell and Firkin after the ſame rate: and that the ſame Herring ſhould bee well, truely, and iuſtly layed

Alſo that no ſuch Marchant or paling man ſhould ſell or put to ſale any Eeles by Barrell, halfe Barrell or Firkin, except the Barrel containe xlii. gallons, the halfe Barrell and Firkin after the ſame rate: nor that any ſuch Marchant nor paling man ſhould meddle any galbytten, ſtoruen, or pyled Eeles with good Eeles, but that the ſame good Eeles ſhould be well and iuſtly packed, and ſo ſold by themſelues, nor ſhould meddle with the ſaid good Eeles, nor put to ſale any red Eeles, vpon paine of forfeiture & leeſing of x.s. for euery Barrell, halfe Barrell, and Firkin, ſo lacking their ſaid meaſure, and vpon pain of leeſing of x.s. for euery Barrell, halfe Barrell, and Firkin, ſo as is aforeſaid medled, and contrary to the ſaid Act, packed or put to ſale.

And that no Marchant after the ſaid Feaſt ſhould ſell nor put to ſale any barrelled fiſh, except the ſame fiſh ſhould well and truly be packed, that is to ſay, the taile fiſh by themſelues, and the ſmall fiſh called Guls by themſelues, without any medling of the ſaid ſmall fiſh with the great fiſh, and without medling and packing of Thokes and broken bellied fiſh, with the ſaid taile fiſh or ſmall fiſh: and that neither the taile fiſh nor ſmall fiſh ſhould be laid double in packing, and that euery taile fiſh ſhould containe in length from the bone of the finne to the third ioynt of the taile xxvi. ynches at the leaſt, and that the napes of all ſuch barrelled fiſh ſhould be no longer than the little bone that ſitteth vpon the great finne, and that the bone of euery ſuch ſalt fiſh ſhould be taken away vnto the nauell of the ſame fiſh, and that euery ſuch fiſh ſhould be platted downe to an handfull of the taile, vpon paine of forfeiture of leeſing iii.s.iiii.d. for euery barrell of fiſh which from henceforth ſhould bee found packed, ſorted, and medled, naped, layed double, or not boned nor ſpletted, according to the ſaid Act.

And for as much as in the ſaid Act no certainty is appointed how much euery ſuch Gauger, Packer, and Searcher, ſhould take for his labour in executing of their ſaid Office, they beene their owne iudges, and at their pleaſures take for the ſame gauging, packing, and ſearching by way of extortion, ſuch great ſummes of money as them liketh, whereby the Kings true ſubiects are greatly impoueriſhed and wronged: That it might therfore pleaſe the Kings Highnes, by the aduice of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, to confirme, ratifie, and eſtabliſh the ſaid Act and euery thing therein compriſed: and ouer that by the ſame authority to ordaine and eſtabliſh, That euery ſuch Gauger, Packer, & Searcher take no more for gauging of a Barrell Salmon, Barrell Herring, Barrell fiſh, Barrell Eeles, halfe Barrel, and Firkin, for euery peece ſo gauged, but a farthing, and for his labour for ſearching and packing, if it be need, of a Barrell Salmon from head to head, i.d. and for his labour for boning, naping, and packing of a Barrell fiſh, if it be need, i.d. and for his labor in ſearching & packing of a Barrel Herring from head to head, if it be needfull, ii.d. and for ſearching and packing of euery Barrel of Eeles, ii.d. & for ſearching and packing of euery halfe Barrel of Herring from head to head, i.d. and for euery halfe Barrel Eeles ſearching and packing, i.d. and for ſearching and packing of euery Firkin of Herring if it be needfull, ob.

A remedie to auoid deceitfull ſleights vſed upon Fuſtians.

PRayen the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That whereas Fuſtians brought from the parties of beyond the Sea, vnſhorne into this Realme, haue béene and ſhould be the moſt profitableſt Cloth for doublets and other wearing cloaths, greatly vſed among the common people of this Realme, and longeſt haue endured of any thing that haue come into the ſame Realme from the ſaid parts, to that intent, whereof the cauſe hath béene that ſuch Fuſtians afore this time haue béene truly wrought and ſhorne with the broad ſhere, and with no other Inſtrument, or other deceitfull meane occupied vpon the ſame. Now ſo it is, that diuers perſons, by ſubtiltie and vndue ſleights and meanes, haue deceiuably imagined and contriued Inſtruments of Iron, with the which Irons, in the moſt higheſt and ſecret places of their houſes, they ſtrike and draw the ſaid Irons on the ſaid Fuſtians vnſhorne, by meanes whereof they plucke off both the noppe and cotton of the ſame Fuſtians, and breake commonly both the ground and threds in ſunder, and after by crafty ſléeking they make the ſame Fuſtians to appeare to the common people fine, whole and ſound: and alſo they rayſe vp the cotton of ſuch Fuſtians, and then take a light candle and ſet in the Fuſtian burning, which ſengeth and burneth away the cotton of the ſame Fuſtian, from the one end to the other, downe to the hard thredes, in ſtead of ſhering, and after that put them in colour, and ſo ſubtilly dreſſe them, that their falſe worke cannot be eſpyed, without it be by workmen ſherers of ſuch Fuſtians, or by the wearers of the ſame: and ſo by ſuch ſubtilties, whereas Fuſtians made in doublets, or put to any other vſe, were wont and might endure the ſpace of two yeares and more, will not endure now whole by the ſpace of foure moneths ſcarcely, to the great hurt of the poore Commons and ſeruingmen of this Realme, to the great damage, loſſe and deceit of the Kings true Subiects, Buyers and wearers of ſuch Fuſtian. For remedy whereof, be it enacted, ordained and eſtabliſhed by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That no ſuch Iron or Inſtruments nor any other vntrue ſubtile meane or ſleight be from henceforth vſed vpon any Fuſtian within this Realme, but onely by the broad ſheres, vpon forfeiture of xx. s. to be leuyed for euery default of euery ſuch perſon or perſons hereafter offending and vſing any ſuch deceiueable Inſtruments or ſleights as is aforeſaid: The one halfe of the forfeitures to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame forfeitures, by action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of the Kings Courts of Record, where the ſame may be determined after the courſe of the Common Law: and that the defendant in ſuch behalfe in no wiſe be admitted to wage his Law, nor that any Protection or Eſſoine be in the ſame allowable. And ouer this, be it ordained by the ſaid authority, That the Mayor and Wardens of Shermen of the Citie of London, for the time being, haue authority to enter and ſearch the workmanſhip of al manner perſons occupying the broad Shere, as well Fuſtian as Cloth, and the execution of this preſent Act to be as well of Denizens as of Forreines and Strangers.

Stat.11.H.7.4.

The meaſure of a Buſhell, a Gallon, a Pound, an Vnce, and a Sterling. St.31.Ed.1

VVHereas afore this time the King our Soueraigne Lord intending the common weal of his people, and to auoid the deceit of Weights & Meaſures, long time vſed within this his Realme, contrary to the Statute of Magna Charta, and of other Statutes thereof made by diuers of his noble Progenitors, at his great charge and coſt did to make weights and meaſures of Braſſe according to the old Standards thereof remaining within his Treaſury. And for that that one weight and one meaſure ſhould be vſed throughout all this his Realme, in auoiding of all fraud and diſcord in that behalfe, it was at the laſt Parliament, holden the xiiii. day of October, in the xi yeare of our ſaid Soueraigne Lords raigne, ordained, That the ſaid meaſures and weights ſhould be deliuered to the Knights and Citizens of euery Shires and Cities, aſſembled in the ſame Parliament, Boroughes of the fiue Ports, and certaine Burgeſſes of Borough Townes, ſurely by them to be conueyed to certaine Boroughes and Townes ſpecified in a ſchedule vnto the ſame Act annexed, there to remaine for euer, to the intent in the ſame Act more largely declared: which weights and meaſures, vpon more diligent examination had ſith the making of the ſaid Statute, béen approued defectiue, and not made according to the old Lawes and Statutes thereof ordained within the ſaid Realme. Wherefore the King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aſſent of his Lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, ordaineth, eſtabliſheth, and enacteth, That the meaſure of a Buſhell containe viii. gallons of Wheat, and that euery gallon containe viii. li. of Wheat, of Troy weight, and euery li. containe xii. vnces of Troy weight, and euery vnce containe xx. ſterlings, and euery ſterling be of the weight of xxxii. cornes of Wheat, that grew in the midſt of the eare of Wheat, according to the old Law of this Land. And that it pleaſeth the Kings highneſſe to make a Standard of a Buſhell and a gallon after the ſaid aſſiſe, to remaine in his ſaid Treaſury for euer: and from henceforth the ſaid new Buſhels and gallons lately ſent forth be not vſed nor occupied for no meaſures, but that they be ſent againe to the Kings Receit by the Feaſt of Whitſontide next comming, at the coſts and charges of the ſaid Cities, Boroughes, and Townes, hauing the ſaid Buſhels and Gallons in keeping, vpon paine of x.li. to be forfeited to the King: the ſame Buſhels and Gallons ſo ſent againe into the Kings Receit, to be broken, and with the ſtuffe and metall of the ſame Buſhels and Gallons, other new Buſhels & Gallons, by the aduice of the Treaſurer and vndertreaſurer of England for the time being, before the Feaſt of All Saints next comming, to be made and ſyſed according to the ſaid Buſhell and Gallon, which by this preſent Act is ordained to be made, and to remaine in the ſaid Treaſury, at the coſts and charges of the ſame Cities, Boroughes, and Townes. And that euery City, Borough, and Towne within this Realme, which now haue or ſhould haue had, by reaſon of the ſaid Act made in the ſaid xi. yeare, any of the ſaid new Buſhels or Gallons, doe conuey and carry, before the Feaſt of S. Andrew next comming, into euery of the ſame Citie, Borough, and Towne, a Buſhell and a Gallon newly to be made, as is aforeſaid, at the coſts & charges of the ſame City, Borough, and Towne, there to remaine: and all other Buſhels, Gallons, and Meaſures, which be to be made after the forme by this Act ordained, ſhall be marked and ordered after the forme & effect of the ſaid Act, made the ſaid xi. yeare: and in the meane ſeaſon to vſe ſuch Buſhels & Gallons as haue beene vſed laſt afore the comming downe of the ſaid new Buſhels and Gallons, and before the making of the ſaid Statute in the ſaid xi. yeare: and that all penalties in the firſt Act expreſſed, be of none effect vntill the Feaſt of Candlemas, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God M.CCCC.lxxxvii. & after the ſame Feaſt, the ſame Act made in the ſame xi. yere, to ſtand in full ſtrength, with his penalties, vpon the Buſhell & Gallons new to be made, as it ſhould haue done vpon the ſaid new Buſhels and Gallons made afore the making of this preſent Act, if this Act had not been made. And that it be ordained by the ſaid authoritie, That after the ſaid new Buſhels and Gallons be made according to this preſent Act, that all other Buſhels & Gallons of Braſſe, remaining as well in the ſaid Treaſury, as in all other places of England, before the Feaſt of Chriſtmas next comming, be dampned and broken, vpon paine of xx.li. to be leuied vpon euery Citie, Borough, and Towne, or any other place, hauing the keeping of the common meaſures, that keep ſtill any other Buſhell or Gallon vnbroken & not dampned of Braſſe, then is ordained to be made by this preſent Act. St.11.H.7.4.

The weights & meaſures ſent to ſeuerall Cities &c. by the Statute of 11.H.7.4. being defectiue, ſhalbe broken and new ſent.

All other Buſhels and Gallons ſhall be broken.

VVHere abominable and wilfull prepenſed Murders be by the Lawes of God & naturall reaſon forbidden, and are to be eſchewed, yet not the leſſe, many & diuers vnreaſonable and deteſtable perſons, lacking grace, wilfully commit Murder, to the high diſpleaſure of God, and contrary to all the Lawes aboueſaid, and moreouer, againſt their naturall and obliged duty, wilfully commit purpenſed Murder, in ſlaying their Maiſter, or their immediate Soueraign, vnder whom he or they be, or owe obedience, in truſt to eſchew the perill and execution of the Law by the benefit of their Clergie: In hope whereof, of late one James Grame, late of London yeoman, wilfully aſſented and purpenſed the Murder of one Richard Tracy Gentleman, then his maiſter, by him & his purpenſed aſſent, the xix. day of Frebruarie laſt paſt, at Brentwood, in the County of Eſſex, murdred and ſlaine, to the right perilous enſample of other euill diſpoſed: Wherefore in auoiding of like miſchiefes to enſue, by the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled & by authority of the ſame, be it enacted, That the ſaid James Grame, for the murder of the ſaid Richard Tracy his late maiſter be attainted of the ſaid murder as a Felon that hath offended in pety Treaſon, and that the ſame James for the ſame murder, ſhall be drawne and hanged in ſuch maner and forme, as by the Law of this Land hath béen vſed in ſuch caſes as perſons being no clerks, doing like murder, haue or ought to be puniſhed, any priuiledge of his Clergy, or his demand of the ſame, notwithſtanding. Where Pewter and Braſſe ſhall be ſold: The marking, weighing, and ſearching of them.

Humbly and lamentably ſhewen & complaine vnto your moſt abundant Grace, your humble ſubiects the Pewterers and Braſiers of your City of London and Yorke, & of all other places of this your Realme. That where many ſimple and euill diſpoſed perſons of this your Realme of England, vſing the ſaid crafts, daily goe about this your Realme from village, from towne, and from houſe to houſe, as well in Woods and Foreſts, as in other places to buy Pewter and Braſſe, and that knowing theeues and other pickers that ſteale as well Pewter and Braſſe belonging to your Highneſſe, and vnder your marke, and to the Lords Spirituall and Temporal, as to other your ſubiects of this your Realme, bring ſuch ſtollen veſſels vnto them in ſuch hid places to ſell, and ſell it for little or nought, and about they bring it into Priuy places, or into corners of Cities or townes, & there ſell much part of it to ſtrangers, which cary it ouer the Sea by ſtealth. Alſo the ſaid perſons ſo going about, and diuers other vſing the ſaid crafts, vſe to make new veſſels, and to mixe good metall and bad together, and make it naught, and ſell it for good ſtuffe, where indeed the ſtuffe and metall thereof is not worth the fourth part that it is ſold for, to the great hurt, deceit and loſſe of your ſubiects. Alſo diuers perſons vſing the ſaid crafts, haue deceiueable and vntrue beames and ſcales, that one of them would ſtand euen with twelue, pound weight at one end, againſt a quarter of a pound at the other end, to the ſingular profit of themſelues, and to the great deceit and loſſe of your ſubiects buyers and ſellers with them. For reformation of the premiſſes, it would pleaſe your Highnes of your moſt abundant grace, with the aduice of the Lords Spirituall and Temporal, and the Cōmons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame to enact and ſtabliſh, that no perſon or perſons, vſing the ſaid crafts of Pewterers & Braſiers, from henceforth ſhal ſell, or change any Pewter or braſſe, new or old at any place within your Realme, but onely in open Faires or Markets, or in their dwelling houſes, except they be deſired by the ſaid buyers of ſuch ware, vpon paine of forfeiture to our Soueraigne Lord the King for euery ſuch default x.li. VVHereas in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the Tueſday, the morrow next after Al ſoules day, the xiii. yeare of the raigne of King Henry the fourth, among other things it was enacted, ordained & ſtabliſhed, that if any ryot, aſſembly or rout of people againſt the law, were made in any part of the Realme, that the Iuſtices of the Peace, thrée or two of them at the laſt, & the Sherife or Vnderſherife of the County where ſuch riot, aſſembly, or rout ſhould be done, after the ſame Statute, ſhould come with the power of the Shire (if néed ſhould be) to arreſt them, and them ſhould arreſt, & the ſame Iuſtices & Sherife or Vnderſherife, ſhould haue power to record that which they ſhould finde ſo done in their preſence againſt the law, and that by the record of the ſame Iuſtices and Sherife or Vnderſherife, the ſame treſpaſſers and miſdoers ſhould be conuicted in manner and forme as it is contained in the Statute of forcible entries: with diuers other Articles touching & concerning the premiſſes, as in the ſame Statute made the ſaid xiii. yeare more plainly at large it appeareth, which Statute is thought good and neceſſary: wherefore by the aduiſe and aſſent of his Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliameut aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame. Be it therefore ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that the ſaid Act made in the ſaid xiii. year of King Henry the fourth, concerning ryots, aſſemblies and routs of people, and all and euery Article & Articles compriſed in the ſame, and alſo all other eſtatutes before this time made concerning the puniſhment of riotors, at the time of the making of this Act being in force, frō henceforth ſtand in their force, and be duely put in execution, after the tenors and purports of the ſame. And foraſmuch as in the ſaid Statute, made in the ſaid xiii. yeare, it is not expreſſed of what ſufficiency the Iurors impanelled ſhould be, or what iſſues they ſhould loſe if they appeare not, nor no mention therein made of any puniſhment of the maintainors and embraceors of the Iurors, that ſo ſhall be empanelled, ſhould haue for their miſdemeanors, if any be: It is therfore furthermore enacted by the ſaid authority in this preſent Parliament, that if any ryot, rout, or vnlawfull aſſembly be committed & done at any time after the firſt day of May next comming, within this Realme of England, that the Sherife hauing a precept directed to him, ſhal return xxiiii. perſons dwelling within the Shire where ſuch riot, rout, or vnlawfull aſſembly ſhall bée ſo committed and done, whereof euery of them ſhall haue lands and tenements within the ſame ſhire to the yearly value of xx.s. of Charter land or fréehold, or xxvi.s.viii.d. of copyhold, or of both, ouer and aboue all charges, for to enquire of the ſaid riot, rout, or vnlawfull aſſembly. And he ſhall return vpon euery perſon, ſo by him impanelled, in iſſues at the firſt day, xx.s. and at the ſecond day xl.s. if that they appeare not, and be ſworne to enquire of the premiſſes at the firſt day. And if default be found in the Sherife or Vnderſherife, for returning of other perſons, not being of the ſaid ſufficiency, or returne not iſſues in forme aforeſaid, that then the ſaid Sherife ſhall forfeit to our Soueraigne Lord the King for either, xx.li. And if the ſaid riot, rout or vnlawful aſſembly be not found by the ſaid Iury, by reaſon of any maintenance or embracery of the ſaid Iurors, that then the ſame Iuſtices and the Sherife or Vnderſherife ouer and aboue all ſuch certificat that they muſt, & be bound to make, according to the ſaid Statute made the ſaid xiii. yeare, ſhal in the ſame certificat certifie the names of the maintainors and embraceors in that behalfe, if any be, with their miſdemeanors that they know, vpon pain of euery of the ſaid Iuſtices and Sherife or Vnderſherife to forfeit xx.li. if the ſame Iuſtices and Sherife or Vnderſherife haue no reaſonable excuſe, for non certifying of the ſame: which certificate ſo made ſhall be of like force and effect in the law, as if the matter contained in the ſame were duely found by the verdit of xii. men. A Confirmation of part of the Statute of 11. H. 7. 11. and a Repeale of the reſidue.

Prayen the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that wheras the Citie of Norwich is an ancient Citie, and in the ſame Citie without time of minde among other Crafts hath béene vſed a certaine Craft called Shermans craft, & the artificers of the ſame haue alway vſed by the ſame time, to ſheare as well Worſteds, Stamins and Fuſtians, as all other woollen cloth: and all apprentiſes of the ſame craft haue béen taken and bound to Shermans craft onely, and by reaſon thereof they haue had and enioyed their liberties and fréedome in their occupation by the name of the Shermans craft generall, and none otherwiſe, and there haue euery yeare vſed within the ſaid Citie to be choſen and ſworne two Wardens of the ſame craft, and all defaults by the ſaid Wardens in their craft found, to be preſented before the Mayor of the ſaid citie for the time being, and the offendors in that behalfe to be puniſhed according to the cuſtome of the ſame Citie, till now of late time diuers perſons for their ſingular profit, contrary to the common weal of the ſaid City, faining to haue a craft of Worſted ſhearing, ſeparate from the ſaid Craft of Shermans craft, ſurmitted a bil into the parliament holdē at Weſtm. the xiiii. day of October, the xi. yeare of the raigne of our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, by force of which pretended bill, it was in the ſaid Parliament enacted and ordained, that from henceforth no man ſhould take vpon them to ſheare Worſteds within the ſaid Citie, except hée had béene apprentice to the ſaid occupation of Worſted ſhering, by the ſpace of ſeuen yeares, or ſuch other as the Maſters of the ſaid occupation within the ſaid City for the time being, approuing their cunning, with the aduice of the Mayor for the time being in the ſaid City, will admit. And furthermore in the end of the ſaid Act it was prouided, that the ſaid occupation of Worſted ſhearing ſhall not make nor doe to be made any ordinance concerning the ſaid occupation among themſelues, but ſuch as the Mayor of the ſaid City for the time being with his brethren Aldermen, ſhall thinke neceſſary and profitable for the weale of the kings ſubiects, as more plainly in the ſaid Act amongſt other things

In conſideration of all which premiſſes, it may pleaſe the King our Soueraigne Lord of his moſt abundant grace, and for the great zeale his Grace hath to the vniuerſall weale of his ſubiects in this his Realme, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, & of the Commons in this Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, to ordeine, ſtabliſh, and enact, that the ſaid Act made the xiiii. day of October, the xi. yeare aforeſaid, in euery thing touching and concerning the ſaid Worſted ſhearing, or the ſaid pretended craft of Worſted ſhearing only, be vtterly voyd, repealed, adnulled, & of no force ne effect. No fee ſhall be due to a Coroner where any perſon ſhall be ſlaine by miſadventure. St.3.Ed.1.10.

And that the Iuſtices of Aſſiſes, and Iuſtices of Peace within the County where any ſuch default of the Coroners be, haue authority and power to enquire thereof and determine the ſame, as well by examination, as by preſentment.

The I. of Aſſiſe and P. may inquire of and determine the defaults of Coroners.

Lands lett to farme to him that offereth to trauerſe an office.

A rehearſall of the Statute of 8. H. 6. 16. touching letting to ferme lands ſeiſed into the K. hands vpon an enqueſt of office

WHereas by a Statute made the eight yeare of the raigne of King Henry the ſixt, it is ordained among other things, That no Lands and Tenements ſeiſed into the Kings hands vpon enqueſts taken afore the Eſcheator or Commiſſioners, ſhall in no wiſe be let or granted to ferme by the Chancellor of England, or any other Officer of the Kings, whatſoeuer he be, till the ſame enqueſts and verdits be returned plainly into the Chancery, or into the Eſchequer: but that all ſuch Lands and Tenements ſhall abide wholy and continually in the Kings hands, vnto the ſame enqueſts and verdits be returned. But if it be ſo, that he or they, that bee grieued by the ſame enqueſts, or put out of their Lands and Tenements, come into the Chancery, and offer to trauers the ſame enqueſts, and offer to take the ſame Lands and Tenements to ferme: and if they ſo doe, then the ſame Lands and Tenements be committed vnto them, if they ſhew good euidence, prouing their trauers to be true, and finde ſuerty after the forme of the ſaid Statute, as in the ſame Statute more at large appeareth.

And notwithſtanding the ſaid Statute diuers Eſcheators and Commiſſioners which haue taken ſuch enqueſts, after the death of the Kings ſubiects, of their Couin, to the intent to put them that had cauſe of trauers to the verdits of the ſaid enqueſts from the ferme of the premiſſes; would in the time of vacation put into the Chancery, or into the Eſchequer, their ſaid Office by them taken, becauſe the moneth ſhould paſſe before the beginning of the Terme next enſuing, by reaſon whereof they that ſhould of right haue the ferme vpon their trauers according to the true entent of the ſaid Statute, were put from the ſame fermes, contrary to the right and good conſcience.

For remedy whereof bee it ordained, enacted, and eſtabliſhed, by authority of this preſent Parliament, that from henceforth, After ſuch Office found afore any Eſcheator or Commiſſioner, put into the Chancery or the Eſchequer, if any perſon or perſons, which will tender a trauers to the ſaid Office, and deſireth to haue the Lands contained in the ſame Office to ferme and findeth ſurety, and ſheweth euidence to the Chancellor of England (for the time being) according to the Statute afore rehearſed, come into the Chancery within three months next after the ſame Office ſo put into the Chancery or Eſchequer, that he be then by the ſaid Chancellor thereto admitted, and that then all other Patents or Grants hereafter to be made thereof within the ſaid three moneths ended, be void and of none effect the ſaid Statute made the viii. yeare of the raigne of King Henry the firſt or any other Statute made to the contrary notwithſtanding. St. 36. *E.*3.13. 8 *H.6.*16. 18.H.6.6.

Cap. V.

The penalties of a Captaine for abridging the number of Souldiers, or detaining their wages: and of a Souldier departing, &c.

Coke

FOraſmuch as the King our Soueraigne Lord entendeth, by the grace of God, to ſend ouer the ſea a great Armie, truſting therby not only to preſerue this his Realme in his ancient fame, and honour, but alſo to ſet in perfect peace and tranquillitie his ſubiects of the ſame, and the better to be diſpoſed to ſerue God. Howbeit many times by the inordinate couetouſneſſe of Captaines retained with Princes afore this time, great part of the number of Souldiers, for whom ſuch Captaines haue endented with Princes at time of néed, haue lacked of the number of Souldiers, wherby great ieopardy hath enſued, and irrecuperable damages may enſue, if remedie therefore be not ſéene and had. Bee it therefore ordained by authority of this preſent Parliament, That if any Captaine be retained or hereafter ſhal be, to ſerue the King vpon the ſea, or beyond the ſea in feat of Warre, which haue not his, or their whole, and perfect number of men, and Souldiers, according as he ſhall be retained with the King, or giue not them their full wages, without abridgement, as he ſhall receiue of the King for them: he ſhall for ſuch default forfeit to the King all his Goods and Cattels, and his body to priſon. And that euery Captaine, petit Captaine, and all other hauing vnder them retinue of Souldier or Souldiers at the Kings wages, ſhall (vpon the pain aforeſaid) pay to the retinue of Souldier or Souldiers, and euery of the ſame, the wages ratably as is allowed vnto them by the King our Soueraigne Lord, or the Treaſurer of his Warres, without leſſing or withdrawing of any part thereof. And for as long time as they ſhall receiue wages for them, this paiment to be made to the ſaid retinues, and euery Souldier of the ſame, of their Captaines, and petit Captaines, alwayes within ſixe dayes next and immediately after that the ſaid Captaine, petit Captaine or other, ſhall haue receiued their wages of the King, or of the Treaſurer of his Warres, or of their Lords or Maſters.

The perill entring of Captaines lacking their prefixed number of Souldiers.

A Captaine ſhall haue all his Souldiers and pay them al their wages.

It is felony for a Souldier to depart from his Captaine, without licence. St. H. 6. 19. 5. El. 5.

And if any Souldier, being no Captain immediately retained with the King, which hereafter ſhall be in wages, and retained, or take any Preſt to ſerue the King vpon the Sea, or vpon the land, or beyond the ſea, depart out of the Kings ſeruice, without licence of the Kings Lieutenant there, that ſuch departing be taken, déemed, and adiudged Felony. And that hee ſo offending ſuffer for the ſaid offence puniſhment and execution of Felony.

Iuſtices of P. may inquire of, heare, and determine theſe offences.

And foraſmuch as his offence ſtretcheth to the hurt and ieopardy of the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Nobles of the Realme, & of all the Common weale thereof, that therfore he or they ſo offending (not being within orders of holy Church) enioy not the benefit of his Clergy. And that it be ordained by the ſaid authority, that the Iuſtices of the Peace of euery Shire of England, where any ſuch offendors be taken, haue power to enquire of the ſaid offences, & the ſame to heare and determine, as they doe and may doe of Felonies, Treſpaſſes, & other offences expreſſed in the Kings Commiſſion to them made, as though the ſaid offences were done in the ſame Shire. And alſo that the ſaid departing of ſuch Souldiers, and alſo their retainors, if it be trauerſed, be tryed in the ſame Shire, where they be for ſuch cauſes arreſted and arraigned.

The Captaine ſhall be diſcharged if his Souldiers die or depart from him.

Prouided alway that no Captaine be charged by this Act for lacke of his number retained, as is abouesaid, whoſe Souldiers ſhal happen to die, or otherwiſe depart not in the default of the Captaine, ſo that the ſaid Captaine, if he be at land wages, ſhew the departing or lacking of his Souldier within tenne dayes after the lacking of the ſaid Souldier, vnto the Kings Lieutenant there and to the Treaſurer of the Warres. Or if the Captaine be at the ſea wages, if he ſhew the departing or lacking of the Souldier ſo lacking, to the Admirall of the Nauy, where hee is retained at the next méeting with the ſaid Admirall. Prouided alway that this Act extend not to any Captaines or Souldiers, that now be, or hereafter ſhall be retained within the Townes of Caleis, Hammes, and Guiſnes, Riſebanke, Barwicke, and Wales, or any of them, and the Marches of the ſame.

This doth not extend to the houſhould Seruants of a Captaine.

Prouided alway that this Act be not preiudiciall nor hurtful to the ſaid Captaines, petit Captaines, nor any other, hauing vnder them retinue of Souldiers, nor any of them, for non payment of the Kings wages to their houſhold Seruants and other, to whom they daily finde and giue meate and drinke during the ſaid ſeruice of Warre. Cap. VII.

A reſtraint of the tranſporting of woollen Cloth before it be Fulled, Rowed, Sherne, &c.

Where at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ix. day of Nouember, the third yeare of the raigne of our late Soueraigne Lord the King Henry the vii. (whoſe ſoule God pardon) it was ſhewed by Shermen, Fullers, and other Artificers, that ſhould liue and obtaine their needy ſuſtentation by meane of Drapery, made and draped within this Realme, aſwell throughout the ſame Realme as within the City of London, that whereas in a Stat. made the vii. year of the raigne of King Edward the iiii. amongſt other it was contained, that no perſon (denizen nor ſtranger) ſhould cary or doe to be caried to any parties beyond the Sea, any woollen yarne nor cloth vnfulled, but the woollen yarn to be made in this Realme, ſhould be wouen in the ſame: and alſo all cloth, within the ſame made ſhould be fulled and fully wrought within the ſame, before that any of the ſame ſhould be had or caried out of this Realme, vpon paine of forfetture of the very value of ſuch yarne not wouen, and cloth not fulled, had or carried out of this Realme: The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be leuied to the vſe of the King, and the other halfe to him or them that ſhould eſpie, or make proofe of any ſuch yarne not wouen, or cloth not fulled, caried to any place beyond the ſea. And for aſmuch as in the ſaid Stat. of K. Edward there is no expreſſe mention made, that the ſaid clothes ſhould bee rowed and ſhorne before that they bee caried and conueyd out of this Realme, whereby the ſaid poore Commons of the crafts aforeſaid might be ſet in labour and occupation: therefore the ſaid clothes then were, and yet beene in great number and plenty caried and conueyed out of this Realme vnrowed and vnſhorne, into the parties of beyond the Sea, aſwel by Denizens as by ſtrangers, whereby outlandiſh nations with the ſame drapery beene ſet to labour and occupation, to their great inriching, and the poore Commons of the crafts aforeſaid through all this Realme, which of naturall reaſon (as the Kings true liege men) ſhould haue and obtaine their needy ſuſtentation and liuing by meanes of the ſame drapery, for lacke of ſuch occupation, daily fall in great number into idleneſſe, and pouerty, to their vtter deſtruction, if it ſhould then any longer continue, whereupon our ſaid Soueraigne Lord King Henry the vii. by the aduice of his Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the prayers of the Commons in his ſaid Parliament aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that no ſtranger nor denizen ſhould cary, or make to be caried out of this Realm any woollen clothes, but that they before bee barbed, rowed, and ſhorne within the ſame Realme, for the reliefe & ſetting a worke of the ſaid poore Commons of the crafts aforeſaid, vpon paine of the forfeiture limited in the ſaid Stat. of K. Edward, made vpon cloth caried out of this Realme not fulled, to be diuided in manner and forme as in the ſame Statute is contained. So that cloth called veſſes, raies, ſayling clothes, & all other clothes cõmonly ſold at xl. s. or vnder, be not compriſed in the ſaid Act, made the ſaid third year of the raign of our ſaid late Soueraign Lord K. Henry the vii. as by the ſame Act more plainly appeareth. And for lacke of due execution of the ſaid Acts, little effect or profit hath followed or growne of the ſame to the ſame poore crafts men, being naturall ſubiects, which for lack of worke and occupation daily fall in idleneſſe and pouerty.

The inconueniences enſuing by tranſporting of cloth vnrowed and vnſhorne

Be it therefore ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that the ſaid Acts and ordinances may ſtand and continue in their full ſtrength and vertue. And that they from henceforth bee duely put in execution, according to the tenor, purport, and effect of the ſame, and of either of them. And that euery perſon that will ſue for the ſame forfeitures, be admitted to his Action of debt, by bill or information in any of the Kings Courts of Record, where the ſame may be determined after the courſe of the cõmon law, and that the defendant in ſuch behalfe in no wiſe be admitted to wage his law, nor that any protection or eſſoin be in the ſame allowable. Neuertheleſſe for that the draping and making of ſuch clothes called veſſes, raies, ſayling clothes, and other clothes, which at the time of making of the eſtatute of K. Henry the vii. were commonly ſold at xl. s. or vnder, the maker thereof and clothier of times paſſed, and now is, & hereafter is like to be at greater charge, about the draping and making of the ſame, and alſo of all other clothes, for the wooll is of farre greater price, and alſo the coſts and charges for the workemanſhip of ſuch clothes is farre more chargeable, than it was at the time of making of the ſaid eſtatute. By whom euery Phyſition and Surgeon ſhall be allowed.

TO the King our Soueraigne Lord, & to all the Lords Spirituall and Temporal, & Cõmons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled. Foraſmuch as the ſcience and cunning of phyſick and Surgery (to the perfect knowledge whereof, be requiſite both great learning and ripe experience) is daily within this Realme exerciſed by a great multitude of ignorant perſons: of whom the greater part haue no manner of inſight in the ſame, nor in any other kind of learning, ſome alſo can no letters on the booke, ſo far forth that common artificers, as Smiths, Weauers, & women boldly, and cuſtomably take vpon them great cures, and things of great difficulty: in the which they partly vſe ſorcery and witchcraft, partly apply ſuch medicines vnto the diſeaſe, as be very noyous, and nothing meete therefore, to the high diſpleaſure of God, great infamy to the faculty, and the grieuous hurt, damage, and deſtruction of many of the Kings liege people: moſt eſpecially of them that cannot diſcerne the vncunning from the cunning. And that the ſaid Mayor, with the Maſter aud Wardens of the ſaid myſtery or craft of Tallowchaundlers, for the time being, ſhall truely ſearch and ouerſee, that the ſame Oyles to be put to ſale, be not mixt nor altered from their right kinds, but that they be good and lawfull as they ought to be. And that it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaid Mayor, with the ſaid Maſter and Wardens for the time being, to damme, auoid, and vtterly to caſt away, all ſuch Oyles as they ſhall finde defectiue, or falſely or deceiueably mixed, and altered from their right kindes, as is aforeſaid, without any let, or perturbance of any perſon, or perſons whatſoeuer they are, or ſhal be. A remedy to recouer Iſſues forfaited by Iurors in London.

St.11.H.7.21.

VVHere at a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the eleuenth year of the reigne of King Henry the ſeuenth, for the good due adminiſtration and expedition of Juſtice, it was ordained, and among other things enacted, That euery perſon hereafter to be empanelled or ſummoned to appeare in any Jury or Enqueſt, in any Court within the City of London, before any Judges of the ſame City, making default at the firſt ſummons, ſhould loſe and forfeit xii.d. And at the ſecond default ii.s. And ſo at euery ſuch default after that, the iſſues and penalties to be doubled. And alſo ſuch iſſues loſt in the Mayors court ſhould be forfeited, leuied and perceiued to the vſe and behoofe of the Mayor and the communaltie of the ſaid Citie. And that all ſuch iſſues loſt in the Sherifes Court or Courts, ſhould be forfeited, leuyed, and perceiued to the vſe of the Sherifes of the ſame City, for the time being, toward their fee ferme, as by the ſame Act more plainly doth appeare: in the which Act it is not expreſſed, how or by what meanes the foreſaid iſſues ſo loſt and forfeited, for none appearance of the perſons ſo empanelled & ſummoned, ſhould be leuyed. The lacke whereof is the cauſe, that ſuch perſons as haue beene impanelled and ſummoned, as well for the King, as betweene party and party (being ſubſtantiall and indifferent) haue made many times default, and would not appeare. And ſo it remaineth in like miſchiefe as it was before the making of the foreſaid Act, to the great let of Juſtice, and the delay as well in the Kings cauſes, as in other cauſes betweene parties: Wherefore for the good execution of the ſaid Statute and perfit remedy in this behalfe to be had:

Be it eſtabliſhed, ordained, and enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That for all ſuch iſſues (in forme aforeſaid) hereafter to be loſt or forfeited in the Mayors Court, it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaid Mayor, and to his ſucceſſors, to diſtraine, and the ſame diſtreſſe to retaine till he or they be ſatisfied of the ſaid iſſues. And in like maner that it ſhall be lawfull to the foreſaid Sherifes and their ſucceſſors, to diſtraine for ſuch iſſues loſt in their Court or Courts, and the ſaid diſtreſſe to retaine till they be ſatisfied of the ſaid iſſues.

Be it ordained and enacted by the ſaid authoritie of this preſent Parliament, That the Sherifes of London (for the time being) haue full authoritie, and power, to returne impanells, or araies of all Actions, and ſuites now depending, or that ſhall depend in any of the ſaid Courts, or Eſchequer, perſons being Citizens, hauing goods to the value of C. marke, or aboue, to trie the iſſues ioyned, or to be ioyned in euery ſuch Action or ſuit. None ſhall take any thing for ſealing of Cloth of Gold, ſilver, veluet, &c.

VVhere at a Parliament holden in the twelfth yeare of the raigne of King Edward the fourth amongſt other, it was oꝛdeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, That the Collectoꝛs of the Subſidy and the Comptroulers ſhould at all times be ready when they ſhould be required, to ſeale any manner of Cloth of gold, ſiluer, baudekin, veluet, damaſke, ſaten, ſarſenet, tartron, chamblet, and euerie other Cloth of ſilke, and euery coꝛſe of ſilke and gold, & euery coꝛſe of ſilke of the making beyond the ſea, and the ſame merchandiſes ſhould ſeale at euery time when they ſhould be required without delay, tarying, oꝛ any thing foꝛ their ſealing to take, by any meane, vpon the pain of foꝛfeiture to the owner of ſuch merchandiſes xx.s. by euery of the ſaid Collectoꝛs and Comptrollers at euerie time when they refuſe to ſeale any ſuch marchandiſes after ſuch requeſt made, oꝛ take any thing foꝛ ſealing of any ſuch Merchandiſes, as by the ſame Act amongſt other things moꝛe plainly appeareth. Sithen the making of which Act the ſaid Collectoꝛs and Comptrollers, and their Clerkes, not fearing the penaltie limited in the ſame Act, haue vſed, and daily vſe to take foꝛ ſealing of euerie pœce of the ſame Marchandizes, aboue rehearſed ii.d. to the great hurt and damage of the Marchants owners of the ſame. And foꝛaſmuch as the foꝛeſaid penaltie, expꝛeſſed in the ſaid Statute, is but xx.s. therefoꝛe the ſaid Collectoꝛs, Controulers, noꝛ their Clerkes feare not to runne in ieopardy of the ſame: wherefoꝛe be it oꝛdained and enacted by the King our Soueraigne Loꝛd, the Loꝛds Spirituall and Tempoꝛall, and the Commons in this pꝛeſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoꝛitie of the ſame, That from henceforth the Collectoꝛs and Controulers of the ſaid Subſidie, noꝛ their Clerkes, noꝛ any of them, take foꝛ the ſealing of any pœce of the ſaid merchandiſes (aboue rehearſed) any thing, vpon paine of foꝛfeiture at euerie time xx. li.

The cauſe why the Statute of 12.Ed.4.3. is not put in execution

No Collectoꝛ oꝛ Controuler of the Subſidie ſhall take any thing foꝛ ſealing of Cloth of gold, &c.

And alſo be it enacted by the ſame authoꝛitie, that if, and as often as the ſame Collectoꝛs and Controulers, oꝛ any of them, vnreaſonably delay, oꝛ tary the ſaid Merchants, oꝛ any of them, foꝛ and about the ſealing of the ſame Merchandiſes: that then and ſo often the ſame Collectoꝛs and Controulers, and euery of them, ſo vnreaſonably delaying and tarying the ſaid Merchants, oꝛ any of them, to foꝛfeit foꝛ the ſame xl.s. the one moitie of euery of the ſaid penalties (ſo foꝛfeited) to be to the King our Soueraigne Loꝛd, and the other moity thereof to the Merchant ſo grieued, that will ſue foꝛ the ſame by way of Infoꝛmation in the Kings Eſchequer, oꝛ by Action oꝛ bill of debt after the oꝛder of Common Law, as in other Actions of debt is vſed: in which Action the Defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his Law, noꝛ pꝛotection, noꝛ eſſoine to be to him allowed in the ſame ſuit, foꝛ the ſaid foꝛfeiture.

The Collectoꝛ oꝛ &c. ſhall not delaie the Merchant to ſeale his Cloth of gold.

The goodneſſe of Pewter and Braſſe, and in what places it ſhall be ſold or changed.

FOꝛ as much as a certaine Act was made & eſtabliſhed, in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the nineteenth yere of the raign of the late moſt famous King your Father Henry the ſeuenth (whom God pardon) concerning Peuterers and Bꝛaſiers, hauking and walking about the countries, and alſo concerning falſe beames, ſcales and weights, with a pꝛouiſion foꝛ caſting of fine mettall and of perfit goodneſſe: which Act was made to endure to the next Parliament, the tenour whereof hereafter enſueth.

That where many ſimple and euill diſpoſed perſons of this your Realme of England (vſing the ſaid craftes) daily goe about this your Realme from village, from towne, and from houſe to houſe, as well in Woods and Foreſts, as other places, to buy Pewter and Braſſe, and that knowing theeues and other pickers, that ſteale aſwell Pewter and Braſſe, belonging to your Highneſſe, and vnder your marke, and to the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, as to your ſubiects of this your Realme, bring ſuch ſtollen veſſels vnto them in ſuch hid places to ſell, and ſell it for little or nought, and about they bring it to priuie places, or into corners of cities or townes, and there ſell much part of it to ſtrangers, the which carrie it ouer the Sea by ſtealth. Alſo the ſaid perſons (ſo going about) and diuers other vſing the ſaid crafts, vſe to make new veſſels, and mixe good mettall and bad together, and make it nought, and ſell it for good ſtuffe, where indeed the ſtuffe and mettall thereof is not worth the fourth part that it is ſold for, to the great hurt, deceit, and loſſe of your ſubiects. Alſo diuers perſons, vſing the ſaid crafts, haue deceiueable and vntrue beames and ſcales, that one of them will ſtand euen with xii. li. weight at the one end againſt a quarter of a pound at the other end, to the ſingular aduantage of themſelues, and to the great deceipt and loſſe of your ſubiects, buyers, and ſellers with them. For reformation of the premiſſes, it would pleaſe your Highneſſe of your moſt abundant grace, with the aduice of your Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, to enact, and ſtabliſh, That no perſon nor perſons, vſing the ſaid crafts of Pewterers and Braſiers, from henceforth ſhall ſell or change any Pewter or Braſſe, new or old, at any place or places within this your Realme, but onely in open Faires or Markets, or in their owne dwelling houſes, but if they be deſired by the ſaid buyers of ſuch wares, vpon paine of forfeiture to our ſoueraigne Lord the King for euerie ſuch default, x. li.

The tenour of the Stat. of 19. H. 7. 6. concerning Pewterers.

In what onely places Pewter and Braſſe ſhall be ſold or changed.

Alſo by the ſame authoritie it may be enacted and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon nor perſons, of what condition, or degree ſoeuer he, or they be, from henceforth within the citie of London and Yorke, or without, either caſt, or worke any Pewter veſſels, or Braſſe at any place, or places within this your Realme, but that it be as good fine mettall, as is the Pewter, and Braſſe caſt, and wrought after the perfit goodneſſe of the ſame, within the citie of London, and by the ſtatutes of the ſame owe to be, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch Pewter and Braſſe, ſo caſt & wrought of worſe Pewter or Braſſe then ought to be wrought in the ſame cities: the one halfe of euerie ſuch forfeiture to be to the vſe of your Highneſſe, and the other halfe to the vſe of the finders thereof.

Of what goodneſſe Pewter & Braſſe ought to be.

Prouided alway, that this forfeiture in no wiſe ſtretch, ne extend, to Braſſe or Pewter, being in the poſſeſſion of any perſon, other then the workers of the ſame, or ſuch as haue the ſame to ſell and being of the craft or myſtery. Alſo that it may by the ſame authority be enacted, and eſtabliſhed, that no maner of perſon or perſons, of what degree, or condition ſoeuer he or they be, from henceforth make no hollow wares of Pewter, that is to ſay, Salts and Pots, that is made of pewter called ley metall, but that it may be after the aſſiſe of Pewter ley metall wrought within the city of London. And that the makers of ſuch wares ſhall mark the ſame with ſeuerall marks of their owne, to the intent that the makers of ſuch wares ſhall auow the ſame wares by them (as is aboueſaid) to be wrought. And that all and euery ſuch wares, not ſufficiently made and wrought, and not marked in forme aboueſaid, found in the poſſeſſion of the ſame maker or ſeller, to be forfeited: and if the ſame ware be ſold, the ſaid maker to forfeit the value of the ſame ſo vnlawfully wrought and ſold, the one halfe of the ſaid wares, or the value thereof, to be to the vſe of your Highneſſe, and the other halfe to be to the vſe of the finder or ſearchers of the ſame.

Hollow wares made of Pewter ley mettall.

The makers of Pewter veſſell ſhall marke the ſame.

Alſo that it may by the ſaid authority be enacted, and eſtabliſhed, that if any perſon or perſons hereafter, vſing buying and ſelling of Pewter and Braſſe, that hereafter occupy any deceiueable of falſe beames or weights of the ſaid wares, that euery ſuch perſon or perſons vſing or occupying ſuch deceiueable and vntrue beames or weights, to forfeit xx. s. the one halfe to the King, and the other halfe to the party that therefore ſhall ſue by action of debt: and that in the ſaid action no protection, nor eſſoine ſhal be alowed. And alſo the ſaid party ſo offending ſhal forfeit his beame to him that ſhall ſeiſe it. And if the ſaid offendor or offendors be not ſufficient to pay the ſaid ſummes or ſummes by them ſo forfeited, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the Mayors, Bayliffes, or other head officers of ſuch place or places, where any ſuch offendors ſhall be found, to put them in the ſtockes, and them ſo to keepe till the next market day next adioyning, and in the market place to put them on the Pillory all the market time.

The penalty for vſing falſe beames and weights about Pewter or Braſſe.

And furthermore that it be lawfull by the ſaid authority, that the Maſter and Wardens of the ſaid craft of Pewterers within euery City and Borough of this Realme, where ſuch Wardens are, and where no ſuch Wardens are, the head Officers or Gouernors of the ſame City, or Borough to appoint certaine perſons moſt expert in knowledge of the ſame, to make ſearch within the ſaid Cities or Boroughs where they dwell. And ouer this the Iuſtices of Peace within euery Shire at the generall Seſſions holden at Michaelmas, ſhall aſſigne and appoint two certaine perſons, hauing experience therein, to make ſearch in the premiſſes, in euery part of that Searchers ſhall be appointed of Pewter and Braſſe.

Shire, as well within the Franchiſes as without, ſauing in Cities or Boroughs where ſearchers be appointed by the heads or gouernours of the ſame. And that all ſuch vnlawfull Pewter or Braſſe, as the ſaid ſearchers ſhall finde, the one halfe ſhall be to the vſe of your Grace, and the other halfe to the ſaid ſearchers. And that in the default of the ſaid Maſters and Wardens of the ſaid occupations, not ſearching in forme as is aforeſaid, and whereby that any ſuch vnlawfull metals is caſt or made, or vnlawfull weights vſed: that then it ſhall be lawfull to any perſon or perſons, hauing ſufficient cunning and knowledge in the ſaid occupations, by ouerſight of the Mayor, Bailifes, or head officers of the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, and Townes, to ſearch all the ſaid places, and to put the ſaid authority and Act in execution in forme aforeſaid. Pleaſeth it therfore your Grace and Wiſedomes, inſomuch as the ſaid Act is thought good and profitable, that it be ordained, enacted and eſtabliſhed by the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the ſaid Act may endure for euer.

The Stat. of 19.H.7.6. reherſed, confirmed, and made perpetuall.

And ouer that it be enacted by the ſaid authority, that if any vntrue or deceiueable metall, or workmanſhip of Tinne or Pewter, be founden either in platters, chargers, diſhes, ſaucers, pottingers, trenchers, baſons, flagons, bottles, pots, ſaltſels, goblets, ſpoones, cruets, or candleſtickes, or any other ſuch wares of Tinne or Pewter, whereſoeuer it be caſt, made, or wrought within this Realme or without, and brought to be ſold within the ſame Realme: that then it ſhall be lawfull to the Mayor of the City of London, and the Maſter and Wardens of the craft of Pewterers (of the ſaid City for the time being) and their deputies, to haue ſearch of the ſame within the City of London and the ſuburbs of the ſame. And that in all other Cities, Boroughs, and Townes, where any Wardens be or ſhall be, the Mayors, Bayliffes, or head Officers, and Wardens to haue like authority. And where no Wardens be, then the head Officers or Gouernors of the ſame Cities, Boroughs and Townes, to appoint certaine perſons moſt expert and cunning in knowledge of the ſame, to make ſearch within the ſaid Cities, Boroughes, & townes where they dwell. And if any ſuch new wares wrought of Tinne and Pewter, as is aforeſaid, be found defectiue, and being in the poſſeſſion of the ſeller, that then the ſame perſon or perſons that putteth any ſuch new wares of Pewter to ſale, ſhall forfeit the ſame wares, the one halfe to the vſe of our Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other halfe to the ſearchers or finders of the ſame.

Searchers ſhall be appointed of Tinne or Pewter veſſell.

Prouided alway, that this Act concerning the forfeiture, be not preiudiciall nor hurtfull to any perſon or perſons, hauing grant of our Soueraigne Lord the King, or of any of his noble progenitors by his Letters Patents of ſuch forfeiture, but that they and euery of them ſhall and may enioy the ſame according to their former graunts and liberties. This Act ſhall not be preiudiciall to the Kings grantees of Liberties.

Cap. II.

The true making of white ſtraits in Deuonſhire.

PRayen the Commons and inhabitants (cloth makers and buyers of the ſame) within the countie of Deuonſhire, that where diuers and many clothes, called white ſtraites, be, and haue beene continually made within the ſaid Countie, to the great profit of the Kings ſubiects there, the which clothes were wont to be well and ſufficiently made, and beare their breadth yard broad and halfe quarter raw, and xv. yards of length, and that no man in times paſt hath vſed to make them, but that the maker thereof hath ſet his ſpecial marke vpon euery of the ſaid clothes, ſo by him or them made, whereby euery man may know their owne clothes from other mens by reaſon of their ſaid ſeuerall markes: ſo it is that now a dayes the ſaid clothes be not ſufficiently made, ne beare their length and breadth according as they ſhould doe, ne marked with euery mans own marke, whereof great inconuenience doth dayly enſue and increaſe, to the impoueriſhing and hurting aſwel of the Kings ſubiects buyers and ſellers of the ſame, as Merchants ſtrangers. Wherefore the premiſſes conſidered, that it may be therfore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Cōmons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from the feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming no perſon make ſuch clothes (called white ſtraites) to ſell, without that it be whē it is raw, ready to be toked, of the breadth of a yard and halfe a quarter, and of length xv. yardes. And that no perſon make ſuch clothes, except hee ſet his ſpeciall marke vpon euery of the ſaid clothes, ſo by him or them made. And that no perſon vſe no marke on his clothes ſuch as any other perſon doth, and hath vſed before him, vpon paine of forfeiture of euery of the ſaid clothes, the one halfe to the King, and the other halfe to him that ſeiſeth the ſaid clothes ſo made, or marked contrary to the forme and effect afore expreſſed. Where in this preſent Parliament (before the firſt prorogation thereof) it was ordained and enacted, that no woollen cloth, aboue the price of iiii. markes ſhould be conueyed ouer the ſea vnrowed, vnbarbed and vnſhorne, vpon certain penalties in the ſame Act expreſſed more at large, which Act put in executiō ſhall not only turn to the abatements of the Kings cuſtoms, but alſo grow to the vtter vndoing of his ſubiects (cloth makers and Merchants) conueyers of the ſaid clothes. Foraſmuch as wooll in riſen of a farre greater price then it was at the making of the ſaid Act. For where a cloth was then cōmonly ſold at iiii. marks, it is now ſold for v. marks. And alſo by force of the ſaid Act the Merchants ſhould be bound to dreſſe euery white cloth aboue the value of iiii. markes on this ſide the ſea after they haue bought them, which white cloth (ſo dreſſed) when they bee brought into the partes beyond the Sea, and there by the buyers of them, dyed and put in colours, then they muſt be newly dreſſed, barbed, ſhorne, and rowed, and ſo they ſhal be thereby the leſſe in ſubſtance of themſelues, and the worſe to the ſale, and ſold for leſſe price by x. or xii. s. a peece beyond the ſea then they ſhould be if they were vndreſſed: wherfore be it ordained and enacted by like authoritie, That euery white woollen cloth ſold at v. markes and vnder, may be caried and conueyed into the parts beyond the ſea, there to bee ſold at the pleaſure of the buyers of the ſaid cloth, vnbarbed, vnſhorne, and vnrowed, any Act or Acts to the contrary made notwithſtanding. And ouer this be it ordained and enacted by the ſaid authority, that if any perſon or perſons conuey or cauſe to bee conueyed into the partes beyond the Sea any white woollen cloth vnrowed, vnbarbed, and vnſhorne aboue the value of v. marks in other forme then is aforeſaid, that thē the perſon or perſons ſo offending, ſhal forfeit the value of the ſaid cloth or clothes, ſo caried or conueyed into the partes beyond the Sea, the one moity of the ſame forfeiture to be to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other moity to any perſon which will ſue for the ſame, and that the defendant in any plea vpon any ſuch action be not admitted to wage his law, nor any protection or eſſoigne for any ſuch defendant be allowed in the ſame. None ſhall cary ouer the Sea white woollen clothes aboue the price of fiue marks vnſhorne vnrowed or vnbarbed.

Cap. IIII.

Deceipts in Worſteds auoyded.

Prayen the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that whereas Worſteds, which béene truly made, ſhorne, dyed, and calendred, as of old time haue béene accuſtomed to bée made, ſhorne, dyed, and calendred, haue béene one of the goodlieſt merchandiſe and greateſt commodities of this Realme, and not onely worne within this Realme, but alſo much worne and vſed in other Realmes. And ſo it is that now of late diuers ſtrangers beyond the Sea haue taken vpon them to drie Calender Worſteds with gummes, oyles, and preſſes, ſo that a courſe piece of Worſted, not being paſt the value of xxvi. s. viii. d. is and ſhall be made by their ſaid gummes, oyles, and preſſes to ſhew like to the value of xl. s. or better. And if the ſame Worſted ſo drie calendred, taketh any wet, incontinent it will ſhew ſpotty, and foule, and euer after continue ſtill foule, and wil not endure, to the great deceits and hurt of the wearers thereof and loſſe of the ſaid commodity: and for the ſaid deceits and falſeneſſe, the ſaid calendring is ſcorned, and abhorred in the parts beyond the Sea, ſo that no perſon do, ne ſhall vſe in thoſe partes any ſuch Worſteds to dry calandre. And alſo now of late the ſaid ſtrangers (called dry calanders) are come into this Realme, and here within the ſame vſe, the ſaid dry calandring of Worſted, to the great hurt of the ſaid Common weale and commodity of this Realme aforeſaid.

The deceit and loſſe comming by drie calendring of Worſted.

No perſon ſhall dry calender Worſted.

What perſons onely ſhall wet calander Worſteds.

The forfeitures of the offenders, who ſhall haue them, and by what meanes.

Wherefore be it enacted, ordained and eſtabliſhed by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and temporall, the Commons in this Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that no perſon ne perſons within this ſaid Realm, hereafter do take vpon him or them to dry calandre any Worſted within this ſaid Realme, vpon paine to forfeit for euery worſted, that is ſo dry calendred, one C.s. And ouer that, whereas the ſaid old calendring of Worſteds, called wet calendring, hath been vſed well and ſubſtantially in times paſt in the Citie of Norwich, and yet is by perſons hauing cunning in the ſame. Be it therefore furthermore enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed, by the authority aforeſaid, That no perſon ne perſons hereafter doe take vpon him, or them, to wet calandre any Worſted, but onely ſuch perſons as haue beene bound Apprentiſes to other perſons of the ſame craft, or occupation of wet calandring of Worſteds, by the ſpace of vii. yeares, or be cunning in the ſame, and their cunning approued and admitted by the Mayor of the ſaid City of Norwich, (for the time being) and the two Maſters of the ſaid craft and occupation yearly to be choſen within the ſaid Citie of Norwich, or in the County of Norff. of the craft of wet calandring, vpon paine of euery ſuch perſon or perſons which hereafter ſhall doe the contrary, or forfeit for euery peece ſo calendred againſt the ordinances and purueiances aforſaid, C.s. the one moity of which penalties or forfeitures (aboue ſpecified) and euery of them, to be to the King our ſoueraigne Lord, and the other moity thereof to be to the Maſters of the ſaid occupation of wet calendring (for the time being.) And that it ſhall be lawfull to the Maſters of the ſaid occupation (for the time being) and their ſucceſſors, to ſue for the one moytie of all ſuch penalties hereafter to be forfeited, againſt euery ſuch perſon or perſons, as hereafter ſhall doe contrary to the forme and effect of this Statute, by action of debt, by writ at the common law, or by bill, or plaint, after the cuſtome of ſuch Citie, Port, or Towne, where ſhall happen any ſuch forfeiture to be or fall, or by information in the Kings Eſchequer. And that no protection, or eſſoine, ne no wager of law for the defendant, in any ſuch action, plaint, or information be allowed before any maner of Iuſtices, where any ſuch ſuit or information ſhall be vſed for the ſaid forfeiture. And this Act to endure to the next Parliament. St.25.H 8.5. made perpetuall.

Iurors in London.

A rehearſall of the Stat. of 4. H. 8. 3. touching Iuries in London.

Where in this preſent Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the fourth day of February, in the third year of the raigne of our ſoueraigne Lord the King, & prorogued vnto the iiii. day of Nouember, in the fourth year of the raigue of our ſoueraigne Lord the King, and adiourned vnto Weſtminſter aforeſaid, foraſmuch as after iſſues ioyned in actions, and ſuites commenced, taken, or depending in the Kings Courts before himſelfe in his Bench, and before his Iuſtices of the common bench, and alſo in his Eſchequer at the Kings ſuite, or at the ſuite of the party, triable in the City of London, as well the King as the parties ſuffered great delay many times, for default of apparance of the Iuries empanelled to try the ſaid Iſſues, and many times for lack of Iurors, not hauing lands or tenements of the yearly value of xl. s. It was the ſaid fourth day of Nouember ordained and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the Sherifes of London, for the time being, ſhould haue full authoritie and power to returne in panels or araies of all Actions and ſuites then depending, or that ſhould depend in any of the ſaid Courts, or Eſchequer, perſons being Citizens, hauing goods to the value of C. marke or aboue, to try the Iſſue ioyned in euery ſuch action or ſuite. And that the perſons ſo returned, hauing goods to the value of C. marke or aboue, ſhould be ſworne, and doe in all ſuch Iuries, in like wiſe in euery thing as other perſons ſhould doe, hauing lands and tenements of the yearely value of xl. s. ouer all charges. And that the Sherifes of the ſaid Citie (for the time being) ſhould returne vpon the firſt diſtreſſe in euery ſuch action or ſuite vpon euery of the Iurors enpanelled to try the iſſues thereof, xx. d. and vpon the ſecond diſtreſſe vpon euery of the ſame Iurors xl. d, and vpon euery diſtreſſe after that vpon euery of the ſame Iurors the double, till a full Iury in euery ſuch action and ſuit ſhould appeare, and be ſworne to try the iſſue ioyned in the ſame. And that the Sherifes that ſhould make any returne vpon ſuch diſtreſſes contrary to the forme aforeſaid, ſhould forfeit for euery ſuch default x. li. the one halfe thereof to the King, and the other halfe to the party that will ſue therefore.

And, that the defendont in any ſuch action ſhould not be admitted to wage his law, nor protection therein for him allowed, Which Statute was onely made for the good expedition of iuſtice, for to haue quick apparance of Iurors Citizens of London at Saint Martins the graund, within the ſaid Citie, where al Iuries were and been bounden only to appeare and try the iſſues ioyned of al things triable in London by proceſſe of Niſi prius out of the ſaid Courts, and in none other place, according to their ancient libertie, priuiledge and cuſtome.

The explanation of the Stat. of 4. H. 8. 3.

Wherefore, for more plaine declaration of the ſame good Statute, be it ordained and eſtabliſhed by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Act be expounded, interpreted, and taken, that the Sherifes for the time being be bounden to returne at euery firſt diſtreſſe of Niſi prius, to be had at the ſaid Saint Martins in euery ſuch action or ſuite, vpon euery of the Iurors impanelled to trie the iſſues thereof xx.d. and vpon the ſecond diſtreſſe of Niſi prius, vpon euery of the ſame Iurors xl.d. And vpon euery diſtreſſe of Niſi prius after that, vpon euery of the ſame Iurors the double, till a ful Iury in euery ſuch action and ſuit ſhall appeare and be ſworne to try the Iſſue ioyned in the ſame. And that no Sherife of the ſaid City, or other, any thing forfeit by force or colour of the ſaid Statute, for any returne to be made, except onely vpon returnes to bee made contrary to the forme, declaration, interpretation, and expoſition of this Stat. That is to ſay, vpon writs of diſtreſſes before Iuſtices, or Iuſtice of Niſi prius within the ſaid City, & that vpon al other writs and proceſſes, that be & ſhall be awarded out of the ſaid Courts, or Eſchequer, it ſhall be lawfull to the Sherifes for the time being to make their returnes according to the order of the law, as the Sherifes of London were wont to doe before the making of the ſaid Statute, without any loſſe or forfeiture.

What iſſues the Sherifes of London ſhall returne vpon Iurors.

CAP. IIII.

What Cuſtomes and impoſitions Engliſhmen ſworne to Forrein Princes ſhall pay.

PRayen the Commons in this preſent Parliament, that where many and diuers perſons being the Kings ſubiects naturally borne within this his Realm, haue withdrawne themſelues out of the ſame Realme, and tranſported themſelues, with their wiues, children, and goods, into Holland, Zeland, Braband, Flanders, and into other Countries of Forrein Princes, and there be ſworne to the obeyſance of the Princes and Lords of the Countries, where they be now inhabited, making there great buildings, & bee contributories to all maner of charges, as the ſubiects of thoſe Countries be: and thus they maintaine, as much as in them is, the Cities, Boroughes, and Townes of thoſe Countries, and many more of the Kings ſubiects intend to doe the ſame, if remedy therein be not prouided. Which ſubiects borne in England, notwithſtanding that they thus enſtrange themſelues from the Kings obeyſance, yet they occupie here in all the Ports, Hauens, and Creekes, Cities, Boroughs, and Townes of England, as freely, and as free in cuſtome and ſubſidie, as the Kings ſubiects doe occupie, and not only for themſelues, but alſo colourably for other ſtrangers, their friends, and partners, ⁊ alſo make themſelues quit ⁊ exempt from all charges within this Realme, in preiudice and decay of the Cities, Townes and Boroughs of England: and as for beyond the Sea, they will obey to none authority graunted to the Engliſh Nation, by the Kings Highneſſe and his noble Progenitors, vnder the great ſeale of England and by authority of Parliament, but they giue themſelues ouer to the protection and defence of thoſe outward Princes, to whom they be ſworne ſubiects. And by theſe maner of perſons much coine is conueyed out of the land.

Wherefore be it ordained and enacted, by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſaine, That all and euery ſuch ſubiects borne in England, and ſworne to be ſubiects to forraine Princes and Lords of outward parties, from henceforth, (as long as they ſhal ſo abide, and be as ſubiects to forreine Princes and Lords) that from henceforth ſo long they and euery of them ſhall pay ſuch Cuſtomes, Subſidy, Tolles, and other impoſitions within this Realme of England, as other ſtrangers of thoſe parts where the ſaid Engliſh mẽ make their inhabitation, pay or vſe to pay within this ſaid Realme: And that the knowledge of all and euery ſuch perſon or perſon inhabitants, and ſworne in maner and forme as is before rehearſed within the Archdukes Countries, that is to ſay, Holand, Zeland, Braband, and Flanders onely, ſhall be had by certificate thereof made by the Gouernor of the Merchant Aduenturers, and the Aſſiſtants there for the time being: and alſo for all other Realmes and countries of forrein Princes to be certified by the Kings moſt noble Embaſſadors, being at ſuch time there as they ſhal happẽ to be in the ſaid countries vpon the Kings affairs, ſhal likewiſe certifie, as is beforeſaid vnder their ſeale, into the Chauncery of our Soueraigne Lord the King: and thereupon out of the ſaid Chancery writs to be made and directed vnto the Cuſtomers, Controllers, or other Officers of the Kings Cuſtome, in euery Port, Hauen, or Creeke within this ſaid Realme, to perceiue, leuy and take all maner of ſuch Cuſtomes, Subſidies, Tolles, and other impoſitions, as is before ſpecified, of all ſuch goods and Merchandiſes, as ſhall belong vnto any ſuch perſon or perſons inhabited and ſworne, in manner and forme aboue written, as well in inward as outward.

An Engliſhman ſworn ſubiect to a forrein Prince ſhall pay ſuch impoſitions as Aliens doe.

Prouided alway, that if hereafter it ſhal happen any ſuch perſon or perſons to returne into the Realme, and here to tarry, and inhabite, that then he or they ſhall be reſtored to all ſuch liberties and freedomes in paying of Cuſtomes or Subſidies and other charges, as all other Engliſhmẽ doe vſe to pay, and to haue a Writ out of the Chauncery for the ſame: this Act or any thing therein made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

An Engliſhmã returning and dwelling againe in the Realme.

AND foꝛſomuch that the making of the ſaid Coꝛpoꝛation is meritoꝛious, & very good foꝛ the common wealth of this your Realme, it is therfoꝛe expedient and neceſſary to pꝛouide, that no perſon of the ſaid politique bodie and Comminalty afoꝛeſaid, be ſuffered to exerciſe & pꝛactiſe Phyſicke, but onely thoſe perſons that be pꝛofound, ſad, and diſcreet, groundly learned, and deeply ſtudied in Phyſicke.

In conſideration whereof, and foꝛ the further authoꝛiſing of the ſame Letters Patents, and alſo enlarging of further Articles foꝛ the ſaid common wealth to be had & made: Pleaſeth it your Highneſſe, with the aſſent of your Loꝛds Spirituall and Tempoꝛall and the Commons in this pꝛeſent Parliament aſſembled, to enact, oꝛdaine, & ſtabliſh, that the ſaid Coꝛpoꝛation of the ſaid Comminalty and Felowſhip of the faculty of Phyſicke afoꝛeſaid, and all and euery Gꝛant, Article and other thing contained and ſpecified in the ſaid Letters Patents, be appꝛoued, graunted, ratified and confirmed in this pꝛeſent Parliament, and clearely authoꝛiſed and admitted by the ſame good, lawfull, and auaileable to your ſaid body Coꝛpoꝛate, and their ſucceſſoꝛs foꝛ euer, in as ample and large manner as may be taken, thought, and conſtrued by the ſame. And that it pleaſe your Highneſſe, with the aſſent of your ſaid Loꝛds Spirituall and Tempoꝛall, and the Commons in this your pꝛeſent Parliament aſſembled, further to enact, oꝛdaine, and eſtabliſh, That the ſixe perſons befoꝛeſaid, in your ſaid moſt gracious Letters Patents named as pꝛincipals, and firſt named of the ſaid Comminalty and Fellowſhip, chuſing to them two moe of the ſaid Comminalty from hence foꝛward, be called and cleaped Elects. And that the ſame Elects yearely chuſe one of them to be Pꝛeſident of the ſaid Comminalty, and as oft as any of the roomes and places of the ſame Elects ſhall foꝛtune to be void, by death oꝛ otherwiſe, then the ſuperuiuoꝛs of the ſame Elects (within thirty oꝛ foꝛty daies next after the death of them oꝛ any of them) ſhall chuſe, name, and admit one oꝛ moe, as need ſhall require, of the moſt cunning and expert men, of and in the ſaid faculty in London, to ſupply the ſaid roome and number of eight perſons. So that he oꝛ they that ſhall be ſo choſen, be firſt by the ſaid ſuperuiuoꝛs ſtraightly examined, after a foꝛme deuiſed by the ſaid Elects, and alſo by the ſame ſuperuiuoꝛs appꝛoued.

The Kings letters Patents and euery Article therein confirmed.

There ſhall be eight Elects of the Phyſitions of London.

And where that in Dioceſſes of England out of London it is not light to find alway men able ſufficiently to examine (after the Statute) ſuch as ſhall be admitted to exerciſe Phyſicke in them that it may be enacted in this pꝛeſent Parliament, That no perſon frō hencefoꝛth be ſuffered to exerciſe oꝛ pꝛactiſe in Phyſicke through England, vntill ſuch time that he be examined at Londō by the ſaid Pꝛeſident, and thꝛee of the ſaid Elects: and to haue from the ſaid Pꝛeſident oꝛ Elects Letters teſtimonials of their appꝛouing and examination, except he be a Gꝛaduate of Oxfoꝛd oꝛ Cambꝛidge, which hath accompliſhed all things foꝛ his foꝛme, without any grace. St. 32. H. 8. 40. 1. M. 9 Coke li. 8. fo. 14.

Phyſitions in other places muſt be examined by the Pꝛeſident & 3. of the Elects. 3. H. 8. 12.

Cap. VI.

Altering of high wayes in the Weld of Kent.

IN humble wiſe beſeecheth your Highneſſe, your true and faithfull ſubiect George Gilford Eſquire foꝛ your body, that where there is, and of time, whereof minde of man is not to the contrary, hath been an old common way, oꝛ ſtreet foꝛ carriages, and all other paſſages and buſines foꝛ you and your pꝛogenitoꝛs, and your and their people in the Hundꝛed of Cranebꝛoke, in the Weld of your County of Kent, leading and extending betweene and among the lands of the Manoꝛ of Hempſted of the ſaid George in the ſaid Hundꝛed of Cranebꝛoke, from the Bꝛidge called Hempſted Bꝛidge, diuiding the ſaid Hundꝛed of Cranebꝛoke and the Hundꝛed of Roluinden in the ſame weld of your ſaid County, to a Croſſe called Totenden Croſſe, ſtanding nigh to a great Oake, named Hempſted Oake, which is in length vpon an hundꝛed fourſcoꝛe and ten perches:

which common way ſo vſed is in diuers places thereof right déepe, and noyous for the paſſage of your people, and alſo is not ſo directly leading betwéene the ſaid Bridge and Croſſe, neither ſo commodious for your people as another way of like breadth in other places within and ouer the lands of the ſaid Manor might be made.

In conſideration whereof, it may pleaſe your Highneſſe of your bleſſed diſpoſition, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame to enact and ordaine, That it ſhall be lawfull to your ſaid Beſéecher, his heires and aſſignes, owners of the ſaid Manor of Hempſted, at his and their proper coſt and charges at any time a this ſide the xxvi. day of May, which ſhall bee in the yeare of our Lord God M.D.xxvii. by the ouerſight and aſſent of two Iuſtices of Peace, of the ſaid County of Kent, and xii. other diſcréet men, inhabitants within the ſaid Hundreds of Cranbroke and Roluinden, to aſſigne, limit aud lay out, ouer and through the lands of the ſaid Manor one other way for carriages and paſſages of your Grace, and of your people, and your and their heirs, and ſucceſſours, of as great largeneſſe in bredth, or larger then the ſaid old way now being is: and as commodious for the ſaid carriages and paſſages, as the ſame way now being is, or better, extending and leading directly betweene the ſaid Bridge and Croſſe, ſo that your Grace, and your people by the ſaid new way, ſo to be aſſigned and laid out, ſhall haue the more eaſie carriage and paſſage, then is, or of late time hath béene by the ſaid old way. And that after the ſaid new way ſo laid out and aſſigned, the ſaid carriages, paſſages, and other buſineſſe there, may be as liberally, commonly and fréely from thenceforth there vſed and had for euer, and euery other thing there exerciſed and kept, as before this time hath béene had, vſed, exerciſed, & kept in the ſaid old way, without let or interruption of the ſaid George, his heires or aſſignes, or any other perſon, which hereafter ſhall haue, hold, or poſſede the ſaid Manor. And that immediatly after that the ſaid new way (as is aforeſaid) to be aſſigned and limited, ſhall be (as is aboueſaid) laid out and fully made, it ſhall be lawfull to your ſaid Beſéecher, his heires, & aſſignes, owners of the ſaid Manor, to encloſe the ſaid old way, and euery part thereof: and that from henceforth to hold in ſeueralty to them and to their heires and aſſignes, to their owne vſe and profit for euer, as parcell of the ſaid Manor, without any common way, or paſſage there from thenceforth to bee had, or claimed, any preſcription, or vſe to the contrary heretofore had notwithſtanding.

Gilford may lay out a new way in the Manor of Hempſted, and then keepe in ſeuerall the old.

And in conſideration that many other common wayes in the ſaid Weld of Kent be ſo déepe & noyous, by wearing and courſe of water and other occaſions, that people cannot haue their carriages or paſſages by horſes vpon or by the ſame, but to their great pains, perill and ieopardy: it may be by the ſaid authority enacted & eſtabliſhed, that if any other perſon or perſons any time hereafter, in any place within the ſaid Weld of your ſaid County, of his good mind and diſpoſition, without any value of good by him or them to be receiued for the ſame, will for the common weale of your people, aſſigne and lay out a more commodious way, in and ouer the lands thereunto adioyning, whereof the perſon or other to his vſe ſhall be ſeiſed of fée in eſtate of inheritãce, that the ſame new way ſo to be aſſigned and laid out, by ouerſight and aſſent of two Iuſtices of Peace of the ſaid County, and xii. other diſcréet men, inhabiting within the Hundred, where any ſuch new way ſhall be limited and laid out, or inhabiting within the ſame Hundred, and other Hundreds to that Hundred next adioyning, ſhall be from thenceforth holden, occupied and vſed, in like maner as the old way there now is, or before hath beene.

Any perſon may lay out a more commodious way in the weld of Kent, by the aſſent of two I. of Peace & xii. diſcreet men of that Hundred, and keepe ſeuerall the old.

And that alſo the ſame perſon or perſons ſo diſpoſed, willing and accompliſhing the ſame, ſhal and may for the ſaid new way ſo aſſigned and vſed, retaine and hold in way of recompence for the ſame new way ſo to be giuẽ, the ſoile & ground of the old way in ſeueralty, as is aboue ſaid, to him or them, and to their heires for euer, in like maner as is aboueſaid of the ſaid new way to bee aſſigned at Hempſted. And that the ſaid two Iuſtices of Peace, and xii. other diſcréet perſons by whoſe ouerſight and aſſent the ſaid new way at Hempſted, or any other way by vertue of this Act ſhall be hereafter aſſigned, limited and laid out, ſhall within thrée moneths next after the aſſignement, limitation, and laying out of the ſame make certificat into the Kings moſt honourable Court of Chancery vnder their ſeales, of the length and breadth of the ſame new way or ſtréet, and of other things adioyning or concerning the ſame, as by their diſcretions ſhall bee thought moſt expedient or requiſite for the common wealth of that country to be certified: And that certificate to be made from time to time as oft as any ſuch new way or ſtréet ſhal be aſſigned, limited, and laid out in forme aboue written.

The Iuſtices & xii. men ſhall make Certificat of the new way into the Chancerie.

Prouided alway, that if any perſon or perſons or body politike, haue or ought to haue, or hereafter ſhal haue any Church way or other, whatſoeuer way, or paſſage ouer or through any maner lands adioyning to any of the ſaid old wayes or ſtréetes, which ſhall be taken and vſed by force of this Act, as ſeuerall ſoyle and fréehold, in recompence for any new way to be made and laid out in forme aforeſaid, or haue, or ought to haue, or hereafter ſhal haue any lands or tenements adioyning to the ſaid old way: that they & euery of them, their heires & ſucceſſors, ſhall and may haue & vſe their ſaid way or wayes, out of, and into the ſaid new way ouer and through the land of the ſaid old way or ſtréet, into or ouer the ſaid land or tenement adioyning to the ſame, and ſo to paſſe, and repaſſe, as ſhall appertaine ouer the ſame old way, at ſuch conuenient place or places thereof, as therefore ſhall be limited and aſſigned by the ſaid two Iuſtices of peace, and other xii. men, and by them to be certified into the Chancery among other things by them to be certified in forme aforeſaid: any thing in this Act abone written notwithſtanding. Stat. 26. H. 8. 7.

They which haue any way through the old way may vſe it.

Any perſon that hath lands to the yearly value of C. li. may ſhoot in Crosbowes and Handgunnes, notwithſtanding the Statute of 6. H. 8. 13. All former placards granted by the King for ſhooting in either of them ſhall be void. Rep. 33. H. 8. 6. St. 25. H. 8. 17.

Cap. VIII.

The mariage of the Six Clerkes allowed, &c.

IN moſt humble wiſe beſeecheth your true and faithfull ſubiects, and daily ſeruants, the Six Clerkes of your high Court of Chancery, that whereas of old time accuſtomed hath beene vſed in the ſaid Court, That all maner of Clerkes and miniſters of the ſame Court, writing to the great Seale, ſhould be vnmaryed (except only the Clerke of the Crowne) ſo that as well the Courſetours and other Clerks, as the Six clerkes of the ſaid Chauncery, were by the ſame cuſtome reſtrained from mariage, whereby all thoſe that contrary to the ſame did mary, were no longer ſuffered to write in the ſaid Chauncery, not onely to their great hinderance, loſing therby the benefit of their long ſtudy, and tedious labours and paines in youth, taken in the ſaid Court, but alſo to the great decay of the true courſe of the ſaid Court.

By old cuſtome no Clerke of the Chancerie might marie, but only the Clerke of the Crowne.

And forasmuch as the ſaid cuſtome taketh no place nor vſage, but only in the office of the ſaid Six clerkes, but that it is permitted and ſuffered for maintenance of the ſaid courſe, that aſwell the ſaid Courſetours as the other Clerkes aforeſaid, may and doe take wiues and marry at their liberty, after the lawes of holy Church, and of long time haue ſo done, without interruption or let of any perſon: It may therfore pleaſe your Highneſſe, of your moſt abundant grace, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, in conſideration of the premiſſes, and alſo for that the ſaid cuſtome is not grounded vpon any law, to ordaine, enact, and eſtabliſh, that Iohn Treuethen, Richard Welles, Oliuer Leder, Iohn Croke, William Ieſſon, and Iohn Lemſey, now being in the office of the ſixe Clerkes of the Chauncery, & euery of them, and all other which in time to come ſhall be in the ſame office, and euery of them, may and doe take wiues and mary at their libertie, after the lawes of holy Church. And that they, and euery of them ſo maried may haue, hold, and enioy their ſaid office of ſixe Clerkes, in as ample, large, and like maner, as they did, or ſhould doe before the ſaid eſpouſals, or as if they had neuer been maried, the ſaid cuſtome or any other cuſtome or ordinance heretofore had, or made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The ſix Clerks of the Chancerie may marie wiues and enioy their offices.

Prouided alway, that by any thing in this Act conteyned the Maſter of the Rolles (for the time being) be not preiudiced either in the giuing & diſpoſition of the ſaid offices from time to time, as hath been heretofore accuſtomed, the forfeiture of that office by reaſon of mariage onely except. And that the ſaid officers, which now be and hereafter ſhall be, doe giue ſuch attendance vnto the ſaid Maſter of the Rolles for the time being, as heretofore in the ſaid Offices hath been accuſtomed.

The penaltie for vnlawfull hunting the Hare.

FOrasmuch as our Soueraigne Lord the King, and other Noble men of this Realme of England, before this time haue vſed and exerciſed the game of hunting of the Hare, for their diſport and pleaſure, which game is now decayed, and almoſt vtterly deſtroyed, for that diuers perſons in diuers parts of this Realme, by reaſon of the traſing in ſnow, haue killed, and deſtroyed, and daily doe kill and deſtroy the ſame Hares, by x. xii. or xvi. vpon a day, to the diſpleaſure of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, and other Noble men of this his Realm. Wherefore be it enacted by our ſaid Soueraign Lord, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, & by the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That no perſon or perſons of what eſtate, degree, or condition they be, from henceforth trace, deſtroy, and kill any Hare in the ſnow with any dogge, bitch, nor otherwiſe. And that the Iuſtice of the peace within euery Shire, at euery Seſſions of the Peace, and Stewards of Leetes ſhall haue full authoritie and power to enquire of ſuch offendors. And after ſuch inquiſitions found, the ſaid Iuſtices of the Peace and Stewards of Leets, for euery Hare ſo killed, ſhall ceſſe vpon euery ſuch offendor, vi. s. viii. d. to be forfeited to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, that ſhall be ſo founden by the Iuſtices of peace in their Seſſions, and the forfeiture found in euerie Leet to be to the Lord of the Leet. Clothes made in Suffolke called Veſſes or Set clothes ſhall not be forfeited, for lacke of length or breadth being wette.

St.6.H.8.9.

HUmbly ſhewen vnto your Highneſſe your true ſubiects, and Clothiers of your Countie of Suffolke, that where in the firſt yeare of your moſt noble raigne, it was and is enacted amongſt other things, concerning making of cloth, That any perſon or perſons ſhall not put any cloth to ſale, which when it is full wette, ſhall ſhrinke more then one yard in length, and one quarter of a yard in bredth, for the more part therof: And clothes called narrowes or ſtraits after the rate, vpon paine to forfeit for euery cloth otherwiſe put to ſale, vi.s.viii.d. and beſide to deduct of his price for the ſame, to be rebated to the buyer thereof as much after the rate, as the ſame cloth is otherwiſe put to ſale (being full wette) ſhall be ſhrunke more then one yard of that it was in length at the time of the ſame ſale, and as it ſhall (being wette) lacke of the bredth of one yard & thrée quarters of a yard. And in the ſame Act was & is a prouiſo made after the forme following.

Prouided alway, that this Act extend not to woollen clothes, called Kendalls, nor clothes called Carpenel whites, commonly made for lyning of hoſen, nor to any clothes called Coſtocks, made in the County of Deuonſhire, nor to any woollen clothes made in the Countie of Cornwall, nor for any Cottons or plaine lyning or Friſe, made or to be made in Wales, Lancaſhire, and Cheſhire, or any of them.

So it is moſt gratious Soueraigne Lord, that Veſſes, otherwiſe called Set clothes of diuers colours be made in your ſaid County of Suffolke, which be made to be worne, and be worne in farre countries and not in England, and be of ſmall prices not aboue xl.s. a cloth, that doe not hold the length nor bredth when they be wette, which the buyers do know well whē they buy them ſo that therein is no deceipt, which clothes in the third yeare of the raigne of your moſt noble father K. Henry the ſeuenth, were prouided for, ſo that they might lawfully be ſold without any penaltie or forfeiture, though they lacked in length or bredth when they were full wette, and ſo they haue vſed to doe time out of minde.

St.3.H.7.11.

And in the prouiſo made in the ſaid Act of the firſt yeare of your moſt noble reigne they were forgotten and not prouided for, which ſhould be to the vtter impoueriſhing of the Clothiers of your ſaid Countie, & all other that be wrought by reaſon of cloth making within the ſaid county of Suffolke, if no remedie ſhould be therefore prouided.

The Stat. of 6.H.8.9. touching the ſhrinking of clothes ſhall not extend to Veſſes or Set clothes.

Wherefore your humble ſubiects humbly beſéech your Highneſſe, that it be enacted by all the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and all the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, with your moſt royall aſſent to the ſame, That all clothes called Veſſes, otherwiſe called Sette clothes, what colour ſoeuer they be of, not being aboue the value of xl.s. a cloth, ſhal not be forfeit, for that they lacke in length and bredth when they be full wette after the ſale of them afore this time made or hereafter to be made. The ſaid Act made in the firſt yeare of your moſt noble reign or any other Act heretofore made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Cap. XII.

What Coiners ſhall doe that make money at any Mint within England.

BEe it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, That all ſuch Coiners, as ſhall coine and make any money at any Mint within this Realme of England, ſhall make and coine of euery hundred pounds worth of gold, that they ſhall ſtrike into coine xx.li. in the coyne of halfe Angels, commonly called péeces of gold of xl.d. And of euery hundred pounds worth of Bullion, Plate, or Siluer, that they ſhall ſtrike into coyne, as many grotes as ſhall amount to the ſumme of fifty pounds ſterling: as many halfe grotes, called pence of two pence, as ſhall amount to the ſumme of xx.li. ſterling: as many pence as ſhall amount to the ſumme of xx.li. as many halfe pence as ſhall amount to the ſumme of ten markes ſterling, and as many farthings as amount to the ſumme of fiue markes ſterling. And that at any time that any coyners in any Mint within this Realme, ſhall doe contrary to this Act, the Maſter and kéeper of that Mint, for the time being, ſhall forfeit and loſe x.li. The one moity thereof to be to the King our ſoueraigne Lord, the other moity to the party that ſhall ſue for the ſame, by bill, information, action of debt, or otherwiſe: wherein the ſaid Maſter ſhall not be admitted to doe his law, and no protection ne eſſoine to be allowed for the defendant.

Coyners that ſhall make money at any mint ſhall coine part thereof halfe Angels, grotes, & ſmall money.

And foraſmuch as at this preſent time farthings and halfe pence be ſtriken all with one coyne, ſo that the common people of the Realme many times take thoſe that be farthings for halfpence. Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all ſuch farthings (that from henceforth ſhall be made within this Realme) ſhall haue vpon the one ſide thereof the print of the port colice, and vpon the other ſide thereof the print of the Roſe with a croſſe, vpon like paine.

The print of the farthing.

And furthermore be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all maner perſons reſorting to the ſaid Mint with any plate or bullion, vnder the value aboueſaid, to be coyned, ſhall haue and receiue at the ſaid Mint the tenth part of all ſuch plate and bullion in halfe pence and farthings.

Prouided alway, that this Act or any thing contained in the ſame, be not in any wiſe preiudiciall to the Coyners and Mintmaſters of Yorke Dureſme, and Canterburie, ne to any of them, for any money to be coined there, other then heretofore hath béene accuſtomed, This Act to begin to take effect at the feaſt of S. Michaell the Archangell next comming, and not before.

The tenth part of money coined for any perſon ſhall be payed in ob. & farthings. The coiners in Yorke, Dureſm, & Canterburie.

Plaintifes in Aſſiſe may abridge their plaints.

FOr as much as Aſſiſes which haue béen thought the moſt ſpéedy remedy, be now by occaſion of pleading of many barres to moities, and parts of the Lands put in view and plaint, greatly delayed for difficulties and diuiſion of pleading. And one cauſe thereof is, becauſe the Plaintifes in the Aſſiſe in ſuch Plées, to moities, & parties, cannot by the Law abridge their plaints. For remedie whereof, be it enacted, that the Plaintife in euery Aſſiſe from henceforth may at his pleaſure ſeuer, and abridge his plaint, of any part or parts, whereunto any barre is pleaded, in ſuch like maner, as he or they might doe in caſe the Plées in barre had béen made and diuided to any certaintie or number of Acres in the plaint, and that the plaint, for the reſidue of the part or parts of the Lands not abridged, ſhall be and ſtand good and effectuall in the Law.

The plaintife in Aſſiſe may abridge his plaint of any part whereunto a barre is pleaded.

Cap. IIII.

The ſale of lands by part of the Executors lawfull.

WHere diuers ſundry perſons before this time, hauing other perſons ſeaſed to their vſes of and in Lands and other Hereditaments, to and for the declaration of their Willes, haue by their laſt Willes and Teſtaments willed and declared ſuch their ſaid Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, to be ſold by their Executors, as wel to and for the paiments of their debts performance of their legacies neceſſary, and conuenient finding of their wiues, vertuous bringing vp, and aduancement of their children to mariage, as alſo for other charitable déedes to bée done and executed by their Executors for the health of their ſoules. And notwithſtanding ſuch truſt and confidence ſo by them put in their ſaid executors, it hath oft times béene ſéene, where ſuch laſt Willes and Teſtaments of ſuch Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments haue béene declared, and in the ſame diuers Executors named and made, that after the deceaſe of ſuch

Land deuiſed to be ſold by diuers executors cannot by common Law be ſold by part of them.

Part of the executors which take vpon them the charge of a Will may ſell any land deuiſed by the Teſtator to be ſold.

39.Aſſ.pl.17. Bro.Deuiſ.31. Co.Inſt.113.

Teſtators, ſome of the ſame Executors willing to accompliſh the truſt and confidence that they were put in by the ſaid Teſtator, haue accepted and taken vpon them the charge of the ſaid Teſtament and haue beene ready to fulfill and performe all things conteyned in the ſame, and the reſidue of the ſame Executors, vncharitably contrary to the truſt that they were put in, haue refuſed to entermedle in any wiſe with the execution of the ſaid Will and Teſtament, or with the ſale of ſuch Lands ſo willed to be ſold by the Teſtator. And for as much as a bargain & ſale of ſuch Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, ſo willed by any perſon to be ſold by his Executors after his deceaſe, after the opinion of diuers perſons, can in no wiſe be good or effectuall in the Law, vnleſſe the ſame bargaine and ſale be made by the whole number of the Executors, named to and for the ſame: by reaſon whereof as well the debts of ſuch Teſtators haue reſted vnpayed and vnſatisfied, to the great danger and perill of the ſoules of ſuch Teſtators, and to the great hinderance, and many times to the vtter vndoing of their Creditors. As alſo the Legacies, and bequeſt made by the Teſtator to his wife, children, and for other charitable deedes to be done for the wealth of the ſoule of the ſame Teſtator, that made the ſame Teſtament, haue beene alſo vnperformed, as well to the extreame miſery of the wife and children of the ſaid Teſtator, as alſo to the let of performance of other charitable deedes for the wealth of the ſoule of the ſaid Teſtator, to the diſpleaſure of Almighty God. For remedie whereof, Be it enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that where part of the Executors named in any ſuch Teſtament of any ſuch perſõ ſo making, or declaring any ſuch Will of any Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, to be ſold by his Executors, after the death of any ſuch Teſtator doe refuſe to take vpon him, or them the adminiſtration and charge of the ſame Teſtament and laſt Will, wherein they be ſo named to be Executors, and the reſidue of the ſame Executors doe accept and take vpon them the cure and charge of the ſame Teſtament, and laſt Will: that then all bargaines and ſales of ſuch Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, ſo willed to be ſold by the Executors of any ſuch Teſtator, as well heretofore made, as hereafter to be made by him or them, only of the ſaid Executors that ſo doth accept, or that heretofore hath accepted, and taken vpon him or them any ſuch cure or charge of adminiſtration of any ſuch Will or Teſtament, ſhall be as good, and as effectuall in the Law, as if all the reſidue of the ſame Executors, named in the ſaid Teſtament, ſo refuſing the adminiſtration of the ſame Teſtament, had ioyned with him or them in the making of the bargain, & ſale of ſuch Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, ſo willed to be ſold by the Executors of any ſuch Teſtator, which heretofore hath made or declared, or that hereafter ſhall make or declare any ſuch Will of any ſuch Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments after his deceaſe to be ſold by his Executors.

Wils made before this Statute.

43.Ed.3.9.

Prouided alway that this Act ſhall not extend to giue power or authoritie to any Executor or Executors at any time hereafter to bargaine, or put to ſale any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by vertue and authority of any Will or Teſtament heretofore made, otherwiſe then they might doe by the courſe of the common Law afore the makiug of this Act.

What fees ought to be taken for probate of Teſtaments.

St.3.H.5.8.

The Ordinaries duties for probat of teſtamẽts in the time of K.Ed.3.

Admini.47. ...1.3.fo.40. ...fol.39.

WHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the xxxj. yeare of the raigne of the noble King of famous memorie, Edward the third, vpon the complaint of his people for the outragious and greeuous fines, and ſummes of money, taken by the miniſters of Biſhops, and of other Ordinaries of holy Church, for the probate of Teſtaments, and for the acquitances by the ſaid Ordinaries to be made concerning the ſame, the ſaid noble King in the ſame Parliament openly charged and commanded the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and the other Biſhops for that time being, that amendment thereof ſhould be had. And if none amendment were thereof had, it was by the authority of the ſame Parliament accorded, that the King ſhould thereof make inquiry by his Iuſtices, of ſuch oppreſſion and extortions. And that the ſame Iuſtices ſhould heare and determine them as well at the ſuit of the King as of the party, as of old time hath been vſed, as by the ſame Statute plainly appeareth. And where at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the third yeare of the raigne of King Henry the fift, it was recited, that the Commons of the Realme had often times complained them in diuers Parliaments, for that diuers Ordinaries doe take for the probation of Teſtaments, and other things thereunto belonging, ſometime xl.s. ſometime lx.s. and ſometimes more, againſt right and iuſtice, where in the time of King Edward the third, men were wont to pay for ſuch cauſes but ij.s.vj.d. or v.s. at the moſt, by which vnlawfull exactions the Teſtaments of the Teſtators might not be executed according to their laſt Willes. it was then enacted for the auoiding of ſuch oppreſſions, that no Ordinary from thenceforth ſhould take for the probation of any Teſtament and Inuentorie, or for any other thing to the ſame belonging, any more then was accuſtomed and vſed in the time of the ſaid noble King Edward the third, vpon paine to yeeld to the party ſo greeued three times as much as the ſaid Ordinaries did ſo receiue, which Act did endure but to the next Parliament following, by reaſon that the Ordinaries did then promiſe to reforme and amend the ſaid oppreſſions and exactions.

tions. And for that the ſaid vnlawfull exactions of the ſaid Ordinaries, and their miniſters be nothing reformed, nor amended, but greatly augmented and encreaſed, againſt right and iuſtice, and to the great impoueriſhing of the Kings ſubiects.

The vnlawfull exaction of Ordinaries the cauſe of this Statute.

The King our Soueraigne Lord by the aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordained eſtabliſhed, and enacted, That from the firſt day of Aprill, in the yeare of our Lord, M.D. XXX. that nothing ſhall be demanded, receiued, nor taken by any Biſhoppe, Ordinarie, Archdeacon Chancellor, Commiſſarie, Officiall, nor any other maner of perſon or perſons, what ſo euer they be, which now haue, or which at any time hereafter ſhall haue authority or power to take or receiue probation, inſinuation, or approbation of Teſtament or Teſtaments, by himſelfe or themſelues, nor by his or their Regiſters, Scribes, praiſers, Summoners, Apparators, or by any other of their miniſters, for the probation, inſinuation, and approbation of any Teſtament or Teſtaments, or for writing, ſealing, prayſing, regiſtring, fines, making of inuentories, and giuing of acquitances, or for any other maner of cauſe concerning the ſame, where the goods of the Teſtator of the ſaid Teſtament or perſon ſo dying, doe not amount cleerely ouer and aboue the value of C.s. ſterling, except only to the Scribe to haue for writing of the probate of the Teſtament of him deceaſed, whoſe goods ſhall not be aboue the ſame cleere value of c.s. vj.d. and for the Commiſſion of adminiſtration of the goods of any man deceaſing Inteſtat, not being aboue like value of C.s. cleere vj.d. And that neuertheleſſe the Biſhop, Ordinary, or other perſon or perſons, hauing power or authoritie to take or receiue the probation, or approbation of Teſtaments, refuſe not to approue any ſuch Teſtament, being lawfully tendred or offered to them to be proued or approued, whereof the goods of the Teſtator or perſon ſo dying amount not aboue the value of C.s. ſterling, ſo that the ſaid Teſtament be exhibited to him or them in writing with waxe thervnto affixed ready to be ſealed, and that the ſame Teſtament be lawfully proued before the ſame Ordinarie (before the ſealing) to be true, whole, and the laſt Teſtament of the ſame Teſtator, in ſuch forme as hath beene commonly accuſtomed in that behalfe.

The fees for probat of a Teſtament where the goods excede not the value of C.s.

Commiſſion of Adminiſtration where the goods exceed not the value of C.s.

The fees of the probat of a Teſtament where the goods doe exceed C.s. and not xl.li.

And when the goods of the Teſtator doe amount ouer and aboue the cleere value of C.s. and doe not exceed the ſumme of xl.li. ſterling: that then no Biſhop, Ordinarie nor other maner of perſon or perſons, whatſoeuer he or they be, now hauing or which herafter ſhal haue authority to take probation, or approbation of any Teſtament or Teſtaments, as is aforeſaid, by themſelues, nor any of their ſaid Regiſters, Scribes, Prayſers, Summoners, Apparators nor any other their miniſters for the probation, inſinuation, & approbation, of any Teſtament or Teſtaments, or for the regiſtring, ſealing, writing, prayſing, making of Inuentories, giuing of acquitances, fines, or any other thing concerning the ſame, ſhall take or cauſe to be taken, of any perſon or perſons but onely iij.s.vj.d. and not aboue, whereof to be to the ſaid Biſhop or Ordinary, or to other perſon or perſons, hauing power and authoritie to take the probation or approbation of any Teſtament or Teſtaments, for him and his miniſters, ij.s.vj.d. and not aboue, and xij.d. reſidue of the ſaid iij.s.vj.d. to be to the Scribe for the regiſtring of the ſame.

The fees of the probat of a Teſtament where the goods doe exceed xl.li.

And wher the goods of the Teſtator, or perſon or perſons ſo dying, doe amount ouer and aboue the cleare value of xl.li. ſterling, that then the Biſhop nor Ordinary, nor other perſon or perſons, now hauing or which hereafter ſhall haue authoritie or power to take probat of Teſtaments, as is aforeſaid, by him or themſelues, nor any of his or their ſaid Regiſters, Scribes, Praiſers, Summoners, Apparators, or any other their miniſters, for the probation, inſinuation, and approbation of any Teſtament or teſtaments, or for the regiſtring, ſealing, writing, praiſing, making of Inuentories, fines, giuing of acquitances, or any thing concerning the ſame probat of a Teſtament, ſhall from the ſaid firſt day of Aprill, take or cauſe to be taken of any perſon or perſons, but onely v.s. and not aboue, whereof to be to the ſaid Biſhop, Ordinary, or other perſon hauing power to take the probation of ſuch Teſtament or Teſtaments, for him and his miniſters, ij.s.vj.d. and not aboue, and ij.s.vj.d. reſidue of the ſaid v.s. to be to the Scribe for regiſtring of the ſame, or elſe the ſame Scribe to be at his liberty to refuſe thoſe ij.s.vj.d. and to demand and haue for writing of euery tenne lines of the ſame Teſtament, whereof euery line to containe in length tenne inches, j.d.

Teſtaments ſhall be ſealed and deliuered without delay.

And that euery ſuch Biſhop or Ordinary, and other perſon or perſons, ſo hauing, or which hereafter ſhall haue authoritie or power to take or receiue the probation or approbation of any Teſtament or Teſtaments, as is aboueſaid, their Regiſters, Scribes, and miniſters, ſhall approue, inſinuate, ſeale and regiſter, from time to time the ſaid Teſtaments, and deliuer the ſame ſealed with the Seale of their Office to the Executor or Executors named in any ſuch teſtaments, for the ſaid ſumme or ſummes aboueſaid, and in maner and forme as is aboue rehearſed with conuenient ſpeed, without any fruſtratorie delay.

And in caſe any perſon die inteſtate, or that the Executors named in any ſuch Teſtament, refuſe to proue the ſaid Teſtament: then the ſaid Ordinarie, or other perſon or perſons, hauing authority to take probat of Teſtaments, as is aboueſaid, ſhall grant the adminiſtration of the goods of the Teſtator, or perſon deceaſed, to the widdow of the ſame perſon deceaſed, or to the next of his kinne, or to both, as by the diſcretion of the ſame Ordinarie ſhall be thought good, taking ſuretie of him or them, to whom ſhall be made ſuch commiſſion, for the true adminiſtration of the goods, cattels, & debts, which he or they ſhall be ſo authoriſed to miniſter. And in caſe where diuers perſons claime the adminiſtration as next of kinne, which be equall in degrée of kindred to the Teſtator or perſon deceaſed, and where any perſon onely deſireth the adminiſtration as next of kinne, where indéed diuers perſons be in equalitie of kindred, as is aforeſaid: Then in euery ſuch caſe the Ordinary to be at his election and libertie, to accept any one, or mo making requeſt, where diuers doe require the adminiſtration.

And in caſe the goods of the perſon ſo deceaſed amount aboue the value of C.s. and not aboue the value or ſumme of xl.li. then the ſaid Biſhop, Ordinary, or other perſon or perſons, ſo hauing authoritie to take probat of Teſtaments, as is aforeſaid, their miniſters and officers, ſhall take onely ij.s. vj.d. ſterling, and not aboue. And that the Executor & Executors named by the Teſtator or perſon ſo deceaſed, or ſuch other perſon or perſons, to whom ſuch adminiſtration ſhall be committed, where any perſon dieth inteſtate or by way of inteſtate, calling or taking to him or them ſuch perſon or perſons, two at the leaſt, to whom the ſaid perſon ſo dying was indebted, or made any Legacie, and vpon their refuſall or abſence, two other honeſt perſons being next of kinne to the perſon ſo dying, and in their default or abſence two other honeſt perſons, and in their preſence, & by their diſcretions ſhall make or cauſe to be made a true and perfect inuentorie of all the Goods, Cattels, Wares, Merchandiſes, as wel mouable as not mouable, whatſoeuer that were of the ſaid perſon ſo deceaſed, and the ſame ſhall cauſe to be indented, whereof the one part ſhall be by the ſaid Executor or Executors, Adminiſtrator or Adminiſtrators, vpon his or their oath or oathes to be taken before the ſaid Biſhops, Ordinaries, their Officials, or Commiſſaries, or other perſons hauing power to take probat of Teſtaments, vpon the holy Euangeliſt, to be good and true, and the ſame one part endented ſhall preſent, and deliuer into the kéeping of the ſaid Biſhop, Ordinarie, or Ordinaries, or other perſon hauing power to take probat of Teſtaments, and the other part therof to remaine with the ſaid Executor or Executors, Adminiſtrator or Adminiſtrators, and that no Biſhop, Ordinarie, or other, whatſoeuer porſon, hauing authority to take probat of Teſtament or Teſtaments, as is aboueſaid, vpon the paine in this Eſtatute hereafter contained, refuſe to take any ſuch inuentory or inuentories to him or them preſented, or tendred to be deliuered as is aforeſaid.

And in caſe any perſon or perſons at any time hereafter require a copie or copies of the ſaid Teſtament ſo proued, or of the ſaid Inuentorie ſo made, that then the ſaid Ordinarie or Ordinaries, and the other perſons hauing authority to take probat of Teſtaments, or their miniſters, ſhal from time to time with conuenient ſpéed, without any fruſtratory delay deliuer or cauſe to be deliuered a true copie or copies of the ſame, to the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo demanding them, or any of them, taking for the ſearch and for the making of the copie of either of the ſaid Teſtament or Inuentorie, but only ſuch fée as is before rehearſed for the regiſtring of the ſaid Teſtament, or elſe the Scribe or Regiſter to be at his election and liberty to demaund, haue, and take for euery ten lines thereof, being of the proportion before rehearſed, j.d.

Stat. 1. H. 7. 2.
Stat 14. H. 8. 2.

VVHere of late our true and faithfull Subiects, Artificers and handie crafts men, borne vnder our obeyſance, inhabiting within our City of London, and the Suburbs of the ſame, exhibited vnto vs a lamentable bill of complaint, conteyning, that notwithſtanding many good, & neceſſary ſtatutes and Acts of Parliament haue béene publiſhed, ordeined, and made, and eſpecially one in the firſt yeare of King Richard the third; And the other being made in the firſt yeare of the raigne of our déereſt Father of noble memorie Henry the vij. late King of this realm, and in the xiiij. and xv. yeare of our raigne, concerning Strangers, Artificers, and handie crafts men, borne out of our obeyſance, vſing and exerciſing handy crafts, within this our Realme of England, as well for the reſtraining of the exceſſiue number and vnreaſonable behauiour of the ſame ſtrangers, artificers, borne out of our obeyſance, which by continuall reſort and repayre into this our ſaid Realme, daily increaſed, to the great detriment of our owne naturall ſubiects, Artificers of the ſame handy crafts and Myſteries, and of other ſundrie inconueniences, by occaſion that diuers of the ſaid Subiects for lacke of occupation, fall into idleneſſe: as alſo for the reformation of ſundry deceits and falſhoods practiſed by the ſaid Strangers, Artificers in their ſaid handy Crafts, to the great damage & loſſe of vs, and of all our ſaid naturall Subiects. The ſaid Strangers, Artificers, nothing pondring or dreading the ſaid Statutes, ne the penalties in the ſame conteined and expreſſed, ceaſe not contemptuouſly, as well to abuſe the ſaid Statutes, as moſt part intirely to infringe and breake the ſame. And to accumulate from time to time more offences and enormities, as well againſt our prerogatiue, as to the detriment of the common wealth of this our Realme, and our louing Subiects of the ſame, For when any ſearch ſhall be made in euery handicraft within any Citie, Towne, or Borough Corporate, within our ſaid Realme by our Subiects, the ſaid Wardens and others ordained by the ſaid laſt Act of handie crafts men, within any City, Towne or Borough corporate, and one houſholder ſtranger borne out of our obeyſance, inhabiting within our ſaid Citie, Towne, or Borough Corporate, vſing any handy craft, be he Denizen or not Denizen, the ſaid ſtranger being a houſholder, as before is ſaid, being lawfully warned and required thereunto, according to the ſaid Act either will refuſe to doe his dutie therein, or elſe he will giue ſecret warning thereof to his brethren of the ſaid Crafts, whereby they haue not onely conuaid and hid all their vnlawfull, vntrue, ſubtill, and deceitfull wares, which they vntruly, ſubtilly, vnſubſtantially and deceitfully haue made, and daily make and vtter to our Subiects at exceſſiue and vnreaſonable prices, to the great detriment and damages of our ſaid Subiects, but alſo their Seruants and Prentices they haue hid from the knowledge of the ſaid Warden, when any ſuch ſearch hath happened to be made, and ſo they defraud the ſame good and honourable Statute and act. So that thereof no lawfull puniſhment, could, can, might, or may enſue, according to the tenour, purport, and effect of the ſaid ſtatute, but they contemne, deſpiſe, and ſet at naught the ſame, whereby and by the other vnlawfull meanes aforeſaid, and others, as ſubtilly ſending and conueying ouer the Sea, Bacon, Cheeſe, poudered Béeffes, Muttons, and other commodities within this our Realme, not onely within and out of the ſaid Cities, Townes, and Boroughs corporate, but alſo within and out of other places throughout our Realme, by them the ſaid ſtrangers practiſed and executed, whereby they daily increaſe in greate riches, and in great multitude in numbers, of ſtrangers handiecrafts men, borne out of our obeyſance. And when they haue gathered much riches and money, they againſt our Lawes conuey the ſame mony ouer the Sea. And then they alſo go ouer the Sea into their Countries, and there purchaſe them lands and tenements with part thereof, and with the reſidue of the ſame they liue thereby, & ſometime they conuert part thereof to the vſe of our enemies in thoſe parts. And ſo as well our poore Subiects Cordwainers, and all our Subiects handy crafts men, borne within our obeyſance, by the meanes aforeſaid, be ſore impoueriſhed, miniſhed, and almoſt vtterly decayed and deſtroyed, and many of them for lacke of occupation in the ſaid handy crafts, be conſtrained to liue in idleneſſe, by occaſion whereof, they doe continually fall to theft, murder, and other great offences, and conſequently in great numbers be put to death by our Lawes, as we be informed. And alſo the great ſcarcity of graine, and victuall at this preſent time throughout our Realme, to be the more enforced, & cauſed by reaſon of the great multitude and continual recourſe of the ſaid ſtrangers handy crafts men, which conſume a great portion of corne and victuall, growen and bred within this our Realme: the premiſes conſidered, to the intent to be thereof more perfectly and truly inſtructed, for the charitable zeale that wee haue to the common-weale of our realme, & our ſaid ſubiects of the ſame, and for the quietnes of the ſaid ſtrangers, we haue aſſigned and giuen in commandement to our Lords and others of our Counſell, indifferently to examine the premiſes, and as well to heare the ſaid complainants as the ſaid defendants, and their allegations and ſayings, of, in, and to, the premiſes, and to euery part thereof, and the ſame by them heard, examined, and by good deliberate aduiſe vnderſtood, to ordaine and adiudge, and decree the ſame, after their wiſedomes and learning, whereupon as well the ſaid bill of complaint, the anſwere of the ſaid defendants thereunto made, the replication of the ſaid complainants, to the ſaid anſwere alſo made, and all other allegations and ſayings of both the ſaid parties, by mature and deliberate aduiſe, by our ſaid Counſell ripely examined, heard, and vnderſtood.

The decree made by the Lords of the Kings Counſell in the Starre Chamber touching ſtrangers Artificers.

It is ordeined, adiudged, and decreed, the xx. day of February, in this preſent terme of S. Hilarie, in the xx. yeare of our reigne in our Star-chamber, by the moſt Reuerend Father in God, Thomas Lord Cardinall, Legate de latere of the Apoſtolike ſee, Archbiſhop of Yorke, Primate and Chãcellor of England, and by our Nobles, and others of our ſaid Counſell, and by the mutuall aſſents of the Complainants, and Defendants, then there being, in manner and forme following. That is to ſay, that according to the Act of Parliament made the ſaid xiiij. and xv. yeare of our Raigne, that no ſtranger artificer borne out of our obeyſance, inhabiting within any Citie, Towne or Borough, or any other place within this our Realme of England, from thenceforth ſhall keepe in his or their houſe, or houſes, any manner of ſeruants ſtrangers, borne out of our obeyſance, but onely two ſtrangers ſeruants, and no more at one time. And that as many of the ſtrangers artificers, now inhabiting within any City, Towne, or Borough Corporate, or in any other place within our ſaid Realme, that will be Apprentiſes or Seruants to or with any of our Subiects Artificers borne within our obeyſance, exerciſing new or old ſtuffe, inhabiting within our ſaid Realme, ſhall be ſuffered ſo to abide and dwell with them, without interruption, as long as they will ſo continue and abide with them, and can agree together.

A ſtranger artificer ſhall keepe but two ſtrangers born in his houſe. 5. El. 4.

And furthermore it is decreed, that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euery of the ſaid ſtrangers artificers, now being houſholders within our ſaid realme, to take as many of our ſubiects borne within our obeyſance, to be their ſeruants and apprentiſes, in the craft that they doe exerciſe, as they can lawfully get. And that all the ſtrangers artificers, now being houſholders within our ſaid City of London, ſuburbs, pariſhes, or compaſſe thereof expreſſed in the ſaid ſtatutes, or within ij. miles compaſſe of the ſaid pariſhes.

Strangers Artificers may take Engliſh men to be their Prentiſes. 5. El. 4.

And alſo all and ſingular ſtrangers that now be, or hereafter ſhall bee made Denizens, that doe or hereafter will inhabite within our ſaid City of London, Suburbs, or Pariſhes aforeſaid, or within ij. miles compaſſe of the ſame, and keepe houſes, and occupie their craft, ſhall be contributory to, and with our Subiects Artificers within our city of London, paying, bearing and ſuſtaining ſuch charges as hereafter ſhall be expreſſed. That is to ſay, as well of euery of the ſaid ſtrangers, being of the Craft and myſtery of Cordwainers, houſholders, as Denizens that now be, or hereafter ſhall be made Denizens and ſhall inhabite within our ſaid City, Suburbs, Pariſhes, or two miles compaſſe of the ſame, ſhall quarterly pay to the ſaid Maſter, Wardens, and comminalty of the ſaid craft of Cordwainers within our ſaid City of London for the time being, vj. d. And euery ſeruant ſtranger of the ſaid occupation of the ſaid Cordwainers within the ſaid City, Suburbs, and Precinct, not being Denizen, ſhall quarterly pay to the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, and Comminalty, iij. d. And that all other ſtrangers artificers, and denizens, of euery handy craft, and myſterie, inhabiting as well within our ſaid city of London, as in any other city or towne within this our Realme, ſhall pay, beare, and ſuſtaine, all ſuch and like charges, as our Subiects of like Craft and myſtery borne out of our obeyſance, inhabiting within the Citie, Borough, or Towne of their habitation at this time, doe now beare and ſuſtaine.

What charges ſtrangers ſhall be contributory vnto with the Engliſh Artificers.

And alſo all Strangers Artificers and Denizens, exerciſing the Craft and Myſterie of Cordwainers, dwelling out of our Citie of London, in any other Citie or Towne within this our Realme, ſhall pay, beare, and ſuſtaine, ſcotte, taxes, tallages, ſubſidies, preſts, and all other reaſonable exactions from time to time, according as the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, and Companies, of the ſaid Crafts for the time being, ſhall bee bounden to pay, beare, and ſuſtaine when any ſubſidie, taxe, tallage, or preſt or other reaſonable charges, ſhall be by the Maior & Aldermen of our ſaid City of London, and the Maiors and Aldermen of our ſaid other Cities and Townes or by the Common Counſell of the ſaid Citie, Cities and Townes, of and for any charges of paiments of money, to be paid by the Companies of the ſaid Crafts, Citizens of any Citie, for any payment to be made vnto the Kings Highneſſe, or his heires, or elſe to be paid for any cauſe, concerning the Common wealth of any our ſaid Cities or Townes, or Common wealth of the ſaid Artificers, the ſaid ſtrangers ſhall pay all the ſame, that they ſhal be aſſeſſed or taxed to pay, as contributories with the ſaid Companies, being our Subiects, as our ſaid Subiects ſhall be aſſeſſed and taxed to pay. And if any of them deny or refuſe the ſame, or any part thereof then he or they denying and refuſing ſo to doe, ſhal not onely loſe the benefit of this decrée, but alſo ſhal not any longer occupy any handy craft, vpon the paines, dangers, and perils ſpecified in the aboue remembred Acts and Statutes.

The penalty of a ſtranger refuſing to be contributory to lawfull charges with his company.

And that as well all and euery of the ſaid houſholders ſtrangers aforeſaid, as all other ſtrangers Artificers, made or to be made Denizens, that ſhall be houſholders, and inhabite and occupie any craft within our ſaid City, Suburbs, or ij. miles compaſſe of the ſame, as long as they ſhall remaine and abide within the ſaid City, Suburbs, and two miles compaſſe of the ſame, being reaſonably required & warned by the Wardens and other perſons, Gouernours in any City, Towne, or Borough corporate of their ſaid Crafts, within any of our ſaid Cities, or Townes corporate, or by any of them for the time being, or by their lawfull deputies, or deputy, ſhall goe with the ſaid Wardens or other Gouernors, there as no Wardens be, to make ſearch according to the aboue remembred Acts of Parliament made in the xiiij. and xv. yeare of our raigne, which if they refuſe to doe, and that proued before the Chancellour of England, or before the Maior of London, and in other Cities, before the chiefe perſons of the ſaid Cities and Townes, for the time being: That then the ſame houſholders, or houſholder ſo offending, denying, or refuſing the ſame, ſhall no longer the ſame his occupation exerciſe, or vſe, within this our Realme, vpon paine, perill, and danger expreſſed in the afore remembred Acts and Statutes.

Strangers Artificers ſhall goe with the Wardes of the ſame company to make ſearch.

And that the ſame ſtrangers Artificers, Denizens, or not Denizens, houſholders which will remaine and abide within our ſaid Realme, ſhall vpon lawfull notice to them giuen by the Maſter or Wardens of their Craft, or one of them, perſonally preſent themſelues in the Common Hall, or méeting place of their ſaid Crafts, within our ſaid Cities, and Townes, there as they be inhabiting, and then or there euery of them to receiue and take their Oathes, and bée ſworne vpon the holy Euangeliſt, before the ſaid Maſter and Wardens, of their ſaid Craft and Myſtery within our ſaid Cities and Townes corporate, to be faithfull and true to vs and to our heires Kings of England, and to be obedient to vs and them, and to our and their Lawes, and to all Acts, Ordinances, and Decrées, made and confirmed by vs and our Counſell, or by our Counſell, and duely and truely at all times, when they ſhall bee appointed by the Wardens of their Fellowſhip, Craft, or Myſterie, for the the time being, or their Deputies, to make ſearch with them, according to the purport, tenour, or effect of an Eſtatute and Act of Parliament made in the xiiij. and xv. yeare of our raigne, and haue warning and monition thereof by the Wardens or any of them, or any other their ſufficient deputy or deputies, in that behalfe to them giuen and made, and that they ſhall bee ready to goe with the ſaid Wardens to make the ſame ſearch, and that they ſhall not giue notice to any ſtranger of the ſaid ſearch, vntill they with the ſaid Wardens come together to make the ſaid ſearch, and that they ſhall well, indifferently and truely behaue them in the ſame, ſetting all affection, fauour, malice, and dread of any creature, and all fraud and deceit apart, ſo helpe them God and all Saints, and by the holy Euangeliſt. And their oath ſo receiued in forme aforeſaid, the ſaid ſtrangers ſhall pay for their commiſſion, according as our ſaid Subiects haue alwaies vſed to pay.

It is alſo further decréed, that no ſtranger Artificer, or handy Crafts man, borne out of our obeyſance, not being Denizen, which at the day of the making of this decrée, is not a houſholder within this our Realme, or kéepeth any ſhop or ſhops within the ſaid City and Suburbs, or any other City, Towne, or Borough, within this our Realme, ſhall from that day forward ſet vp or kéepe any houſe, ſhop, or Chamber within our City of London, Suburbs, or Pariſhes before rehearſed, or within any other City, Towne, Borough, or Village, within this our Realme, wherein he ſhall exerciſe and practiſe any handie craft or myſterie, vpon paine to incur and runne in ſuch penalties as be contained in the Statutes before this time made and enacted.

Auowries ſhall be made by the Lord vpon the Land without naming his Tenant.

The reaſon and cauſe of making of this Stat.

WHere as well the Noblemen of this Realme, as diuers other perſons, by fines, recoueries, graunts, and ſecret feoffments, and leaſes, made by their tenants to perſons vnknowne, of the lands and tenements holden of them, haue beene put from the knowledge of their tenants, vpon whom they ſhould by order of the law make their auowries for their rents, cuſtomes, and ſeruices, to their great loſſes and hindrances.

An auowry may be made by the Lord vpon the land holden of him, without naming his tenant.

Auowry in Second deliuerãce.

27.H.8. Coke li. 36.136. Coke li. 311.a.

Be it therefore enacted, eſtabliſhed, and ordained, by authority of this preſent Parliament, That whereſoeuer any maner lands, tenements, and other hereditaments be holden by any maner perſon or perſons, by rents, cuſtomes, or ſeruices, that if the Lord, of whom any ſuch manor lands, tenements, or hereditaments be ſo holden, diſtraine vpon the ſame manors, lands, or tenements, for any ſuch rents, cuſtomes, or ſeruices, and Replevin thereof be ſued, that the Lord, of whom the ſame lands, tenements, or hereditaments be ſo holden, may auow, or his Bayliffe, or ſeruant make coniſance, or iuſtifie for taking of the ſaid diſtreſſes, vpon the ſame lands, tenements or hereditaments ſo holden, as in lands or tenements within his fee or ſigniory, alleaging in the ſaid auowrie, coniſance and iuſtification, the ſame manors, lands, and tenements to be holden of him without naming of any perſon certaine to be tenant of the ſame, and without making any auowry, iuſtification, or coniſance vpon any perſon certaine. And likewiſe the Lord, Baily, or ſeruant, to make auowrie, iuſtification, or coniſance, in like maner and forme vpon euery writ ſued of ſecond deliuerance.

The auowant ſhall recouer dammages and coſts of ſuit.

Dyer fo. Bro.

And alſo be it enacted by the ſaid authority, that euery auowant, and euery other perſon and perſons that make any ſuch auowry, iuſtification, or coniſance, as Baily, or ſeruant to any perſon or perſons in any Replegiare, or ſecond deliuerãce, for rents, cuſtomes, ſeruices, or for damage feſant, or other rent or rents, vpon any diſtreſſe taken in any lands or tenements: if the ſame auowrie, coniſance, or iuſtification be found for them, or the plaintiffs in the ſame be nonſuit, or otherwiſe barred, that then they ſhall recouer their damages & coſts againſt the ſaid plaintiffs, as the ſame plaintifes ſhould haue done or had,if they had recouered in the Replegiare, or ſecond deliuerance found againſt the ſaid defendants.

And be it alſo ordained,that the ſaid plaintifes and defendants in the ſaid writs of Replegiare, or writs of ſecond deliuerance,and in euery of them ſhal haue like pleas and like aide prayers in all ſuch auowries,coniſances,and iuſtifications(pleas of diſclaime onely except) as they might haue had before the making of this Act,and as though the ſaid auowrie,coniſance,or iuſtification had béene made after the due order of the Common law.

Like pleas and aide prayers as at the common law.

And it is further enacted by the ſaid authority,that all ſuch perſons as by the order of the common law may lawfully ioyne to the plaintifes or defendants in the ſaid writs of Replegiare,or ſecond deliuerance,as well without proceſſe, as by proceſſe, ſhall from henceforth ioyne vnto the ſaid plaintifes or defendants,as well without Proceſſe,as by proceſſe,and to haue like pleas,and like aduantages in all things(diſclaime only except)as they might haue done by the order of the common law,before the making of this Act.

Like ioynder in aide as at the common law.

Cap.XX.

The Preſident ſhall be aſſociat with the Chancellor,&c. in examination and puniſhing of Riots,&c.

Where at a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the third yeare of the raigne of our late moſt dread Soueraigne Lord Henry the ſeuenth, foraſmuch as by the vnlawfull maintenances,giuing of liueries,ſignes,tokens and retaindors, by indentures, promiſes,oathes, writings,or otherwiſe, embraceries of his ſubiects,vntrue demeaning of Sherifes in making of panels,and other vntrue returnes,by taking of money by Iuries, and great Riots and vnlawfull aſſemblies,the policy and good rule of this realme was almoſt ſubdued. And for the puniſhment of theſe inconueniences by the occaſion of the premiſſes,nothing or little might bee found by enquiry,whereby the lawes of the land in execution might take little effect, which was to the encreaſe of murders,robberies, periuries,and vnſuerties of all men liuing, and loſſes of their lands & goods, to the great diſpleaſure of Almighty God : For reformation of which premiſſes,it was ordained and enacted by the authority of the ſaid Parliament amongſt other things, that the Chancellor & Treaſorer of England for the time being,and the kéeper of the Kings priuy ſeale, or two of them,calling to them a Biſhop and a Temporall Lord of the Kings moſt honourable Counſell,and the two chiefe Iuſtices of the Kings Bench,and the Common place for the time being,or other two Iuſtices in their abſences vpon bill or information put to the ſaid Chauncellor for the King,or any other:againſt any perſon for any miſbehauing afore rehearſed, ſhould haue authority to call before them by writ or by priuy ſeale the ſaid miſdoers. And they and other by their diſcretion, by whom the truth might be knowne, to examine. And ſuch as they ſhould finde defectiue, to puniſh them after their demerits, after the forme and effect of Statutes thereof made,in like maner and forme as they ſhould, and ought to bee puniſhed, if they were thereof conuict after the due order of the law, as by the ſame Statute among other things more plainly doth appeare. Neuertheleſſe in the ſame good and profitable Statute, the Preſident of the Kings moſt honourable Counſell, for the time being, attending vpon his moſt noble, and royall perſon is omitted, and not named in the ſaid former Statute, made in the third yeare of the raigne of King Henry the ſeuenth to be one of the ſaid perſons,that ſhould haue authority to call before them ſuch miſdoers ſo offending the Kings lawes in any of the premiſſes,as is before rehearſed.

A rehearſall of the Statute of 3.H.7.1.touching authority giuen to certain great Magiſtrates to enquire of ſeuerall offences.

Be it therefore now by the authority of this preſent Parliament ordained,and enacted, that from henceforth the Chancellor,Treaſorer of England,and the Preſident of the Kings moſt honourable Counſell,attending vpon his moſt honourable perſon,for the time being,and kéeper of the Kings priuy ſeale,or two of them,calling vnto them one Biſhop, and one Temporall Lord of the Kings moſt honourable Counſell,and the two chiefe Iuſtices of the Kings Bench and the Common place for the time being,or other two of the Kings Iuſtices in their abſence,vpon any bill or information hereafter to be put in,the Chauncellor of England, Treaſorer,Preſident of the Kings ſaid moſt honorable Counſel,or kéeper of the Kings priuy ſeale for the time being,for any miſbehauing before rehearſed,from henceforth haue full power and authority to call before them,by writ or priuy ſeale,ſuch miſdoers,and them,and other by their diſcretion, by whom the truth may be knowne, to examine. And ſuch as they ſhall finde defectiue,to puniſh them after their demerits, after the forme and effect of the ſaid former Statute, and of all other Statutes thereof heretofore made,and not repealed,or expired,in like maner and forme as they ſhould and ought to be puniſhed,if they were thereof conuicted after the due order of the Kings lawes.

The Preſident of the Kings Counſell ſhall be aſſociat with the L. Chancellor,&c. for the examination and puniſhment of Riots,&c.

And alſo be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament,that the Preſident of the Kings ſaid moſt honourable Counſel,for the time being,if he be then preſent,may be at all times hereafter aſſotiate with the Chancellor,Treaſorer of England, and kéeper of the Kings priuy ſeale for the time being,as well at the naming of Sherifes,& ſetting of prices of wines, as at all other acts limited,and appointed by any Statute to be done by the ſaid Chancellor,and Treaſorer, or keeper of the Kings priuy ſeale, for the time being: Any Act, Statute, or vſe heretofore made, or vſed to the contrary notwithſtanding.

In what other cauſes the Preſident of the K. Counſel ſhall be aſſociat with the Chancellor,&c.

Triall of forrein pleas pleaded by Felons.

The incomeniences enſuing the allowance of a Felon to plead a plea triable in a Forein County.

WHere among other things it was conſidered by the whole Court of Parliament of our moſt excellent Soueraigne Lord the King, holden in the fourth year of his noble raigne, that Murderers & Felons, lawfully arraigned of their deteſtable offences, bare them bold vpon imagining, and pleading of fained and vntrue Forein plées triable in Forein Counties, to the intent to be remoued from place to place by colourable and vntrue ſuggeſtions, and for to be vntruely acquit by fauour, might, or corruption, ſo that they liued in maner without feare or dread. For reformation whereof, and for the common wealth of this Realme, it was enacted by authority of the ſaid Parliament, That if any Murtherer, or Felon, vpon his arraignment from thence did alleage, that he had taken any Church or Churchyard, for Murder, or Felony, or other place priuiledged for the ſame in a Forein County, and againſt his will was taken out thereof: That then the Kings Atturney, or any other perſon that would ſhew or alleage for the King, that the ſaid Murderer, or Felon ſo arraigned, was taken at large in the ſame Shire, where he is ſo arraigned, that then the ſame alleageance, and iſſue ſhould be tried by the Inqueſt that ſhould try the ſaid Murder, or Felony, within the ſame Shire, and before the ſame Iuſtices where the ſaid Murderer or Felon is arraigned, as though the ſaid Forein plée had not béene pleaded by the ſaid Felon. And that if it were found by the ſame Inqueſt, that the ſaid Murderer or Felon was taken within the ſame Shire, as is aforeſaid, that then he to haue no aduantage or benefit of the matter alleged by him for taking out of the Church or Churchyard, or other place priuiledged in any ſuch Forein Shire, and that the ſaid Act ſhould endure to the next Parliament from that time enſuing, as by the ſame Act made in the ſaid fourth yeare manifeſtly appeareth. And for as much as ſith the time of expiration of the ſaid Act made in the ſaid fourth yeare many abhominable Murders, as well of Prieſts, as of other perſons, Robberies of Church, and Robberies of perſons in their houſes, as well by day as by night, and other deteſtable Murders, and Felonies, haue béene committed, and done within this Realme. And the moe, and more often, becauſe that the ſaid Statute hath béene expired, and ended, from, and ſince the beginning of the Parliament of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, holden in the firſt yeare of his moſt noble raigne.

It is ordeyned and enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Act made in the ſaid fourth yeare, and euery thing therein contained, concerning the ſaid Forrein plées, and replications thereunto to be made, and trials thereof, ſhall now be reuiued, and ſhall ſtand in full force and effect, and ſhall continue and endure from henceforth for euer, as if the ſame Act had béene originally made perpetuall and not determinable.

So much of the Stat. of 4. H. 8. as toucheth the plea pleaded by a Felon that hee was taken in a Forrein Country out of Sanctuary, made perpetuall.

Cap. III.

How Ceſſes, Scots, and Taxes made for recouery or defence of Plumſted marſh, may be obtained.

Whereas the Marſhes of Plumſted and Leſeues, with the outragiouſneſſe of the Riuer of Thames, hath béene, and yet be drowned by occaſion of the breaches in the Marſh walles of Plumſted, Leſeues, and Erith: And where the breach in Plumſted Marſh aforeſaid hath béene and is made, for inning of which breach of Plumſted and maintenance and defence of the Marſh walles about the ſame breach, as well for making of a new croſſe wall to be made from the Thames unto the upland for inning of the ſaid Marſh of Plumſted, as alſo for the inning of certaine number of Acres in the leuell and Marches of Leſeues to bee incloſed, inned, and defended by the ſaid croſſe wall from the water of Thames, comming in at Erith breach, and drowning and ouerflowing the ſaid Marſh and leuell, and for drayning of the ſame, and for the maintenance of the old Marſh walles from the Thames ſide from the ſaid new croſſe wall nigh unto Wolwich, diuers and ſundry Ceſſes, Scots, and Taxes haue béene made, ceſſed, ſcotted, ſet, and taxed by vertue of Cõmiſſion, and the day of payments thereof in the Pariſh Church of Plumſted, according as heretofore for Ceſſes of Plumſted Marſh hath béen accuſtomed, hath béene declared and proclaimed, which Ceſſes, Scots, and Taxes, diuers Poſſeſſioners, Owners, Landlords, Tenants, and profit takers of the ſaid Lands within the ſaid Marſhes and leuell at the day mentioned and appointed by Proclamation, haue not payed, nor yet doe pay, contrary to the lawes of Plumſted Marſh heretofore made, by which lawes for non payment of ſuch Ceſſes, Scots, and Taxes, they ought to pay them and their doubles. In default of which payment the ſaid Bailiffe of the ſaid Marſh and leuell now being, and other by his aſſignement, to their great hinderance, haue béene conſtrained to pay diuers of the ſaid Scots, Ceſſes, and Taxes, for the inning of the ſaid Marſh, maintenance, and defence of the ſame, or elſe the ſome Marſhes and leuell had béene utterly loſt without remedy.

The law of Plumſted marſh concerning the payment of Ceſſes, Scots, and Taxes.

For the recouery of which ceſſes, ſcots, and taxes ſo by the Bayliffe, and his aſſignes payed, and of other ſcots and ceſſes now due, by the occaſion of the ſaid outragious drowning of the ſaid Marſhes, the ſaid Bailiffe and his aſſignes haue no remedy or meane to leuy the ſame: So that for non payment of the ſaid ceſſes, ſcots and taxes not onely the ſaid worke is like to periſh, and not to be finiſhed, unleſſe ſpéedy remedy may be had for the leuying thereof: but alſo all ſuch ſummes of money as before this time hath béene imployed for the inning, defence, and maintenance of the ſame, are like to be loſt, to the utter deſtruction of the ſaid Marſh, and leuell, and to the extreame ruine and decay of the Country therunto adioyning, and to the great decay of the Riuer of Thames aforeſaid, and to the diſheriſon as well of our Soueraigne Lord the King, as of other owners, poſſeſſioners, and tenants that haue, doe, and will pay ſuch ceſſes, ſcots, and taxes, as before this time, or in time to come hath, or ſhal be ceſſed, ſet, and taxed for the ſame. In conſideration whereof be it enacted by our Soueraigne Lord the King, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the Bailiffe of the ſaid Marſhes & leuell now being, or his aſſignes, ſhall and may by force of this Act, make Proclamation on any Sunday hereafter enſuing, in the Pariſh Church of Plumſted aforeſaid, as well of this Act, as alſo that all ſuch Ceſſes, Scots, and Taxes, at the time of the ſaid Proclamation made, being behinde, and unpayed, ſhall be payed at a certaine place in the ſaid Proclamation to be limited, within twenty dayes next enſuing after the day of the ſame Proclamation. And he that ſo payeth, ſhall be diſcharged of any doubles due heretofore for non payment of the ſame. And if the ſaid Ceſſes, Scots, and Taxes be not paid by the end of the ſaid twenty dayes after ſuch Proclamation, to the ſaid Bayliffe, his Executors or Aſſignes, that then euery perſon or perſons, which ought to pay the ſame Ceſſes, Scots, and Taxes, ſhall forfeit the doubles of the ſame Ceſſes, Scots, and Taxes. And that then if the ſaid Ceſſes, Scots, and Taxes, and their doubles be not paid by the feaſt of S. Michaell the Archangell now next comming, unto the ſaid Bailiffe, his Executors or Aſſignes: then it ſhall be lawfull to euery Owner, Poſſeſſioner, Landlord, Tenant, and profit taker of Lands and Tenements, and other profits within the ſaid Marſhes and leuell, or any other perſon or perſons which hath, doth, and will pay to the ſaid Bayliffe, his Executors or Aſſignes, ſuch Ceſſes, Scots, and Taxes, or any of them ſo due, and unpayed by any other Owner, Poſſeſſioner, Landlord, Tenant, profit taker of Lands, and Tenements, within the ſame leuell, to enter into all the ſaid Lands, and Tenements, and other profits, within the ſaid Marſhes and leuell, ſo ceſſed, ſcotted, and taxed, and the ſame from thenceforth to haue, hold, perceiue, and occupy

The Bayliffe of Plumſted marſh ſhall make Proclamation that each perſon ſhall pay his ceſſes, ſcots, &c. within xx. dayes

Taxes, Ceſſes, and Scots hereafter to be made

Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid,that the ſame Law ſhall be had and executed for any ſcot,taxe or ceſſe hereafter to be had and made before the feaſt of the Natiuity of S.Iohn Baptiſt now next comming,by vertue of any Commiſſion within any of the ſaid Marſhes and Leuell,any Act or vſe to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The land forfeited may bee redeemed within three yeares.

Prouided alway this Act notwithſtanding , That ſuch perſon or perſons,their heires and aſſignes, whoſoeuer ſhall ſo runne in the doubles and loſſe of his or their Lands, may at any time within thrée yeares next following the time limited for the loſſe of the ſaid land,bring in,and pay the ſaid ceſſes,taxes,and his or their doubles to him or them that ſhall haue the ſaid land by the authoritie of this Act, or to his heires or aſſignes, and ſo to enioy his or their land againe,from the day of the payment of his or their ſaid money for the ſaid ceſſes,taxes,and doubles,or elſe they and euery of them,their heires and aſſignes to be from thenceforth excluded and barred from all title,right,vſe,poſſeſſion,action,and entry to be had,of or to the ſaid lands,or any parcell thereof for euer,

The particular tenant charged with more than the land is worth,may retaine the ſame land after his eſtate is expired

Prouided alway, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid,That if any man hauing any lands in poſſeſſion,or in vſe,in the right of his wife,tenant by the courteſie,tenant in dower, tenant for terme of life,terme of yeares,tenant by Elegit,tenant by Statute Merchant,gardein in ſocage,gardein in chiualry,or any other hauing any particular intereſt vnder eſtate of inheritance in any lands, tenements, or any other yearely profits chargeable to the ſaid ceſſes, ſcots, taxes,and doubles,now rated, taxed,or ſet,or hereafter to be rated, taxed and ſet, which haue before this time payed,or at any time hereafter ſhall pay during his or their ſaid intereſt in or to the ſame,any ſum or ſums of money for the defence, inning,& maintenance of the ſaid marſhes and leuell,ouer and aboue all ſuch ſumme or ſummes as he or they haue,or ſhal receiue and take of the ſame lands or other yearely profits: that from henceforth it ſhall be lawfull vnto euery ſuch particular tenant,occupier,or other profit taker,their executors or aſſignes, by force and vertue of this preſent Act,to hold,kéepe,poſſede,and retaine the ſame lands,or other yearely profits,to his,or their owne vſe, againſt all and euery ſuch perſon or perſons, to whom the ſame lands,tenements,or other yearely profits ſhould,and ought to diſcend,remaine , or reuert after all and euery ſuch particular eſtate expired and determined,vntil he or they haue fully receiued, taken and had of,and vpon the ſame,all ſuch ſummes of money,as they or any of them haue beſtowed,imployed,expended,and paied in,and for the defence,inning & maintenance of the ſame.

It ſhall be felony to breake vp or cut downe Powdike in marſhland.

Seuerall inconueniences enſuing the breaking downe of Powdike, and Oldfeld dike.

Where tofore this time diuers euill diſpoſed perſons of their peruerſe and euill diſpoſition maliciouſly at diuers and ſundry times, haue cut, caſt downe, and broken vp, diuers parts, of the dike, called the new Powdike in Marſhland, in the Countie of Norffolke, and the broken dike, otherwiſe called Oldfeld dike by Marſhland, in the Iſle of Ely, in the Countie of Cambridge: by reaſon whereof as well by the great abundance of the ſalt water, as alſo by the courſe of the freſh water, entring and comming into and by the ſaid parts of the ſaid diches ſo broken and caſt downe, the ground and paſtures within the Countrey of Marſhland in the Counties aforeſaid, hath beene diuers and many times drowned, and ſurrounded with the waters aforeſaid, ſo that no profit thereof might be taken by the owners and occupiers of the ſaid ground and paſtures, within Marſhland aforeſaid. For the drowning whereof, the ſaid owners and occupiers of the ſaid ground, and the inhabitants within the ſaid Marſhland and the leuell of the ſame, at many and ſundrie times haue beene not onely put to importunate charges, and expences, to their extreme damages, and coſtes, but alſo to their great vndoing haue loſt much of their Cattell, and beaſts then being, and paſturing vpon, and within Marſhland aforeſaid, to their great damage and loſſe, and to the great decay of the Common weale of the Countries adioyning to the ſame. And alſo by reaſon of the ſame waters much people haue beene drowned in their beds within their houſes, and haue loſt the moſt part of their goods being within the ſame.

It ſhalbe felony to breake vp or cut down powdike in marſhland, or oldfeld dike by marſhland.

And that the offendors and doers of the ſame, and euery of them be adiudged and reputed Felons.

In what manner perſons committing petty Treaſon ſhall abiure.

THe King our Soueraigne Lord conſidering that many of his ſubiects heretofore for their offences and merits, haue beene put to execution of death by the lawes of this Realme, and many other committing the like offences for tuition of their liues, haue fledde and reſorted to Churches, and other hallowed places within this Realme, and there being haue abiured the Realme before the Kings Coroners of the ſame: Diuers of which men (ſo abiuring) haue beene knowne to be very expert Mariners, and many other haue beene ſeene to be verie able and apt men for the warres, and defence of this Realme, ſo that by the one meane, and the other, the ſtrength and power of this Realme is greatly miniſhed. And diuers of the ſaid perſons, which heretofore haue abiured this Realme, being by reaſon of their abiurations in outward Realmes and countries, haue not onely procured many men of the ſame to the exerciſe and practiſe of Archerie, and haue inſtructed them in the feate and knowledge thereof, to the great increaſe and fortifications of the ſame outward Realmes and Countries: but alſo the ſame abiured perſons haue diſcloſed their knowledges of the commodities and ſecrets of this Realme, to the no little damage, and preiudice of the ſame. The Kings Highneſſe therefore daily ſtudying and deuiſing to prouide for the ſafegard of this his Realme, and of his ſubiects: Albeit they be tranſgreſſors of his lawes, ſo that the incommodities inſuing vpon ſuch abiurations to bee preſerued to the beſt effect as farr as ſhall pleaſe God to giue them grace, Hath ordeined and enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that if any perſon hereafter flie or reſort to any Pariſh Church, Cemitorie, or other like hallowed place for tuition of his life, by occaſien of any murder, robbery or other felonie by the ſame perſon committed, and thereupon confeſſe any murder, felonie, or other offence before the Coroner, wherefore the ſame perſon by the lawes of this Realme heretofore vſed ſhould abiure and paſſe out of the ſame. The ſame perſon thereupon ſhall abiure from all his libertie of this Realme, and from all his liberall and free habitations, reſorts and paſſages to and fro the vniuerſall places of this Realme, which apperteine to the libertie of the Kings ſubiects vndefamed, and ſhall forthwith be directed by the Coroner, taking and recording ſuch abiuration, to any one Sanctuarie being within this Realme, which the ſame perſon will elect and chuſe, there to remaine as a Sanctuarie perſon abiured, during his naturall life, and to be ſworne afore the Coroner vpon his abiuration ſo to doe, and to be burned in the hand according to the Statute in that caſe prouided. And euery perſon ſo abiured ſhall bee directed and conueied to the ſame Sanctuarie by him choſen, by the Conſtables, and other officers, and in euery behalfe ordered after like maner and forme, as he ſhould haue beene in caſe he ſhould haue abiured this Realme for any murder or felonie after the laws of the land. And if after ſuch abiuration any perſon ſo abiured come out of the ſame Sanctuarie, to the which he was aſſigned, and be taken without the ſame Sanctuarie, not hauing the Kings ſpeciall pardon or licence ſo to doe: then euery ſuch perſon abiured, and after abiuration taken without Sanctuarie whereunto he was aſſigned, ſhall ſuffer ſuch like paine of death, and after like manner be ordered, as he ſhould haue done and beene, in caſe he had abiured this Realme for murder or felonie, and after ſuch abiuration, had returned againe into this Realme contrarie to the lawes of this land.

By how many meanes abiuration of offendors out of this Realme hath bin preiudiciall to the Realme.

If a Sanctuary perſon doe commit any felony, he loſeth the priuiledge of Sanctuary.

In what caſe an offendor may be taken out of Sanctuary and committed to the Gaole.

Triall in one Countie of a forrein plea pleaded in another.

And furthermore it is enacted, that if any ſuch Sanctuarie perſon ſo abiured, or any other perſon or perſons, which now bée, or is, or hereafter ſhall happen to be in any Sanctuarie of this Realme, for doing any petie treaſon, murder, or felonie, or for being acceſſarie to any ſuch offences: or if any perſon or perſons, which at any time hereafter ſhall take any Sanctuarie of this Realme, for doing any petie treaſon, murder, or felonie, or for being acceſſarie to any ſuch offences, or vpon abiuration, and ſo being in Sanctiuarie for or vpon any ſuch cauſe, matter, or offence, afterward commit or doe any petie Treaſon, Murder, or felony within the ſame Sanctuary, or be acceſſarie to any ſuch offences, or go out of the ſame Sanctuary, and commit any petie treaſon, murder, or felonie, or be acceſſarie to any ſuch offences, & after come againe to the ſame ſanctuarie, or take any other ſanctuarie for the ſame, euery ſuch perſon and perſons being indited for any of the ſaid cauſes, or offences, ſhall loſe the priuiledge of the ſame Sanctuarie by him taken, and of euery other Sanctuarie within this Realme for any ſuch cauſe of petie treaſon, murder, felony, or abiuration, and for any acceſſary to any ſuch offences. And that it ſhall be lawfull to all and ſingular Iuſtices of Peace, and the high Sheriffe of the Countie, or other place, where the Sanctuarie is, and to all and ſingular Mayors, Sheriffs, and Bayliffes of Cities and townes corporate, where ſuch Sanctuary is, and to euery of them, and to the ſeruants, miniſters, and officers, or any, or euery of the ſame Iuſtices of Peace, Sheriffes, Mayors, and Bayliffes in their preſence to take out of the ſame Sanctuarie or Sanctuaries, all and euery ſuch Sanctuary perſon or perſons ſo offending as is aforeſaid, and being indited of the ſame, and to commit or put him, or them into the Kings Gaole within the Shire or libertie, where any ſuch inditement is found againſt any ſuch perſon, ſafely to be kept till they ſhall be of the ſame petie Treaſon, Murder or Felony, or of the acceſſarie to any ſuch offences, whereof they ſhall happen to be endited, conuicted, attainted or diſcharged by the law. And if any perſon or perſons, which ſhall be indited of any petie Treaſon, Murder, or Felony, or of any acceſſarie to any ſuch offence, happen hereafter to be taken out of any Sanctuarie for the ſame by authoritie of this Statute, and vpon his or their arraignment plead Sanctuarie, according to the order of the law: then it is enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that as well the Kings Atturney as euery other perſon for the King ſhall be admitted to obiect and alleage, that the perſon ſo arraigned afore the doing of the offence or offences, whereof he then is arraigned, did take priuiledge of Sanctuarie in the ſame Sanctuarie, whereof he alleageth him to be taken out, or in any other place priuiledged within this Realme, vpon any abiuration, or for any other pety Treaſon, Murder, or Felony then whereof he is arraigned, and that he there had and enioyed, priuiledge of Sanctuarie for the ſame, and that hee ſo hauing once priuiledge of Sanctuary in the ſame, did commit the offence of petie Treaſon, murder, or Felony, whereof he then is arraigned: or that he went out of the ſaid Sanctuary, and committed the ſame offence, whereof he is indited and arraigned, and pray that ſuch perſons ſo arraigned may be excluded of reſtitution to the Sanctuary by him demanded. And in caſe the ſaid plée and obiection, ſo alleaged, be denied by the perſon ſo arraigned, then it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall be forthwith tried afore the ſame Iuſtices, where ſuch perſon is ſo arraigned, and by the ſame Iurors of the ſame Countie, that ſhall trie the petie Treaſon, Murder, or Felony, whereof he is arraigned, without further delay, in whatſoeuer countie or counties, place or places of this Realme, the ſame other taking of Sanctuary ſhall bée alleadged or obiected to be done or had. And if the plée ſo obiected againſt the ſaid perſon arraigned, be tried againſt him by verdict of twelue men, or by his owne confeſſion, and alſo it be found by verdict of twelue men, or by his owne confeſſion, according to the order of the law, that hée is guilty of the pety Treaſon, Murder, or Felony, or of any acceſſary to any ſuch offence, whereof hée is ſo arraigned, that then like iudgement and execution ſhall bée giuen and done vpon euery ſuch perſon as though he had béene no Sanctuarie perſon, nor had claimed, or required the priuiledge of the ſame. And if any ſuch perſon be lawfully acquited of the petie Treaſon, Murder, or Felony, whereof he ſhall be ſo indited and arraigned, then he ſhall be reſtored to the ſame ſanctuarie, out of the which he was taken, there to haue the priuiledge of the ſame, in like maner as he had before.

In what caſe a Sanctuary perſon indited of felony ſuppoſed to be committed whilſt he was in Sanctuary ſhal be taken out.

Prouided alway, that if any perſon being, or abiding in any Sanctuarie as a Sanctuarie perſon, hereafter ſhall happen to be endited for any manner of Felony ſuppoſed to be committed by him or her going out of the ſame, or any other Sanctuarie, and committing the ſame Felony whiles that he or ſhe ſo was a Sanctuarie perſon, he or ſhe being endited of any ſuch Felony ſuppoſed to be done without the Sanctuarie, ſhall not be taken out of the Sanctuarie, wherein the ſame perſon ſhall then be reſident, before that he or ſhe be examined thereof by two of the Kings moſt honourable Counſell, or by foure Iuſtices of Peace of the Shire, where the Sanctuarie is, wherein the perſon ſo endited is reſident. And if the ſame perſon ſo endited within foure dayes after the firſt examination doe make ſuch proofe as the ſaid examiners by their diſcretions ſhall thinke ſufficient, that the ſame perſon was in the Sanctuarie at the time of the ſaid Felony committed: then he or ſhe making ſuch proofe ſhall be ſuffered to remaine & be in the ſame Sanctuarie, without any extraction from the ſame, the ſaid enditement or any thing in this Act aboue written notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo,that if any perſon, which was at any time a Sanctuary perſon for any petit treaſon,murder,or felony,obtaine and haue the Kings pardon, and thereby, or otherwiſe, bee at large and out of Sanctuary diſcharged or purged of that offence or cauſe,wherfore the ſame perſon tooke Sanctuary, and afterward doe commit other petie treaſon,felony, or man-ſlaughter by chaunce-medly,and not murder of malice prepenſed,and thereupon again take Sanctuary for any ſuch pety treaſon,felony, or man-ſlaughter by chaunce medley: the ſame perſon ſhall haue and enioy the priuiledge of Sanctuary for that his or her other offence of petie treaſon,felony, or mã-ſlaughter by chaunce medley,as the ſame perſon mought haue had before the making of this Act,any thing in the ſame Act contained notwithſtanding.

In what caſe one may haue the priuiledge of Sanctuary twice.

And ouer this for more ſpeedy trials of murders and felonies,be it enacted by authority aforeſaid,that all maner of forrein plees triable by the countrey hereafter to be pleaded by any perſon or perſons arraigned vpon any indictment for any pety treaſon,murder. or felony,ſhall be forthwith tried before the ſame Iuſtices afore whom ſuch perſons ſhall be arraigned, and by the ſame Iurors of the ſame County that ſhall try the petit treaſon,murder, or felony, whereof he ſhall ſo be arraigned,without any further reſpite or delay,in whatſoeuer county or counties,place or places of this Realme the matter of the ſame plees be ſuppoſed or alleaged.

Cap. III.

How periury and vntrue verdicts ſhall be puniſhed.

The King our Soueraigne Lord of his moſt godly, and gratious diſpoſition, calling to his remembrance, how that periury in this Land is in manifold cauſes by vnreaſonable meanes deteſtably vſed, to the diſheritance, and great dammage of many, and great number of his ſubiects, well diſpoſed, and to the moſt high diſpleaſure of Almighty God. The good Statutes againſt al Officers hauing returne of writs, and their Deputies making panels partially for rewards to them giuen, againſt vnlawfull Maintainors, Embraceors, and Iurors; and againſt Iurors vntruely giuing their verdict notwithſtanding. For reformation whereof, and foraſmuch as the late noble King Henry the ſeuenth, prouided remedy for the ſame by a Statute made in the eleuenth yeare of his raigne, which Satute is now expired.

St.11.H.7.24.

Be it therefore now enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That vpon euery vntrue verdict hereafter giuen betwixt party and party, in any ſuit, plaint, or demand, before any Iuſtices, and Iudges of Record, where the thing in demand, and verdict thereupon giuen, extendeth to the value of xl. li. and concerneth not the ieopardy of mans life, the party grieued by the ſame verdict ſhal haue a writ of Attaint againſt euery perſon hereafter ſo giuing an vntrue verdict, and euery of them, and againſt the party which ſhall haue iudgement vpon the ſame verdict. And vpon the diſtreſſe which ſhall be deliuered of Record vpon the ſame, open proclamation to be made in the Court there, The diſtreſſe ſhall be awarded more than fifteene dayes afore the returne of the ſame diſtreſſe, and euery ſuch diſtreſſe ſhall be made vpon the land of euery of the ſaid graund Iury, as in other diſtreſſes is and hath beene vſed. And if the ſaid party defendant, or the petit Iurors or any of them appeare not vpon the diſtreſſe, then the graund Iury to be taken againſt them and euery of them that ſhall ſo make default. And if any of the ſaid petit Iury appeare, then the party complainant in that behalfe ſhall aſſigne the falſe ſerement of the firſt verdict vntruely giuen, whereunto they of the petit Iury ſhall haue no anſwer, if they be the ſaine perſons, and the writ, proces, returne, and aſſignement good and lawfull, except that the demandant or plaintiffe in the ſame Attaint hath afore beene nonſuit, or diſcontinued his ſuit of Attaint taken for the ſame, or hath for the ſame verdict in a writ of attaint had iudgement againſt the ſaid petit Iury, but only that they made true ſerement, which iſſue ſhall be tried by xxiiij. of the ſaid graund Iury. And the party ſhall plead that they gaue true verdict, or any other matter, which ſhall be a ſufficient Barre of the ſaid Attaint. And that plea notwithſtanding, the graund Iury, to be taken without delay, to enquire whether the firſt Iury gaue true verdict or no.

CAP. VI.

Before whom Recogniſances of debt ſhall be made, and the forme, &c.

FOraſmuch as the Maiors, of the Staple in diuers places of this Realme, where any Staple is kept, in the preſence of the Conſtables of the ſame Staple before this time haue & might lawfully take Recogniſance, or knowledge for debts, onely concerning and touching the Merchandiſe of the ſame Staple, betwixt Merchant and Merchant of the ſame Staple, according to diuers laudable Statutes and prouiſions before this time had, ordained and made. Which Maiors and Conſtables many and ſundry times ſince the making of the ſame Statute, haue taken diuers recogniſances and knowledges of diuers of the Kings ſubiects for debts, ſurmiſing the ſame knowledge or recogniſance to be made for ſurety of payment of ſummes of mony for ſuch wares as were or beene bought in the ſame Staple: where of troth the ſame recogniſance did not in any wiſe touch or concerne the Merchandiſe of the ſame, ne alſo the parties, that is to ſay, the cogniſor, ne the cogniſee, that did knowledge, and take the ſame recogniſances, were Merchants of the ſame Staple: which recogniſances, and knowledges taken in forme aforeſaid are not onely cleare contrary to the true meaning and intent of the ſame former eſtatutes, but alſo thereby diuers great and ſundry inconueniences, damages, and deceits do daily riſe, and grow to diuers of the Subiects of our Soueraigne Lord the King, by reaſon of the miſuſing of the ſame. And for as much as the Kings highneſſe of his moſt high wiſdome perceiueth the miſuſing and execution of the ſame to be contrary to the forme of the ſaid former eſtatutes. Therefore his pleaſure is, that ſome true, lawfull, and reaſonable bond, for ſurety of paiment of the ſaid debts of his Subiects ſhall be made and deuiſed by true and iuſt meanes, which in it ſelfe may, and ſhall purport right and equity, and be alſo conſonant to reaſon.

Statutes of the Staple were deuiſed only for Merchandiſes of the Staple, and betweene Merchant and Merchant.

In conſideration whereof, by the aſſent of the Kings Highneſſe, his Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and his Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, it is enacted, ordained, and ſtabliſhed, that from the firſt day of Aprill next comming, the 89.b chiefe Iuſtice of the Kings bench, & the chiefe Iuſtice of the Common pleas, which now be, or at any time hereafter ſhall be, and euery of them by himſelfe, & in their abſence out of the terme, the How certaine Hauens in Cornwall and Deuonſhire may be amended.

Piteouſly ſheweth, and complaineth, vnto the King our Soueraigne Lord, and to the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, the inhabitants of the Townes and Ports of Plimmouth, Dartmouth and Teingmouth in the County of Deuonſhire, Falmouth and Fowey in the County of Cornewall, that where the ſaid Ports haue beene in time paſt the principall, and moſt commodious Hauens and Ports within this Realm for the rode, ſurety, and preſeruation of ſhips reſorting from all places of the world, as well in perill of ſtorms, as otherwiſe. For where before this time all manner of ſhips being vnder the portage of eight hundred tuns, reſorting vnto any of the ſaid ports or Hauens, might at the low water eaſily enter into the ſame, and there lie in ſurety, what wind or tempeſt ſoeuer did blow. For reformation whereof, bee it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons hereafter ſhall labour or work, or cauſe to be laboured or wrought in any manner of tin workes, called Streme workes within the ſaid Counties of Deuonſhire or Cornewall, nigh to any of the ſaid freſh waters, riuers, or low places deſcending or hauing courſe vnto the ſaid Hauens or Ports, or any of them, nor ſhall labour, dig, or waſh any tin in any of the ſaid tin workes called Stremo workes, vnleſſe the ſaid digger, owner, or waſher, ſhall make, or cauſe to bee made ſufficient hatches, and ties in the end of their buddles, and cords, and therein put and lay, or cauſe to bee put and laid, all the ſand, ſtones, grauell, and robell digged about the inſerching, finding, and waſhing of the ſaid tin, there to be wholly and ſurely kept, by the ſaid hatches and ties, out and from the ſaid freſh riuers or water-courſes, or any of them, ſo that the ſaid ſand, ſtones, grauell, and robell, ne any part therof, be for lack of ſuch hatches, or ties, conueyed into the ſaid Ports and Hauens, or any of them vpon paine to forfeit for euery time that any owner or tinner, ſhall dig or waſh, or cauſe to bee digged or waſhed, any tin contrary to the forme aforeſaid, x.li. The one halfe thereof to be to the vſe of our Soueraigne Lord the King, And the other halfe thereof to be to any of the inhabitants of the ſaid Ports, towns, or Hauens, that will ſue for the ſame, in any of the Kings Courts, by originall writ, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, wherein the defendant ſhal not be admitted to wage his law, ne any protection or eſſoine ſhall be allowable.

And the party defendant ſhall not bee admitted to wage his law, ne any protection eſſoine nor priuilege ſhall be to him allowable. And if it ſhal happen any perſon or perſons, for purſuing any ſuit, or action vpon this Eſtatute, or by occaſion of the ſame hereafter to be impriſoned by any maner perſon or perſons being officers or miniſters of the Stannery, their deputies or ſubſtitutes, that then euery of the Iuſtices of Peace within any of the Counties aforeſaid, wherein the ſaid priſoner ſhall happen to bee committed to priſon, vpon credible information thereof, taking ſurety by his diſcretion for apparance of ſuch priſoner at the next generall Seſſions of Peace, ſhall haue power and authority as well to direct his warrant to the Gaolor, or keeper of the priſon, as to any other perſon or perſons, to whom the ſaid priſoner ſhall be committed vnto, commanding him or them, vpon paine of forfeiture of xl.li, to deliuer and put at large, the ſaid priſoner or priſoners: which if hee refuſe to doe, then euery ſuch offendor ſhall loſe and forfeit the ſaid xl.li. the one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the vſe of our Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other halfe to him that is grieued by reaſon of ſuch impriſonment, to be recouered in maner & forme aforeſaid: And the defendant in any action, or ſuit for the ſame, ſhall not wage his law, ne haue any eſſoine, or protection allowed. And if it ſhall appeare vpon the apparance of ſuch priſoner at the quarter Seſſions by examination of the Iuſtices of peace there being, that he was impriſoned contrary to the forme of this Eſtatute, that then hee ſhall be forthwith dimiſſed, and thereby diſcharged. And if hee were lawfully impriſoned, for any other iuſt cauſe, then to be remaunded to priſon by the diſcretion of the ſaid Iuſtices.

This Act ſhall not be preiudicial to the officers or liberties of the Stannery.

And it is enacted, that this Act ſhall begin to take effect from the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell next comming, and not before.

Choughs, Crowes, and Rookes ſhall be deſtroyed.

The great inconueniences ſuffered, by reaſon of Choughs Crowes, and Rookes,

Foraſmuch as innumerable number of Rookes, Crowes, and Choughs doe dayly bréed, and increaſe thorowout this Realme, which Rookes, Crowes, and Choughs, doe yéerely deuoure and conſume a wonderful and marueilous great quantity of corne and graine of all kinds, that is to wit, as well in the ſowing of the ſame Corne, and graine, as alſo in the riping and kernelling of the ſame. and ouer that a marueilous deſtruction, and decay of the couertures of thatched houſes, barnes, reekes, ſtackes, and other ſuch like; ſo that if the ſaid Crowes, Rookes, and Choughs ſhould bee ſuffered to bréed and continue, as they haue beene in certaine yeares paſt, they will vndoubtedly bee the cauſe of the great deſtruction, and conſumption of a great part of the Corne and Graine, which hereafter ſhall bee ſowne thorowout this Realme to the great preiudice, damage, and vndoing of the great number of the Tillers, huſbands, and Sowers of the Earth within the ſame.

For remedy whereof bee it enacted by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, that euery perſon and perſons as well ſpirituall as temporall hauing, kéeping, holding, and Inhabiting in any Manors, Meaſes, lands, or tenements in their owne manurance, and occupation of any eſtate of inheritance, or for terme of life, or for yeares, or at will, or by copy of Court Roll, or otherwiſe in poſſeſſion or vſe, ſhall hereafter doe or cauſe to bee done, as much as in him or them reaſonably ſhall or may bee, to kill and vtterly deſtroy all manner of Choughes, Crowes, and Rookes, comming, abiding, breeding, or haunting within or vpon any the ſaid Manors, Meaſes, lands, or tenements which hee or they ſhall inhabit and dwell vpon, and haue in their manurance, and occupation, as is aforeſaid, vpon paine of a grieuous amerciament, to be ſet and aſſeſſed, as hereafter ſhall be expreſſed: that is to ſay, that if any offence be done contrary to this Statute, by any perſon or perſons, inhabited within the limits of the leets, lawdayes, rapes or Court barons of any Lords, hauing ſuch Courts, that then vpon a preſentment thereof made before the Steward of ſuch leets, lawdayes, rapes, or Courts, the Stewards, with two of the Preſentors, (by the Steward, & preſenters to be named) ſhall aſſeſſe & ſet for euery default preſented to be done contrary to this Act, ſuch amerciament as to them ſhall ſeeme reaſonable and conuenient, after the quantity of the offence, the ſaid amerciament to be to the vſe of the Lord, or Lords of the leets, lawdaies, rapes, or courts, where the ſaid offence ſhal be done and preſented, to be leuied by diſtreſſe of the goods and cattels of the offender or offenders, like as other amerciamẽts for common annoyances (preſented in leets) haue been accuſtomed to be leuied.

Euery man ſhal doe his beſt to deſtroy Crows, &c. vpon paine of amerciament being preſented at Leets, Sherifes turnes, Seſſions, &c.

And further be it enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, that in euery Pariſh, Towneſhip, Hamlet, Borough, or village within this Realme, wherein is at leaſt ten houſholds inhabited, the tenants and inhabitants thereof ſhall before the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next, And ſo during ten yeares next enſuing the ſaid Feaſt, at their owne proper coſts, charges, and expences, prouide, make, or cauſe to be made one net commonly called a net to take Choughes Crowes, and Rookes, with all things requiſite, or belonging to the ſame, and the ſaid net ſo made or cauſed to bee made, ſhall keepe, preſerue and renue, as often as ſhall need: And with and after a Sharpe made with Chaffe, and other things meet for that purpoſe ſhall lay, or cauſe to be laid at ſuch time or times in the yeare, as are conuenient for deſtruction of ſuch Choughs, Rookes, and Crowes, and in ſuch place and places; as ſhall be thought expedient to take the ſaid Choughes, Crowes, and Rookes, vpon paine to forfeit ten ſhillings; the one moitie thereof to bee to our Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other moitie to the Lord or Lords of the ſame Courts, Leets, Lawdayes, or Rapes, where any ſuch net ſhall be lacking, and not made, and put in execution according to this act, to be leuied of the tenants of the ſaid Pariſh, Townſhip, Hamlet, Borough, or Village, where any ſuch net ſhall bee lacking, and not pnt in vre and execution, as is aforeſaid. And that ſuch ordinances, as ſhall be deuiſed and made by the Steward, Tenants and Inhabitants of, and within the ſaid Leets, Lawdayes, Rapes, and Courts, or by the moſt part of them to and for the deſtruction of the ſaid Rookes, Crowes, and Choughes, ſhall ſtand good and effectuall, and be put in due execution, according to the tenour thereof.

Euery Towne, Hamlet, &c. ſhall prouide and maintaine Crownets during ten yeares. Exp.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that as well ſuch perſon and perſons, as ſhall inhabite, and haue in his manurance and occupation, any Manors, Meaſes, Lands, Tenements, or other hereditaments, whereunto any ſuch Leets, Lawdayes, Rapes, or Courts appertaine, or by reaſon whereof any ſuch Courts be holden, as the Tenants, and Farmers inhabiting, and hauing in their manurance and occupation, any meaſes, lands, Tenements, or hereditaments holden of ſuch manors meaſes, or other hereditaments, whereunto ſuch courts as is aforeſaid, doe belong, ſhall yeerely during the ſaid ten yeares at ſuch dayes, places, and times, as by the Steward of ſuch Leets, Lawdayes, Rapes, or Courts ſhall be appointed, aſſemble themſelues together to view, viſit, and ſuruey all the ſaid manors, meaſes, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, where they or any of them ſhall happen to dwell, or inhabite, and be reſident, and thereupon ſhall agree and conclude, how and by what meanes it ſhall bee beſt poſſible to deſtroy all the young breed of the ſaid Choughes, Crowes, and Rokes, for that yeare; and the ſame aſſembly, view, and viſitation ſhall make yearly, during the ſaid ten yeares, at moſt conuenient and apt times for the ſame, and ſhall put the ſame in due execution, ſo as the ſaid young breed of Choughes, Crowes, and Rokes may be vtterly deſtroyed, vpon paine to forfeit for euery yeare omitting ſuch aſſembly, endeuour, & view making according to this Act, twenty ſhillings, after preſentment of ſuch default had before the Kings Iuſtices of Peace: the one halfe of which forfeiture to bee to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to be to the preſenters of the ſaid offence to bee leuied by diſtreſſe, like as amerciaments for common annoyances, haue beene accuſtomed to be leuied.

The defaults ſhall be giuen in charge in leets, &c.

And further bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that as well the Iuſtices of Peace in their Seſſions, and Sherifes in their turnes, as Stewards, Maiors, and Bailiffes elected in their Leets, Lawdayes, Rapes, and Court barons, to be hereafter holden before them, or any of them ſhall giue in charge to the tenants and Inhabitants, and all other appearing before any of them, that they ſhall duely inquire, and put in execution the effect of the premiſes in due time, ſo that this Act may bee fully and truly executed, and the Choughes, Crowes, and Rokes, thereby deſtroyed in all places of this Realme, according to the meaning and true intent of this Statute.

Any man with licence of the owner of the groūd may take Crowes, &c.

And ouer this it is enacted that it ſhall bee lawfull to euery perſon and perſons, onely minding and willing to take and deſtroy the ſaid Crowes, Rokes, or Choughes, after requeſt thereof made to the owner, or occupier of the ſame ground, where ſuch Crowes, Rokes, or Choughes, haunt or breed, to enter, take, and carry away all ſuch Rokes, or Choughes, and Crowes, as hee ſhall take that ſame day, in which ſuch requeſt ſhall bee made from time to time, without let, impediment, or impeachment by any maner meane of the ſaid owner or occupier of the ſame.

The taker of Crowes, &c. ſhall haue after the rate of 2.d. the dozen

Cap. XII.

No appeales ſhall be vſed but within this Realme.

The power preeminence & authority of the K. of England.

Where by diuers ſundry old, authentike Hiſtories, and Chronicles, it is manifeſtly declared and expreſſed, that this Realme of England is an Empire, and ſo hath beene accepted in the world, gouerned by one ſupreme head and King, hauing the dignity and royall eſtate of the Imperiall Crowne of the ſame: Unto whom a body politike, compact of all ſorts and degrees of people, diuided in termes, and by names of Spiritualty and Temporalty, beene bounden and owen to beare next to God, a naturall and humble obedience: He being alſo inſtitute and furniſhed by the goodneſſe and ſufferance of Almighty God, with plenary, whole and entire power, preeminence, authority, prerogatiue and iuriſdiction, to render and yeeld Iuſtice, and finall determination to all manner of folke reſiants, or ſubiects within this his Realme in all cauſes, matters, debates, and contentions, happening to occurre, inſurge, or begin within the limits thereof, without reſtraint, or prouocation to any forreine Princes, or Potentates tates of the world: The body ſpirituall whereof hauing power when any cauſe of the Law diuine happened to come in queſtion, or of ſpirituall learning, that it was declared, interpreted and ſhewed by that part of the ſaid body politike, called the Spiritualtie, now being vſually called the Engliſh Church, which alwayes hath béene reputed, and alſo found of that ſort, that both for knowledge, integritie, and ſufficiencie of number, it hath béene alwayes thought, and is alſo at this houre, ſufficient and méet of it ſelfe, without the intermedling of any exterior perſon or perſons, to declare and determine all ſuch doubts, and to adminiſter all ſuch offices and duties, as to their roomes ſpirituall doth appertaine. For the due adminiſtration whereof, and to kéepe them from corruption, and ſiniſter affection, the Kings moſt noble progenitors, and the anteceſſors of the nobles of this Realme, haue ſufficiently endowed the ſaid Church, both with honour and poſſeſſions. And the lawes temporall, for triall of propertie of lands and goods, and for the conſeruation of the people of this Realme in vnitie and peace, without rapin or ſpoile, was and yet is adminiſtred, adiudged, and executed by ſundry Iudges, and miniſters of the other part of the ſaid body politike, called the Temporaltie: And both their authorities and iuriſdictions doe conioyne together in the due adminiſtration of Iuſtice, the one to helpe the other.

The power, learning and wiſdome of the body ſpirituall.

The forme and manner of gouernment of the eſtate temporal.

And whereas the King his moſt noble progenitors, and the Nobilitie and Commons of this ſaid Realme, at diuers and ſundry Parliaments, as well in the time of King Edward the firſt, Edward the third, Richard the ſecond, Henry the fourth, and other noble Kings of this Realme, made ſundry Ordinances, Lawes, Statutes, and prouiſions for the entier and ſure conſeruation of the prerogatiues, liberties, and preeminences of the ſaid imperiall Crowne of this Realme, and of the iuriſdictions ſpirituall and temporall of the ſame, to kéep it from the annoyance as well of the Sée of Rome, as from the authoritie of other forreine Potentates, attempting the diminution, or violation therof, as often, and from time to time, as any ſuch annoyance or attempt might be knowne or eſpied. And notwithſtanding the ſaid good ſtatutes, and ordinances made in the time of the Kings moſt noble progenitors, in preſeruation of the authoritie and prerogatiue of the ſaid imperiall crowne, as is aforeſaid: yet neuertheleſſe ſithen the making of the ſaid good ſtatutes and ordinances, diuers and ſundry inconueniences, and dangers, not prouided for plainly, by the ſaid former acts, ſtatutes, and ordinances, haue riſen, and ſprung, by reaſon of appeales ſued out of this Realme to the Sée of Rome, in cauſes teſtamentarie, cauſes of matrimonie, and diuorces, right of tythes, oblations, and obuentions, not only to the great inquietation, vexation, trouble, coſts and charges of the Kings Highneſſe, and many of his ſubiects, and reſiants in this his Realme, but alſo to the great delay, and let to the true and ſpéedy determination of the ſaid cauſes, for ſo much as the parties, appealing to the ſaid Court of Rome, moſt commonly doe the ſame for the delay of Iuſtice. And for as much as the great diſtance of way is ſo farre out of this Realme, ſo that the neceſſary proofes, nor the true knowledge of the cauſe, can neither there be ſo well knowne, ne the witneſſes there ſo well examined, as within this Realme, ſo that the parties grieued by meanes of the ſaid appeales, be moſt times without remedie. In conſideration whereof, the Kings Highneſſe, his Nobles and Commons conſidering the great enormities, dangers, long delayes and hurts, that as well to his Highneſſe, as to his ſaid Nobles, ſubiects, Commons, and reſiants of this his Realme, in the ſaid cauſes teſtamentary, cauſes of matrimony, and diuorces, tythes, oblations, and obuentions, doe daily enſue, Doth therefore by his royall aſſent, & by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, & the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, & by authority of the ſame, enact, eſtabliſh, and ordeine, that all cauſes teſtamentary, cauſes of matrimony, and diuorces, rights of tythes, oblations, and obuentions (the knowledge whereof by the goodneſſe of Princes of this Realme, and by the lawes and cuſtomes of the ſame appertaineth to the ſpirituall iuriſdiction of this Realme) already commenced, moued, depending, being, happening, or hereafter comming in contention, debate, or queſtion within this Realme, or within any the Kings Dominions or marches of the ſame, or elſewhere, whether they concerne the King our Soueraigne Lord, his heires or ſucceſſors, or any other ſubiects or reſiants within the ſame, of what degrée ſoeuer they be, ſhall be from henceforth, heard, examined, diſcuſſed, cléerely, finally, and definitiuely, adiudged and determined within the Kings iuriſdiction and authority, and not elſewhere, in ſuch Courts ſpirituall and temporall of the ſame, as the natures, conditions, and qualities of the caſes and matters aforeſaid in contention, or hereafter happening in contention, ſhall require, without hauing any reſpect to any cuſtome, vſe, or ſufferance, in hinderance, let, or preiudice of the ſame, or to any other thing vſed, or ſuffered to the contrary thereof by any other manner perſon or perſons in any manner of wiſe, Any forreine inhibitions, appeales, ſentences, ſummons, citations, ſuſpenſions, interdictions, excommunications, reſtraints, iudgements, or any other proces, or impediments, of what natures, names, qualities, or conditions ſoeuer they be from the Sée of Rome, or any other forreine Courts or Potentates of the world, or from and out of this Realme, or any other the Kings Dominions, or marches of the ſame, to the Sée of Rome, or to any other forreine Courts, or Potentates, to the let or impediment thereof, in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And that it ſhall be lawfull to the King our Soueraigne

The ſeuerall inconueniences in ſuing of appeales to Rome.

All cauſes determinable by any ſpirituall iuriſdiction ſhall be adiudged within the Kings authoritie.

Lord, and to his heires and ſucceſſors, and to all other ſubiects, or reſiants within this Realme, or within any the Kings Dominions, or marches of the ſame, notwithſtanding that hereafter it ſhould happen any excommengement, excommunications, interdictions, citations, or any other cenſures, or forreine proces out of any outward parts, to be fulminate, promulged, declared, or put in execution within this ſaid Realme, or any other place or places, for any of the cauſes before rehearſed, in preiudice, derogation, or contempt of this ſaid Act, and the very true meaning and execution thereof, may and ſhall neuertheleſſe as well purſue, execute, haue, and enioy the effects, profits, benefits, & commodities of all ſuch proceſſes, ſentences, iudgements, and determinations, done, or hereafter to be done in any of the ſaid Courts ſpirituall or temporall, as the caſes ſhall require, within the limits, power, and authority of this the Kings ſaid Realme and Dominions, and marches of the ſame: and thoſe onely, and none other to take place, and to be firmely obſerued, and obeyed within the ſame. As alſo that all the ſpirituall Prelates, Paſtors, Miniſters, and Curates within this Realme and Dominions of the ſame, ſhall and may vſe, miniſter, execute, and doe, or cauſe to be vſed, miniſtred, executed and done all Sacraments, ſacramentals, diuine ſeruices, and all other things within the ſaid Realme and Dominions, vnto all the Subiects of the ſame as Catholike and chriſten men owen to doe, any forreine citations, proceſſes, inhibitions, ſuſpenſions, interdictions, excommunications, or appeales, for or touching any of the cauſes aforeſaid, from, or to the See of Rome, or any other forreine Prince, or forreine Courts to the let, or contrary thereof, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Prelats of this Realme may execute all Sacraments & diuine Seruice vnto the ſubiects of this Realme.

And if any of the ſaid Spirituall perſons, by the occaſion of the ſaid fulminations of any of the ſame interdictions, cenſures, inhibitions, excommunications, appeales, ſuſpenſions, ſummons, or other forreine citations, for the cauſes beforeſaid, or for any of them, doe at any time hereafter refuſe to miniſter, or to cauſe to be miniſtred the ſaid ſacraments and ſacramentals, and other diuine ſeruices, in forme as is aforeſaid, then he or they ſhall for euery ſuch time, or times that they, or any of them, doe refuſe ſo to doe, or to cauſe to be done, haue one yeares impriſonment, and to make fine and ranſome at the Kings pleaſure.

The penaltie of them who doe omit to doe their dutie.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons inhabiting, or reſiant within this Realme, or within any the Kings Dominions, or marches of the ſame, or any other perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, condition, or degree ſoeuer he or they be, at any time hereafter, for or in any the cauſes aforeſaid, doe attempt moue, purchaſe or procure, from, or to the See of Rome, or from, or to any other forreine Court, or Courts, out of this Realme, any manner forreine proces, inhibitions, appeales, ſentences, ſummons, citations, ſuſpenſions, interdictions, excommunications, reſtraints, or iudgements, of what nature, kind or quality ſoeuer they be, or execute any of the ſame proceſſe, or doe any Act or Acts, to the let, impediment, hinderance, or derogation of any proceſſe, ſentence, iudgement or determination, had, made, done, or hereafter to be had done, or made in any Courts of this Realme, or the Kings ſaid Dominions or Marches of the ſame, for any of the cauſes aforeſaid, contrary to the true meaning of this preſent Act, and the execution of the ſame: that then euery ſuch perſon or perſons, ſo doing, and their fautors, comfortors, abbettors, procurors, executors and counſellors, and euery of them, being conuict of the ſame, for euery ſuch default ſhall incur, and run in the ſame paines, penalties, and forfeitures, ordeined and prouided by the Statute of prouiſion and premunire, made in the ſixteenth yeare of the reigne of the right noble Prince, King Richard the ſecond, againſt ſuch as attempt, procure or make prouiſion to the See of Rome, or elſewhere, for any thing or things, to the Derogation, or contrarie to the Prerogatiue or Iuriſdiction of the Crowne and dignity of this Realme.

Whoſoeuer procureth from the See of Rome, or, &c. any Appeales, Proces, Sentences, &c. ſhall incurre the forfeiture of Premunire.

And furthermore in eſchewing the ſaid great enormities, enquietations, delaies, charges, and expences hereafter to be ſuſteined in purſuing of ſuch appeales, and forreine proceſſe, for & concerning the cauſes aforeſaid, or any of them, doe therfore by authority aforeſaid, ordeine and enact, That in ſuch caſes, where heretofore any of the Kings ſubiects & reſiants, haue vſed to purſue, prouoke or procure, any appeale to the See of Rome, and in all other caſes of appeales, in or for any of the cauſes aforeſaid, they may, and ſhall from henceforth take, haue, and vſe their appeales within this Realme, and not elſewhere, in manner and forme as hereafter enſueth, and not otherwiſe, that is to ſay, Firſt from the Archdeacon or his officiall, if the matter or cauſe be there begun, to the Biſhop dioceſan, of the ſaid See, if in caſe any of the parties be greeued.

And in like wiſe if it be commenced before the Biſhop dioceſan, or his Commiſſary, from the Biſhop dioceſan, or his commiſſarie, within fifteene daies next enſuing the iudgement or ſentence thereof there giuen, to the Archbiſhop of the Prouince of Canterburie, if it be within his Prouince, and if it be within the Prouince of Yorke, then to the Archbiſhop of Yorke, and ſo likewiſe to all other Archbiſhops in other the Kings Dominions, as the caſe by the order of iuſtice ſhall require, and there to be definitiuely and finally ordered, decreed, and adiudged, according to iuſtice, without any other appellation or prouocation to any other perſon or perſons, Court or Courts.

Before whom & in what courts appeales ſhal be ſued within this Realme.

And if the matter or contention for any of the cauſes aforeſaid, be or ſhall be commenced by any of the Kings ſubiects or reſiants, before the Archdeacon of any Archbiſhop or his Comiſſarie, ry, then the party greeued, ſhall or may take his appeale within fifteene dayes next after iudgement or ſentence there giuen to the Court of the Arches or audience of the ſame Archbiſhop or Biſhops, and from the ſaid Court of the Arches or audience within fifteene dayes then next enſuing, after iudgement or ſentence there giuen, to the Archbiſhop of the ſame Prouince, there to be definitiuely and finally determined, without any other or further proceſſe, or appeale thereupon to be had or vſed.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery matter, cauſe, and contention now depending, or that hereafter ſhall be commenced by any of the Kings Subiects or reſiants, for any of the cauſes aforeſaid, before any of the ſaid Archbiſhops, that then the ſame matter or matters, contention or contentions, ſhall be before the ſame Archbiſhop, where the ſaid matter, cauſe or proceſſe, ſhall bee ſo commenced, definitiuely determined, decreed, or adiudged without any other appeale, prouocation, or any other foreine proceſſe out of this Realme, to bee ſued to the let or derogation of the ſaid iudgement, ſentence, or decree, otherwiſe than is by this Act limited and appointed, ſauing allwayes the prerogatiue of the Archbiſhop, and Church of Canterbury, in all the foreſaid cauſes of Appeales, to him and his ſucceſſors to be ſued within this Realme, in ſuch, and likewiſe as they haue bene accuſtomed, and vſed to haue heretofore.

Suits commenced before an Archbiſhop ſhall be determined by him without any further appeale. Alt. 25. H. 8. 19.

The prerogatiue of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury ſaued.

And in caſe any cauſe, matter or contention, now depending for the cauſes before rehearſed, or any of them, or that hereaftet ſhall come in contention for any of the ſame cauſes, in any of the foreſaid Courts, which hath, doth, ſhall, or may touch the King his Heires, or ſucceſſors, Kings of this Realme: that in all and euery ſuch caſe or caſes, the party greeued as before is ſaid, ſhall or may appeale from any of the ſaid Courts of this Realme, where the ſaid matter now being in contention, or hereafter ſhal come in contention, touching the King, his Heires or Succeſſors (as is aforeſaid) ſhall happen to be ventilate, commenced, or begun to the Spirituall Prelates and other Abbots, and Priors of the vpper houſe, aſſembled and conuocate by the Kings writ in the conuocation being or next inſuing, within the prouince or prouinces, where the ſame matter of contention, is or ſhall be begun. So that euery ſuch appeale bee taken by the party greeued, within fifteene dayes next after the iudgement or ſentence thereupon giuen or to be giuen. And that whatſoeuer be done or ſhal be done and affirmed, determined, decreed and adiudged by the foreſaid Prelats Abbots, & Priors of the vpper houſe of the ſaid conuocation, as is aforeſaid appertaining, concerning, or belonging to the King, his Heires and Succeſſors, in any of the foreſaid cauſes of appeales, ſhal ſtand & be taken for a finall decree, ſentence, iudgement, definition, and determination, and the ſame matter ſo determined, neuer after to come in queſtion and debate, to be examined in any other Court or Courts.

Before whom an appeale ſhall be ſued in any cauſe touching the King.

And if it ſhall happen any perſon or perſons, hereafter to purſue or prouoke, any appeale contrary to the effect of this Act, or refuſe to obey, execute and obſerue all things compriſed within the ſame, concerning the ſaid appeals, prouocations, & other forraine proceſſes to be ſued out of this Realme, for any the cauſes aforeſaid, that then euery ſuch perſon or perſon, ſo doing refuſing or offending, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, their procurers, fautors, aduocates, counſellors, and abbetors, and euery of them, ſhal incur into the paines, forfeitures, and penalties, ordeyned and prouided in the ſaid ſtatute, made in the ſaid ſixteenth yeare of King Richard the ſecond, and with like proceſſe to be made againſt the ſaid offenders, as in the ſame ſtatute made the ſaid ſixteenth yeare more plainly appeareth. A Repeale of all former Statutes made againſt exceſſe of Apparell. What Apparell men of all degrees, vocations and functions are allowed, and what prohibited to weare. The forfeitures of the offenders, and who ſhall haue them. Rep. 1. Iac. 25. Coke pla. fo. 158.

ANNO VICESIMO QVINTO HENRICI OCTAVI.

ACts made in the Seſſion of this preſent Parliament holden vpon prorogation at weſtminſter, the fifteenth day of Ianuary, in the fiue and twentieth yeare of the reigne of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord King HENRIE the eighth, and there continued and kept till the thirtieth day of March then next enſuing: to the honour of God and holy Church, and for the common weale and profit of this his Realme.

Cap. I.

Gouernours of Cities and Market Townes vpon complaint to them made of any Butcher refuſing to ſell vitaile by weight according to the Statute of 24.H.8.3. may commit the offender to ward vntill he hath paid all penalties limited by the ſaid Statute, and may ſell or cauſe to bee ſold by weight all ſuch vitaile for ready mony to be deliuered to the owner: And if any Graſier, Fermor, Breeder, Drouer, &c. refuſe to ſell his fat cattell to a Butcher vpon ſuch reaſonable price as hee may retaile it at the price aſſeſſed by the ſaid Statute. The Iuſtices of peace, Maiors or Gouernours, ſhall cauſe indifferent perſons to ſet the prices of the ſame, which if the owner refuſe to accept, then the ſame Iuſtices, &c. ſhall binde him to appeare the next Terme in the Star Chamber to be puniſhed, as the Kings Councell ſhall thinke good. Exp. 33.H.8.11. St.27.H.8.9.

Cap. II.

By whom the prices of victuals ſhallbe aſſeſſed.

The prices of vitailes ſhalbe aſſeſſed by the K. Councellors Iuſt. & officers

FOr as much as dearth, ſcarcity, good cheape and plenty, of cheeſe, butter, capons, hens, chickins and other victuals, neceſſary for mens ſuſtenance, happeneth, riſeth and chanceth, of ſo many and diuers occaſions, that is very hard and difficult to put any certaine prices to any ſuch things. And yet neuertheleſſe the prices of ſuch victuals be many times inhaunſed and raiſed, by the greedy couetouſneſſe & appetites of the owners of ſuch victuals, by occaſion of ingroſſing and regrating the ſame, more than vpon any reaſonable or iuſt ground, or cauſe, to the great damage and enpoueriſhing of the Kings ſubiects. For remedy whereof, bee it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, That vpon euery complaint made of any inhaunſing of prices of ſuch victuals, without ground or cauſe reaſonable in any part of this Realme, or in any other the Kings Dominions, the Lord Chancellor of England, the Lord Treaſurer, the Lord Preſident of the Kings moſt honourable Councell, the Lord priuy ſeale, the Lord Steward, the Lord Chamberlaine, and all other Lords of the Kings Councel, the Treaſurer and Comptroller of the Kings moſt honourable houſe, the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaſter, the Kings Iuſtices of either Bench, the Chancellor, Chamberlaines, Under treaſurer, and the Barons of the Kings Eſchequer, or ſeuen of them at the leaſt, whereof the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Treaſurer, the Lord Preſident of the Kings Councell, or the Lord priuy Seale to be one, ſhall haue power and authority from time to time, as the caſe ſhall require, to ſet and tax reaſonable prices of all ſuch kinds of victuals aboue ſpecified, how they ſhall be ſold in groſſe, or by retaile, for reliefe of the Kings ſubiects. And that after ſuch prices ſet and taxed, in forme aforeſaid, proclamation ſhal be made in the Kings name, vnder the great ſeale of the ſaid prices, in ſuch parts of this Realme, as ſhall be conuenient for the ſame.

They which haue victuall muſt ſel them at the prices aſſeſſed.

And be it enacted, That all fermors, owners, broggers, and all other victuallers whatſoeuer, hauing or keeping any of the kinds of victualls afore rehearſed, to the intent to ſell, ſhall ſell the ſame to ſuch of the Kings ſubiects as will buy them, at ſuch prices as ſhall be ſet and taxed by the ſaid proclamation, vpon the paines to be expreſſed and limited in the ſaid proclamation, to be loſt, forfeited, and leuied to the Kings vſe, in ſuch wiſe, as by the ſame proclamation ſhall be declared.

Head officers of corporat towns may ſet the prices of victuals. St.23.Ed.3.6. 12.Ed.4.8.

Prouided alway that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not be hurtfull to Maiors Sherifes, Bailifes, or other Officers of Cities, Boroughes, or Townes Corporat, nor to any perſon or perſons, or bodies politike, hauing authority to ſet prices of ſuch victuals, or of any of them, but that they and euery of them may ſet prices thereof, as if this Act had neuer beene had nor made.

No victual ſhal be tranſported without licence 1.& 2.P.& M.5. 5.El.5.13.El.13.

And bee it further enacted, by authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons, vnleſſe it bee by licence vnder the Kings great Seale, From henceforth ſhall carry or conuey, or cauſe to bee carried and conueyed, any corne, beefes, muttons, veales, porkes, or any other of the aboueſaid victuals, to any the parties beyond the ſea, Except onely for the victualling of the Towne of Calis, Guiſnes, Hammes, and the Marches of the ſame, And except for victualling of Maſters, Mariners, and Merchants of ſhips paſſing the ſeas, and alſo except barrelled butter, and meale to bee carried to the parties of Iſland, as hath beene accuſtomed vpon paine of forfeiting of the value of the thing conueyed and carried into the parties of beyond the ſea, contrary to this Act: The one halfe thereof to the vſe of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other halfe to the party that will ſue for the ſame, by bill, plaint, writ, or information in any of the Kings Courts. In which ſuits the defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor any protection or eſſoine for him ſhall be allowed.

Cap. III.

Clergy not allowed to thoſe who ſtand mute, or who doe make peremptory challenge

WHere at your Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the three and twentieth yeare of your moſt noble reigne, amongſt other things it was ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, That no perſon nor perſons, which thereafter ſhould happen to be found guilty after the lawes of this Land, for any manner of pety treaſon, or for any wilfull murder of malice prepenſed, or for robbing of any Churches, Chapels, or other holy places, or for robbing of any perſon or perſons in their dwelling houſes, or dwelling place, the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, his wife his children, or ſeruants then being within, and put in feare and dread by the ſame, or for robbing of any perſon or perſons in or neere about the high way, or for wilfull burning of any dwelling houſes or barnes, wherein any graine or corne ſhall happen to be: nor any perſon or perſons, being found guilty of any abetment, procurement, helping, maintaining, or counſelling, of or to any ſuch petit treaſon, murders, or felonies, ſhould from thenceforth be admitted to the benefit of his or their clergy, but vtterly be excluded therof, and ſuffer death in ſuch maner & forme, as they ſhould haue done for any the cauſes or offences abouesaid, if they were no Clerks. Such as be within holy orders, that is to ſay, of the orders of Subdeacon or aboue all, onely except, as more at large appeareth by the ſaid Act. And for as much as the ſaid Act extendeth onely to ſuch perſons as bee found guilty after the due courſe of the Lawes of this Land, diuers and many great arrant robbers, murderers, burglaries, and felons that doe offend and commit diuers and many petit treaſons, robberies, burglaries, and felonies, contrary to the tenour of the ſaid Act perceiuing and cleerely vnderſtanding by the words of the ſame Statute and Act, that they ſhall not leeſe the benefit and aduantage of their Clergy, vnleſſe they be found guilty after the due courſe of the law, vpon their araignment of and vpon the ſaid felonies, robberies, and other offences beforeſaid, ſo by them done and committed, by reaſon whereof, diuers and many of the ſame robbers, and felons, vpon their araignment of the ſame robberies and felonies, vpon their inditements againſt them, ſtand mute, and ſometimes challenge peremptory ouer the number of twenty, or elſe will not directly anſwer to the ſame inditements, whereupon they be ſo arrained, according to the order of the Law. And for that that theſe eſpeciall caſes bee not expreſly compriſed and contained within the letter of the ſame Statute, it is neceſſary and expedient, that the ſame cauſe be cleerly and definitiuely expounded, and declared by authority of this preſent Parliament. And where alſo as diuers and many felons and robbers, that commit and doe diuers and many great heinous robberies, and burglaries in one ſhire, and conuey the ſpoile and robbery into any other ſhire, and there be taken endited, and arrained vpon felony and folonious ſtealing of the ſame goods, in the ſame other ſhire, then there, where the ſame robberies, or burglaries were done and committed, and not vpon the ſame robbery nor burglary, for that it was not done nor committed in the ſame ſhire, where they be ſo indited and arrained, and by reaſon thereof, the ſame miſdemeanors, felons, robbers & burglaries haue and enioy the priuilege and and aduantage of their Clergy, to the great hurt and loſſe of the Kings prerogatiue, and great boldneſſe of ſuch offenders.

Certain defects in the Sta. of 23. H. 8. 1.

In conſideration wherof, be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that euery perſon and perſons, that is or hereafter ſhall be indited of petit treaſon, wilfull burning of houſes, murder, robbery, or burglary, or other felony, according to the tenour and meaning of the ſame Statute, and thereupon arrained, and doe ſtand mute of malice or froward minde, or challenge peremptory aboue the number of twenty, or elſe will not, or doe not anſwer directly to the ſame inditement and felony, whereupon he is ſo arraigned, ſhall from henceforth loſe the benefit and priuilege of his or their Clergy, in like manner and forme as if he had directly pleaded to the ſame pety Treaſon, Murder, Robbery, Burglary or other felony whereupon he is ſo arrained not guilty, and thereupon had beene found guilty, after the Lawes of the land.

No man ſhall haue his Clergy which is indited of murder, &c. & vpon his arraignment doth ſtand mute or chalẽge aboue xx. perſons, or will not anſwer directly.

li. fo. 36.

And by the ſame authority be it further enacted, that if any perſon or perſons hereafter be indited of Felony for ſtealing of any goods or cattels, in any County within this Realme of England, and therupon arraigned and be found guilty, or ſtand mute of malice, or challenge peremptory aboue the number of twenty perſons, as is aforeſaid: or will not vpon his ſaid arraignment directly anſwer to the ſame felony, that then the ſame perſon and perſons ſo arraigned and found guilty, or ſtand mute of malice, or challenge peremptory aboue the number of twenty perſons, or wil not directly anſwer to the Law, ſhal loſe and be put from the benefit of their Clergy in like manner and forme as they ſhould haue beene if they had beene indited and arraigned and found guilty in the ſame county, where the ſame robbery or burglary was done or committed, if it ſhall appeare to the Iuſtices, before whom any ſuch felons or robbers be arraigned by euidence

A man attainted where the goods were caried which were ſtolen in another County.

dence giuen before them, or by examination, that the ſame felonies whereupon they bee ſo arreigned, had béene ſuch robberies or burglaries, in the ſame Shire, where ſuch robberies or burglaries were committed or done, by reaſon whereof they ſhould haue loſt the benefit of their Clergy by force of the ſaid Statuts, in caſe they had béene found guilty thereof in the ſame Shire, where ſuch robberies or burglaries were ſo committed and done. Cap. IIII.

Onely ſuch perſons as be Merchants Aduenturers to Iſland for Salt fiſh, Stockfiſh, Ling, Haberdine, or Lobfiſh, or that bee Doggermen, or ſuch as bee fiſhermen, that actually labour for the taking of the ſaid fiſh in the Eaſt ſea ſide, or Eaſt ſea coaſt, ſhall buy any of the kinds of the ſame fiſh, at or vpon the Stone, or at the ſaid Eaſt ſea ſide, or Eaſt ſea coaſt, to ſell the ſame againe at any of the faires of Sturbridge, S. Iues, or Elie. Rep. 35.*H.*8.7.

Cap. V.

In what manner the Callendring of Worſteds is prohibited.

WHereas at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xxiij. day of Ianuary in the v. yeare of our Soueraigne Lords reigne the King that now is, there was an Act made, prouided and eſtabliſhed for the auoiding of deceits and falſeneſſe, in Worſtéeds as well by reaſon of dry Callendring thereof with gummes, oyles, and preſſes, as alſo by wet Callendring by perſons hauing no cunning in ordering of the ſame, which Act was made to endure but onely to the Parliament then next following. And for as much as it is euidently knowne, that the ſame Act and Statute aforeſaid is very góod and neceſſary for the Common wealth of this Realme. Wherefore the King our Soueraigne Lord by the aduice and conſent of his Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, hath ordeined, enacted, and eſtabliſhed, that the ſaid act and Statute, made in the v. yeare of his moſt Noble Reigne aforeſaid, and euery thing therein contained, ſhall from the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell next comming, continue and bee góod and effectuall in euery point and article of the ſame for euer.

The St. of 5.H.8.4 touching calendring of Worſteds made perpetuall.

And furthermore be it enacted and eſtabliſhed, by the authority aforeſaid, for the Common wealth of the City of Norwich, and maintenance, ſupportation, and vpholding of the houſes, tenements, and habitations of the ſame, That no manner perſon vſing the Craft or Myſtery of Dying of Worſteds, Stamins, or Sayes, or any of them, neither by themſelues, or any ſeruant, factor, deputy, or any other by his commandement or aſſignment, from the feaſt of Chriſmas now next enſuing, ſhall vſe to Callender any Worſteds, Stamins, or Sayes, or any other commodities made of Worſted Yarne, during all ſuch time as the ſame perſon ſhall vſe the Myſtery or Craft of Dying aforeſaid, vpon paine to forfeit for euery péece ſo died and callendred by colour, couin, fraud, or contrary to the true meaning and intent of this preſent Act, xl.s. and to bee diuided in thrée equall parts, the one part thereof to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and another part to the Mayor for the time being, and the third part to him or them that wil ſue for the ſame by bill, action of debt, plaint, information, or otherwiſe in any of the Kings courts, wherein none eſſoine, delay, or protection ſhall be allowed.

No perſon which dieth Worſteds ſhall Calender them.

Cap. VI.

The puniſhment of Buggery.

FOr as much as there is not yet ſufficient, and condigne puniſhment appointed, and limited by the due courſe of the Lawes of this Realme, for the deteſtable and abhominable Vice of Buggery committed with mankinde, or beaſt. It may therefore pleaſe the Kings Highnes, with the aſſent of his Lords Spirituall & Temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that it may bee enacted by authority of the ſame, That the ſame offence bee from henceforth adiudged felony, and ſuch order and forme of proces therein to be vſed againſt the offenders, as in caſes of felonie at the Common Law. And that the offenders being hereof conuict by Verdict, Confeſſion, or Outlawry, ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines of death, and loſſes, and penalties of their góods, cattells, debts, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as felons bee accuſtomed to doe according to the Order of the Common Lawes of this Realme. And that no perſon offending in any ſuch offence, ſhall be admitted to his Clergy. And that Iuſtices of Peace ſhal haue power and authority within the limits of their commiſſions and iuriſdiction, to heare and determine the ſaid offence, as they doe vſe to doe in caſes of other felonies. This Act to endure till the laſt day of the next Parliament. St.32.H.8.3.2.Ed.6.29.St.5.El.17.reuiued and made perpetuall.

Cap. IX.

How Pewterers ſhall vſe their trade.

In their moſt lamentable wiſe ſhewen, and piteouſly complainen vnto the Kings moſt royall Maieſty, and to this his moſt high Court of Parliament, the Kings moſt humble, poore, and obedient Subiects, the Maſter, Wardens, and poore fellowſhip of the Craft and myſtery of Pewterers, as wel of the City of London, as of all other places within this Realme of England, that where the ſaid craft or myſtery before this time hath bin one of the beſt handicrafts within this Realme, which hath only growne and continued by meane of diuers good Acts and Statutes, made for the true exerciſe of the ſame, whereof one was made in the xix. yeare of the reigne of the Kings moſt renowned Father (whoſe ſoule God pardon) & one other was made in the fourth yeare of the Kings moſt victorious Reigne, concerning the Crafts of Pewterers and Braſiers, of and for the true making, mixing, and ſelling of good and true Pewter, and Brazen veſſels, and alſo for exerciſing and vſing of true weights, and beames, to be occupied by the ſellers of any ſuch Pewter or Brazen veſſels within this Realme, ſo that none of the Kings Subiects, nor any other perſon ſhould by any ſale of any falſe, mixed, brazen and Pewter veſſell, or any vntrue weights be deceiued, as by the ſaid Statutes more plainly doth appeare. Which good ſtatutes duely put in execution, hath cauſed the ſaid Craft to increaſe & multiply, to the great profit and vtility of a great number of the Kings Subiects, and the commodity of Pewter veſſell much to be had in reputation in all ſtrange Regions and Countries, vntill now of late diuers euill diſpoſed perſons, being the Kings Subiects borne, which haue beene Apprentiſes and brought vp in the exerciſe of the ſaid Craft of Pewterers, haue now of late for their ſingular lucre repaired into ſtrange Regions and Countries, and there doe exerciſe the ſaid Craft of Pewterers, teaching Strangers not onely the Cunning of mixing and forgeing of all manner of Pewter veſſell, but alſo doe teach all things belonging to the ſaid Craft of Pewterers, by meane whereof there is not onely brought daily into this Realme out of ſtrange Regions to bee ſold, great number of things made of Pewter, vntruly mixed and made of Tinne, wherewith the Kings Subiects bee daily deceiued, and the people of ſtrange Countries greatly inſtructed in the cunning of the ſaid Craft of Pewterers, ſo that thereby not onely a great number and quantitie of Pewter veſſell and other things of Pewter, made in diuers ſorts and faſhions, amounting to a great value, which was daily and continually wont to bee carried and conueied out of this Realme by Marchants into ſtrange Regions and Countries, there to be ſold and vented; Whereby the Commodity of Tinne made into Pewter veſſell, which hath beene had in great eſtimation, as things very neceſſary and commodious, and the Kings cuſtomes thereby much aduanced, is now like vtterly to ceaſe and decay, and not to be eſteemed, as heretofore hath beene, but alſo the ſaid craft of Pewterers, which at this day ſetteth and keepeth in worke and occupation, a great number of people, ſhall be vtterly vndone, and a great multitude of the Kings naturall Subiects thereby fall into idleneſſe, to the great impoueriſhment of this Realme, if ſpeedie remedie for the redreſſe of the premiſes bee not prouided. In tender conſideration whereof, and for reformation of the premiſes, it may pleaſe the Kings Highneſſe, by the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame to ordeine and enact, That no perſon nor perſons hereafter at any time now inhabiting, or which hereafter ſhall inhabit within this Realme, ſhall buy, or otherwiſe take by exchange for other Wares, any manner wares made, or hereafter to bee made out of this Realme, of Tinne, or mixt with Tin, as Platters, Diſhes, Saucers, Pots, Baſons, Ewers, Flagons, Goblets, Salts, Saltſellers, Spoones, or any other thing made of Tinne or Pewter, as is aforeſaid, whatſoeuer it be, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame Ware, in whoſe hands ſoeuer it may be found or take, and alſo lawfull money currant in this Realme, to the full value thereof. The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be to the vſe of the Kings Highneſſe, and the other halfe to be to the vſe of the finders of the ſame.

Officers may ſearch and ſeiſe Wares brought into this Realm contrary to this Statute. Stat. 33. H. 8. 4.

And furthermore be it enacted, that it ſhall be lawfull to the Maiſter and Wardens of the ſaid Craft of Pewterers, as wel within the City of London, as within euery other City, Burrough, and Towne of this Realme, where ſuch Wardens be, and where no ſuch Wardens be, to the head Officer or Gouernor, head officers or Gouernors of the ſame City, Burrough or Towne for the time being to appoint diuers perſons moſt expert in knowledge of the ſame, to make ſearch and ſeiſure, and to take into their hands and poſſeſſions all ſuch wares, as hereafter ſhall bee brought contrary to the true intent and effect of this preſent Act, in whoſe ſoeuer hands or poſſeſſion any ſuch ſhall be found.

No Pewterer ſhall take a ſtranger borne to be his Aprentiſe or Journeyman. R E P. 5. El. 4.

No ſtranger borne ſhal work any Pewter or Tinne.

And alſo be it enacted, by the authority aboueſaid, that no perſon or perſons, accupying the ſaid Craft or occupation of Pewterers within this Realme, ſhall ſet on worke or retaine in his or their ſeruice any perſon or perſons to be his or their Apprentice or Journeyman, being ſtranger borne out of this Realme, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch Apprentice and Journeyman, x. li. ſterling. And that no ſtranger borne out of this Realme ſhall occupie, exerciſe or vſe from the feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, the ſaid Craft of Pewterers, ne worke any manner of veſſell or other ware aforeſaid, to be made of Tinne or Pewter, within any place or places of this Realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of Ten pound ſterling, and alſo vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame Pewter or Tinne ſo wrought, in whoſe hands ſoeuer it may be found or taken.

No Pewterer ſhall teach his trade in a forreine Country.

And alſo be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons being borne within this Realme, occupying or exerciſing the ſaid Craft of Pewterers, ſhall at any time hereafter reſort into any ſtrange Regions or Countries, there to vſe, teach, or exerciſe the ſaid Craft of Pewterers, vpon paine to loſe the Priuilege and benefit of an Engliſh man.

And if in caſe any of the Kings Subiects, at this preſent time being, dwelling in any ſtrange Country or Region, and there accupying the ſame Craft of Pewterers, doe not repaire into this Realme within three moneths next after requeſt and warning to him to be giuen, by writing, ſealed with the Common ſeale of the Wardens of the ſaid Craft within the ſaid City of London, and here in this Realme continually from henceforth dwell and inhabit, that then and from thenceforth he ſhall be reputed and taken for no Engliſh man, but ſhall ſtand and be from thenceforth out of the Kings protection.

Licenſes & Placards made to haukers for Pewter ſhall be void.

And foraſmuch as ſundry euill diſpoſed perſons, which commonly beene called haukers, by authority of the Kings Letters patents, or placard, doe not onely goe about from place to place within this Realme, vſing buying and ſelling of Braſſe and Pewter, and by colour and pretence of the ſame licences or placards, vſe vnlawfull and deceiueable weights and beames, but alſo doe vſe to ſell both Braſſe and Pewter, which is not good, nor truly, nor lawfully mixt nor wrought, to the great deceit of the Kings true Liege people, contrary to the forme and effect of the ſaid good Act and Statute, made in the ſaid iiij. years of the Kings moſt Noble Reigne. Be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that all ſuch Licenſes and placards, heeretofore had, made, or granted, to any ſuch perſon or perſons, contrary to the true meaning, forme, and effect of this Statute, ſhall bee from henceforth by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, cleerely void, and of none effect. And whereas in the ſaid Act of Parliament concerning the Craft of Pewterers and Braſiers, made in the ſaid iiij. yeare for diuers cauſes and conſiderations in the ſame Act contained, amongſt other things it is expreſſed, That no other perſon or perſons, vſing the ſaid Craft of Pewterers or Braſiers, ſhould from thenceforth ſell or change any Pewter or Braſſe, new or old at any place or places within this Realme, but onely in open Fayers or Markets, or in their owne dwelling houſes, vnleſſe they were deſired by the buyers of ſuch wares, vpon pain of forfeiture for euery ſuch default, x. li.

Pewter ſhall be ſold in Faires and Markets & in the owners houſes, and not elſewhere.

Foraſmuch as the ſame forfeiture is to the only vſe of the Kings Highneſſe, and that any party ſearching or finding the ſame, is not intitled to haue any benefit thereby, it hath not bin knowne that any perſon or perſons haue taken any paine to ſearch or make any inquiry thereof, by reaſon whereof diuers and many euill diſpoſed perſons, vſing buying and ſelling both of braſſe and pewter, and not regarding the ſaid good Act, neither the ſaid penaltie, daily goe about from village to village, towne to towne, and from houſe to houſe, to ſell ſuch pewter and braſſe, which is not good, and alſo vſe deceiueable weights and beames, as they did before the making of the ſaid Act, to the great hurt and deceit of the Kings true Liege people and Subiects. Wherefore be it enacted by the authority aboueſaid, that as well the moity of the ſaid forfeiture of ten pound, limited in the ſaid Statute, made in the ſaid fourth yeare, as alſo the moity of all other forfeitures before expreſſed, and euery of them be, and ſhall to the vſe of the Kings Highneſſe, his heyres and ſucceſſors, and the other moity of the ſame forfeitures and euery of them, to the vſe of him or them that ſhall ſeaſe, finde or preſent the ſaid forfeitures or any of them, or that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any competent Court or Courts within this Realme, by Action, of debt, bill, plaint, or information, wherein the defendant ſhall in no wiſe be admitted to wage his Law, nor any protection, or eſſoine to any perſon or perſons, which ſhall be impeached to haue offended contrary to the forme and effect of this Eſtatute, ſhall bee allowable. This Act to endure to the laſt day of the next Parliament. 33. H.8.4. made perpetuall.

Who ſhall haue the forfeitures, and by what meanes they ſhall be recouered.

CAP. X.

Commiſſioners of Sewers refuſing to take oath ſhall be puniſhed.

BE it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that the Act late made for Sewers, and the Commiſſion therein recited, ſhall bee extended, uſed, and put in execution in the Towne and Marches of Caleis, according to the tenour of the ſame Commiſſion in like effect, as it is enacted to be put in execution within this Realme: and that no perſon ſhall be compelled to bee ſworne, or otherwiſe bound to ſit or trauell in execution of any commiſſion of Sewers within this Realme, unleſſe that he be dwelling within the Countie, whereof he is, or ſhall be aſſigned to be Commiſſioner, and for Caleis, and the ſaid Marches thereof, unleſſe that he be dwelling within the ſame towne of Caleis or Marches.

Stat. 23. H. 8. 5. Euery Commiſſioner of Sewers ſhal be dwelling in the ſame County.

And becauſe that diuers perſons heretofore aſſigned to be Commiſſioners haue refuſed to be ſworne, according to the ſaid former act, whereby diuers Commiſſions, heretofore made, remaine hitherto without effectuall execution. Be it therefore enacted, that if any perſon aſſigned or to be aſſigned, to be ſuch Commiſſioner of Sewers, being required hereafter by ſuch perſon or perſons as haue, or ſhall haue authority by the Kings writ, or otherwiſe to receiue or accept the oath compriſed in the ſaid former Act, euery perſon that ſo refuſeth to take the ſame oath, or upon that requeſt made, doth not receiue the ſame oath, and that refuſall or contempt done in the Chancerie, or returned into the Chancerie with the ſaid writ, ſhall loſe and forfeit for the ſame contempt to the King our Soueraigne Lord, fiue markes, & ſo to loſe from time to time fiue markes for euery ſuch contempt, as ſhall be done or returned into the ſaid Chancerie againſt any ſuch perſons, unleſſe that he in the ſame Chancerie doe ſhew and alleage in the ſaid terme, wherein ſuch returne ſhall be made againſt him, ſufficient and reaſonable matter aand cauſe to be allowed by the Lord Chancellor for his excuſe, and diſcharge in that behalfe.

The forfeiture of a Commiſſioner of Sewers that refuſeth to take the oath aſſigned by the Stat. of 23. H. 8. 5.

CAP. XI.

How deſtroyers of wilde foule ſhall be puniſhed.

WHere before this time there hath beene within this Realme great plentie of Wilde fowle, as Ducks, Mallards, Wigeons, Teales, Wilde Geeſe, and diuers other kinds of wilde fowle, whereby not onely the Kings moſt Honourable houſhold, and all the houſes of the Noble men and Prelates of this Realme, haue beene furniſhed for the neceſſarie expenſes of the ſame houſes at conuenient prices, but alſo all the Markets of the ſame Realme were ſufficiently furniſhed with wilde fowle, there to bee ſold in ſuch wiſe, that ſuch as were meet to make prouiſion of the ſame for their houſes, might at reaſonable prices, at the ſame Markets bee thereof prouided. Neuertheleſſe diuers perſons next inhabiting in the Countries and places within this Realme, where the ſubſtance of the ſame Wilde fowle hath beene accuſtomed to breed, haue in the Sommer ſeaſon, at ſuch time as the old fowle bee mounted, and not repleniſhed with feathers to flie, nor the young fowle fully feathered perfectly to flie, haue by certaine nets and other engines and policies yearely taken in great number of the ſame fowle, in ſuch wiſe, that the brood of wilde fowle is almoſt thereby waſted and conſumed, and daily is like more and more to waſte and conſume, if remedie be not therefore prouided.

The cauſe of the decay of Wilde foule.

Be it therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, That it ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon or perſons hereafter betweene the laſt day of May, and the laſt day of Auguſt, to take, or cauſe to be taken any ſuch wilde fowle, with nets or any other engines, upon paine of one yeares impriſonment, and to forfeit for euery fowle ſo taken iiii. pence. The one halfe thereof to be to the King our Soueraign Lord, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt in any of the Kings Courts, and in the which Action none eſſoine, nor protection ſhall be allowed, nor wager of law receiued.

Wild foule ſhal not be taken betweene the laſt day of May and the laſt day of Auguſt.

Cap. XIII.

What number of Sheepe men may keepe.

FOraſmuch as diuers and ſundrie perſons of the Kings ſubiects of this Realme, to whom God of his goodneſſe hath diſpoſed great plentie of moueable ſubſtance, now of late within few yeares, haue daily ſtudied, practiſed, and inuented wayes and meanes how they might accumulate, and gather together into few hands, as well great multitudes of Fermes, as great plentie of Cattell, and in eſpeciall Sheepe, putting ſuch lands as they can get, to Paſture, and not to Tillage: whereby they haue not onely pulled downe Churches and Townes and inhanſed the old rates of the rents of the poſſeſſions of this Realme, or elſe brought it to ſuch exceſſiue fines that no poore man is able to meddle with it, but alſo haue raiſed and enhaunſed the prices of all manner of corne, cattell, wooll, pigges, geeſe, hennes, chickins, egges, and ſuch other almoſt double aboue the prices which haue beene accuſtomed: By reaſon whereof a maruellous multitude and number of the people of this Realme be not able to prouide meat, drinke, and clothes neceſſarie for themſelues, their wiues and children, but be ſo diſcouraged with miſery, and pouerty, that they fall daily to theft, robbery, and other inconuenience, or pitifully die for hunger and cold. And as it is thought by the Kings moſt humble and louing ſubiects, one of the greateſt occaſions, that moueth and prouoketh thoſe greedie and couetous people ſo to accumulate and keepe in their hands ſuch great portions and parts of the grounds and lands of this Realme from the occupying of the poore huſbandmen, and ſo to vſe it in paſture, and not in tillage, is onely the great profit that commeth of ſheepe, which now be come into a few perſons hands of this Realme, in reſpect of the whole number of the Kings ſubiects, that ſome haue foure and twentie thouſand, ſome twentie thouſand, ſome ten thouſand, ſome ſix thouſand, ſome fiue thouſand, and ſome more, and ſome leſſe, by the which a good ſheepe for victuall, that was accuſtomed to be ſold for two ſhillings foure pence, or three ſhillings at the moſt, is now ſold for ſix ſhillings, or fiue, or foure ſhillings at the leaſt: And a ſtone of clothing wooll, that in ſome Shire of this Realme was accuſtomed to be ſold for eighteene pence, or twentie pence, is now ſold for foure ſhillings, or three ſhillings foure pence at the leaſt: and in ſome countries, where it hath beene ſold for two ſhillings foure pence, or two ſhillings eight pence, or iij. s. at the moſt: it is now ſold for v. s. or iiij. s. viij. d. the leaſt, and ſo are raiſed in euery part of this Realme. Which things thus vſed, be principally to the high diſpleaſure of Almighty God, to the decay of the hoſpitalitie of this Realme, to the diminiſhing of the Kings people, and to the let of the cloth making, whereby many poore people hath been accuſtomed to be ſet on worke: and in concluſion, if remedie be not found, it may turne

Pꝛouided alſo, that if any perſon by his laſt will and teſtament, giue to any childe within age, any number of ſheepe, and appoint them by his ſaid will, to be kept by his executoꝛs, oꝛ by any other perſon, vnto ſuch time as the ſaid child ſhall come to a certaine age limitted by his wil, that then in euery ſuch caſe, after the death of the teſtatoꝛ, the ſaid ſheepe ſo being in the poſſeſſion and occupation of the executoꝛs, oꝛ of any other perſon, to the vſe of any ſuch childe within age, foꝛ that time onely that the ſaid childe ſhall be within the age, that he ſhall be limitted to haue the ſaid ſheepe by the will of the teſtatoꝛ, ſhall not be accounted againſt the ſaid executoꝛs, noꝛ noꝛ any perſon ſo hauing the ſaid ſheepe, foꝛ the intent afoꝛeſaid, any of the number of the ſheep pꝛohibited by this Act: any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

And it is further enacted, that the Iuſtices of the peace of euery Shire, ſhall haue power and authoꝛitie to enquire of the offenders of this Act, as well by the othes of twelue men, as by infoꝛmation of any of the Kings ſubiects, and to make ſuch like pꝛoceſſe vpon euery pꝛeſentment, oꝛ infoꝛmation concerning this Act, as they vſen commonly to doe vpon pꝛeſentments befoꝛe them of treſpaſſe: And that no perſon being conuict by confeſſion oꝛ otherwiſe, that hee hath done oꝛ attempted contrary to this Act, ſhall be put to any leſſe fine than after the rates of foꝛfeitures afoꝛe limitted by this Act.

Iuſtices of peace ſhall inquire of the offenders of this Act.

Pꝛouided alwaies that no perſon ſhall be put to any anſwer oꝛ loſſe of any foꝛfeiture by vertue of this Act, at the ſuite of any the Kings ſubiects, by any oꝛiginall wꝛit of debt, bill, plaint, oꝛ infoꝛmation, except the ſuite be commenced within one yeare next after the offence done oꝛ committed contrary to this act. And ouer that be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that in caſe any ſuch perſon or perſons, hauing any ſuch eſtate in vſe or in poſſeſſion, of or in any manner lands, tenements, paſtures, féedings or liberties of foldcourſes as is before expreſſed, haue or doe kéepe vpon the ſame their poſſeſſions the number of two thouſand ſhéepe or aboue, the ſame perſon or perſons ſo hauing the number of two thouſand ſhéepe or aboue, ſhall not in any wiſe kéepe, ſuſtaine, or haue any ſhéepe aboue, or beſide the ſaid number of two thouſand, vpon any lands, paſtures, or féedings, which the ſame perſon or perſons haue, or hereafter ſhall haue, or take in ferme, or otherwiſe, vpon ſuch like paines and forfeitures for the ſame as be limited in the ſaid Act, that is to ſay, for euery ſhéepe ouer and aboue the ſaid number of two thouſand, thrée ſhillings foure pence. And in caſe the ſaid demeſne lands, tenements, paſtures, féedings, and liberties of foldcourſes of any perſon or perſons before rehearſed, ſuffice not for the féeding, paſturing, and kéeping of two thouſand ſhéepe, as is beforeſaid, that then euery ſuch perſon ſhall or may haue, ſuſtaine, or féed vpon his ſaid demeſne lands, and vpon his ferme holds, which he lawfully may haue, to the ſaid number of two thouſand ſhéepe and not aboue, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery ſhéep, aboue that number, iij.s: iiij.d.

Sheepe for the maintenance of his houſe aboue two thouſand.

Prouided alway and be it enacted, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon or perſons within this Realme, kéeping a houſhold, to haue from time to time ſuch conuenient number of ſhéepe, ouer and aboue the number expreſſed in this Act, as ſhall be neceſſarie for the onely expences of his houſhold, to be prouided, kept, and fed, in and vpon his owne lands or other lands, ſuch as he lawfully can or may haue, or prouide for, in ferme or otherwiſe: Any thing in this preſent act contained to the contrarie notwithſtanding. So that the ſame houſholder at no one time ſhall haue or kéepe for the expences of his houſhold, or by colour of the ſame, ouer and aboue the number to him limited by this act, any number of ſhéepe moe than ſhall ſuffice for the onely expences of his houſhold for one yeare, without fraud or couine, any thing in this preſent Act mentioned or expreſſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

How foldcourſes in Norfolke ſhall be vſed, and quillets of Land.

Be it alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no manner perſon or perſons of what degrée ſoeuer he or they be, being Lord or Lords, owner or owners, fermor or fermors, of or in any libertie of foldcourſes, within any towne, tithing, village, or hamlet, within any of the Counties of Norfolke and Suffolke, from and after the Feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God next comming, ſhall take in ferme for terme of yeares, or otherwiſe any quillets of lands, or paſtures, that is to ſay, any number of acres of land or paſture, appertaining to any other perſon or perſons, lying and being within the limit, extent, or precint of the ſaid libertie of the ſaid foldcourſes: but that they ſhall permit and ſuffer the ſaid perſons, hauing, or being for time owner or owners, leſſée or leſſées of the ſaid qnillets, to manure & paſture the ſaid quillets: And alſo to ſuffer the ſhéepe of the ſaid owner or owners, fermer or fermers of the ſaid quillets, after the rate of the ſame quillets to goe with the flocke of the owner, fermer, or occupier of the ſaid libertie or liberties of the ſaid foldcourſes, paying the cuſtomarie charges for the kéeping and féeding of the ſame, after the rate and vſe of the country there commonly vſed, without any interruption therein to be made by the ſaid owner or owners, fermer or fermers, or occupiers of the ſaid liberties vpon paine of forfeiture for euery time that any ſuch perſon, hauing any ſuch quillet that ſhall be ſo letted or diſturbed of féeding, kéeping, or paſturing any of his ſhéepe ſo to be fed and kept after the rate of his ſaid quillet, for euery ſuch ſhéepe iij. s. iiij. d.

To which ſort of quillets this ſtatute doth extend, and to which not.

Prouided alway that this Act or branch concerning quillets, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe be auailable to any tenant, owner or occupier of any ſuch quillet or quillets, to claime, haue, or vſe hereafter any ſuch paſture or féeding of his ſheepe, in or with any ſuch foldcourſes, but only where the tenants, owners, and occupiers of any ſuch quillets haue had, or might haue had heretofore of right and dutie, vſed to haue paſture and féeding in the ſaid foldcourſes, by reaſon of their tenures and ocupations of the ſame quillet and quillets, and none otherwiſe. And where they haue not vſed, ne ought to haue any ſhéepe fed, or kept within any ſuch foldcourſes, by reaſon of the ſaid tenures that the owners or occupiers of ſuch foldcourſes may take ſuch quillets, lying within their foldcourſes, in ferme, agréeing with the owners or occupiers of the ſaid quillets for the ſame.

Six ſcore ſheep ſhal be accompted an hundred.

And foraſmuch as the number of the C. of ſhéepe in euery countrey be not like, in ſome countrey the great C. where vj. ſcore is accompted for the C. and ſome countrey but onely v. ſcore, it is eſte declared by this preſent Act, that the number of two thouſand ſheepe, limited to euery perſon by this Act, ſhall be accompted x. C. for euery thouſand, after the number of the great hundred, and not after the leſſe C. ſo that euery thouſand ſhall containe xij. hundred after the leſſe number of the hundred.

When lambes ſhall be taken for ſheepe.

It is alſo further prouided by the authoritie aforeſaid, that lambes vnder the age of one whole yeare, and as much as ſhall be from the time of the falling of them vnto the Feaſt of the Natiuitie of Saint Iohn Baptiſt in any yeare to come, ſhall not be adiudged, ne taken for ſhéepe prohibited in this eſtatute: any thing in this Act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Cap. XV.

How and of whom Printers and Bookebinders ſhall print and ſell their bookes.

In the time of K. Richard 3. This Realme did lacke Printers and Binders of bookes, which is now ſupplied by Engliſhmen.

VVhereas by the prouiſion of a Statute made in the firſt yeare of the reigne of King Richard the third, it was prouided in the ſame act, that all ſtrangers reparing into this Realme, might lawfully bring into the ſaid Realme printed and written bookes to ſell at their liberty and pleaſure. By force of which prouiſion there hath come into this Realme ſithen the making of the ſame, a maruellous number of printed bookes and daily doth. And the cauſe of the making of the ſame prouiſion ſeemeth to be, for that there were but few bookes and few Printers within this Realme at that time, which could well exerciſe and occupie the ſaid ſcience and craft of printing: Neuertheleſſe, ſithen the making of the ſaid prouiſion, many of this Realme, being the Kings naturall ſubiects, haue giuen them ſo diligently to learne and exerciſe the ſaid craft of printing, that at this day there be within this Realme a great number cunning and expert in the ſaid ſcience or craft of printing, as able to exerciſe the ſaid craft in all points, as any ſtranger in any other Realme or countrie. And furthermore where there be a great number of the Kings ſubiects within this Realme, which liue by the craft and myſterie of binding of bookes, and that there be a great multitude well expert in the ſame: yet all this notwithſtanding, there are diuers perſons that bring from beyond the Sea great plenty of printed bookes, not onely in the Latine tongue, but alſo in our maternall Engliſh tongue, ſome bound in bourds, ſome in leather, and ſome in parchment, and them ſell by retaile, wereby many of the Kings ſubiects, being Binders of bookes, and hauing none other facultie wherewith to get their liuing, be deſtitute of worke, and like to be vndone: except ſome reformation herein be had. Be it therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled and by authority of the ſame, that the ſaid prouiſo, made the firſt yeare of the ſaid King Richard the third, from the Feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God next comming, ſhall be void and of none effect.

A repeale of the Stat. of 1. R.3. 9. touching bringing into this Realme and binding of bookes.

No man ſhall buy bookes which bee brought from beyond Seas to ſell againe if they be bound.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, reſiant or inhabitant within this Realme, after the ſaid feaſt of Chriſtmas next comming, ſhall buy to ſell againe any printed bookes, brought from any parts out of the Kings obeyſance, ready bound in boords, leather, or parchment, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit for euery booke bound out of the ſaid Kings obeyſance, and brought into this Realme, and bought by any perſon or perſons within the ſame to ſell againe contrarie to this Act, ſix ſhillings eight pence.

No man ſhall buy bookes by retaile brought from beyond the Seas.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons inhabitant, or reſiant within this Realme, after the ſaid feaſt of Chriſtmas, ſhall buy within this Realme, of any ſtranger borne out of the Kings obedience, other then of Denizens, any manner of printed bookes brought from any the parties beyond the Sea, except onely by engroſſe, and not by retaile: vpon paine of forfeiture of vi. s. viij. d. for euery booke ſo bought by retaile, contrary to the forme and effect of this eſtatute, the ſaid forfeitures to be alwaies leuyed of the buyers of any ſuch bookes, contrarie to this Act: The one halfe of all the ſaid forfeitures to be to the vſe of our Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other moitie to be to the partie that will ſeiſe or ſue for the ſame, in any of the Kings Courts, be it by bill, plaint, or information, wherein the defendant ſhall not bee admitted to wage his law, nor no protection, ne eſſoine ſhall bee vnto him allowed.

The prices of bookes increaſed to vnmeaſurable rates ſhall be qualified by the Kings great Officers.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the authority before ſaid, that if any of the ſaid Printers, or ſellers of printed bookes, inhabited within this Realme at any time hereafter happen in ſuch wiſe to enhaunce and encreaſe the prices of any ſuch printed bookes in ſale or binding, at too high and vnreaſonable prices, in ſuch wiſe as complaint bee made thereof vnto the Kings Highneſſe, or vnto the Lord Chancellor, Lord Treaſurer, or any of the chiefe Iuſtices of the one Bench or of the other: that then the ſame Lord Chancellor, Lord Treaſurer, and two chiefe Iuſtices, or any two of them, ſhall haue power and authority to enquire thereof, as well by the othes of twelue honeſt and diſcreet perſons, as otherwiſe by due examination by their diſcretions. And after the ſame enhaunſing and encreaſing of the ſaid prices of the ſaid bookes and binding ſhall be ſo found by the ſaid twelue men, or otherwiſe by examination of the ſaid Lord Chancellor, Lord Treaſurer, and Iuſtices, or two of them: that then the ſame Lord Chancellor, Lord Treaſruer, and Iuſtices, or two of them at the leaſt, from time to time, ſhall haue power and authoritie to reforme, and redreſſe ſuch enhaunſing of the prices of printed bookes, from time to time by their diſcretions, and to limit prices as well of the bookes, as for the binding of them: and ouer that the offendor or offendors thereof, being conuict by the examination of the ſame Lord Chancellor, Lord Treaſurer, and two Iuſtices, or two of them, or otherwiſe, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery booke by them ſold, whereof the price ſhall be enhaunſed, for the booke or binding thereof three ſhillings foure pence, the one halfe thereof ſhall be to the Kings Highneſſe, and the other halfe vnto the parties grieued, that will complaine vpon the ſame, in manner and forme before rehearſed.

Cap. XVI.

What perſons may haue a Chaplaine beneficed with cure.

St. 21.H.8.13.

Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the xxi. yeare of the raigne of our Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eight, it was among other things ordeined and prouided, that certaine honourable perſons as well Spirituall as Temporall, ſhall haue Chaplaines beneficed with Cure, to ſerue them in their Honourable houſes, which Chaplaines ſhall not incurre the danger of any penaltie or forfeiture, made or declared in the ſame Parliament, for none reſidence vpon their ſaid benefices, or for obtaining licences or diſpenſations of pluralities. In the which Act no prouiſion was made for any of the Kings Iudges of his high Courts, commonly called the Kings Bench and the Common Place, except only for the chiefe Iudge of the Kings Bench, nor for the Chancellor, nor the chiefe Baron of the Kings Exchequer, nor for any other inferiour perſons, being of the Kings moſt Honourable Councell, as by the ſaid Act may appeare.

Euery of the Iudges of the K. Bench and Common place &c. may haue one Chaplaine hauing one benefice with cure of ſoules.

Wherefore it is ordained and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that as well euery Iudge of the ſaid high Courts, and euery of the Chancellor and chiefe Baron of the ſaid Eſchequer, the Kings generall Atturny, and generall Solicitor, which for the time is, be, or ſhall bee, ſhall and may from henceforth at his libertie, reteine, and haue ſingularly to euery of them in his houſe, or attendant to his perſon, one Chaplaine, hauing one benefice with Cure of ſoules, which may be abſent from his ſaid Benefice, and not reſident vpon the ſame: The ſaid Statute made in the ſaid one and twentieth yeare, or any other Statute, Act, or Ordinance made to the contrary, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Cap. XVII.

Whoſoeuer ſhall ſhoot in any Handgunne, or Croſſebow, or keepe any in his houſe, except hee hath Lands, Annuities, or offices to the yearely value of an hundred pounds, ſhall forfeit ten pounds for euery offence. And a Iuſtice of peace may commit the offendor to the Gaole, vntill he hath payed the ſame forfeiture. All former Placards made to ſhoot in either of them ſhall be void. Rep. 33.H.8.6. In what places within the Countie of Worceſter clothes ſhall be made to be ſold.

Sheweth vnto the King our Soueraigne Lord, and to the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and to the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, the Citizens, Burgeſſes, & inhabitants of the City of Worceſter, & of the Towns of Eueſham, Droitwiche, Kederminſter, and Browiſgroue within the County of Worceſter, that where the ſaid City, Boroughes, and Townes haue béene in times paſt, well, and ſubſtantially inhabited, occupied, maintained, and vpholden by reaſon of making of woollen clothes, called long clothes, ſhort clothes, and other clothes, as well whites, blewes, and browne blewes, and the poore people of the ſame City, Boroughes, and Townes, and of the Country adioyning to them daily ſet a worke, as in ſpinning, carding, breaking, and ſorting of woolles, and the handicrafts there inhabiting, as Weauers, Fullers, Sheremen, and Diers, haue béene well ſet a worke, and had ſufficient liuing by the ſame: vntill now within few yeares paſſed, that diuers perſons inhabiting and dwelling in the Hamlets, Thorpes, and Villages, adioyning to the ſaid Citie, Boroughes, and Townes, within the ſaid ſhire for their priuate welthes, ſingular aduantages, and commodities, nothing regarding the maintenance, and vpholding of the ſaid City, boroughes, and townes, ne the common wealth of the ſaid handicrafts, inhabiting and dwelling within the ſaid Citie, boroughes, and townes, ne the poore people, which had liuing by the ſame, haue not onely engroſed and taken into their hands, diuers and ſundrie fermes, and become Fermers, Graſiers, and huſbandmen, but alſo doe exerciſe, vſe and occupie the miſteries of Clothmaking, Weauing, Fulling, and Shearing within their ſaid houſes, and doe make all manner of clothes, as well broad clothes, as whites and plaine clothes, within their ſaid houſes, in the countries abroad, to the great decay, depopulation, and ruine of the ſaid Citie, townes, and boroughes.

For remedie whereof, and for the amendment, and good aduancement of the ſaid Citie, boroughes and townes, be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that after the laſt day of September, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God. 1536. No manner perſon ne perſons, of what degree or conditions ſoeuer he or they be of, ſhall make or cauſe to be made within the ſaid ſhire of Worceſter any manner of woollen clothes to be ſold, except only ſuch perſons or perſon, as after the ſaid laſt day of September, ſhall be dwelling and inhabiting within the ſaid Citie of Worceſter, the Boroughes, and townes of Eueſham, Droitwiche Kederminſter, and Bromiſgroue within the ſaid Countie of Worceſter, or in any one of them, vpon paine of forfeiture, for euery ſuch broad cloth made after the ſaid day by any perſon or perſons, contrarie to the true meaning of this Act. xl. s.

The inhabitants in theſe townes onely in the Countie of Worceſter, ſhall make cloth.

And further it is prouided by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the Lords and owners of the meaſes, tenements, or cottages within the ſaid Citie, or any of the towns and boroughes aforeſaid, ſhall at no time hereafter dimit, ſet, or let any meaſe, tenement, or cottage ſufficiently repaired within the ſaid Citie, boroughes, or townes before limited to any perſon or perſons, that hereafter ſhall inhabit in the ſaid Citie, boroughes or townes, and exerciſing any of the ſaid miſteries or crafts, at any higher rent, impoſition, or charge, than was giuen for the ſame at any time within xx. yeares next before the making of this Act only except.

Houſes in thoſe townes ſhall be let for ſuch rents as they had wont to be. Rep. 21. Iac. 28.

Prouided alway that this act be not hurtfull, ne preiudiciall, to any perſon or perſons, for making any clothes for their owne wearing, their children or ſeruants wearing.

Cloth made for the owners wearing.

Alſo prouided, that in the ſaid Citie, and euery towne, and borough aforeſaid, there ſhall be due ſearch made of euery ſuch cloth beforeſaid, there made, and that they be meated both length and breath, being wet from the mill, and before they he ſet vpon the racks and dried: and that they ſhall be ſealed with the ſeale of the ſearcher of the ſame citie, towne, or borough, which ſeale ſhall haue a ſtampe conteining the true numbers for the length and bredth of the ſame cloth being wet, in paine of forfeiting for euery cloth put to ſale, not hauing the ſaid ſeale of the ſearcher xx. s. And the ſealer to forfeit for euery cloth, by him ſearched, and ſealed contrarie to the true meaning of this act. vj. s. viij. d. Cap. XIX.

The Clergie in their Conuocations ſhall enact no Conſtitutions without the Kings aſſent.

Where the Kings humble and obedient ſubiects, the Clergie of this Realme of England, haue not only knowledged according to the truth, that the Conuocations of the ſame Clergie, is, alwaies hath béene, and ought to be aſſembled only by the Kings writ, but alſo ſubmitting themſelues to the Kings Maieſty, haue promiſed in verbo Sacerdotij, that they will neuer from henceforth preſume to attempt, alleage, claime, or put in vre, enact, promulge, or execute any new Canons, conſtitutions, ordinance prouinciall, or other, or by whatſoeuer other name they ſhall be called in the Conuocation, vnleſſe the Kings moſt royall aſſent, and licence may to them be had, to make, promulge, and execute the ſame: and that his Maieſty doe giue his moſt royal aſſent and authority in that behalfe. And where diuers conſtitutions, ordinances, and Canons prouincial, or Synodal, which heretofore haue bin enacted, and be thought not only to be much preiudiciall to the Kings prerogatiue Royall, and repugnant to the lawes and ſtatutes of this Realme, but alſo ouer much onerous to his Highneſſe and his ſubiects: the ſaid Clergy hath moſt humbly beſought the Kings Highnes, that the ſaid conſtitutions and canons may be committed to the examination and iudgement of his highnes, and of two and thirty perſons of the Kings ſubiects, whereof ſixteen to be of the vpper and nether houſe of the Parliament, of the temporalty, and other ſixteen to be of the Clergy of this Realme, And all the ſaid two and thirty perſons to be choſen and appointed by the Kings Maieſty. And that ſuch of the ſaid conſtitutions, and canons as ſhall be thought and determined by the ſaid two and thirty perſons, or the more part of them, worthy to be abrogated and adnulled, ſhall be abolite and made of no value accordingly. And ſuch other of the ſame conſtitutions, and canons, as by the ſaid two and thirty, or the more part of them, ſhall be approued to ſtand with the lawes of God, and conſonant to the lawes of this Realme, ſhall ſtand in their full ſtrength and power, the Kings moſt royall aſſent firſt had and obtained to the ſame. Be it therefore now enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, according to the ſaid ſubmiſſion and petition of the ſaid Clergie, that they, ne any of them, from henceforth ſhall preſume to attempt, alleage, claime, or put in vre any conſtitutions, or ordinances, prouinciall or Synodals, or any other canons: Nor ſhall enact, promulge, or execute any ſuch Canons, conſtitutions, or ordinances prouinciall, by whatſoeuer name or names they may be called in their Conuocations in time comming (which alway ſhall be aſſembled by autority of the Kings writ) vnles the ſame clergy may haue the Kings moſt royall aſſent and licence to make, promulge, and execute ſuch canons, conſtitutions, and ordinances prouinciall or Synodall, vpon paine of euery one of the ſaid Clergy, doing contrary to this act, and being thereof conuict, to ſuffer impriſonment, and make fine at the Kings will.

The conuocation ſhall be aſſembled by the Kings writ.

The King may aſſigne two and thirtie perſons to examine the Canons, and to continue ſuch as they think worthie, and to abridge the reſidue. EXP. St. 27. H. 8. 15. 1. Ed. 6. 11. 35. H. 8. 16.

No Canons ſhal be executed which be contrarie to the Kings Prerogatiue, or to the Lawes.

And for as much as ſuch canons, conſtitutions and ordinances, as heretofore haue béene made by the Clergy of this Realme, cannot now at the ſeſſion of this preſent Parliament, by reaſon of ſhortnes of time, be viewed, examined, and determined by the Kings highneſſe, and xxxij. perſons to be choſen and appointed, according to the petition of the ſaid Clergie, in forme aboue rehearſed. Bee it therefore enacted by authority aforeſaid, That the Kings highneſſe ſhall haue power and authoritie to nominate and aſſigne at his pleaſure the ſaid two and thirty perſons, of his ſubiects, whereof ſixteene to be of the Clergie, and ſixtéene to be of the temporalty, of the vpper and nether houſe of the Parliament. And if any of the ſaid two and thirty perſons ſo choſen, ſhall happen to die before their full determination: then his highneſſe to nominate other from time to time, of the ſaid two houſes of the Parliament, to ſupply the number of the ſaid two and thirtie. And that the ſame two and thirty by his highneſſe ſo to be named, ſhall haue power and authority to view, ſearch, and examine the ſaid Canons, conſtitutions and ordinances prouinciall and Synodall heretofore made, and ſuch of them, as the Kings highneſſe, and the ſaid two and thirtie, or the more part of them ſhall déeme and adiudge worthy to be continued, kept, and obeyed, ſhall bée from thenceforth kept, obeyed, and executed within this Realme, ſo that the Kings moſt royall aſſent, vnder his great Seale, be firſt had to the ſame. And the reſidue of the ſaid Canons, conſtitutions and ordinances prouinciall, which the Kings highneſſe, and the ſaid two and thirty perſons, or the more part of them, ſhall not approue, or déeme and iudge worthie to be abolite, abrogate, and made fruſtrate, ſhall from thenceforth be void and of none effect, and neuer be put in execution within this Realme. Prouided alway that no Canons, conſtitutions, or ordinance, ſhall bee made or put in execution within this Realme, by authority of the Conuocation of the Clergie, which ſhall be contrariant or repugnant to the Kings prerogatiue Royall, or the cuſtomes, lawes, or Statutes of this Realme, Any thing contained in this act to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

There ſhall be no appeales to Rome, but appeales ſhall be according to the Statute made 24. H. 8. 12

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that from the Feaſt of Eaſter, which ſhal be in the yeare of our Lord God. M.DXXX[illegible]III. No manner of appeales ſhall be had, prouoked, or made out of this Realme, or out of any the Kings Dominions, to the Biſhop of Rome, nor to the Sée of Rome in any cauſes or matters happening to be in contention, and hauing their commencement, and beginning in any of the Courts within this Realme, or within any the Kings Dominions, of what nature, condition, or quality ſoeuer they be of: but that all manner of appeales, of what nature or condition ſoeuer they be of, or what cauſe or matter ſoeuer they concerne, ſhall be made and had by the parties grieued, or hauing cauſe of appeale, after ſuch manner, forme and condition, as is limitted for appeales to be had and proſecuted within this Realme in cauſes of matrimonie, tithes, oblations, and obuentions, by a ſtatute thereof made and eſtabliſhed ſithen the beginning of this preſent Parliament, and according to the forme and effect of the ſaid eſtatute, any vſage, cuſtome, preſcription, or any thing or things to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

And for lacke of Juſtice at or in any the Courts of the Archbiſhops of this Realme, or in any the Kings Dominions: it ſhall be lawfull to the parties grieued, to appeale to the Kings Maieſty, in the Kings Court of Chancerie. And that vpon euery ſuch appeale, a Commiſſion ſhall be directed vnder the great Seale, to ſuch perſons as ſhall be named by the Kings Highneſſe, his Heires or Succeſſors, like as in caſe of appeale from the Admirals Court, to heare, and diffinitiuely determine ſuch [a] appeales, and the cauſes concerning the ſame. Which Commiſſioners ſo by the Kings Highneſſe, his Heires or Succeſſors, to be named or appointed, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to heare, and diffinitiuely determine euery ſuch appeale, with the cauſes and all circumſtances concerning the ſame: and that ſuch iudgement, and ſentence, as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall make and decree, in, and vpon any ſuch appeale, ſhall be good and effectuall, and alſo diffinitiue: and no further appeales to be had, or made from the ſaid Commiſſioners for the ſame.

Cap. XX.

No firſt fruits ſhall be paid to the Biſhop of Rome: And within what time a Biſhop ſhall be choſen, inueſted, and conſecrated.

WHere ſithen the beginning of this preſent Parliament for repreſſe of the exaction of Annates and firſt fruits of Archbiſhopricks, and Biſhopricks of this Realme, wrongfully taken by the Biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the Pope, and the See of Rome, it is ordained & eſtabliſhed by an act among other things, that the paiments of the Annates or firſt fruits, & all manner contributions for the ſame, for any ſuch Archbiſhoprick or Biſhoprick, or for any Bulls to be obtained from the See of Rome, to, or for the ſaid purpoſe or intent, ſhould vtterly ceaſe, and no ſuch to be paid for any Archbiſhopricke, or Biſhopricke within this Realme, otherwiſe than in the ſame act is expreſſed. And that no manner of perſon or perſons to be named, elected, preſented, or poſtulated to any Archbiſhoprick, or Biſhoprick within this Realme, ſhould pay the ſaid Annates or firſt fruits, nor any other manner of ſum or ſummes of mony, pentions or annuities for the ſame, or for any other like exaction or cauſe, vpon peine to forfeit to our ſoueraigne Lord the King, his Heires, and Succeſſors, all manner his goods and cattels for euer, and all the Temporall lands and poſſeſſions of the ſaid Archbiſhoprick or Biſhoprick, during the time that he or they that ſhould offend contrarie to the ſaid act, ſhould haue, poſſeſſe, and enioy the ſaid Archbiſhoprick or Biſhoprick. And it was further enacted, that if any perſon named or preſented to the See of Rome by the Kings Highneſſe, or his Heires or Succeſſors, to be Biſhop of any See or Dioces within this Realme, ſhould happen to be letted, delayed, or deferred at the See of

The payment of firſt fruits, and all contributions to the See of Rome by any Biſhop, ſhall ceaſe.

Rome from any ſuch Biſhoprick, whereunto he ſhould be ſo preſented, by meane of reſtraint of Buls of the ſaid Biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the Pope, and other things requiſite to the ſame, or ſhould be denied at the Sée of Rome, vpon conuenient ſuite made for any Bulles requiſite for any ſuch cauſe: that then euery perſon ſo preſented, might or ſhould be conſecrated in England by the Archbiſhop, in whoſe Prouince the ſaid Biſhoprick ſhall be: ſo alwaies that the ſame perſon ſhould be named, and preſented by the King for the time being to the ſaid Archbiſhop. And if any perſon being named, and preſented (as is beforeſaid) to any Archbiſhoprick of this Realme, making conuenient ſuit as is aforeſaid, ſhould happen to be letted, delayed, deferred, or otherwiſe diſturbed from the ſaid Archbiſhopricke, for lacke of Pall, Bulles, or other things to him requiſite to be obtained at the Sée of Rome: that then euery ſuch perſon ſo named and preſented to be Archbiſhop, might and ſhould be conſecrated inueſted after preſentation made, as is aforeſaid, by any other two Biſhops within this Realme, whom the Kings Highnes, or any his heires or ſucceſſors, Kings of England, would appoint and aſſigne for the ſame, according and after like manner, as diuers Archbiſhops, and Biſhops haue béene heretofore in Ancient time by ſundrie the Kings moſt noble Progenitors made, conſecrated, and inueſted within this Realme. And it was further enacted by the ſaid act, that euery Archbiſhop and Biſhop, being named and preſented by the Kings Highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, Kings of England, and being conſecrated and inueſted, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be inſtalled accordingly, and ſhould be accepted, taken, and reputed, vſed and obeyed, as an Archbiſhop or Biſhop, of the dignitie, Sée or place, whereunto he ſhall be ſo named, preſented, and conſecrated, and as other like Prelates of that Prouince, Sée, or Dioces haue béene vſed, accepted, taken, and obeyed, which haue had and obtained compleatly their Buls and other things requiſite in that behalfe from the Sée of Rome, and alſo ſhould fully & intirely haue & enioy all the ſpiritualties, and temporalties, of the ſaid Archbiſhoprick or Biſhoprick, in as large, ample, and beneficiall manner, as any of his or their Prodeceſſors had or enioyed in the ſaid Archbiſhopricke or Biſhopricke, ſatiſfying and yéelding vnto the Kings Highneſſe, and to his heires and ſucceſſors, all ſuch duties, rights, and intereſts, as before time hath béene accuſtomed to be paid for any ſuch Archbiſhopricke or Biſhopricke, according to the ancient lawes and cuſtomes of this Realme, and the Kings Prerogatiue royall, as in the ſaid act amongſt other things is more at large mentioned.

If any preſented by the King to the Sée of Rome to a Biſhoprick in England be there delayed, he may be conſecrated by an Archbiſhop in England.

One preſented to the Sée of Rome to an Archbiſhoprick, and there letted, may be conſecrated by two Biſhops of England.

The Kings Royall conſent to the foreſaid Statute.

And albeit the ſaid Biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the Pope, hath béene enformed and certified of the effectuall contents of the ſaid act, to the intent that by ſome gentle waies the ſaid exactions might haue béene redreſſed and reformed: yet neuertheleſſe the ſaid Biſhop of Rome hitherto hath made none anſwer of his minde therein to the Kings Highnes, nor deuiſed or required any reaſonable waies to and with our ſaid Soueraigne Lord for the ſame. Wherefore his moſt royall Maieſty, of his excellent gódneſſe, for the wealth and profit of this his Realme and ſubiects of the ſame, hath not only put his moſt gracious and royall aſſent to the foreſaid act, but alſo hath ratified and confirmed the ſame, and euery clauſe and article therein contained, as by his Letters patents vnder his great Seale enrolled in the Parliament rolle of this preſent Parilament more at large is contained.

And for as much as in the ſaid act it is not plainly and certainly expreſſed, in what manner, and faſhion, Archbiſhops and Biſhops ſhall bée elected, preſented, inueſted, and conſecrated within this Realme, and in all other the Kings Dominions: Be it now therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid act, and euery thing therein contained, ſhall be and ſtand in ſtrength, vertue, and effect, Except only that no perſon or perſons hereafter ſhal be preſented, nominated or commended to the ſaid Biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the Pope, or to the Sée of Rome, to or for the dignity or office of any Archbiſhop or Biſhop within this Realme, or in any other the Kings Dominions, nor ſhall ſend nor procure there for any manner of Bulles, Breues, Palles, or other things requiſite for an Archbiſhop or Biſhop, nor ſhal pay any ſummes of mony for Annates, firſt fruits, nor otherwiſe for expedition of any ſuch Bulles, Breues, or Palles: but that by the authority of this act, ſuch preſenting, nominating, or commending to the ſaid Biſhop of Rome, or to the Sée of Rome, and ſuch Bulles, Breues, Palles, Annates, firſt fruits, and euery other ſummes of money heretofore limited, accuſtomed, or vſed to be paid at the ſaid Sée of Rome, for procuration or expedition of any ſuch Bulles, Breues or Palles, or other thing concerning the ſame, ſhall vtterly ceaſe, and no longer be vſed within this Realme, or within any the Kings Dominions, any thing contained in the ſaid act afore mentioned, or any vſe, cuſtome, or preſcription to the contrarie thereof notwithſtandinh.

No man ſhal be preſented to the Sée of Rome for the dignitie of an Archbiſhop or Biſhop, nor Annates or firſt fruits ſhall be paid to the ſame Sée.

The manner of electing an Archbiſhop or Biſhop.

And furthermore be it ordained and eſtabliſhed by the authority aforeſaid, That at euery auoidance of any Archbiſhoprick or Biſhoprick within this Realme, or in any other the Kings Dominions: the King our Soueraigne Lord, his Heires and Succeſſors, may grant to the Prior and Couent, or the Deane and Chapiter of the Cathedrall Churches or Monaſteries, where the Sée of ſuch Archbiſhoprick or Biſhoprick ſhall happen to be void, a licence vnder the great Seale, as of old time hath béene accuſtomed, to procéed to election of an Archbiſhop or Biſhop of the Sée ſo being void, with a letter miſſiue, containing the name of the perſon, which they ſhall elect and choſe. By vertue of which licence, the ſaid Deane and Chapiter, or Prior and Couent, to whom any ſuch licence & letters miſſiues ſhall be directed, ſhall with all ſpeed and celerity, in due forme elect and choſe the ſaid perſon named in the ſaid letters miſſiue, to the dignity and office of the Archbiſhoprick or Biſhoprick, ſo being void, and none other. And if they doe deferre or delay their election aboue twelue daies next after ſuch licence, and letters miſſiues to them deliuered, That then for euery ſuch default the Kings Highnes, his Heires and Succeſſors, at their libertie and pleaſure, ſhall nominate & preſent by their letters patents vnder their great Seale, ſuch a perſon to the ſaid office and dignitie, ſo being void, as they ſhall thinke able and conuenient for the ſame. And that euery ſuch nomination, and preſentment to be made by the Kings Highnes, his Heires and Succeſſors, if it be to the office and dignity of Biſhop, ſhall be made to the Archbiſhop and Metropolitane of the Prouince, where the See of the ſame Biſhoprick is void, if the See of the ſaid Archbiſhop be then full and not void: and if it be void, then to be made to ſuch Archbiſhop or Metropolitane within this Realme, or in any the Kings Dominions, as ſhall pleaſe the Kings Highneſſe, his Heires or Succeſſors. And if any ſuch nomination or preſentment ſhall happen to be made for default of ſuch election to the dignity or office of any Archbiſhop: then the Kings Highneſſe, his heires and Succeſſors, by his letters patents vnder his great Seale ſhall nominate and preſent ſuch perſon as they will diſpoſe to haue the ſaid office and dignity of Archbiſhoprick being void, to one ſuch Archbiſhop, and two ſuch Biſhops, or elſo to foure ſuch Biſhops in this Realme, or in any the Kings Dominions, as ſhall be aſſigned by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, his heires or ſucceſſors.

For default of election by the Deane and Chapiter, the King ſhall nominat a Biſhop by his letters patents.

Conſecration of a Biſhop.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that whenſoeuer any ſuch preſentment or nomination ſhall be made by the Kings Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, by vertue and authority of this act, and according to the tenour of the ſame: That then euery Archbiſhop and Biſhop, to whoſe hands any ſuch preſentment and nomination ſhall be directed, ſhall with all ſpeed and celeritie inueſt, and conſecrate the perſon nominate & preſented by the Kings Highnes, his heires or ſucceſſors to the office and dignity that ſuch perſon ſhall be ſo preſented vnto, and giue and vſe to him Pall, and all other benedictions, ceremonies, and things requiſite for the ſame, without ſuing, procuring, or obtaining hereafter any Bulles, or other things at the See of Rome for any ſuch office or dignity in that behalfe. And if the ſaid Deane and Chapiter, or Prior and Couent, after ſuch licence & letters miſſiue to them directed within the ſaid twelue daies, doe elect and chooſe the ſaid perſon mentioned in the ſaid letters miſſiue, according to the requeſt of the Kings Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, thereof to be made by the ſaid letters miſſiue in that behalfe: then their election ſhall ſtand good and effectuall to all intents, and that the perſon ſo elected, after certification made of the ſame election, vnder the Comon and Couent Seale of the electors to the Kings Highneſſe, his Heires or Succeſſors, ſhall bee reputed and taken by the name of Lord elected of the ſaid dignitie and office, that hee ſhall bee elected vnto: And then making ſuch oath and fealtie onely to the Kings Maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, as ſhall be appointed for the ſame, the Kings Highneſſe by his letters patents vnder his great Seale, ſhall ſignifie the ſaid election, if it be to the dignitie of a Biſhop, to the Archbiſhop and Metropolitane of the Prouince where the See of the ſaid Biſhoprick was void, if the See of the ſaid Archbiſhop be full and not void. And if it bee void, then to any other Archbiſhop within this Realme, or in any other the Kings Dominions, requiring and commanding ſuch Archbiſhop, to whom any ſuch ſignification ſhall bee made, to confirme the ſaid election, and to inueſt and conſecrate the ſaid perſon ſo elected to the office and dignity that he is elected vnto, and to giue and vſe to him all ſuch benedictions, ceremonies, and other things requiſite for the ſame, Without any ſuing, procuring, or obtaining any Bulles, Letters, or other things from the See of Rome for the ſame in any behalfe. And if the perſon be elected to the office and dignitie of an Archbiſhop, according to the tenour of this act, then after ſuch election certified to the Kings Highneſſe, in forme aforeſaid, the ſame perſon ſo elected to the office and dignitie of an Archbiſhop, ſhall bee reputed and taken Lord elect to the ſaid office and dignitie of Archbiſhop, whereunto he ſhall be ſo elect: And then after he hath made ſuch oath and fealtie onely to the Kings Maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, as ſhall bee limited for the ſame, the Kings Highneſſe, by his Letters patents vnder his great Seale, ſhall ſignifie the ſaid election to one Archbiſhop, and two other Biſhops, or elſe to foure Biſhops within this Realme, or within any other the Kings Dominions, to be aſſigned by the Kings Highneſſe, his Heires, or Succeſſors, requiring and commanding the ſaid Archbiſhop and Biſhops with all ſpeed and celeritie, to confirme the ſaid election, and to inueſt and conſecrate the ſaid perſon, ſo elected to the office and dignitie that he is elected vnto, and to giue and vſe to him ſuch Pall, benedictions, ceremonies, and all other things requiſite for the ſame, Without ſuing, procuring or obtaining any Bulles, Briefes, or other things at the ſaid See of Rome, or by the authoritie thereof in any behalfe.

The name of a Biſhop newly choſen viz. a Lord elect.

The Kings ſignification of a Biſhop or Archbiſhop elect.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that euery perſon and perſons being hereafter choſen, elected, nominate, preſented, inueſted, and conſecrate to the dignity or office of any Archbiſhop, This election of a Biſhop ſhal be lawfull St. 8. El. 1.

The penaltie for not electing or not conſecrating a Biſhop named.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That, if the Prior and Couent of any Monaſtery, or Deane & Chapiter of any Cathedrall Church, where the Sée of any Archbiſhop or Biſhop is within any the Kings Dominions, after ſuch licence, as is afore rehearſed ſhall be deliuered to them, procéed not to election, and ſignifie the ſame according to the tenour of this act, within the ſpace of twenty daies next after ſuch licence ſhall come to their hands: or elſe if any Archbiſhop or Biſhop within any the Kings Dominions, after any ſuch election, nomination, or preſentation ſhall be ſignified vnto them by the Kings Letters patents, ſhall refuſe and doe not confirme, inueſt, and conſecrate, with all due circumſtance as is aforeſaid euery ſuch perſon as ſhall be ſo elected, nominate or preſented, and to them ſignified, as is aboue mentioned, within twenty daies next after the Kings Letters patents of ſuch ſignification, or preſentation ſhall come to their hands, or elſe if any of them, or any other perſon or perſons, admit, maintaine, allow obey, doe or execute any Cenſures, Excommunications, Interdictions, inhibitions, or any other Proceſſe or Act, of what nature, name, or qualitie ſoeuer it be, to the contrarie, or let of due execution of this act, that then euery Prior and particular perſon of his Couent, and euery Deane, and particular perſon of the Chapiter, and euery Archbiſhop and Biſhop, and all other perſons ſo offending and doing contrarie to this act, or any part thereof, and their aiders, counſellers, abettors ſhall run in the dangers, paines, and penalties of the eſtatute of prouiſion and Premunire, made in the fiue and twentieth yeare of the raigne of King Edward the third, and in the ſixteenth yeare of King Richard the ſecond. Cap. XXI.

No impoſition ſhall be paid to the Biſhop of Rome, &c.

Summes of money which haue beene paid for ſeuerall cauſes to the Biſhop and Sée of Rome.

This Realme is free from any laws of man but ſuch as haue beene deuiſed within the ſame.

Moſt humbly beſéeching your moſt Royall Maieſty your obedient and faithfull ſubiects, the Commons of this your preſent Parliament, aſſembled by your moſt dread commandement, That where your Subiects of this your Realme, and of other Countries and Dominions being vnder your obeyſance, by many yeares paſt haue béen, and yet be greatly decayed and impoueriſhed, by intolerable exactions of great ſummes of money, as haue beene claimed, and taken, and yet continually be claimed to bée taken out of this your Realme, and other your ſaid Countries and Dominions, by the Biſhop of Rome, called the Pope, and the Sée of Rome, as well in pentions, cenſes, Peter pence, procurations, fruits, ſuites for prouiſions, & expeditions of Buls for Archbiſhopricks and Biſhopricks, and for delegacies, & reſcripts in cauſes of contentions & appeales, iuriſdictions legantine, and alſo for diſpenſations, licences, faculties, grantes, relaxations, writs called Perinde valere, rehabilitations, abolitions, and other infinit ſorts of Buls, Breues, and inſtruments of ſundry natures, names and kinds in great numbers heretofore practiſed and obtained, otherwiſe than by the lawes, laudable vſes, and cuſtomes of this Realme ſhould be permitted, the ſpecialties whereof bin ouer long, large in number, and tedious héere particularly to be inſerted. Wherein the Biſhop of Rome aforeſaid, hath not bin, not only to be blamed, for his vſurpation in the premiſes, but alſo for his abuſing and beguiling your ſubiects, pretending & perſwading to them, that he hath power to diſpenſe with all humane lawes, vſes and cuſtomes of all Realmes, in all cauſes, which be called ſpirituall. Which matter hath bin vſurped & practiſed by him and his predeceſſors by many yeares, in great derogation of your Imperiall crowne and authoritie royall, contrary to right and conſcience. For where this your Graces Realme recogniſing no ſuperior vnder God, but only your Grace, hath béene, and is frée from ſubiection to any mans lawes, but only to ſuch as haue bin deuiſed, made, & ordained within this Realme for the wealth of the ſame, or to ſuch other, as by ſufferance of your Grace and your Progenitors, the people of this your Realme haue taken at their frée liberty by their owne conſent to be vſed amongſt them, and haue bound themſelues by long vſe and cuſtome to the obſeruance of the ſame, not as to the obſeruance of the lawes of any forren Prince, Potentate, or Prelate, but as to the cuſtomed & ancient lawes of this Realme, originally eſtabliſhed, as lawes of the ſame, by the ſaid ſufferance, conſents, and cuſtome, and none otherwiſe. It ſtandeth therefore with naturall equity and good reaſon, that in all and euery ſuch lawes humane, made within this Realme, or induced into this Realme by the ſaid ſufferance, conſents, and cuſtome, your royall Maieſty, and your Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and Commons repreſenting the whole ſtate of your Realme, in this your moſt high Court of Parliament, haue full power and authority, not only to diſpenſe, but alſo to authorize ſome elect perſon or perſons, to diſpenſe with thoſe and all other humane lawes of this your Realme, and with euery one of them, as the qualitie of the perſons and matter ſhall require. And alſo the ſaid lawes and euery of them to abrogate, adnull, amplifie or diminiſh, as it ſhall be ſeene vnto your Maieſtie, and the Nobles and Commons of your Realme, preſent in your Parliament, meet and conuenient for the wealth of your Realme, as by diuers good and wholeſome acts of Parliaments, made and eſtabliſhed, as well in your time, as in the time of your moſt noble Progenitors, it may plainly & euidently appeare. And becauſe that it is now in theſe daies preſent, ſeene, that the ſtate, dignitie, ſuperioritie, reputation, and authoritie of the ſaid Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, by the long ſufferance of the ſaid vnreaſonable and vncharitable vſurpations and exactions, practiſed in the times of your moſt noble Progenitors, is much and ſore decayed, and diminiſhed, and the people of this Realme thereby impoueriſhed, and ſo or worſe be like to continue, if remedie bee not therefore ſhortly prouided.

The Parliament hath authoritie to diſpence, and to elect ſome perſons to diſpence with all the humane lawes of this Realme, and to amplifie and adnull the.

It may therefore pleaſe your moſt noble Maieſty, for tho honor of almighty God, and for the tender loue, zeale and affection, that yee beare, and alwaies haue borne to the wealth of this your Realme, and Subiects of the ſame, for as much as your Maieſtie is ſupreme head of the Church of England, as the Prelates and Clergie of your Realme, repreſenting the ſaid Church in their Synods and Conuocations haue recogniſed, in whom conſiſteth full power and authoritie vpon all ſuch lawes as hath beene made and vſed within this Realme, to ordaine and enact by the aſſent of your Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, That no perſon or perſons of this your Realme, or of any other your Dominions, ſhall from henceforth pay any penſions, cenſes, portions, Peterpence, or any other impoſitions to the vſe of the ſaid Biſhop, or of the See of Rome, like as heretofore they haue vſed, by vſurpation of the ſaid Biſhop of Rome, and his Predeceſſors, and ſufferance of your Highneſſe, and your moſt noble Progenitors to doe, but that all ſuch penſions, cenſes, portions, and Peterpence, which the ſaid Biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the Pope, hath heretofore taken and perceiued, or cauſed to be taken and perceiued to his vſe and his Chambers, which hee calleth Apoſtolike, by vſurpation and ſufferance, as is aboueſaid, within this your Realme, or any other your Dominions, ſhall from hencefoth clearely ſurceaſe, and neuer more be leuied, taken, perceiued, nor paid to any perſon or perſons in any manner of wiſe, any conſtitution, vſe, preſcription, or cuſtome to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

No impoſitions ſhall be paid to the Biſhop or See of Rome.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that neither your Highneſſe, your Heires nor Succeſſors, Kings of this Realme, nor any your ſubiects of this Realme, nor of any other your Dominions, ſhall from henceforth ſue to the ſaid Biſhop of Rome, called the Pope, or to the See of Rome, or to any perſon or perſons, hauing or pretending any authority by the ſame, for licences, diſpenſations, [a] impoſitions, faculties, grants reſcripts, delegacies, or any other inſtruments or writings, of what kinde, name, nature, or qualitie ſoeuer they be of, for any cauſe or matter: for the which any licence, diſpenſation, compoſition, facultie, grant, reſcript, delegacie, inſtrument or other writing heretofore hath beene vſed and accuſtomed to be had and obtained at the See of Rome, or by authority thereof, or of any Prelate of this Realme: nor for any manner of other licences, diſpenſations, compoſitions, faculties, grants, reſcripts, delegacies, or any other inſtruments or writings, that in cauſes of neceſſitie may lawfully bee granted without offending the holy Scriptures and lawes of God: But that from henceforth euery ſuch licence, diſpenſation, compoſition, facultie, grant, preſcript, delegacie, inſtrument, and other writing aforenamed and mentioned, neceſſary for your Highneſſe, your Heires and Succeſſors, and your and their people and ſubiects, vpon the due examinations of the cauſes and qualities of the perſons procuring ſuch diſpenſations, licences, compoſitions, faculties, graunts, reſcripts, delegacies, inſtruments, or other writings, ſhall be granted, had, and obtained from time to time, within this your Realme, and other your Dominions, and not elſewhere, in manner and forme following, and none otherwiſe: That is to ſay, the Archbiſhop of Canterburie, for the time being, and his Succeſſors ſhall haue power and authoritie from time to time, by their diſcretions, to giue, grant, and diſpoſe by an inſtrument, vnder the Seale of the ſaid Archbiſhop, vnto your Maieſtie, and to your Heires and Succeſſors, Kings of this Realme, as well all manner ſuch licences, diſpenſations, compoſitions, faculties, grants, reſcripts, delegacies, inſtruments, and all other writings, for cauſes not being contrary, or repugnant to the holy Scriptures, and Lawes of God, as heretofore hath beene vſed, and accuſtomed to bee had and obtained by your Highneſſe, or any your moſt noble Progenitors, or any of yours or their ſubiects, at the See of Rome: or of any perſon or perſons by authoritie of the ſame: and all other licences, diſpenſations, faculties, compoſitions, grants, reſcripts, delegacies, inſtruments, and other writings, in, for, and vpon all ſuch cauſes and matters, as ſhall be conuenient and neceſſarie to be had, for the honour and ſuretie of your Highneſſe,

No perſon ſhall ſue for any diſpenſation or licence to the Biſhop of Rome.

The Archbiſhop of Canterbury may grant diſpenſations to the King.

your heires and ſucceſſors, and the wealth and profit of this your Realme: So that the ſaid Archbiſhop, or any of his ſucceſſors, in no manner wiſe ſhall grant any diſpenſation, licence, reſcript, or any other writing afore rehearſed, for any cauſe or matter repugnant to the law of Almighty God.

The Biſhop of Canterbury may grant licences of things wonted to be receiued. Cooke pla. f. 512.

Bee it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid Archbiſhop and his ſucceſſors, after good and due examination by them had, of the cauſes and qualities of the perſons procuring for licences, diſpenſations, compoſitions, faculties, delegacies, reſcripts, inſtruments, or other writings, ſhall haue full power and authority by themſelues, or by their ſufficient and ſubſtanciall Commiſſarie, or Deputie, by their diſcretions from time to time, to grant and diſpoſe by an inſtrument vnder the name and ſeale of the ſaid Archbiſhop, as well to any of your ſubiects, as to the ſubiects of your heires and ſucceſſors, all manner licences, diſpenſations, faculties, compoſitions, delegacies, reſcripts, inſtruments, or other writings for any ſuch cauſe or matter, whereof heretafore ſuch licences, diſpenſations, compoſitions, faculties, delegacies, reſcripts, inſtruments, or writings haue beene accuſtomed to be had at the See of Rome, or by the authority thereof, or of any Prelate of this Realme.

Diſpenſations to cauſes vnwonted to be licenced ſhall not be granted without the approbation of the king or his Counſell.

And that the ſaid Archbiſhop and his Commiſſarie ſhall not grant any other licence, diſpenſation compoſition, facultie, writing, or inſtrument in cauſes vnwont, and not accuſtomed to bee had or obteined at the Court of Rome, nor by authority thereof, nor by any Prelate of this Realme, vntill your Grace, your heires, or ſucceſſors, or your or their Counſell ſhall firſt be aduertiſed thereof, and determine whether ſuch licences, diſpenſations, compoſitions, faculties, or other writings in ſuch cauſes vnwont and not accuſtomed to be diſpenſed withall, or obteined, ſhall commonly paſſe as other diſpenſations, faculties, or other writings, ſhall or no, vpon paine that the grantors of euery ſuch licence, diſpenſation, or writing in ſuch cauſes, vnwont, contrarie to this Act, ſhall make fine at the will and pleaſure of your Grace, your heires, and ſucceſſors. And if it be thought and determined by your Grace, your heires, or ſucceſſors, or your or their counſell, that diſpenſations faculties, licences, or other writings in any ſuch cauſe vnwont, ſhall paſſe, then the ſaid Archbiſhop or his Commiſſarie, hauing licence of your Highneſſe, your heires, or ſucceſſors for the ſame, by your or their bill aſſigned, ſhall diſpence with them accordingly.

Licence of things whereof the taxe extends to iiii. li. ſhall be confirmed by the kings great Seale.

Prouided alwaies, that no manner diſpenſations, licences, faculties, or other reſcripts or writings, hereafter to be granted to any perſon or perſons by vertue or authoritie of this act by the ſaid Archbiſhop, or his Commiſſary, being of ſuch importance, that the taxe for the expedition thereof at Rome, extended to the ſumme of foure pounds or aboue, ſhall in any wiſe be put in execution, till the ſame licence, diſpenſation facultie, reſcript, or other writing, of what name, or nature ſoeuer it be of, be firſt confirmed by your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, Kings of this Realme, vnder the great Seale, and inrolled in your Chancerie in a roll by a clerke to be appointed for the ſame. And that this Act ſhall be a ſufficient warrant to the Chancellor of England for the time being, or to him whom your Grace, your heires or ſucceſſors ſhall depute to be Keeper of the great Seale, to confirme in your name, your heires, or ſucceſſors the foreſaid writings paſſed vnder the ſaid Archbiſhops ſeale by letters patents in due forme thereof to be made vuder your great Seale, remitting as well the ſaid writing vnder the Archbiſh. ſeale, as the ſaid confirmation vnder the great ſeale, to the parties from time to time procuring for the ſame.

What diſpenſations may be granted by the Archbiſh. without the Kings confirmation.

And that all ſuch licences, diſpenſations, faculties, and other reſcripts and writings, for the expedition of the which the ſaid taxes to be paid at Rome, was vnder iiij. li. which be matters of no great importance, ſhall paſſe only by the Archbiſhops ſeale, and ſhall not of any neceſſity be confirmed by the great ſeale, vnleſſe the procurers of ſuch licence, faculty, or diſpenſation, deſire to haue them ſo confirmed, In which caſe they ſhall pay for the ſaid great Seale, to the vſe of your Highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors v. s. ſterling, and not aboue, ouer and aboue ſuch taxe as ſhall be hereafter limitted for the making, writing, regiſtring, confirming, and inrolling of ſuch licences, confirmations, and writings vnder the ſaid taxe of iiij. li.

All acts done by vertue of any of the foreſaid licences ſhall be good and of force in law.

And that euery ſuch licence, diſpenſation, compoſition, facultie, reſcript, and writing of what name or nature ſoeuer it be, for ſuch cauſes as the taxe was wont to be iiij. li. or aboue, ſo granted by the Archbiſhop, and confirmed vnder the great ſeale, and all other licences, diſpenſations, faculties, reſcripts, and writings hereafter to be granted by the Archbiſhop by vertue and authoritie of this act, whereunto the great Seale is not limitted of neceſſitie to be put to, by reaſon that the taxe of them is vnder iiij. li. ſhall be accepted, approued, allowed, and admitted good and effectuall in the law, in all places, courts, and iuriſdictions, as well ſpirituall, as temporall within this Realme, as elſewhere, within your dominions, and as beneficiall to the perſons obteining the ſame, as they ſhould haue been, if they had beene obteined, with all things requiſite, of the See of Rome, or of any other perſon by authoritie thereof, without any reuocation, or repeale hereafter to be had of any ſuch licences, diſpenſations, faculties, reſcripts, or writings, of what nature ſoeuer they be.

Licences to marry, and children borne after the ſame mariages.

And that all children procreated after ſolemnization of any mariages to be had or done by vertue of ſuch licences or diſpenſations, ſhall be admitted, reputed, and taken legitimate in all

Courts, as well ſpirituall as Temporall, and in all other places, and inherit the inheritance of their parents and anceſtors within this your realme, and all other your dominions, according to the lawes and cuſtomes of the ſame: and all acts to be done, had, or executed according to the tenour of ſuch Licences, Diſpenſations, Faculties, writings, or other inſtruments to be made or granted by authority of this Act, ſhall be firme, permanent, and remaine in force, any forreigne lawes, conſtitutions, decrees, canons, decretalls, inhibitions, vſe, cuſtome, preſcription, or any other thing had, or hereafter to be made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Archbiſhop and his ſucceſſors ſhall haue power and authoritie to ordeine, make & conſtitute a Clerke, which ſhal write, and regiſter euery ſuch Licence, Diſpenſation, Faculty, writing, or other inſtrument to be granted by the ſaid Archbiſhop, and ſhal find parchment, waxe, & ſilken laces conuenient for the ſame, & ſhal take for his paines ſuch ſummes of money as ſhalbe hereafter in this preſent Act to him limited in that behalfe for the ſame. And that likewiſe your Grace, your heires and ſucceſſors, ſhall by your Letters patents vnder your great Seale, ordeine, depute, and conſtitute one ſufficient Clerke, being learned in the courſe of the Chancerie, which alwayes ſhalbe attendant vpon the Lord Chancellor, or the Lord Keeper of the [d] great ſeale, for the time being, and ſhall make, write, and inroll the Confirmations of all ſuch Licences, Diſpenſations, Inſtruments or other writings, as ſhall be thither brought vnder the Archbiſhops ſeale, there to bee confirmed and inrolled: And ſhall alſo intitle in his books and enroll of record ſuch other writings, as thither ſhall be brought vnder the Archbiſhops ſeale not to be confirmed, taking for his pains ſuch reaſonable ſummes of money, as hereafter by this Act to him ſhall be limitted for the ſame, And that as well the ſaid Clerke appointed by the ſaid Archbiſhop, as the ſaid Clerke to be appointed by your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall ſubſcribe their names to euery ſuch Licence, diſpenſation, Facultie, or other writing, that ſhall come to their hands to be written, made, granted, ſealed, confirmed, regiſtred, and enrolled by authoritie of this act, in forme as is before rehearſed.

A Clerke to regiſter diſpenſations appointed by the Archb.

A Clerke aſſigned by the king to write confirmations.

And foraſmuch as the charges of obtaining the ſaid Licences, Diſpenſations, Faculties, and other Reſcrips, or writings afore named, at the Court of Rome, by the loſſes and exchanges, and in conducting of Currours and waging of Solicitors, to ſue for any ſuch Licences, Diſpenſations, Faculties, Inſtruments, and other Reſcrips or writings, haue beene grieuous and exceſſiue to your people, and many times greater ſummes haue beene demanded for the ſpeedie expedition in the Court of Rome, than be expreſſed in the old taxe, limited to be paid for the ſaid expeditions, whereby your people hath been brought to an incertainty vpon the payment for expeditions of ſuch things, and by reaſon thereof haue been conſtrained to pay more than they were wont to doe, to the great impoueriſhing of this realme, as is aforeſaid. And ſometimes the ſpeeding of ſuch Diſpenſations, Faculties, Licences, and other writings at Rome, hath been ſo long deferred, that the parties labouring for the ſame, haue ſuffered great incommodities, and loſſe for lacke of quicke ſpeed, which hereafter may be had within this your realme, to the great commoditie of your people. Whereby the charges of making exchanges, conducting of Currors, and Solicitors for the ſaid Diſpenſations, ſhall be abated, and your people ſo much releeued and eaſed, to the intent that all ambiguitie, and incertainty of payments for Diſpenſations, Faculties, Licences, and other Reſcrips and writings may be taken away, that no fraud or exaction ſhall bee exerciſed vpon your people, by ſuch officers as ſhall be appointed by this Act, to take paines in ſpeeding ſuch Diſpenſations, Faculties, and Licences: but that your people may bee ſure and certaine what they be appointed to pay for the ſame.

The charges qualified which had wont to be ſpent in obtaining diſpenſations & licences from Rome.

Be it enacted by this preſent Parliament, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that there ſhall be two books drawne and made of one tenour: in which ſhall be conteined the taxes of all cuſtomable Diſpenſations, Faculties, Licences, and other writings, wont to be ſped at Rome, which Bookes and euery leafe of thoſe Bookes, and both ſides of euery leafe, ſhall be ſubſcribed by the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, the Lord Cancellor of England, the Lord Treaſurer of England, and the two chiefe Iuſtices of both Benches for the time being: to the which bookes all ſuters for Diſpenſations, Faculties, Licences, and other writings afore rehearſed, ſhall haue recourſe if they require it. And one of the ſaid bookes ſhall remaine in the hands of him, which ſhall bee appointed to be Regiſter, and Scribe of the ſaid Diſpenſations, Faculties, and Licences, vnder the ſaid Archbiſhop of Canterburie, in forme as is beforeſaid: and the other Booke ſhall remaine with the Clerke of the Chancerie, which by your Grace, your heires or ſucceſſors ſhall be appointed, as is before rehearſed. Which Clerke of the Chancerie ſhall alſo intitle and note particularly and daily in his Booke, ordeined for that purpoſe, the number and qualities of the Diſpenſations, Faculties, Licences, and other reſcripts and writings, which ſhall be ſealed onely with the ſeale of the ſaid Archbiſhop: and alſo which ſhall be ſealed with the ſaid ſeale, and confirmed with the great Seale, in forme as is before ſaid, that all fraud and concealement in this behalfe may be auoided.

Two bookes ſhall be made, wherein the taxes of diſpenſations ſhall be written.

And be it enacted by this preſent Parliament, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no man ſuing for Diſpenſations, Faculties, Licences, or other reſcripts or writings, which were wont to be ſped at Rome, ſhal pay any more for their Diſpenſations, Licences, or reſcripts, than ſhalbe conteined, taxed, and limited in the ſaid duplicate bookes of taxes, onely compoſitions excepted, of which being arbitrarie, no taxe can be made: wherefore the taxe thereof ſhall be ſet and limited by the diſcretion of the ſaid Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and the Lord Chancellor of England, or the Lord Keeper of the great Seale, for the time being. And that ſuch as ſhall exact or receiue of any ſuiter more for any diſpenſation, facultie, or licence than ſhall be conteined in the ſaid bookes of taxes, ſhal forfeit ten times ſo much, as he ſhall ſo extortiouſly exact and receiue: the one halfe of the which forfeiture to be to the vſe of your Grace, your heires, or ſucceſſors, and the other halfe thereof to be to ſuch of your ſubiects as will ſue for the ſame, by action, bill, or plaint, in any of your Graces courts, wherein the defendant ſhall haue none eſſoine, nor protection allowed, neither ſhall be admitted to wage his law.

The fees of diſpenſations, faculties, licences, &c.

The penaltie of extortion in officers.

Be it alſo enacted by this Parliament, and authoritie of the ſame, That the taxe or ſumme appointed to be paid for euery ſuch diſpenſation, licence, facultie, inſtrument, reſcript, or other writing to be graunted by authority of this act, ſhall be emploied and ordered, as hereafter enſueth: that is to ſay, if the taxe extend to iiij. li. or aboue, by reaſon whereof the diſpenſation, licence, faculty, reſcript, or writing, which ſhall paſſe by the ſaid Archbiſhops ſeale, muſt be confirmed by thappenſion of the great Seale: then the ſaid taxe ſo extending to iiij. li. or aboue, ſhall be diuided into thrée parts, whereof two ſhall be perceiued by the ſaid Clerke of the Chauncerie to be appointed (as is aforeſaid) to the vſe of your Highneſſe, your heires, and ſucceſſors, and to the vſe of the Lord Chancellor, or the Keeper of the great Seale, for the time being, and to the vſe of the ſaid Clerke, in ſuch wiſe as ſhall hereafter bee declared. And the third part ſhall be taken by the ſaid Clerke of the Archbiſhop, to the vſe of the ſame Archbiſhop and his Commiſſarie, And his ſaid Clerke and Regiſter, in ſuch wiſe as hereafter ſhall be ordered and limited by this Act: That is to ſay, the ſaid two parts ſhall bée diuided in foure parts, of which thrée parts ſhall be taken to the onely vſe of your Highneſſe, your heires, and ſucceſſors: and the fourth part ſhall bée diuided in thrée parts, whereof the Chauncellour of England, or Lord Kéeper of the great Seale, for the time being, ſhall haue two parts, and the ſaid Clerke of the Chauncerie the third part for his paines, trauaile, and labours, that hée is limited to write and doe by vertue of this Act. And the ſaid third part of the whole taxe, appointed to the ſaid Archbiſhop and his officers (as is aforeſaid) ſhall bée diuided into thrée parts, whereof the Archbiſhop ſhall haue to his vſe two parts, and his Officers ſhall haue the third part thereof: of which third part to be diuided into two parts, the ſaid Clerke or Regiſter, which ſhall finde parchment, wax, and ſilke, and ſhall deuiſe and write the ſaid diſpenſations, licences, faculties, reſcripts, or other writings, and regiſter the ſame, ſhall haue for his ſaid labour, and for receiuing and repaying of the ſummes of money, that ſhall come to his hands for diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other reſcripts aforeſaid, the one moitie thereof, and the Commiſſarie, appointed to ſeale the ſaid diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other reſcripts, ſhall haue the other part.

How the taxe for euery diſpenſation, facultie or other writing ſhall be diuided.

And if the taxe be vnder iiij. li. and not vnder xl. s. then the ſaid taxe ſhall be diuided into thrée parts, as is aforeſaid, whereof the Kings Highnes, his heires and ſucceſſors ſhall haue two parts thereof, abating iij. s. iiij. d. which ſhall be to the ſaid Clerke of the Chauncerie for ſubſcribing, entituling, and enrolling the ſaid diſpenſations, licences, faculties, reſcripts, and other writings aforeſaid, and receiuing of the Kings money ſo taxed: And the Archbiſhop and his officers ſhall haue the third part, which third part ſhall bee diuided into two parts, whereof the Archbiſhop ſhall haue the one entirely to himſelfe, his Scribe and Commiſſarie ſhall haue the other part thereof, egally to bée diuided amongſt them for their coſts and paines in that behalfe. And if the taxe be vnder fortie ſhillings, and not vnder ſix and twenty ſhillings eight pence, the ſame taxe ſhall be diuided into two parts, whereof the one part ſhall be to your Grace, your heires and ſucceſſors, deducting thereof two ſhillings for the Clerke of the Chancerie, for his paines, as is aforeſaid: and the other part ſhall be to the ſaid Archbiſhop and his Officers, which other part ſhall be diuided into two parts, whereof the Archbiſhop ſhall haue the one, and his Commiſſary, and Scribe ſhall haue the other, egally diuided amongſt them. And if the taxe be vnder ſix and twenty ſhillings eight pence, and not vnder twenty ſhillings, the ſame ſhall be diuided into two parts, whereof your grace, your heires and ſucceſſors ſhall haue the one part entirely, abating two ſhillings thereof to the ſaid Clerke of the Chancerie: & the Archbiſhop and his officers ſhall haue the other part, and the ſame other part ſhall be diuided into thrée parts, whereof the Archbiſhop ſhall haue one, his Commiſſarie the ſecond, and his Scribe or Regiſter the third. And in caſe the taxe be vnder twentie ſhillings, the ſame ſhall be perceiued to the vſe of the ſaid Commiſſarie, Clerke of the ſaid Archbiſhop, and Clerke of the Chancerie, to be egally diuided amongſt them for their paines and labours by them to be ſuſteined by authoritie of this act, as is aforeſaid.

If the taxe be vnder iiii. li. & not vnder xl. s.

If the taxe be vnder xl. s. and not vnder xxvi. s. viii. d.

If the taxe be vnder xxvi. s. viii. d. and not vnder xx. s.

Prouided alwayes that this act ſhall not be preiudiciall to the Archbiſhop of Yorke or to any Biſhop or Prelate of this realme: but that they may lawfully (notwithſtanding this act) diſpenſe in all caſes, in which they were wont to diſpence by the common law or cuſtome of this Realme afore the making of this act.

Diſpenſations by other prelats

Prouided

Diſpenſation by the Guardian of the ſpiritualties.

Pꝛouided alſo, and be it enacted by authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that if it happen the See of the Archbiſhopꝛicke of Canterburie to be void, that then all ſuch manner Licences, diſpenſations, Faculties, inſtruments, reſcripts, and other wꝛitings, which may be granted by vertue and authoꝛity of this Act, ſhall (during the vacation of the ſame Sée) bée had, done, and graunted vnder the name and ſeale of the Gardian of the Spiritualties of the ſaid Archbiſhopꝛicke foꝛ the time being, accoꝛding to the tenour and foꝛme of this Act, and ſhall be of like foꝛce, value, and effect, as if they had béene granted vnder the name and ſeale of the Archbiſhop foꝛ the time being.

A remedie where the Archbiſhop oꝛ Guardian of the ſpiritualties deny to grant diſpenſations, licences, &c.

And be it farther enacted, that if the foꝛeſaid Archbiſhop of Canterburie (foꝛ the time being) oꝛ the ſaid Guardian of the Spiritualties, foꝛ the time being, hereafter refuſe, oꝛ denie to grant any Licences, Diſpenſations, Faculties, Inſtruments, oꝛ other wꝛitings, which they be authoꝛiſed to doe by vertue and authoꝛity of this Act, in ſuch manner and foꝛme as is afoꝛe remembꝛed to any perſon oꝛ perſons, that ought vpon a góod, iuſt, and reaſonable cauſe to haue the ſame, by reaſon whereof, this pꝛeſent Act by their wilfulneſſe, negligence, oꝛ default, ſhould take none effect: then the Chancelloꝛ of England, oꝛ the Loꝛd kéeper of the great Seale, foꝛ the time being, vpon any complaint thereof made, ſhall direct the Kings wꝛit to the ſaid Archbiſhop oꝛ Guardian, denying oꝛ refuſing to grant ſuch licences, diſpenſations, faculties, oꝛ other wꝛitings, iniopning him by the ſaid wꝛit, vpon a certain paine therein to be limited by the diſcretion of the ſaid Chancelloꝛ, oꝛ kéeper of the great Seale, that he ſhall in due foꝛme grant ſuch licence, diſpenſation, facultie, oꝛ other wꝛiting, accoꝛding to the requeſt of the pꝛocurers of the ſame: oꝛ elſe ſignifie vnto your Highneſſe, your Heires, oꝛ ſucceſſoꝛs in the Court of Chancerie at a certaine day, foꝛ what occaſion oꝛ cauſe he refuſed and denied to grant ſuch licences, faculties oꝛ diſpenſations: And if it ſhall appeare to the ſaid Chancelloꝛ, oꝛ Loꝛd kéeper of the great Seale, vpon ſuch certificat, that the cauſe of refuſall oꝛ deniall of granting ſuch licences, faculty, oꝛ diſpenſation was reaſonable, iuſt, and góod: that then it ſo being pꝛoued by due ſearch, and examination of the ſaid Chancelloꝛ, oꝛ Loꝛd Kéeper of the great Seale, to be admitted and allowed. And if it ſhall appeare vpon the ſaid Certificat, that the ſaid Archbiſhop oꝛ Guardian of the Spiritualties, foꝛ the time being, of wilfulneſſe, in contemning the due execution of this Act, without a iuſt and reaſonable cauſe, refuſed, oꝛ denied to grant ſuch licence, faculty, oꝛ diſpenſation: that then your Highneſſe, your Heires oꝛ, Succeſſoꝛs being thereof infoꝛmed, after due examination had, that ſuch licences, faculties, oꝛ diſpenſations may be granted, without offending the holy Scriptures, and Lawes of God, ſhall haue power and authoꝛity in euery ſuch caſe, foꝛ the default, negligence, and wilfulnes of the ſaid Archbiſhop, oꝛ Guardian, to ſend your wꝛit of Iniunction vnder your great Seale, out of your ſaid Court of Chancerie, commanding the Archbiſhop, oꝛ Guardian, that ſo ſhall denie oꝛ refuſe to grant ſuch licence, facultie, oꝛ diſpenſation, to make ſufficient grant thereof, accoꝛding to the tenour and effect of this Act, by a certaine day, and vnder a certaine paine in the ſaid wꝛit to be conteined, and to be limited by your Highnes, your Heires oꝛ Succeſſoꝛs, Kings of this Realme. And if the ſaid Archbiſhop oꝛ Guardian after the receipt of the ſaid wꝛit, refuſe oꝛ denie to grant ſuch licences, faculties, oꝛ diſpenſations, as ſhall be enioyned him by vertue of the ſaid wꝛit, and ſhew and pꝛoue befoꝛe your Maieſty, your Heires, oꝛ Succeſſoꝛs, no iuſt oꝛ reaſonable cauſe why hee ſhould ſo doe, then the ſaid Archbiſhop oꝛ Guardian, that ſo ſhall refuſe to put this Act in execution, accoꝛding to the ſaid wꝛit of Iniunction, ſhall ſuffer, loſe, and foꝛfeit to your Highneſſe, your heires, and ſucceſſoꝛs, ſuch paine and penaltie, as ſhall be limited and expꝛeſſed in the ſaid wꝛit of Iniunction, And ouer that it ſhall be lawfull to your Highnes, your heires, and ſucceſſoꝛs foꝛ euery ſuch default and wilfulneſſe of the ſaid Archbiſhop, oꝛ Guardian foꝛ the time being, to giue power and authoꝛity by Commiſſion, vnder your great Seale to ſuch two ſpirituall Pꝛelates, oꝛ perſons to be named by your Highneſſe, your heires, oꝛ ſucceſſoꝛs, as will doe, and grant ſuch licences, faculties, and diſpenſations, refuſed oꝛ denied to be granted by the ſaid Archbiſhop, oꝛ Guardian in contempt of this Act.

Diſpenſations granted by other ſpirituall Pꝛelates.

And be it further enacted, by authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that the ſaid two Spirituall Pꝛelates oꝛ Perſons, to whom in ſuch caſes, any ſuch Commiſſion ſhall be directed, ſhall haue power and authoꝛity to grant euery ſuch licence, facultie, diſpenſation, inſtrument, and other wꝛitings ſo refuſed to be granted by the ſaid Archbiſhop oꝛ Guardian foꝛ the time being, by an inſtrument vnder their Seales, taking like fées and charges foꝛ the ſame, as is befoꝛe rehearſed, and not aboue, vnder the paines afoꝛe remembꝛed. And that euery ſuch licence, faculty, and diſpenſation ſo granted foꝛ any caſes oꝛ matters, whereunto any confirmation vnder the Kings great ſeale is appointed by this Act, to be had in manner and foꝛme aboue declared, ſhall bée had and obtained accoꝛdingly. And ſuch licences and confirmation ſhall be had foꝛ like fées and charges, as they are aboue ſpecified & not aboue, vnder the paines aboue mentioned. And that euery ſuch licence, facultie, oꝛ diſpenſation, & other wꝛiting to be granted by the ſaid Pꝛelates oꝛ perſons to be aſſigned by the Kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſoꝛs, as is afoꝛeſaid, ſhall be of as góod value, ſtrength, and effect, and as beneficiall and pꝛofitable to the perſons pꝛocuring the ſame, as if they had béene made, granted, and obteined vnder the name and ſeale of the ſaid Archbiſhop.

The King and the realme doe not meane to vary from the articles of the catholike faith of Chriſtendom.

Prouided allwayes that this act nor any thing or things therein conteined, ſhall be hereafter interpreted or expounded, that your Grace, your Nobles, and Subiects, intend by the ſame to decline, or varie from the congregation of Chriſts Church, in any things, concerning the verie articles of the Catholike faith of Chriſtendome, or in any other things declared by holy Scripture and the word of God, neceſſary for your and their ſaluations, but onely to make an ordinance by policies neceſſary, and conuenient to repreſſe vice, and for good conſeruation of this realme, in peace, vnitie, and tranquillitie, from rauine and ſpoile, inſuing much the old ancient cuſtomes of this realme in that behalfe. Not minding to ſéeke for any reléeſes, ſuccours, or remedies for any worldly things, and humane lawes, in any cauſe of neceſſitie, but within this realme, at the hands of your Highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors, Kings of this realme, which haue and ought to haue an imperiall power and authoritie in the ſame, and not obliged in any wordly cauſes to any other ſuperiour.

The King by Commiſſion may viſit colleges, hoſpitals, & places exempt, & not the Archbiſhop of Canterburie.

Prouided alway, that the ſaid Archbiſhop of Canterburie, or any other perſon or perſons, ſhal haue no power or authoritie by reaſon of this act, to viſit or vex any Monaſteries, Abbeyes, Priories, Colledges, Hoſpitals, houſes, or other places religious, which be or were exempt before the making of this act, any thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding, but that redreſſe, viſitation, and confirmation ſhall be had by the Kings Highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, by Commiſſion vnder the great Seale to be directed to ſuch perſons, as ſhall be appointed requiſite for the ſame, in ſuch Monſteries, Colledges, Hoſpitals, Priories, houſes and places religious exempt. So that no viſitation nor confirmation ſhall from henceforth bee had nor made, in or at any ſuch Monaſteries, Colledges, Hoſpitals, Priories, houſes and places religious exempt by the ſaid Biſhop of Rome, nor by any of his authoritie, nor by any out of the Kings dominions. Nor that any perſon religious, or other reſiant in any the Kings dominions, ſhall from henceforth depart out of the Kings dominions, to or for any viſitation, congregation, or aſſemblie for religion, but that all ſuch viſitations, Congregations, and aſſemblies, ſhall be within the Kings dominions.

None ſhall goe forth of England to general Councils.

This act ſhall not derogate the Stat. of 21. H.8.13. touching pluralities of benefices, or nonreſidence.

Prouided alſo, that this preſent act, or any thing therein conteined, or any licence, or diſpenſation hereafter to be made by vertue and authoritie therof, ſhall not extend to the repeale, or derogation of the late act made ſith the beginning of this preſent Parliament, for reformation of pluralities of benefices, and for nonreſidences of ſpirituall perſons vpon their dignities or benefices, nor to any things conteined or mentioned in the ſaid act. Nor that this act, nor any thing to be done by authoritie thereof, ſhall not be taken, expounded, nor interpreted, to giue licence to any perſon or perſons, to haue any more number of Benefices, than is limited in the ſaid act. And that the ſame act for pluralities and nonreſidences of benefices, and euery thing therein conteined, ſhall ſtand good and effectuall in all intents, according to the true meaning thereof, any thing in this preſent act, or any licence, or diſpenſation to be had by authoritie thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The penaltie for ſuing to the See of Rome for any licence, diſpenſation, &c. or for obeying any proceſſe from thence. Alt. 13. El. 2.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, ſubiect or reſiant within this realme, or within any of the Kings dominions, at any time hereafter ſue to the Court of Rome, or the Sée of Rome, or to any perſon, claiming to haue his authoritie by the ſame, for any Licence, Faculty, diſpenſation, or other thing or things contrary to this act, or put in execucion any Licence, Faculty, or Diſpenſation, or any other thing or things hereafter to be obtained from Rome or the Sée of Rome, or from any claiming authoritie by the ſame, for any of the cauſes aboue mentioned in this act, or for any other cauſes that may be graunted by authoritie of this act, or attempt or doe any thing or things, contrarie to this act: or maintaine, allow, admit, or obey any manner of cenſures, excommunications, interdictions, or any other proceſſe from Rome, of what name or nature ſoeuer it be, to the derogation or let of the execution of this act, or of any thing or things to be done by reaſon of the ſaid act, that then euery ſuch perſon or perſons ſo doing, offending, and being thereof conuict, their aydors, counſellors, and abettors ſhall incurre and runne into the paine, loſſe, and penaltie compriſed and ſpecified in the act of Prouiſion and Premunire, made in the ſixtéene yeare of your moſt noble Progenitor, King Richard the ſecond, againſt ſuch as ſue to the Court of Rome, againſt your Crowne and dignitie royall.

Grants & confirmations of liberties obteined at the See of Rome to any Abbeis or houſes, ſhall be of the ſame effect as they were before.

Prouided alway that this act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not hereafter be taken, nor expounded to the derogation, or taking away of any Graunts, or Confirmations of any Liberties, Priuileges, or Juriſdiction af any Monaſteries, Abbeis, Priories, or other houſes or places exempt, which heretofore the making of this act, hath bin obtained at the Sée of Rome, or by authoritie thereof, but that euery ſuch Grant and Confirmation ſhall be of the ſame value, force and effect, as they were afore the making of this act, and as if this Act had neuer bin made. Prouided allwayes, that the Abbots, Priors, and other chiefe Rulers, and Gouernours of ſuch Monaſteries, Abbeyes, Priories, and other houſes, and places exempt, ſhall not hereafter pay any penſion, portion, or other cenſe to the Sée of Rome; nor admit, or accept any viſitation, nor any confirmation, from, or by the ſaid Sée of Rome, or by authoritie thereof, of, or for any perſon to be elect, named, or preſented, to be heads of any ſuch Monaſteries, Abbeis, Priories, places, or houſes exempt: nor ſhall make any corporall oath to the Biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the Pope, vpon the paines limited in this Act. But that euerie ſuch viſitation, and confirmation of ſuch heads elect in any ſuch Monaſteries, Abbeis, Priories, houſes, or places exempt, where after their election they were bounden to haue and obtaine any confirmation of their election, or of the perſon named, preſented, or elect ſhall be from henceforth had, made, and done within this Realme, at, and within euery ſuch Abbeis, Monaſteries, Priories, and other houſes and places exempt, by ſuch perſon and perſons, as ſhall be appointed by authoritie of the Kings Commiſſion from time to time, as the caſe ſhall require, and not by the See of Rome nor by authoritie thereof, any thing in this next Prouiſo aboue ſpecified to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Abbeis ſhall pay no penſions to the ſee of Rome, nor accept any viſitation or confirmation from thence, nor ſhall make any oath to the Biſhop thereof.

Prouided alwayes, that in ſuch Monaſteries, Abbeis, Priories, and houſes exempt, where after election, preſentation, or nomination of their heads, no ſuch confirmation is requiſite to be had, nor hath beene vſed to be taken by reaſon of ſuch priuileges, as they haue concerning the ſame, that in euerie ſuch Monaſteries, Abbeis, Priories, and places exempt, they ſhall not be bounden to obtaine, haue, or take any confirmation for the ſame within this Realme, by authoritie of this act, but vſe their priuileges therein, as they haue done before the making of this act, any thing in this act, or any the Prouiſoes next aboue rehearſed, to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Monaſteries, houſes, &c. where no confirmation is requiſite.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted, that this act, or any thing or things, word or words therein, or in the Preamble thereof mentioned or conteined is not intended or meant, nor ſhall bee expounded nor interpreted, that any diſpenſations, licences, or confirmations for marriages, granted to any the Kings ſubiects, borne vnder his obeiſance, at any time before the xii. day of March, in the yeare of our Lord God, 1533. ſhall be appaired or of any leſſe value, ſtrength, force or effect than they were at the ſaid xii. day of March. Nor that this Act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to the derogation, appairing, or adnullation of any licences, diſpenſations, confirmations, faculties, or indulgences at any time before the ſaid xij. day of March, in the yeare of our Lord God, 1533. had or obteined at the See of Rome, or by authoritie thereof to or for any ſubiects borne in this Realme, or in any the Kings dominions, or to or for the Hoſpitall of the Prior of Saint Iohns of Ieruſalem in England, or any Commandries, or members thereof, or to or for any other Cathedrall Churches, Hoſpitalls, Monaſteries, Abbeyes, Priories, Colledges, Conuentuall Churches, Parochiall Churches, Chappels, Fraternities, Brotherheads, or Bodies politike within this Realme, or in any other the Kings dominions: But that euery ſuch licence, diſpenſation, confirmation, facultie, and indulgence, granted before the ſaid xij. day of March to any ſuch ſubiect, or to the ſaid Hoſpitall of the Prior of Saint Iohns of Ieruſalem in England, and Commandries or members therof, or to any other Cathedrall Church, Hoſpitall, Monaſterie, Abbey, Priorie, Colledge, Church Conuentuall, Parochiall Church, Chappell, Fraternitie, Brotherhead, or Bodie politike, or to their predeceſſors, or anceſtors within this Realme, or in any other the Kings dominions, ſhall be of the ſame force, ſtrength, value, and effect, and may be from time to time put in execution at all times hereafter, by, and to them that will vſe and haue the ſame, as they mought haue been afore the making of this act, and as if this act had neuer beene had ne made, any thing in the ſaid act to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

Licences & diſpenſations obtained at the ſee of Rome, before the xii. of march An. D. 1533. ſhall be of the ſame force that they were before.

Prouided alwaies, that ſuch licences, diſpenſations, confirmations, or faculties heretofore obteined at the See of Rome, or by authority therof contrary to the expreſſe prouiſions of the laws and ſtatutes of this realme heretofore made, ſhall not at any time hereafter be vſed or put in execution in any caſe, to the derogation or contrary to the ſaid lawes & ſtatutes of this realme, and the prouiſions of the ſame: any thing in this prouiſo to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

And be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, That the King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aduice of his honorable Councell ſhall haue power and authority from time to time, for the ordering, redreſſe, & reformation of all manner of indulgences, & priuileges therof within this realme, or within any the Kings dominions heretofore obteined at the See of Rome, or by authority thereof, and of the abuſes of ſuch indulgences & priuileges thereof, as ſhall ſeeme good, holſome, & reaſonable for the honor of God & weale of his people: and that ſuch order & redreſſe as ſhall be taken by his Highnes in that behalfe, ſhalbe obſerued & firmely kept vpon the paines limited in this act for the offending of the contents of the ſame. St. 1. & 2. P. & M. 8. 1. Eli. 1.

The King with the aduice of his Councell may reforme the manner of Indulgences.

Cap. XXII.

The Succeſſion of the Kings Maieſtie in the Imperiall crowne.

IN their moſt humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your maieſty your moſt humble and obedient ſubiects, the Lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that ſince it is the naturall inclination of euery man, gladly and willingly to prouide for the ſurety of both his title & ſucceſſion, although it touch his only priuate cauſe: We therefore moſt rightfull & dreadful ſouereign Lord, reckon our ſelues much more bounden to beſeech & inſtant your highnes (although we doubt not of your princely heart & wiſdome, mixed with a naturall affection to the ſame) to foreſee & prouide for the perfit ſuretie of both you and of your moſt lawfull ſucceſſion and heires vpon which dependeth all our ioy and wealth: in whom alſo is vnited and knit, the only meere trew inheritance and title of this Realme, without any contradiction. Wherefore we your ſaid moſt humble and obedient Subiects, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, calling to our remembrance the great diuiſions, which in times paſt haue beene in this Realme, by reaſon of ſeuerall titles pretended to the Imperiall Crowne of the ſame, which ſometimes, and for the moſt part enſued by occaſion of ambiguitie and doubts, then not ſo perfectly declared, but that men might vpon froward intents expound them to euery mans ſiniſter appetite and affection, after their ſence, contrarie to the right Legalite of the ſucceſſion and poſterity of the lawfull Kings and Emperors of this Realme: whereof hath enſued great effuſion and deſtruction of mans blood, as well of a great number of the Nobles, as of other the Subiects, and ſpecially Inheritors in the ſame. And the greateſt occaſion thereof hath beene becauſe no perfect and ſubſtantiall prouiſion by Law hath beene made within this Realme of it ſelfe, when doubts and queſtions haue beene moued and proponed of the certaintie and legaltie of the ſucceſſion and poſteritie of the Crowne. By reaſon whereof the Biſhop of Rome and See Apoſtolike, contrarie to the great and inuiolable grants of iuriſdictions by GOD immediately to Emperors, Kings and Princes, in ſucceſſion to their Heires, hath preſumed in times paſt to inueſt, who ſhould pleaſe them to inherit in other mens Kingdomes and Dominions: which thing we your moſt humble Subiects, both Spirituall and Temporall, doe moſt abhor and deteſt. And ſometimes other forrein Princes and Potentates of ſundrie degrees, minding rather diſſention and diſcord to continue in the Realme, to the vtter deſolation thereof, than charitie, equitie, or vnitie, haue many times ſupported wrong titles, whereby they might the more eaſily and facily aſpire to the ſuperioritie of the ſame. The continuance and ſufferance whereof, deepely conſidered and pondered, were too dangerous, and perillous to be ſuffered any longer within this Realme, and too much contrarie to the vnitie, peace, and tranquillitie of the ſame, being greatly reprochable and diſhonourable to the whole Realme.

The ambiguity of the ſeuerall titles to the Crowne of this Realme, and the not eſtabliſhing of the ſucceſſion thereof hath bin the cauſes of much trouble.

In conſideration whereof, your ſaid moſt humble and obedient Subiects, the Nobles and Commons of this Realme, calling further to their remembrance, that the good vnity, peace, and wealth of this Realme, and the ſucceſſion of the Subiects of the ſame moſt ſpecially and principally aboue all worldly things, conſiſteth and reſteth in the certainty and ſuretie of the procreation and poſteritie of your Highneſſe, in whoſe moſt royall perſon at this preſent time is no manner of doubt nor queſtion, doe therefore moſt humbly beſeech your Highneſſe, that it may pleaſe your Maieſty, that it may be enacted by your Highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, That the mariage heretofore ſolemnized betweene your Highneſſe and the Lady Katherine, being before lawfull wife to Prince Arthur, your elder brother, which by him was carnally knowne, as doth duly appeare by ſufficient proofe in a lawfull proceſſe had and made before Thomas, by the ſufferance of GOD now Archbiſhop of Canterburie and Metropolitane and Primate of all this Realme, ſhall be by authority of this preſent Parliament diffinitiuely, cleerely and abſolutely declared, deemed, and adiudged to be againſt the lawes of Almightie GOD, and alſo accepted, reputed, and taken of no value ne effect, but vtterly void and adnihiled, and the ſeparation thereof made, by the ſaid Archbiſhop ſhall be good and effectuall to all intents and purpoſes: any licence, diſpenſation, or any other Act or Acts going afore, or inſuing the ſame, or to the contrarie thereof, in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And that euery ſuch licence, diſpenſation, act or acts, thing or things heretofore had, made, done or to be done to the contrarie thereof ſhall be void and of none effect. And that the ſaid Lady Katherine, ſhall be from henceforth called and reputed only Dowager to Prince Arthur, and not Queene of this Realme. And that the lawfull matrimonie had and ſolemnized betweene your Highneſſe, and your moſt deere and entirely beloued wife Queene Anne ſhall be eſtabliſhed, and taken for vndoubtfull, trew, ſinceere and perfect euer hereafter, according to the iuſt iudgement of the ſaid Thomas Archbiſhop of Canterburie, Metropolitane, and Primat of all this Realme, whoſe grounds of iudgement haue been confirmed as well by the whole Clergie of this Realme, in both the Conuocations, and by both the Vniuerſities thereof, as by the Vniuerſities of Bonony, Padua, Paris, Orleance, Tolouſe, Angiewe, and diuers others: and alſo by the priuate writings of many right excellent wel learned men. Which grounds ſo confirmed, & iudgement of the ſaid Archbiſhop enſuing the ſame, together with your mariage ſolemnized, betweene your Highneſſe, and your ſaid lawfull wife Queene Anne, We your ſaid ſubiects both Spirituall and Temporall, doe purely, plainly, conſtantly and firmely accept, approue and ratifie for good and conſonant to the lawes of Almighty GOD, without error or default: Moſt humbly beſeeching your Maieſtie, that it may be ſo eſtabliſhed for euer by your moſt gracious and royall aſſent.

The mariage betweene the K. & the Lady Katherine ſhall be adiudged void and the ſeparation good.

The Lady Katherine ſhall be called Dowager to prince Arthur, and not Queene.

The mariage betweene the K. and his wife Q. Anne ſhall be taken for good & conſonant to Gods lawe.

ALT. 28.H.8.7.
Mariage within the degrees prohibited by Gods lawe.
R.32.H.8.38.

And furthermore ſince many inconueniences haue fallen as well within this Realme, as in others, by reaſon of marying within the degrees of mariage prohibited by Gods lawes, that is to ſay, The ſonne to marrie the mother, or the ſtepmother, The brother the ſiſter, The father his ſonnes daughter, or his daughters daughter, or the ſonne to marrie the daughter of his father, procreate and borne by his ſtepmother, or the ſonne to marrie his aunt, being his fathers or mothers ſiſter, or to marrie his vncles wife, or the father to marrie his ſonnes wife, or the brother to marrie his brothers wife, or any man to marrie his wiues daughter, or his wiues ſonnes daughter or his wiues daughters daughter, or his wiues ſiſter. Which mariages all be it they be plainly prohibited and deteſted by the lawes of GOD, yet neuertheleſſe at ſome times they haue proceeded vnder colours of diſpenſations by mans power, which is but vſurped, and of right ought not to be granted, admitted ne allowed. For no man, of what eſtate, degree or condition ſoeuer he be, hath power to diſpenſe with Gods lawes, as all the Clergie of this Realme in the ſaid Conuocations, and the moſt part of all the famous Vniuerſities of Chriſtendome, and we alſo doe affirme and thinke.

No man hath power to diſpenſe with Gods law.

Be it therefore enacted by authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons, ſubiects or reſiants of this Realme, or in any your Dominions, of what eſtate, degree or dignity ſoeuer they be, ſhall from henceforth marrie within the ſaid degrees afore rehearſed, what pretence ſoeuer ſhall be made to the contrarie thereof. And in caſe any perſon or perſons, or what eſtate, dignity, degree or condition ſoeuer it be, hath been heretofore maried within this Realme, or in any the Kings Dominions, within any the degrees aboue expreſſed, & by any the Archbiſhops, Biſhops or miniſters of the Church of England, be ſeparate from the bonds of ſuch vnlawfull mariage, that then euery ſuch ſeparation ſhall be good, lawfull firme, and permanent for euer: and not by any power, authority, or meanes to be reuoked or vndone hereafter: and that the children proceeding or procreate vnder ſuch vnlawfull mariage, ſhal not be lawful ne legitimate: Any forrein laws, licences, diſpenſations, other thing or things to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

And in caſe there be any perſon or perſons within this Realme, or in any the Kings Dominions, already maried within any the ſaid degrees aboue ſpecified, & not yet ſeparat from the bonds of ſuch vnlawfull mariage: that then euery ſuch perſon ſo vnlawfully maired ſhall be ſeparate by the diffinitiue ſentence and iudgements of the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other Miniſters of the Church of England, and in other your Dominions within the limits of their iuriſdictions and authorities, and by none other power or authority. And that all ſentences and iudgements, giuen and to be giuen, by any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, or other Miniſter of the Church of England, or in other the Kings Dominions, within the limits of their iuriſdictions and authorities, ſhall be diffinitiue, firme, good and effectuall to all intents, and be obſerued and obeyed without ſuing any prouocations, appeales, prohibitions, or other proceſſe from the Court of Rome, to the derogation thereof, or contrary to the Act made ſince the beginning of this preſent Parliament, for reſtraint of ſuch prouocations, appeales, prohibitions, and other proceſſes.

Thoſe perſons which be heretofore maried within the degrees aforeſaid ſhal be ſeparated by the Ordinaries ſentence.

St. 24. H. 8. 12.

And alſo be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all the iſſue had and procreate, or hereafter to be had and procreate between your Highneſſe, and your ſaid moſt deare and entirely beloued wife Queene Anne, ſhall be your lawfull children, and be inheritable, and inherit according to the courſe of inheritance and lawes of this Realme, the Imperiall Crowne of the ſame, with all dignities, honours, preheminences, prerogatiues, authorities and iuriſdictions to the ſame annexed or belonging, in as large and ample manner, as your Highneſſe at this preſent time hath the ſame as King of this Realme, the inheritance thereof to be and remaine to your ſaid children and right heires in manner and forme as hereafter ſhall be declared:

Al the iſſue procreate betweene the K. and Q. Anne his wife ſhall be his lawfull children.
ALT. 28. H. 8. 7.

That is to ſay, firſt the ſaid imperiall Crowne, and other the premiſſes ſhall be to your Maieſtie, and to your heires of your bodie lawfully begotten, that is to ſay, to the firſt ſonne of your bodie, betweene your Highneſſe, and your ſaid lawfull wife, Queene Anne, begotten, and to the heires of the body of the ſame firſt ſonne lawfully begotten. And for default of ſuch heires, then to the ſecond ſonne of your body, and of the body of the ſaid Queene Anne, begotten, and to the heires of the body of the ſaid ſecond ſonne lawfully begotten. And ſo to euery ſonne of your body and of the body of the ſaid Queene Anne begotten, and to the heires of the body of euery ſuch ſonne begotten, according to the courſe of inheritance in that behalfe: And if it ſhall happen your ſaid deare and entirely beloued wife Queene Anne to deceaſe without iſſue male of the body of your Highneſſe to be begotten (which GOD defend) Then the ſame Imperiall Crowne, and all other the premiſſes, to be to your Maieſty as is aforeſaid, and to the ſonne and heire male of your body lawfully begotten, and to the heires of the body of the ſame ſonne and heire male lawfully begotten, and for default of ſuch iſſue, then to your ſecond ſonne of your body lawfully begotten, and to the heires of the body of the ſame ſecond ſonne lawfully begotten: and ſo from ſon and heire male, to ſon & heire male, and to the heires of the ſeuerall bodies of euery ſuch ſon and heire male to be begotten, according to the courſe of inheritance, in like manner & forme as is aboueſaid. And for default of ſuch ſons of your bodies begotten, and of the heires of the ſeuerall bodies of euery ſuch ſons lawfully begotten, that then the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, and other the premiſſes, ſhall be to the iſſue female betweene your maieſty & your ſaid moſt deare & entirely beloued wife Q. Anne begotten. That is to ſay, firſt to the eldeſt iſſue female, which is the Lady Elizabeth, now Princeſſe, & to the heires of her body lawfully begotten: & for default of ſuch iſſue then to the ſecond iſſue female, and to the heires of her body lawfully begotten, and ſo from iſſue female to iſſue female & to the heires of their bodies one after another, by courſe of inheritance,

The Imperiall Crown of England &c. intailed.

The Lady Elizabeth the firſt iſſue female of the K. and Q. Anne his wife.

according to their ages, as the Crowne of England hath béene accuſtomed and ought to goe, in caſes when there be heires females to the ſame, and for default of ſuch iſſue: then the ſaid imperiall crowne, and all other the premiſſes, ſhall be in the right heires of your Highneſſe for euer.

This Act ſhall be proclaimed in all the ſhires of England.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that on this ſide the firſt day of May next comming, Proclamations ſhall be made in Shires within this Realme of the tenour and contents of this Act: And if any perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, dignity, or condition ſoeuer they be, ſubiect or reſiant within this Realme, or elſewhere, within any the Kings Dominions, after the firſt day of May, by writing or printing, or by any exterior act, or déed, maliciouſly procure, or doe, or cauſe to be procured, or done any thing, or things to the perill of your moſt royall perſon, or maliciouſly giue occaſion by writing, print, déed, or act, whereby your Highneſſe might be diſturbed, or interrupted for the crowne of this Realme: or by writing, print, déed, or act, procure or doe, or cauſe to be procured or done, any thing or things to the preiudice, ſlander, diſturbance, or derogation of the ſaid lawfull matrimonie ſolemniſed betwéene your Maieſtie and the ſaid Quéene Anne, or to the perill, ſlander or diſheriſon of any the iſſues and heires of your Highneſſe, being limited by this Act to inherit and to be inheritable to the Crowne of this Realme, in ſuch forme as is aforeſaid: whereby any ſuch iſſues, or heires of your Highneſſe might be deſtroyed, diſturbed, or interrupted in bodie, or title of inheritance to the crowne of this Realme, as to them is limited in this Act, in forme aboue rehearſed: That then euery ſuch perſon and perſons, of what eſtate, degrée, or condition they be of, ſubiect or reſiant within this Realme, and their ayders, counſellors, maintainors, and abettors, and euery of them, for euery ſuch offence ſhall be adiudged high traytors, and euery ſuch offence ſhall be adiudged high treaſon, & the offendors & their ayders, counſellors, maintainors, & abettors, and euery of them being lawfully conuict of ſuch offence by preſentment, verdict, confeſſion, or proceſſe, according to the cuſtomes and lawes of this Realme, ſhall ſuffer paines of death, as in caſes of high treaſon. And that alſo euery ſuch offendor, being conuict, as is aforeſaid, ſhall loſe, and forfeit to your Highneſſe, and to your heires, Kings of this Realme, all ſuch manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities, and hereditaments, which they had in poſſeſſion, as owners, or were ſole ſeiſed of, by or in any right, title, or meanes, or any other perſon or perſons had to their vſe, of any eſtate of inheritance, at the day of ſuch treaſons and offences by them committed and done. And ſhall alſo loſe and forfeit to your Highneſſe and to your ſaid heires, as well all manner ſuch eſtates of fréehold and intereſts, for yeares, of lands and rents, and all their goods, cattels, & debts, which they had at the time of conuiction or attainder of any ſuch offence. The penalty for hurting the K. perſon, diſturbing his title to the crowne, or ſlandering his mariage.

The rights of all others ſauing the offendors ſaued.

The penaltie for publiſhing any thing to the perill of the King, to the ſlander of his mariage, or to the diſheritance of his iſſue.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons after the ſaid firſt day of May, by any words without writing, or any exterior déed or act, maliciouſly, and obſtinatly ſhall publiſh, diuulge, or vtter any thing or things, to the perill of your Highneſſe, or the ſlander or preiudice of the ſaid matrimony, ſolemnized betwéene your Highneſſe and the ſaid Quéene Anne: or to the ſlander or diſheriſon of the iſſues and heires of your body begotten, and to be begotten of the ſaid Quéene Anne, or any other your lawfull heires, which ſhall be inheritable to the Crowne of this Realme, as is afore limited by this Act: That then euery ſuch offence ſhall be taken and adiudged for miſpriſon of treaſon. And that euery perſon and perſons of what eſtate, degrée or condition ſoeuer they be, ſubiect or reſiant within this Realme, or in any the Kings Dominions, ſo doing and offending, and being thereof lawfully conuict by preſentment, verdict, proceſſe, or confeſſion, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment of their bodies at the Kings will, and ſhall loſe as well all their goods, cattels, and debts, as all ſuch intereſſes, and eſtates of fréehold, or for yeares, which any ſuch offendor ſhall haue, of, or in any lands, rents, or hereditaments, whatſoeuer at the time of conuiction, and attainder of ſuch offence.

An offendor ſhall not haue the priuilege of Sanctuary.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon nor perſons offending in any treaſons and miſpriſions conteined and limitted by this Act, ſhall in any wiſe haue or enioy the priuilege and immunitie of any manner of Sanctuaries within this Realme, or elſewhere within any the Kings Dominions, but ſhall vtterly loſe and be excluded of the ſame: any vſe, cuſtome, grant, preſcription, confirmation, or any other thing or things, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And if any perſon or perſons by writing, or exterior déed or act, procure, or doe, cauſe to be procured or done, any thing or things to the let or diſturbance of the ſame: that then euery ſuch offence ſhall be high treaſon, and the offendors being thereof conuict, ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines of death, and loſſes of inheritance, fréeholds, intereſts of yeares, góods, cattels, and debts, in ſuch manner and forme as is aboue ſpecified in caſes of treaſon afore mentioned.

And for the more ſure eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of your moſt royall Maieſty, according to the tenour and forme of this Act: Be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, That as well all the Nobles of your Realme Spirituall and Temporall, as all other your ſubiects now liuing and being, or that hereafter ſhall be at their full ages, by the commandement of your Maieſty, or of your heires at all times hereafter from time to time, when it ſhall pleaſe your Highneſſe, or your heires to appoint, ſhall make a Corporall oath in the preſence of your Highneſſe, or your heires: or before ſuch other, as your Maieſty, or your heires will depute for the ſame: that they ſhall truly, firmely, and conſtantly, without fraud or guile, obſerue, fulfill, maintaine, defend, and kéepe, to their cunning, wit, and vttermoſt of their powers, the whole effects and contents of this preſent Act. And that all manner your ſubiects, as well ſpirituall as Temporall, ſuing liuerie, reſtitutions, or Ouſter le main out of the hands of your Highneſſe, or of your heires, or doing any fealtie to your Highneſſe, or to your heires, by reaſon of tenure of their lands, ſhall ſweare a like Corporall oath, that they, and euery of them without fraud or guile, to their cunning, wit, and vttermoſt of their powers, ſhall truly, firmely and conſtantly, obſerue, fulfill, maintaine, defend, and kéepe the effects and contents conteined and ſpecified in this Act, or in any part thereof. And that they, nor any of them, ſhall hereafter haue any liueries, Ouſter le main, or reſtitution out of your hands, nor out of the hands of your heires, till they haue made the ſaid Corporall oath, in forme aboue rehearſed. And if any perſon or perſons, being commanded by authoritie of this Act, to make the ſaid oath afore limited, obſtinatly refuſe that to doe, in contempt of this Act: That then euery ſuch perſon (ſo doing) to be taken and accepted for offendor in miſpriſion of high treaſon: and that euery ſuch refuſall ſhall be déemed and adiudged miſpriſion of high treaſon: and the offendor therein to ſuffer ſuch peines and impriſonment, loſſes, and forfeitures, and alſo loſe priuileges of Sanctuaries, in like manner and forme, as is aboue mentioned for the miſpriſion of treaſons afore limited by this Act.

The King ſhall be reputed ſupreme head of the Church of England, &c.

ALbeit the Kings Maieſty iuſtly and rightfully is, and ought to be the ſupreme head of the Church of England, and ſo is recogniſed by the Clergie of this Realme in their Conuocations, yet neuertheleſſe for corroboration and confirmation thereof, and for increaſe of vertue in Chriſts religion within this Realme of England, and to repreſſe & extirpe all errors, hereſies, and other enormities and abuſes heretofore vſed in the ſame: Be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that the King our Soueraign Lord, his heires and ſucceſſors,, Kings of this Realm, ſhall be taken accepted & reputed the only Supreme head in earth of the Church of England, called Anglicana Eccleſia. Cap. II.

Oath taken by all the Kings Subiects for the ſuretie of the ſucceſſion of the Crowne of England.

St. 25. H. 8. 22.

WHere at the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, in the Act then made for the eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the heires of the Kings Highnes in the Imperiall Crown of this Realme, it is conteined amongſt other things, that all and ſingular the Kings Subiects as well the Nobles Spirituall and Temporall, as other, ſhould make and take a Corporall oath, whenſoeuer it ſhall pleaſe the Kings Maieſty or his Heires to appoint, that they ſhould truly, firmely and conſtantly, without fraud or guile, obſerue, fulfill, maintaine, defend and keepe, to their cunning, wit and vttermoſt of their powers, the whole effects and contents of the ſaid Act, as in the ſame Act amongſt other things more plainly appeareth. And at the day of the laſt prorogation of this preſent Parliament, as well the Nobles Spirituall and Temporall, as other the Commons of this preſent Parliament then aſſembled in the high houſe of the Parliament, moſt louingly accepted and tooke ſuch oath as then was deuiſed in writing for maintenance and defence of the ſaid Act, and meant and intended at that time, that euery other the Kings Subiects ſhould be bound to accept and take the ſame, vpon the peines conteined in the ſaid Act. The tenour of which oath hereafter enſueth.

The oath of obedience to the K. & the heires of his body begotten of Q. Anne Ye ſhall ſweare to beare faith, truth and obedience all onely to the Kings Maieſty, and to his heires of his body of his moſt deare and entirely beloued lawfull wife Queene Anne begotten and to be begotten. And further to the heires of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, according to the limitation in the Statute made for ſuerty of his ſucceſſion in the Crowne of this Realme mentioned and conteined, and not to any other within this Realme, nor forrein authority or potentate. And in caſe any oath be made, or hath beene made by you to any perſon or perſons, that then ye to repute the ſame as vaine and adnihilate. And that to your cunning, wit, and vttermoſt of your power, without guile, fraud or other vndue meane, ye ſhall obſerue, keepe, maintaine and defend the ſaid Act of ſucceſſion, and all the whole effects and contents thereof, and all other Acts and Statutes made in confirmation, or for execution of the ſame, or for any thing therein conteined. And this ye ſhall doe againſt all manner of perſons, of what eſtate, dignity, degree or condition ſoeuer they be. And in no wiſe doe or attempt, nor to your power ſuffer to be done or attempted directly or indirectly any thing or things, priuately or appertly, to the let, hinderance, damage or derogation thereof, or of any part of the ſame, by any manner of meanes, or for any manner of pretence, ſo helpe you GOD, and all Saints, and the holy Euangeliſts.

A former oath made ſhal be reputed vaine by the maker.

And forasmuch as it is conuenient for the ſure maintenance, & defence of the ſame act, that the ſaid oath ſhould not only be authorized by the authority of Parliament, but alſo be interpreted and expounded by the whole aſſent of this preſent Parliament, that it was meant and intended by the Kings Maieſtie, the Lords and Commons of the Parliament, at the ſaid day of the ſaid laſt prorogation, that euery ſubiect ſhould be bounden to take the ſame oath according to the tenour and effect thereof, vpon the paines and penalties conteined in the ſaid Act: Therefore be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid oath aboue rehearſed, ſhall be interpreted, expounded, reputed, accepted, and adiudged the very oath that the Kings Highneſſe, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament, meant & intended, that euery ſubiect of this realm ſhould be obliged & bounden to take and accept for maintenance and defence of the ſame act, vpon the paines conteined in the ſaid act, and that euery of the Kings ſubiects, vpon the ſaid peins ſhal be obliged to accept and take the ſaid oath.

The expoſition of the oath and who haue and ſhall be bound to take it.

Certificat ſhall be made into the K. bench of the refuſors of the oath.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that the Commiſſioners that hereafter ſhalbe appointed to receiue ſuch oath of the Kings ſubiects, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhal haue power and authoritie to certifie into the Kings bench by writing, vnder their ſeales, euery refuſall that hereafter ſhall bee made afore them of the ſame oath by any perſon or perſons comming afore them to take the ſame oath. And that euery ſuch certificat to be made by ſuch Commiſſioners, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be taken as ſtrong and as auaileable in the law, as an inditement of twelue men lawfully founden of the ſaid refuſall. So that the perſon and perſons, againſt whom any ſuch certificat ſhall be made, ſhall be compelled to anſwer thereunto, as if they were indited. And that ſuch proceſſe, iudgement, execution and euery other thing ſhall be had, vſed, and miniſtred of & vpon euery ſuch certificat againſt the offendors, as if they had been lawfully indited of ſuch offences by the due courſe & order of the common lawes of this realme. Cap. III.

Firſt fruits of all dignities ſpirituall ſhall be paid to the King, &c.

Foraſmuch as it is, and of very duty ought to be the naturall inclination of all good people, like moſt faithfull, louing, and obedient ſubiects, ſincerely and willingly to deſire to prouide, not onely for the publike weale of their natiue Countrey, but alſo for the ſupportation, maintenance, and defence of the royall eſtate of their moſt dread, benigne, and gracious Soueraigne Lord, vpon whom, and in whom dependeth all their ioy and wealth: in whom alſo is vnited and knit ſo Princely a heart and courage, mixed with mercy, wiſdome, and iuſtice. And alſo a naturall affection ioyned to the ſame, as by the great, ineſtimable, and beneuolent arguments thereof being moſt bountifully, largely, and many times ſhewed, miniſtred, and approued towards his louing and obedient Subiects, hath well appeared: which requireth a like correſpondence of gratitude to be conſidered, according to their moſt bounden duties. Wherefore his ſaid humble and obedient Subiects, as well the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, as the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, calling to their remembrance, not only the manifold and innumerable benefits, daily adminiſtred by his Highneſſe to them all, and to all other the reſidue of his Subiects of this Realme: But alſo how long time his Maieſty hath moſt victoriouſly, by his high wiſdome and policie, protected, defended and gouerned this his Realme, and maintained his people and Subiects of the ſame in tranquillitie, peace, vnity, quietnes and wealth. And alſo conſidering what great exceſſiue, and ineſtimable charges his Highnes hath heretofore beene at, and ſuſtained by the ſpace of fiue and twenty whole yeares, and alſo daily ſuſtaineth for the maintenance, tuition, and defence of this his Realme, and his louing Subiects of the ſame, which cannot be ſuſtained and borne without ſome honourable prouiſion and remedie may be made, found, prouided, and ordeined for maintenance thereof: Doe therefore deſire and moſt humbly pray, that for the more ſurety of continuance and augmentation of his highneſſe royall eſtate, being not onely now recognized (as he allwaies indeed hath heretofore beene) the onely ſupreme head in earth next and immediately vnder God of the Church of England, but alſo their moſt aſſured and vndoubted natural Soueraigne Liege Lord, and King, hauing the whole gouernance, tuition, defence, and maintenance of this his Realme, and moſt louing obedient Subiects of the ſame. It may therefore be ordeined and enacted by his Highneſſe, and the Lords Spirituall and Temporall and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, in manner and forme following.

That is to ſay, that the Kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors Kings of this Realme, ſhall haue and enioy from time to time to endure for euer, of euery ſuch perſon and perſons, which at any time after the firſt day of Ianuary next comming ſhall be nominated, elected, prefected, preſented, collated or by any other meanes appointed, to haue any Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke, Abbacie, Monaſtery, Priorie, Colledge, Hoſpitall, Archdeaconry, Deanry, Prouoſtſhip, Prebend, Parſonage, Vicarage, Chauntrie, Freechappell, or other dignity, benefice, office, or promotion ſpirituall within this Realme, or elſewhere within any of the Kings dominions of what name, nature, or qualitie ſoeuer they be, or to whoſe foundation, patronage or gifts ſoeuer they belong, the firſt fruits, reuenues and profits for one yeare of euery ſuch Archbiſhoprick, Biſhopricke, Abbey, Monaſterie, Priorie, College, Hoſpitall, Archdeaconry, Deanry, Prouoſtſhip, Prebend, Perſonage, Vicarage, Chauntrie, Freechappell, or other Dignity, Benefice, Office, or promotion ſpirituall aforenamed, whereunto any ſuch perſon or perſons after the ſaid firſt day of Ianuary be nominated, elected, prefected, preſented, collated, or by any other meanes appointed. And that euery ſuch perſon and perſons, before any actuall or reall poſſeſſion, or medling with the profits of any ſuch Archbiſhoprick, Biſhoprick, Abbacie,, Monaſterie, Colledge, Hoſpitall, Deanry, Prouoſtſhip, Prebend, Perſonage, Vicarage, Chauntrie, Freechappell, Priorie, or other Dignity, Benefice, Office, or Promotion ſpirituall, ſhall ſatiſfie, content and pay, or compound or agree to pay to the Kings vſe at reaſonable dates, vpon good ſureties, the ſaid firſt fruits and profits for one yeare.

The firſt fruits and profits for one yeare of euery ſpirituall liuing is granted to the King.

Euery ſpirituall perſon ſhall be bound for his firſt fruits before his actuall poſſeſſion of his benefice.

And be it alſo enacted by authority aforeſaid, that the Chancellor of England, and Maſter of the Rolles for the time being, ioyntly and ſeuerally, or ſuch other perſon and perſons, as ſhall pleaſe the Kings highnes, his heires or ſucceſſors from time to time, at his or their pleaſure, to name and depute by Commiſſion or Commiſſions vnder the great Seale, ſhall haue power and authoritie as well to examine and ſearch for the iuſt and true value of the ſaid firſt fruits and profits by all waies and meanes that they can, as to compound and agree for the rate of the ſaid firſt fruits and profits, as to ſtall and limit reaſonable daies of paiment thereof vpon good and ſufficient ſurety or ſureties, by writings obligatorie by their diſcretions. And if compoſition or agreement be had or made for the ſaid firſt fruits before the ſaid Lord Chancellor, or Maſter of the Rolles, that then the writings obligatory or money taken for the ſame, ſhall reſt, remaine and abide in the hanaper of the Kings Chancerie, there ſafely to be kept to the Kings vſe, and the money to be due of ſuch writings obligatorie, or to be receiued in hand by reaſon of any Commiſſioners to ſearch for the value of benefices and to compound for firſt fruits.

ſuch compoſition, ſhall be paid in the ſaid Hanaper, to the Clerke of the Hanaper for the time being. And that the ſaid Clerke of the Hanaper, ſhall make a true and a iuſt account thereof, like as he is bound to doe of the money receiued of the profits of the Kings great ſeale. And if compoſition or agréement be had or made for the ſaid firſt fruits, afore any other perſon or perſons to be deputed to the Kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors by Commiſſion vnder his great ſeale, that then the writings obligatorie, and money taken for the ſame, ſhall be deliuered to the Treaſurer of the Kings moſt honourable Chamber for the time being, or elſewhere, to whom it ſhall pleaſe the Kings highneſſe his heires or ſucceſſors, to giue authoritie by Commiſſion vnder the great Seale, to receiue the ſame.

The money taken for firſt fruits ſhall be deliuered to the Treaſurer of the chamber.

Whoſe acquittance ſhall be ſufficient diſcharge for the firſt fruits.

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, That euery writing of acquittance ſubſcribed with the hand and name of the Clerke of the Hanaper, and Treaſurer of the Chamber, or other Commiſſioners aforeſaid, or any of them, witneſſing the receit of the ſaid firſt fruits, or any part thereof, ſhall be as good and effectuall againſt the Kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, to euery perſon and perſons hauing the ſame, for ſo much mony as ſhall be mentioned to be receiued and conteined in euery ſuch acquittance, as if ſuch acquittance were, or had béene lawfully had and obteined in the Kings name vnder the Kings great Seale, and ſo ſhall be admitted, accepted, allowed, and taken in euery of the Kings Courts. And that all writings obligatorie to be taken for paiment of the ſaid firſt fruits, by, and afore the ſaid Lord Chancellor, or Maſter of the Rolles, or by and afore any other perſon or perſons, to be deputed to compound and agrée for the ſaid firſt fruits, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be of the ſame ſtrength, force, vertue, quality, and effect to all intents and purpoſes as writings obligatory heretofore made by any lay perſon by authority of the ſtatute of the Staple béen. And that vpon certificat hereafter to be made into the Kings Chancery of any ſuch writings obligatory to be taken for paiment of ſuch firſt fruits, like proceſſe & execution ſhall be thereupon made and had againſt any perſon ſpirituall and temporall, as hath béene accuſtomed to be made againſt any lay perſon vpon certificat of writings obligatory of the ſaid ſtatute of the Staple. And that no perſon ſhall be compelled to pay for any writing obligatory to be made for the ſaid paiment of the ſaid firſt fruits, aboue viij. d. nor for any acquittance to be made for receit of ſuch firſt fruits aboue iiij. d. And that ſuch perſon & perſons as ſhall be deputed by the Kings highneſſe by Commiſſion vnder the great Seale, to compound and agrée for the ſaid firſt fruits, ſhall at the end of euery ſix moneths next after the date of their Commiſſion, and ſo from ſix moneths to ſix moneths, deliuer or cauſe to be deliuered vnto the Treaſurer of the Chamber for the time being, or elſewhere, to ſuch Commiſſioners as ſhal be appointed, as is aforeſaid to receiue the ſame, as well all ſuch money, as all ſuch ſpecialties and bonds, as they ſhall haue taken for the paiment of the ſaid firſt fruits by Indenture to be made betwéene them and the ſaid Treaſurer, or other Commiſſioners as is aforeſaid, containing the certaintie and number of the ſummes of money, and ſpecialties and bonds by them taken and receiued. And if any perſon or perſons to whom any deputation ſhall be made by Commiſſion, to compound and agrée for the paiment of the ſaid firſt fruits, their heires, executors, or adminiſtrators, conceale, or imbezile any of the ſaid ſpecialties or bonds taken for the ſure paiment of the ſaid firſt fruits, and doe not deliuer them according to the tenour of this Act, that then euery ſuch offender ſhall forfeit that office of deputation, and ouer that make fine and ranſome at the Kings owne pleaſure and will.

An Obligation for the firſt fruits, ſhall be of the ſame ſtrength that the ſtatute of the Staple is.

The penalty of commiſſioners, concealing bonds taken for the paiment of firſt fruits.

Who ſo entreth vpon his ſpirituall liuing before compoſition, ſhall forfeit double the value of the firſt fruits.

And it is alſo enacted by authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons which at any time after the ſaid firſt day of Ianuary, ſhalbe nominated, elected, prefected, preſented collated, or by any other meanes appointed to any of the dignities, offices, benefices, or other promotions ſpirituall before mentioned, doe enter into the actuall and reall poſſeſſion thereof, or meddle with the profits thereof, before they ſhall haue truly ſatiſfied, and paid to the Kings vſe the firſt fruits and profits thereof for one yeare, or elſe ſhal haue agréed or compounded for paiment of the ſame at reaſonable daies vpon good ſureties, in manner & forme as by this Act is aboue ſpecified, that then euery ſuch perſon and perſons ſo doing and offending, and being thereof conuict by preſentment, verdict, confeſſion, or witneſſe before the ſaid Lord Chancellor, or ſuch other as ſhall haue authoritie by commiſſion, to compound for the ſaid firſt fruits and profits as is aforeſaid, ſhall be accepted and taken an intruder vpon the Kings poſſeſſion. And that they, their executors, or adminiſtrators ſhall pay to the vſe of the Kings highnes for euery ſuch offence, ſo much ſummes of money, as ſhall mount to the double value of the ſaid firſt fruits and profits of ſuch dignities, benefices, or other ſpirituall promotions wherein they ſhall ſo enter, and intrude before the paiment of the ſaid firſt fruits and profits for one yeare thereof, or before due agréement made for the ſame in manner and forme as is aboue rehearſed.

All firſt fruits paiable to other perſons ſhall ceaſe, and be paid to the king.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that the firſt fruits of benefices heretofore accuſtomed to be paid to the Biſhop of Norwich within his Dioces, & to the Archdeacon of Richmond within his Archdeaconry, or to any other perſon or perſons within this realme, or any other the Kings dominions, ſhall from the ſaid firſt day of Ianuary ceaſe and be extinct, and no longer be paid, but only to the Kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors in ſuch forme as is aboue mentioned in this Act.

Prouided allwayes, that Archbiſhops and Biſhops, and all other hauing iuriſdiction ordinary, may giue and deliuer letters of Inſtitution and induction, as they might doe before the making of this act, without any offence of any article conteined in this act, any thing in this act conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

The Biſhops may giue Inſtitution and Induction.

And that euery of the ſaid Archbiſhops and biſhops, their Executors and Adminiſtrators, and the poſſeſſions of their dignities and Churches, ſhall ſtand charged and chargeable for the ſure and true paiment of ſuch ſummes of money, as they ſhall collect and receiue of the ſaid yearely rent and penſion.

Biſhops ſhall be charged to the collection of the tenths in their Dioceſſes. St.32.H.8.47. 34.H.8.17.

And that the Treaſurer, Chancellor, Chamberlaine, and Barons of the Kings Eſchequer, ſhall yearely cauſe Proces to be made by their diſcretions for non paiment of the ſaid penſion, or yearely rent, or any parcell thereof, againſt euery Archbiſhop and Biſhop of this realme, that is to ſay, againſt euery Archbiſhop and Biſhop, for ſo much part and portion of the ſaid penſion and yearely rent, wherewith the dignities, benefices, and other promotions ſpirituall afore mentioned within the Dioces, ſhall be taxed and charged, ſo that euery of the ſaid Archbiſhops and Biſhops, ſhall be charged and chargeable for the rate and portion of the ſaid yearely rent and penſion, ſet and taxed within his owne peculiar Dioces, and none otherwiſe.

Proces againſt a Biſhop for the paiment of all tenths within his Dioces.

And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, That euery Archbiſhop and Biſhop, ſhall haue power and authoritie to leuie, take, and perceiue by authoritie of cenſures of the Church, or by diſtreſſe, or otherwiſe by their diſcretion, all ſuch ſummes of money as ſhall be rated, taxed, and ſet to goe out of the lands, tenements, hereditaments, profits, and emoluments of any dignity, office, benefice, or otherplace or promotion ſpirituall within their Dioces, towards the paiment of the ſaid yearely rent and penſion: and that no Repleuin, Prohibition, nor Superſedeas, vpon any excommunication, nor any other Writ or impediment ſhall be ſued, allowed, or obeyed, for any perſon or perſons, making default of paiment of ſuch part and portion, as they ſhall be rated and taxed vnto by authoritie of this Act, till ſuch time as they haue truly ſatiſfied their ſaid part and portion to them allotted of the ſaid yearely rent and penſion.

By what meanes the Biſhop ſhall leuie the Tenths of euery ſpirituall promotion. St.1.Ed.6.20.

And it is alſo enacted by authority aforeſaid, that whenſoeuer, and as often as any of the Archbiſhopricks or Biſhoricks happen to be void, that then the Deane and Chapiter of the Cathedrall Church, or the Prior and Conuent, or Chapiter, or Conuent of the Monaſtery or Cathedrall Church, where the See of ſuch Archbiſhopricke or Biſhopricke, being void, ſhall happen to be, during the time of the vacation thereof, and their executors, adminiſtrators and poſſeſſions ſhall be charged and chargeable to doe, and cauſe to be done, all and euery thing and things, for the due executions of this Act, within the Dioces of ſuch Archbiſhopricke or Biſhopricke being void, as the ſame Archbiſhop or Biſhop of the See being void, ſhould haue done, according as it is limited and appointed by this Act, or by any thing therein conteined.

Who ſhall be Collectors in time of vacatiō of a Biſhoprick.

And it is ordeined and enacted by authority aforeſaid, that if any ſumme of money being once due by any incumbent of any of the dignities, benefices, or promotions ſpiritual afore ſpecified, charged to the paiment of the ſaid yearly penſion and annual rent, be reaſonably demanded and required any time after the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuity of our Lord, at their dignities, [f] Monaſteries, Priories, Hoſpitals, Colleges, Churches, Chanteries, or houſes by the [e] Archbiſhop or Biſhop, or ſuch as ſhalbe charged with the Collection of any part of the ſaid penſion, or by any other their miniſters, ſeruants, or officers, to pay ſuch portion of the ſaid penſion and yearely rent, as they ſhall be taxed and aſſeſſed, be not truly contented and paid vnto ſuch Archbiſhop or Biſhop, or their Miniſters and Officers, and to ſuch other perſon or perſons, or their miniſters or ſeruants, as ſhall haue the charge of collection thereof, euery yeare yearely at the time of ſuch requeſt and demand thereof, or elſe within forty dayes next after euery ſuch requeſt at the furtheſt, that then euery Incumbent, making ſuch default of payment, after ſuch default thereof certified into the Kings Eſchequer in writing vnder the ſeales of any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, or of ſuch as be limited and charged to the collection of the ſaid penſion by this Act, ſhall be adiudged depriued Ipſo facto, of all ſuch Dignities, Benefices, Penſions, and Promotions ſpirituall, as any ſuch incumbent making ſuch default, ſhall haue at the time of ſuch Certificate to be made, or at any time after. So that all ſuch Dignities, Benefices, Penſion, and Promotion ſpirituall, which any Incumbent making ſuch default of payment, ſhall haue at the time of any ſuch certificate to be made, or at any time after, ſhall be clearely void and deſtitute of Incumbent in the law to all intents and purpoſes, as if ſuch Incumbent making ſuch default of paiment were dead in deed.

And it is ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, That if any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, or any other limited and charged by this Act, to the collection and paiment of the ſaid penſion, and annuall rent, doe make a certificate into the Kings Eſchequer, before the ſaid firſt day of April, or at any time within foure and twenty dayes next after the ſaid firſt day of April, that they according to this act, haue reaſonably required, and demanded any incumbent of any dignity, benefice, or promotion ſpirituall, chargeable by this Act to pay ſuch part and portion of the ſaid penſion and annuall rent, as they ſhall happen to be aſſeſſed vnto, and that ſuch Incumbent, ſo being required, hath not paid his ſaid part and portion, according to the forme and effect of this Act, that then euery ſuch Archbiſhop and Biſhop, and euery other perſon, hauing the charge by this Act, for collection and payment of the ſaid penſion and annuall rent, vpon euery ſuch Certificate, ſhall be diſcharged and acquitted for euer againſt the King, his heires and ſucceſſors, of and for all ſuch ſummes of money, as any ſuch Incumbent againſt whom ſuch certificate ſhall be made, ſhould or ought to haue paid by this Act. And that then in euery ſuch caſe the Treaſurer, Chancellor, Chamberlaine, and Barons of the Kings Eſchequer, ſhall deuiſe and direct vpon euery ſuch Certificat, ſuch Proceſſe out of the Kings Eſchequer, againſt euery ſuch Incumbent, againſt whom any ſuch certificate ſhall be made, and their executors, and adminiſtrators, or for inſufficiencie of them, againſt the ſucceſſors of euery ſuch incumbent, whereby the Kings Highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors ſhall, and may be truly anſwered, paid, and contented of ſuch portion and part as the Incumbent, againſt whom any ſuch certificate ſhall bee made, was taxed, and aſſeſſed for his Dignities, Benefices, or promotions ſpirituall, chargeable by this Act.

The Biſhop making a certificat of any Incumbent omitting to pay his Tenths, ſhal be diſcharged thereof. St. 7. Ed. 6. 4. St. 32. H. 8. 22.

Proces ſhall be awarded againſt the refuſers to pay their Tenths.

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted, by authoritie aforeſaid, that all manner of acquittances made by the Treaſurer of the Kings Chamber, or by any other ſuch Commiſſioners, as ſhall be appointed, as is aforeſaid, to receiue the ſaid penſion, or any part thereof, and ſubſcribed with the name of the ſaid Treaſurer, or any other ſuch Commiſſioner for the paiment of the ſaid penſion or annuall rent, or any part thereof, to any ſuch perſon or perſons as be limited and charged with the collection thereof, ſhall be of as good ſtrength, force, vertue, and effect to the parties, hauing the ſame, as if they were made in the Kings name vnder his great Seale, and ſo ſhall be allowed, admitted, and accepted in all Courts of this realme: And that the Treaſurer, Chancellor, Chamberlaine, and Barons of the Kings Eſchequer, ſhall by vertue and authoritie of this Act, as well admit and allow ſuch acquittances, as all ſuch Certificates as ſhall be made againſt any ſuch Incumbent for default of paiment, as is aboueſaid, vpon the account of euerie Archbiſhop and Biſhop, and of euery other perſon limited, and charged by this Act, for the collection and paiment of the ſaid penſion and annuall rent, without any Writ, Bill, or Warrant to be ſued in, or for that behalfe.

Whoſe acquittances ſhall be a diſcharge for the paiment of the Tenths.

And that no manner of Officer of the Kings Eſchequer ſhall take of any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, or of any other perſons, hauing charge with the collection and paiment of the ſaid penſion or annuall rent, any manner reward, or thing for making their account or Quietus eſt, in the ſame Eſchequer, or for any manner of thing appertaining to the ſame concerning the ſaid penſion, and annuall rent, vpon paine of euery officer doing contrary to this Act, to loſe and forfeit his office, and make fine to the King at his will and pleaſure.

Nothing ſhalbe taken in the exchequer of a Biſhop or his Collector for his Account, or Quietus eſt.

And foraſmuch as euery Incumbent of the dignities, benefices, and promotions ſpirituall afore mentioned, ſhall be charged by this act to the paiment of the tenth part of the value of their dignities, benefices, and promotions ſpirituall, without any deduction or allowance of ſuch penſion or penſions, wherewith ſome of them beene charged to pay their predeceſſors, during their liues, or to other perſons to the vſe of ſuch their predeceſſors during their liues, it is therfore ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall bee lawfull to euery Incumbent, charged with any ſuch penſion, payable to any his predeceſſors, or to any to his vſe, to reteine and keepe in his hand the tenth part of euery ſuch penſion: And that euery ſuch

They which pay penſions to others out of their ſpirituall liuing may retaine the tenth part thereof.

incumbent and his ſureties, ſhall from henceforth be acquited and diſcharged of the ſaid tenth part of euery ſuch penſion, by vertue and authority of this preſent Act, any Decrée, Ordinance, or Aſſignement of any ſuch ordinarie, or any collaterall writing, or ſurety made for ſuch penſion to any ſpirituall perſon or perſons, or to any to their vſes for terme of their liues, in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And that as well euery incumbent, as ſuch perſons as ſtand bound for him, for paiment of any ſuch penſions, ſhall plead this Act in euery of the Kings Courts, for the cleere extinguiſhment and diſcharge of the tenth part of euery ſuch penſion.

No penſion ſhal be reſerued vpon the reſignation of a benefice aboue the value of the third part. Sta. 13. bl. 20.

And be it alſo ordeyned and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no penſion ſhall hereafter be aſſigned by the Ordinarie, or by any other manner of agréement by collaterall ſurety, or otherwiſe, vpon any reſignation of any dignitie, benefice, or promotion ſpirituall, aboue the value of the third part of the dignitie, benefice, or promotion ſpirituall reſigned: And if any penſion, amounting aboue the value of the third part of the dignitie, benefice, or promotion ſpirituall heretofore reſigned, be already limited and made ſure to any Spirituall perſon or perſons, by decrée of the Ordinary, or otherwiſe by any collaterall ſurety, or hereafter ſhall happen to be aſſigned, and made ſure to any perſon or perſons Spirituall, or to any other to their vſe, by decrée of the Ordinarie, or by any other collaterall ſuretie, vpon any reſignation thereof, yet neuertheleſſe the incumbent charged with ſuch penſion, nor his ſureties collaterall, ſhall not be compelled to pay any more penſion, than the value of the third part of his dignity, benefice, or promotion ſpirituall, ſo reſigned ſhall mount vnto: but ſhall by authoritie of this Act, be clearely acquited, and diſcharged of ſo much of the ſaid penſion, as ſhall amount aboue the value of the third part of the dignity or benefice reſigned: any decrée or aſſignement of the ordinary, or any collaterall writings, or ſureties heretofore made, or hereafter to be had, or made for the ſame, to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Abbots or Priors paying penſions to their predeceſſors.

And foraſmuch as diuers Abbots and Priors béene charged to pay great penſions to ſundrie their predeceſſors yet liuing, to the great decay of their hoſpitalities, and houſe kéeping: Be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euery ſuch predeceſſor of ſuch Abbots, or Priors, hauing any penſion made ſure vnto them, or to any to their vſe during their liues, amounting aboue the yearely value of forty pound, ſhall from henceforth be defaulked, and abated of the moitie and halfe deale of euery ſuch penſion. And that euery Abbot and all other perſons charged for the paiment of ſuch penſion, aboue the ſaid yearely value of forty pound, ſhall be cleerely acquited and diſcharged by authority of this Act, of the moitie, and halfedeale thereof for euer. Any decrée or aſſignement thereof by the Ordinary, or any writing, or ſurety collaterall, had or made for the ſurety thereof notwithſtanding.

The Prior of S. Iohn of Hieruſalem ſhall pay firſt fruits and Tenths.

And foraſmuch as the Lord Prior of Saint Iohns of Hieruſalem in England, and his Brethren be not ſpecially named and expreſſed in this Act, whereby Ambiguity might ariſe, whether they ſhould be compriſed within the limits of this Act: it is therefore for plaine declaration thereof enacted by authority aforeſaid, that euery perſon and perſons which after the ſaid firſt day of Ianuary, ſhall happen to be nominated, elected, collated, or by any other meanes appointed to the dignity of the ſaid Prior of Saint Iohns of Hieruſalem in England, or to any commandry appertaining vnto the ſame, ſhall before their actuall and reall entrie into the ſame dignitie or commandry, or medling with the profits thereof, ſatiſfie and pay to the vſe of the Kings Highneſſe, his Heires and Succeſſors, the firſt fruits and profits thereof for one whole yeare, or agrée or compound for the ſame, at reaſonable daies in like manner and forme, and vpon like paine in euery behalfe, as Archbiſhops and Biſhops, and other ſpirituall perſons be bound to by vertue and authority of this Act. And that alſo the Prior of Saint Iohns now being, and his ſucceſſors, and euery of his Brethren hauing any commandry, and their ſucceſſors, ſhall contribute and pay yearely to the Kings Highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, one yearely rent and penſion amounting to the tenth part of all their poſſeſſions and profits, as well Spirituall as Temporall: And ſhall be charged, rated, taxed, and ſet to the contribution and paiment of the ſaid tenth part. And that alſo the ſaid tenth part ſhall be leuied, collected, and paid in ſuch like manner and forme, to all intents and purpoſes, as the tenth part of other dignities and benefices ſpirituall ſhall be charged, taxed, ſet, leuied, collected, and paid by authoritie of this Act.

They which in one Corporation haue ſeuerall poſſeſſions belonging to their dignities ſhall pay for their owne poſſeſſions and not for others.

And foraſmuch as in ſundry and many Cathedrall Churches, Colleges, and Hoſpitals of this Realme, there is, and time out of minds hath béene certaine Ordinances inſtituted, and made, whereby the Deane, Prouoſt, Maſter, or other chiefe Gouernour of ſuch Churches, Colleges, and Hoſpitals hath a certaine part and portion of the poſſeſſions & profits belonging to ſuch Church, Colleges, and Hoſpitals, all onely limited and belonging to their Offices and Dignities. And euery Prebendary, Brother, Vicar, Fellow, petie Canon and other Miniſters ſpirituall in ſuch Churches, Colleges, and Hoſpitals, hath another portion, all onely and diſtinctly limited, appertaining and belonging to their dignities & offices in ſuch Churches, Hoſpitals and Colleges: It is therefore prouided & ordeined by authority aforeſaid, that ſuch perſon & perſons which at any time after the ſaid firſt day of Ianuary, ſhall be nominated, elected, preſented, preferred, collated, or by other meanes appointed to be Deane, Prouoſt, Maſter, or other chiefe Gouernour of ſuch Cathedrall Churches, Colleges, or Hoſpitals, ſhall be rated, compound and pay for their firſt fruits, but only after the rate of the yearely value of the poſſeſſion and profits, limited, and belonging to their office and dignity.

And that euery other perſon and perſons, that after the ſaid firſt day of Ianuary ſhall be nominated, elected, preſented, prefected, collated, or by any other meanes appointed to haue any Prebend, Brotherſhip, Fellowſhip, or to be any Vicar or pety Canon, or to haue any other dignitie, or Office ſpirituall, in any ſuch Cathedrall Churches, Colleges, or Hoſpitals, ſhall be rated, compound and pay for their firſt fruits after the rate of the yearely value of the poſſeſſions, and profits, limited and belonging to their dignities and offices, in ſuch Churches, Colleges and Hoſpitals, and none otherwiſe. Any thing in this Act to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, that ſuch perſon or perſons, that after the ſaid firſt day of Ianuary, ſhall be preſented and collated to any parſonage or Vicarage, whereof the yearely value ſhall not exceed viij. markes ſhall not be compelled to pay any firſt fruits for any ſuch parſonage, or Vicarage, whereunto they ſhalbe preſented or collated, not being aboue the ſaid yearly value of viij. marks: Except that the incumbent preſented or collated to ſuch Parſonage or Vicarage, whereof the yearely value ſhall not exceed viij. markes, doe liue iij. yeares, next and immediately following after his inſtitution, induction, or collation, to ſuch parſonage or vicarage, and if ſuch incumbent doe liue after the ſaid three yeares, then he or his Executors or Adminiſtrators ſhall pay at daies to be limited after the ſaid years vpon ſureties (as is aforeſaid) the firſt fruits of euery ſuch parſonage and vicarage. And that in euery obligation to be made by any incumbent of ſuch parſonage or vicarage and his ſureties for paiment of the firſt fruits of ſuch parſonage or vicarage, there ſhall be conteined a Prouiſo, that if the ſaid incumbent die within iij. yeares next after the date of the inſtitution, induction, or collation of the ſaid parſonage or vicarage, that then the obligation ſhal be void & of none effect. Any thing in this Act to yͤ contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

No firſt fruits ſhall be paid for a benefice being not aboue the yearely value of eight markes, except, &c. Stat. 1.El.4.

A prouiſo in the Obligation if the Incumbent die within three yeares.

And ouer this where the Clergie of the Prouince of Canterburie in their Conuocation haue granted vnto the Kings highneſſe one hundred thouſand pounds, and the Clergy of the Prouince of Yorke, xviij. thouſand, eight hundred forty pound, x, d. to be paid by euen portions in v. yeares, and that which could not be leuied thereof in the ſame v. yeares, to be paid in the ſixt yeare, as by the tenor of their ſeuerall grants thereof made in their ſeuerall Conuocations more plainly appeareth: It may pleaſe the Kings Maieſty of his excellent goodnes, in conſideration that the ſaid yearely penſion and annuall rent ſhal be yearely from henceforth duely paid and ſatisfied to his highneſſe, and to his heires and ſucceſſors according to the tenour, forme, purport and effect of this preſent Act: that it may be enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that the Clergy of the ſaid Prouince of Canterburie, and euery of them ſhall be diſcharged and acquited againſt our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, his heires, and ſucceſſors, of, and for the twenty thouſand pound, parcell of the ſaid C. M. li. which ſhould be paid in the v. yeare of paiment, limited by their grant: And that the Clergy of the ſaid Prouince of Yorke ſhall likewiſe be diſcharged and acquited of and for all ſuch ſummes of money, parcell of the ſaid xviij. M. DCCC. xl. li. x. d. which ſhould be paid in the v. yeare of paiment limited by their grant: any thing in their ſaid ſeuerall grants thereof made in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

How much the Clergy of the two Prouinces of Canterburie and Yorke ſhall be yearely diſcharged of, and wherefore.

Prouided alwayes, that all the reſidue of ſummes of money, which be yet to be paid and not releaſed nor diſcharged by this Act, ſhall be truly paid and ſatiſfied to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, his heires or ſucceſſors, according to the tenor, forme, and effect of their ſaid ſeuerall grants.

Prouided alſo, that all ſuch fees, which any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Abbot, Prior, or other Prelate of the Church is bounden yearely to pay to any Chancellor, Maiſter of the Rolles, Iuſtices, Sheriffes, or orther Officers or Miniſters of Record, for temporall Iuſtice to be done or miniſtred within their Dioces or iuriſdictions, ſhall be allowed and deducted by the Commiſſioners aforeſaid, in and vpon the valuation of the Dignities, Monaſteries, Priories, or Churches chargeable with ſuch fees: Any thing in this Act to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.
Stat. 26.H.8.17. 27.H.8.8. 28.H.8.11.2. and 3.P. and M.4. 1.El.4.

Fees which any Prelate is bound to pay for temporall Iuſtice.

CAP. IIII.

How periurie in Iurors in Wales ſhall be puniſhed.

Where for lacke of diligent and ſure cuſtodie of Iurors ſworne for trials of murders, felons, and acceſſaries of felonies and murders in Wales, and the marches of the ſame, diuers adherents, friends, and kinſfolks to ſuch offendors haue reſorted to the ſame Iurors, and haue ſuborned them to acquit diuers murderers, felons, and acceſſaries, openly and notoriouſly knowen, contrary to equity and iuſtice, It is therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That forthwith vpon the charge giuen to any inqueſt hereafter to to be taken & ſworne before any Iuſticer, Steward, Lieutenant or other Officer within Wales, or the Marches of the ſame, of, for, and vpon any trauers againſt the King, or the trial of any Recogniſance broken, or any other forfeiture forfeited to the King, of, for and vpon the triall of any murderer, felon, or acceſſary of felony, or murder, one officer or other perſon ſhall be deputed, and ſworne in the preſence of the ſaid Iuſticer, or other officer, for the true and diligent keeping of the ſame Iurors: And that the ſame Officer, or other perſon ſo ſworne without the ſpeciall commandement of the ſaid Iuſticer, or other Officer, ſhall not doe or ſuffer to be miniſtred to the ſame Iurors any bread, drinke, meat, fire or light, nor ſhall ſuffer the ſame Iurors to ſpeake to any perſon or perſons: nor the ſame officer, or other perſon ſworne, without the commandement aforeſaid, ſhall not ſpeake to the ſaid Iurors, but only to demand of them of their agreement, vnto ſuch time as the ſame Iurors ſhall haue giuen their verdict, any vſage, or cuſtome heretofore vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding: And if the ſame officer or other perſon ſo ſworne in forme aforeſaid, doe not execute and accompliſh the premiſſes in the oath before rehearſed in euery point and article, then the ſame officer or other perſon ſo ſworne ſhall be puniſhed and impriſoned, and make fine and ranſom to the Kings Highneſſe, by the diſcretion of the ſaid Iuſticer, Steward, Lieutenant, or other officer.

How an officer ſworne for the keeping of Iurors in Wales ſhall demeane himſelfe.

And alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the ſame Iurors do acquit any ſuch felon, murderer, or acceſſary, vpon whoſe triall they ſhall be charged, or giue any vntrue verdict againſt the King, vpon the triall of any trauers, recognizance or other forfeiture, contrary to good and pregnant euidence miniſtred to them by perſons ſworne before the ſaid Iuſticer, Steward, Lieutenant, or other officer, or that the ſaid Iurors or any of them doe eat, drinke, or ſpeake to, or with any other perſon or perſons, than to ſuch as be ſworne with them, or otherwiſe miſdemeane themſelues after they be ſworne, and before they haue giuen their verdict, that then the L. Preſident and other of the counſell of the marches for the time being, vpon notice or complaint thereof to them made, ſhall not only haue power and authoritie by this preſent Act to call ſuch Iurors before them: but alſo the ſame Iuſticer, Steward, or other officer, afore whom any ſuch acquitall, vntrue verdict, or miſdemeanor ſhall happen to be made, ſhall haue full power and authority to compell ſuch Iurors and euery of them, vpon paine of impriſonment to be bounden by recognizance in a certaine ſumme of money,, by their diſcretion to be limited, that the ſame Iurors and euery of them ſhall perſonally appeare, at a certaine day by the ſame Iuſticer, Steward, or other officer to be limited before the Lord Preſident, and other of the counſell aforeſaid, for the time being: then and there to abide, and ſtand to ſuch direction and order, as the ſame councell ſhall make, ordeine, and decree of, in and vpon the ſame. And that the ſame counſell ſhall thereupon haue authority and power by examination, or otherwiſe, to heare and determine all and euery ſuch cauſe, and ſhall haue like authority to commit euery of the ſame Iurors to priſon, or other puniſhment, as ſhall be thought moſt meet by the diſcretion of the ſaid counſell, or otherwiſe aſſeſſe, or tax euery ſuch Iuror to his fine or ranſom by the ſame diſcretion, to be paid and leuied of their lands, goods and cattels, to the vſe of the Kings highneſſe.

Cap. V.

No paſſage vpon Seuerne at vnlawfull times.

Foraſmuch as daily diuers felonies, robberies, and murders been many times committed, and done, in the counties of Glouc. & Somerſet, in the parts next adioyning vnto the water, called the water of Seuerne between England and Southwales, & after ſuch murders and felonies done, the ſaid robbers, felons and murderers with the ſaid goods ſo robbed, and ſtollen, make there conueyance with the ſaid goods ſo ſtollen, by night at diuers paſſages, or Ferries, ouer the ſaid riuer, or water, as the paſſages of Auſte, Fremeland, Pyrton, Arlignham, Nowenham, Portſedes, Poynte, and all ſuch other like paſſages ouer the ſaid riuer into Southwales, or into the Foreſt called the Foreſt of Deane, alſo adioyning to the ſame water. And when they be ouer the ſaid water, then the goods ſo ſtollen by diuers priuileges there kept, albeit the owner, and owners haue true and perfite knowledge thereof, yet they ſo robbed and ſpoiled be without remedie for to obtaine their ſaid goods ſo ſtollen: ſo that the ſecret and ſudden conueyance by night of the ſaid goods ouer the ſaid Ferries and paſſages doth not onely greatly encourage diuers perſons to come out of the parts of South-wales to ſteale, rob, and murder diuers perſons in their houſes in the ſaid counties ioyning vpon the ſaid borders of Wales, but alſo cauſeth many robberies and felonies in ſundry wayes to be committed and done vpon the ſaid border neere adioyning to the ſame riuer, to the great damage and hurt of the Kings ſubiects inhabiting there, vnleſſe ſome remedie therefore be prouided. It may therefore pleaſe the King our ſoueraigne Lord, and the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, by the authoritie of the ſame to enact, That euery perſon or perſons, taking vpon him, or them to haue, and keepe any of the ſaid paſſages, or any other paſſages vpon Seuerne aforeſaid, from henceforth doe not conuey, neither carry with any manner barge, boat, or other veſſell, any perſon or perſons with horſes, mares, oxen, kine, or any other cattell, nor no other perſon or perſons before the time of the Sunne riſing in the morning, and after the time of the Sunne being gone downe at night, vpon paine of impriſonment and fine to be ſet on him that ſhall ſo conueigh or carrie ouer any of the ſaid paſſages of the ſaid Riuer of Seuerne out of England into Wales, or the Foreſt of Deane, or out of Wales, or the ſaid Foreſt of Deane into England, vnleſſe the ſaid paſſengers and euery of them haue good knowlege of ſuch perſon and perſons, and of their dwelling places, and vpon requeſt to them made by any perſon or perſons to diſcloſe the name, and the dwelling place of euery ſuch perſon or perſons, ſo by them conueyed ouer the ſaid water, to any ſuch perſon or perſons requiring the ſame, if ſuit be made for, and after them vpon any outcrie, huy, or freſh ſuit, of or for any ſelonie, robberie, murder, and manſlaughter, committed and done from henceforth.

And that the Kings Juſtices of Peace within euery the ſaid Counties of Glouceſt. and Somerſet, at their quarter Seſſions, ſhall haue full power and authority to call before them all ſuch perſons, which hereafter ſhall keepe any of the ſaid paſſages, or any other Ferrie or paſſage ouer the ſaid water into Wales, or the ſaid Foreſt, or out of Wales or the ſaid Foreſt into England, and to binde them with ſufficient ſureties with them in Recognizance, in ſuch ſummes of mony as it ſhall ſeeme to the diſcretion of the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, that they and euery of them being paſſengers and keepers of Ferries and paſſages, as is aforeſaid, from henceforth ſhall not after the ſaid times before limited and appointed, conuey or carry, or cauſe to be conueyed or carried any manner of perſon or perſons, or any kind of cattell, but ſuch perſons as they do know and will anſwer for, and know where their abidings, dwellings, and habitations be, and vpon requeſt made to them or any of them, as is aboueſaid, ſhall from time to time diſcloſe, as well the ſame perſon or perſons, as the goods and cattels ſo paſſing the ſaid paſſages vpon freſh ſuit made, or hereafter to be made vpon any felony, murder, or robberie committed and done in the borders of the Counties aforeſaid, or in any other place within this Realme, or Southwales.

Keepers of Ferries ſhall be bound to tranſport no offendors at vnlawfull times.

Cap. VI.

Murders and felonies committed in Wales ſhall be enquired of in the Shires next adioyning, &c.

FOr as much as the people of Wales, and the marches of the ſame, not dreading the good and wholeſome Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, haue of long time continued, and perſeuered in perpetration, and commiſſion of diuers and manifold thefts, murders, rebellions, wilfull burning of houſes, and other ſcelerous deeds & abominable malefacts, to the high diſpleaſure of God, inquietation of the Kings well diſpoſed ſubiects, & diſturbance of the publike weale, which malefacts and ſcelerous deeds be ſo rooted, & fixed in the ſame people, that they be not like to ceaſe, vnleſſe ſome ſharpe correction and puniſhment for redreſſe, and amputation of the premiſſes be prouided, according to the demerits of the offendors. Be it therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne, Lord, and the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That all and ſingular perſon and perſons, dwelling or reſiant within Wales, or in the Lordſhips marchers of the ſame, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, vpon ſuch monition or warning giuen for the Court to be kept in Wales, or in any of the Lordſhips marchers aforeſaid, as before this time hath beene vſed, ſhal perſonally repaire, reſort, and appeare before the Juſtice, Steward, Lieutenant, or other officer, at all, and euerie Seſſions, Court and Courts to be holden before the ſame Juſtice, Steward, or other officer in any whatſoeuer Caſtell, Fortreſſe, or other place within Wales, or within the precinct, limits, and iuriſdictions of euery of the Lordſhips marchers, or Seigniories aforeſaid, or the marches of the ſame, as by the ſaid Juſtice, Steward, or other officer ſhall be appointed: And then and there ſhal giue his or their perſonall attendance, to doe, execute, and accompliſh all and euery thing, and things, which to him or them ſhall affere and appertaine, vpon paine of ſuch fines, forfeitures, and amerciaments, as ſhall be affered, aſſeſſed, and taxed by the Juſtice, Steward, or other officer to the Kings vſe, if it be within any of the Kings Lordſhips marchers. And if it be within any other Lordſhips marches, then to the vſe of the Lord of the ſaid Lordſhip, marcher, for the time being: The ſaid forfeitures and amerciaments to be leuied, perceiued, and taken by way of diſtreſſe of the goods and cattels of euery perſon not appearing at the ſaid Court or Courts, or not doing, executing, or accompliſhing his dutie, as is aboueſaid.

The long perſeuerance in wickedneſſe of ſome lewd people in Wales, and the marches thereof.

All perſons ſhal vpon ſummons giuen appeare before the Juſtices, and in Courts in Wales.

And for as much as the officers in the Lordſhips marchers in Wales, haue often and ſundrie times heretofore, vnlawfully exacted of the Kings ſubiects within ſuch Lordſhips, where they haue had rule, or authority, by many and ſundry wayes and meanes, and alſo committed them to ſtreight dureſſe, and impriſonment, for ſmall and light fained cauſes, and extorciouſly compelled them thereby to pay vnto them fines for their redemptions, contrary to the law. Therefore be it further enacted, That if any Steward, Lieutenant, or any other officer of any Lordſhip, marcher, doe faine, procure, or imagine any vntrue ſurmiſe againſt any perſon or perſons, that ſhall ſo giue their perſonall attendance before them at ſuch Court or Courts, and vpon the ſame vntrue ſurmiſe commit them to any dureſſe or impriſonment, contrary to the law, or contrary to the true, and laudable cuſtome of that Lordſhip: that then vpon ſuite made vnto the Kings Commiſſioners or counſel of the marches, for the time being, by any ſuch perſon or perſons ſo impriſoned, or by any of their friends, that then the ſame Commiſſioners or counſell, ſhall haue full power and authority, to ſend for ſuch Steward, Lieutenant, or officer, and alſo for the perſon or perſons ſo impriſoned: And if the ſame perſon or perſons ſo impriſoned, can euidently proue before the ſaid counſell, by good and ſubſtantiall witnes, or otherwiſe, that his impriſonment was vpon any feined ſurmiſe, without cauſe reaſonable oꝛ lawfull, that then the ſame commiſſioners ſhall haue full power and authoꝛitie to aſſeſſe the ſaid officer to pay to the ſaid perſon oꝛ perſons wrongfully impꝛiſoned, vi. s.viij.d. foꝛ euery day of their impꝛiſonment, oꝛ moꝛe, by the diſcretions of the ſaid Commiſſioners, accoꝛding to the hurts and behauiour of the perſon oꝛ perſons impꝛiſoned.

The parties remedie againſt the officer which doth impꝛiſon him vpon fained ſurmiſes.

And that the ſame Commiſſioners ſhall ſet further fine vpon the ſaid officer to be payed to the Kings vſe, as by their diſcretions ſhall be thought conuenient. And in caſe the ſame officers doe refuſe to appeare befoꝛe the ſame Commiſſioners incontinent after any commandement to them directed and deliuered, after any ſuch complaint made to the ſame Commiſſioners, that then the ſame Commiſſioners ſhall haue full power and authoꝛity vpon euery default made by any officer oꝛ officers, to aſſeſſe and ſet vpon euery ſuch officer oꝛ officers making default, ſuch fine oꝛ fines, to be leuied to the Kings vſe, as by their diſcretions ſhall be thought conuenient. And that the ſame Commiſſioners ſhall haue full power and authoꝛitie, to compell the ſaid officer oꝛ officers by way of impꝛiſonment, as well to pay ſuch fine as ſhall be ſet, and taxed vpon them, to the Kings vſe, as to pay vnto euery perſon oꝛ perſons ſo impꝛiſoned ſuch ſummes of money, as they ſhall be ceſſed to pay foꝛ their wꝛong impꝛiſonment.

And further they and euery of them ſhall make ſuch fine, as by the diſcretion of the Kings Commiſſioners of his marches ſhall be thought conuenient. And further the ſaid Commiſſioners, by this pꝛeſent Act, ſhall haue power and authoꝛity, to heare and determine the ſaid offences by their examination. And that no perſon oꝛ perſons ſhall hereafter at any time caſt any thing into any Court within Wales, oꝛ in the Loꝛdſhips marchers of the ſame, by the meane oꝛ name of an Arthel, by reaſon whereof the Court may be letted, diſturbed, oꝛ diſcontinued foꝛ that time, vpon paine of one whole yeares impꝛiſonment of any ſuch perſon oꝛ perſons, as ſhall caſt, oꝛ cauſe to be caſt any ſuch Arthel into any court oꝛ courts hereafter to be holden, within Wales, oꝛ the Loꝛdſhips marchers of the ſame. And that euery ſuch offendor ſo diſcharged, as is aboueſaid, ſhall be for the ſame offence, or offences done within any of the Kings Lordſhips marchers, or any other Lordſhips marchers, diſcharged as well againſt the Kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, as againſt all other Lords marchers for one time onely.

No liberties of any Lord marcher ſhall be abridged.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, That this preſent Act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend, ne take place to abridge, depriue, or minorat any liberties, priuilege, or authority of any Lord marcher, heretofore granted to the ſame Lord, or lawfully vſed or accuſtomed by the ſaid Lord, or any of his anceſtors, vnleſſe the foreſaid offendors happen to be indicted, outlawed, arraigned, conuicted or attainted by force of this Act, as is aboueſaid, within two yeares next after ſuch murther, or other felonious offence perpetrated, done, or committed within the ſaid Lordſhips marchers, or any of them: Any thing in this preſent Act before rehearſed to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And where heretofore vpon diuers murders, robberies, & felonies, perpetrated, and done, as well within the Lordſhips marchers of Wales as in other places of Wales without the ſame Lordſhips, the offendors diuers times flée, and eſcape from the ſame Lordſhip or other place, where ſuch offence was committed, and haue repaired and reſorted into another Lordſhip marcher, and there by the ayd, comfort, and fauour of the ſaid Lord of the ſame Lordſhip or his officer or officers haue béene abiding and reſiant, into the which Lordſhips the ſame Lords marchers haue and doe pretend a cuſtome and priuilege, that none of the Kings miniſters or ſubiects may enter, to purſue, apprehend, and attach any ſuch offender, thereunto repaired, as is aforeſaid, by reaſon whereof the ſame offenders went vnpuniſhed, to the animation, and encouraging of other euill diſpoſed people. It is therefore enacted by the authority aboueſaid, That euery officer and officers, and their deputies, vpon commandement giuen by the Commiſſioners, or Councell of the Marches for the time being, ſhall bring, ſend, or deliuer euery ſuch offendor to the officer of the Lordſhip marcher, or other place, where any ſuch offence is, or ſhalbe committed, or done, vpon the metes and bounds of the ſaid Lordſhips, or to the ſaid Commiſſioners or Councell, according as the ſaid officers by them ſhall be commanded vnder pain of forty pounds, the ſame commandement or Commiſſion to be directed to any ſuch officer to be ſent, conueyed, and deliuered by a Sergeant at Armes, or a Purſeuant, attendant on the ſaid Councell in the Marches, for the time being. 34.& 35.H.8.26.

CAP. VII.

High-wayes in Suſſex ſhall be amended.

WHere it is ordained and enacted by authority of Parliament heretofore holden at London the fiftéenth day of Aprill, in the fourtéenth yere of the Kings moſt noble reigne, and from thence adiourned to Weſtminſter the laſt day of July, the fiftéenth yeare of his reigne, and there holden: in conſideration that many common wayes in the Weld of Kent, be ſo déepe, and noyous by wearing, and courſe of water, and other occaſions, that people cannot haue their paſſages and cariages by horſes vpon, or by the ſame, but to their great paines, perils, and ieopardie: that if any perſon or perſons from that time in any place within the ſaid weld of the ſaid countie of his good minde, and diſpoſition, without any value of good by him or by them to be receiued for the ſame, will for the common weale of the Kings people, aſſigne and lay out, a more commodious way, in and ouer the lands thereunto adioyning, whereof the perſon or perſons, or other to his vſe ſhall be ſeiſed of fée in eſtate of inheritance, that the ſame new way ſo to be aſſigned and layed out, by ouerſight and aſſent of two Iuſtices of the Peace of the ſaid Countie, and twelue other diſcréet men within the ſame Hundred inhabiting, where any ſuch new way ſhall be limited and layed out, or inhabiting within the ſame Hundred and other Hundreds to the ſaid Hundred next adioyning, ſhall be from thenceforth holden, occupied and vſed in like manner as the ſaid old way there now is or before hath béene. And that alſo the ſame perſon or perſons ſo diſpoſed, willing and acompliſhing, ſhall and may for the ſaid new way ſo aſſigned and vſed, receiue and hold in way of recompence for the ſame new way ſo to be giuen, the ſoile and ground of the old way in ſeueraltie, to them, their heires and aſſignes, to their owne vſe and profit for euer, without any common way or paſſage there from thenceforth to be had or claimed, any preſcription or vſe to the contrary notwithſtanding, in like manner and forme as is limited by the ſaid Act of a certaine new way granted by the ſame Act to be made by George Guilford Squier, at Hempſted in the ſaid Weld of Kent. And that the two ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, and twelue other diſcréet men, by whoſe ouerſight and aſſent, the ſaid new way by vertue of the ſaid Act, ſhall be aſſigned, limited, and laid out, ſhall within thrée moneths next after the aſſignment, limitation, and laying out of the ſame, make certificat into the Kings moſt honourable Court of Chancerie vnder their ſeales, of the length and breadth of the ſaid new way or ſtréet, and of other things adioyning or concerning the ſame, as by their diſcretions ſhall be thought moſt expedient or requiſite for the Common wealth of that Country to be certified, and that Certificat to be made from time to time, as oft as any ſuch new way or ſtréet ſhall be aſſigned, limited and layd out in forme aboue written.

St. 14. H. 8. 6.

Any perſon may lay out a new way in his own ground in the Weld of Kent by the conſent of two Iuſt. of P. &c. and keepe ſeuerall the old.

Certificat ſhall be made into the Chancerie of the new way.

Prouided alway, that if any perſon or perſons, or body politike, haue or ought to haue, or hereafter ſhal haue any Church-way, or other whatſoeuer way, or paſſage ouer or thorow any manner lands adioyning to any of the ſaid old waies or ſtréets, which ſhall be taken and vſed by force of that Act as ſeuerall ſoile and fréehold, in recompence for any new way to be made and laid out in forme aforeſaid, or haue or ought to haue, or hereafter ſhal haue any lands or tenements adioyning to the old way, they and euery of them, their heires and ſucceſſors may haue and vſe their ſaid way or waies, out of, and in the ſaid new way ouer and thorow the land of the ſaid old way or ſtréet, into or ouer the ſaid lands or tenements adioyning to the ſame, and ſo to paſſe & repaſſe as ſhall appertaine ouer the ſame old way, at ſuch conuenient place or places thereof, as therfore ſhal be limited and aſſigned by the ſaid two Iuſt. of P. and other twelue men, and by them to be certified in the Chancerie, among other things by them to be certified in forme aforeſaid, any thing in the ſaid Act aboue written notwithſtanding, as by the ſame Act manifeſtly appeareth.

They which haue any way through the old way may vſe it.

And forasmuch as in many places within the Countie of Suſſex, like Act for the alteration of common waies and ſtréets, there being much annoyous, is much neceſſary and expedient for the common wealth and commoditie of the Kings ſubiects of the ſaid county of Suſſex to be had and made. In conſideration whereof, be it ordeined and enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the Lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act aboue rehearſed and recited, ſhall and may from henceforth extend, take effect, and be put in execution in euery place conuenient, or neceſſary within the ſaid County of Suſſex, where waies and ſtréets be noyous to the Kings ſaid ſubiects of the ſame County of Suſſex, in like forme and and manner, and in all points and conditions, and with like prouiſo to be had, done, and executed, as it is conteined, and expreſſed in the aboue recited Act concerning the change of the wayes and ſtréets in the ſaid County of Kent, any preſciption, vſe, cuſtome, or other thing to the contrary being in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Stat. of 14. H. 8. 6. concerning altering of wayes in the Weld of Kent, ſhall be put in execution in the countie of Suſſex.

Cap. VIII.

WHere by infortunat chance of fire, a great number of houſes of habitation within the City of Norwich, about ſix & twenty yeares paſt, were burned, and vtterly conſumed, to the great heauineſſe, diſcomfort, loſſe, and hinderance of the inhabitants of the ſame Citie. By reaſon of which burning, diuers and many void grounds, whereupon before the ſame fire, good and ſubſtantiall houſes of habitation were ſtanding, remaining now at this day vnreedified, and not onely vnreedified, but alſo to lie as deſolate and vacant grounds, many of them nigh adioyning to the high ſtréets, repleniſhed with much vncleanneſſe, and filth, to the great annuzance of the ſaid inhabitants, and other the Kings ſubiects paſſing by the ſame: and to the intent that a reformation may be had in that behalfe.

The owner of void ground within Norwich ſhal reedifie them or incloſe them with wals within two yeares after proclamation.

Be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if the owner or owners, of ſuch vacant ground or grounds, ſo lying within the precinct of the ſaid Citie, within two yeares next after proclamation made by the commandement of the Maior of the ſaid Citie for the time being, within and vpon ſuch vacant ground and grounds, of the tenor and effect of this preſent Act, doe not ſufficiently reedifie, or elſe with walles of morter and ſtone ſufficiently incloſe the ſame vacant ground or grounds, whereupon ſuch proclamation ſhall bee made, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the Maior, Sheriffes, Citizens, and Comminalty of the ſame Citie, and their ſucceſſors for the time being, immediatly after the ſaid two yeares expired, to enter into euery ſuch ground and grounds ſo vacant, as is aforeſaid, whereupon ſuch proclamation as is before remembred, ſhall be ſo made, and the ſame ground and grounds, to hold and retaine without interruption to them and their ſucceſſors for euer, clearely diſcharged of all rents, as well againſt the Lords of fées thereof, as of all other, ſo that alwaies the ſame Maior, Sheriffes, Citizens, and Comminalty, or their ſucceſſors, doe well and ſufficiently reedifie, or elſe with walles of morter and ſtone, as is aforeſaid, ſufficiently doe incloſe the ſame ground and grounds wherein they ſhall ſo enter, within two yeares next after ſuch entrie by them ſo to be made as is aforeſaid.

The forfeiture of the Maior &c. if they doe not reedifie the ſame within two yeares.

Cap. IX.

By whom and by what time void grounds in Linne ſhall be reedified.

Humbly beſéecheth your góod and gracious highneſſe, your obedient ſubiects, the Maior and Burgeſes of the Towne of Linne, Biſhop, in your County of Norfolke, that where at this preſent time, diuers and many meſuages, and tenements of old time builded within the ſaid Towne, are, and by a long time haue béene in great decay and deſolation, whereby the floud and rage of the ſea, comming to the ſaid Towne, & inſurging vpon ſuch decayed tenements in times of tempeſt, doth freat and maruellouſly weare in diuers places of the ſaid Towne, to the great hurt and damage as well of the ſaid Towne, as of diuers perſons hauing grounds adioyning to ſuch places ſo in decay, and that the owners of ſuch decayed grounds will not reedifie and maintaine the ſaid meſuages and tenements ſo decayed for the maintenance and defence of the water, and rage of the ſea, whereby the ſaid Towne is likely to fall in more decay, ruine & deſolation, if remedy therfore be not prouided. In conſideration whereof it may pleaſe your Highnes, that it may be enacted by your Maieſty, by the aſſents of the Lords Spirituall & Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if the owner or owners of ſuch meſuages and tenements ſo decayed, ſet, lying, or being within the precinct of yͤ ſaid Town, within one yeare next after proclamation made by the commandement of the Maior of the ſaid Towne for the time being, within & vpon ſuch decayed meſuages or tenements, doe not ſufficiently reedifie, or elſe with wals of morter & ſtone ſufficiently encloſe the ſame meſuages and tenements and grounds to them belonging, ſo being in decay, for defence of the rage of the water: that then it ſhall be lawfull for the chiefe Lords, of whom ſuch meſuages or tenements ſo decayed ſhalbe holden, to enter into the ſaid meſuages and tenements ſo decayed, and the ſame hold, haue, & retaine to them & their heires for euer: ſo that euery ſuch Lord, which

If the chiefe L. faile to repaire them the Maior & Comminalty may doe it.

And if ſuch chiefe Lord, which may enter by authority of this act into the ſaid meſuages or tenements decayed, doe not reedifie the ſaid meſuages and tenements decayed, or elſe with wals of morter and ſtone ſufficiently incloſe the ſame, in forme as is aforeſaid, within one yeere next after ſuch chiefe Lord might enter into the ſame by authority of this Act: that then it ſhall bee lawfull for the Maior and comminalty of the ſaid towne for euery ſuch default to enter into any ſuch meſuages or tenements ſo decayed, and the ſame to haue and retaine to them and their ſucceſſors for euer, without interruption, cleerly diſcharged of all rents, as well againſt the Lords of fees thereof, as of all other.

So that alwaies the ſame Maior and comminalty, or their ſucceſſors, do wel and ſufficiently reedifie, or elſe with wals of morter and ſtone as is aforeſaid, ſufficiently doe incloſe the ſame meſuages, and tenements, or grounds appertaining to the ſame, wherein they ſhall ſo enter by authority of this Act within two yeers next after ſuch entry by them ſo to be made, as is aforeſaid. CAP. VI.

Order for increaſe of good horſes.

The cauſe of the decay of the breed of horſes.

THe King our Soueraigne Lord continually ſtudying for the aduancement, augmentation, and increaſe of the publike weale of this his realme, calling to his moſt gracious memory the great decay of the generation and breeding of good and ſwift and ſtrong horſes, which heretofore haue beene bred in this Realme, to the great defence, profit, and common commodity of the ſame: And now remembring that like breed of horſes is ſore diminiſhed and decaied, the occaſion whereof is thought to proceed for that, that in many and moſt places of this Realme, commonly little horſes and nags of ſmall ſtature and value, be ſuffered to depaſture and alſo to couer Mares and felys of very ſmall ſtature, by reaſon whereof the breed of good and ſtrong horſes of this Realme is now lately diminiſhed, altered and decayed, and further is like to decay, if ſpeedy remedy bee not ſooner prouided in that behalfe.

Owners & Farmers of parkes ſhall be charged to keep Mares.

The kings highneſſe willing therefore to prouide remedy in that behalfe, by the aduiſe of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, hath ordeined, enacted and eſtabliſhed, that euery perſon and perſons, as wel ſpiritual as temporal, of what eſtate, degree or condition ſoeuer he or they be, which at this preſent time, or at any time hereafter ſhall haue any Parke or Ground incloſed with hedge, ditch, wall, or pale, wherin any Deere is, or hereafter ſhal be vſually kept for game, containing the quantity of one mile in compaſſe, & is, or ſhall be ſeiſed thereof in fee ſimple, fee taile or for term of life, in poſſeſſion to his or their owne profit and behalfe, that euery ſuch owner of euery ſuch Parke and ground, being in his owne hand; and euery fermer of euery ſuch Parke or ground, being let to ferme, from the firſt day of May, that ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God, M.D.XXXVII. ſhall keep for euery ſuch parke or ground, being incloſed as is aforeſaid, as long as the ſame parke or ground incloſed ſhall be vſed, and kept with Deere in the ſame for games, two mares being not ſplaied, apt and able to beare foales, each of them of the altitude or height of xiij. handfuls at the leaſt, to be meaſured from the loweſt part of the hoof of the foot vnto the higheſt part of the ſhoulder, and euery handfull to containe iiij. inches of the ſtandard, vpon paine of forfeiture of xl.s. for euery moneth lacking the ſame mares contrary to this Act: & that euery ſuch owner or fermer of parke or ground, whereof the compaſſe is iiij. miles and aboue, vpon paine afore expreſſed, ſhall keep for euery ſuch parke iiij. mares being not ſplaied, apt and able to beare foales, of the altitude or height of xiij. handfuls at the leaſt, to bee meaſured as is aforeſaid.

Prouided, that if it ſhall happen any of the ſaid mares by miſchance or caſualty for to die, that then the Lord, owner or owners of the ſaid Mares prouiding or buying others of like height, & altitude, as is before limited within iij. moneths next after the death of the ſame mares, ſhall not incurre the danger and penalty of this eſtatute, any thing before rehearſed to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Mares ſhall not be couered with ſmall horſes.

And it is alſo enacted by authority aforeſaid, that the Lords, owners, and farmers of all parks and grounds incloſed as is aboue rehearſed, limited and appointed by this Act to keepe mares, ſhall not at any time after the ſaid firſt day of May, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God M.D.XXXVII. willingly ſuffer any of the ſaid mares to be couered and lept with any ſtoned horſe vnder the ſtature of xiiij. handfull to be meaſured, in forme afore rehearſed, vpon paine of forfeiture of xl.s. The moity of all ſuch forfeitures ſhall be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other moity thereof to the party that will ſue for the ſame in any court of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, by action, bill, plaint, or information, or otherwiſe, in which action or ſuit the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his Law, nor any eſſoine or protection ſhall be vnto the defendant allowed in that behalfe.

To which counties this ſtatute extendeth not

No exactions ſhall be taken in the forreſts of Wales.

Where diuers and many forreſts be in Wales, and the Marches of the ſame, as well of the inheritance and poſſeſſions of our Soueraigne Lord the King, as of diuers others being Lords Marchers: within which Forreſts certaine vnreaſonable cuſtomes and exactions haue beene of long time vnlawfully exacted and vſed, contrary both to the la w of God and man, to the expreſſe wrong, and great impoueriſhing of diuers of the Kings true Subiects: The effect of which ſaid vnlawfull exactions and cuſtomes be hereafter declared, that is to wit, It hath beene there vnlawfully vſed, that if it fortuned any of the Kings Subiects to paſſe, goe, or ride thorow, or in any way or path of any of the ſaid Forreſts, not hauing vpon him or them, that ſo ſhall fortune to paſſe, goe, or ride, a token deliuered to him or them by the chiefe forreſters, rulers, walkers or fermers, the which token ſhall be well known amongſt all them that are walkers and rulers vnder him or them. Or that he or they that ſo ſhall fortune to paſſe, goe, or ride in, or thorowout any of the ſaid Forreſts be not yeerely tributors or chenſers, then he or they ſo going, riding, or trauelling, in, or thorowout any of the ſaid Forreſts, hauing no token, nor being yeerly tributors or chenſers, as is aforeſaid, haue vſed to pay by vnlawfull exactions, vnto the forreſters, rulers, walkers, & fermors of the ſaid forreſts, a grieuous fine or reward. In conſideration whereof it may pleaſe the Kings highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall, and temporall, and the Commons at this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, to enact ordeine, and eſtabliſh, that from the feaſt of the natiuity of S. And if any of the ſaid foſters, rulers, walkers, fermors or their aſſignes, or any of them doe deny the redeliuerance of all ſuch cattell, by them or any of them ſo ſeaſed or marked within any of the ſaid forreſts, after the owner or owners of them ſhall haue duly and lawfully proued them to bee his or their owne proper goods and cattels, as is aforeſaid, that then euery ſuch foſter, ruler, walker, fermor, or their aſſignes ſo doing, and offending contrary to this Act, to forfeit and pay vnto the party gréeued the double value of all ſuch cattell as ſhall be ſo taken and marked, and not redeliuered to the owner or owners, as is aforeſaid. Cap. XII.

An order for true making of Wollen clothes.

FOraſmuch as great infamy and ſlander hath riſen of late yeeres in ſundry outward parties beyond the ſea, of the vntrue making of wollen cloths within this realm, to the great derogation of the common weale of the ſame, & to the no little hindrance of the ſale of the ſaid commodity. For remedy wherof be it ordained & enacted by the king our ſoueraigne Lord, the Lords ſpirituall and temporal, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that after the feaſt of S. Michael the archangel next comming, all and euery Clothier within this realme, ſhall weaue or cauſe to be wouen his or their ſeuerall token, or marke in all and euery cloth, kerſey, and other cloths whatſoeuer they be, made and wrought to be vttered and ſold. And when any ſuch cloth ſhalbe ready made and dreſſed to be put to ſale, euery of the ſame clothiers ſhal ſet his ſeale of lead vnto euery of the ſame his or their cloths & kerſeies, in which ſeale of lead ſhal be contained the true and iuſt length of euery of the ſame cloths or kerſeys as it ſhalbe duly found by euery buyer of the ſame, vpon due proofe thereof to be tried by the water. And in caſe vpon any ſuch proofe to be made by any buyer of them at the water, there ſhalbe found leſſe or ſmaller content in length, than is contained and ſpecified in euery of their ſaid ſeals: then euery of the ſaid clothiers making ſuch default, ſhal leeſe & forfeit vnto euery ſuch buier of the ſame, the double value of ſo much cloth as ſhal want and lack of the ſaid content in length, at the only ſight and iudgment of any two indifferent perſons, that ſhal meaſure the ſame clothes and kerſeys. And euery clothier ſending or putting any of their clothes to ſell, before ſuch time as all and euery of the ſame clothes ſhall be ſealed by the aulneger of the ſame counties, where it ſhall chance any of the ſaid cloths ſo to be made: and alſo to be ordered & ſealed by euery of the ſaid clothiers in forme aforeſaid, ſhall loſe & forfeit his cloth or cloths whatſoeuer they be, the one halfe thereof ſhalbe to the Kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other halfe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, action of debt, or otherwiſe: in which action no wager of law, eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed.

Euery clothier ſhall weaue his marke in his cloth, and ſet his ſeale to it.

The penalty for want in length.

The clothiers forfeiture omitting his duty.

And it is further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that after the ſaid feaſt of Saint Michaell the archangel, euery broad cloth ſhall contain in bredth ſeuen quarters of a yard within the liſts at the leaſt, and to hold the ſame content alwaies if it be proued at the water. The Act made in

And bee it further enacted by the ſaid authority, that the Aulnager of any County ſhall not ſeale any of the ſaid Clothes with the Kings ſeale, vntill ſuch time as they and euery of them ſhall firſt be ordered, and ſealed with their contents, according to the true meaning of this preſent Act, in forme aforeſaid, vpon paine of loſing of his office. And that no buyer of any the ſaid cloths or kerſeis, marked and ſealed in form aforeſaid, preſume by any maner of ſleight, means or engines, to draw, pull, or to ſtretch out any of the ſame clothes or kerſeis, otherwiſe than to make them euen after they be wet, and to agree with the contents ſpecified and contained in the ſeale of euery of the ſame cloths and kerſeis, as neere as they can, vpon paine to forfeit the double value of euery cloth or Kerſey, ſo miſuſed contrary to the true intent and meaning of this preſent Act. To bee leuied to the vſe of the Kings highneſſe, and of any other that will ſue for the ſame, in like manner and forme as is before declared.

Cap. XIII.

Of what value clothes carried ouer the Sea may be.

The inconueniences which would enſue if the Stat. of 5.H.8 3 ſhould be put in execution.

VVHereas by Act of Parliament, holden in the fifth yeare of the reign of our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, it was ordained and enacted, that no wollen cloth aboue the price of fiue markes, ſhould be conueyed ouer the ſea vnrowed, vnbarbed, and vnſhorne, vpon certaine penalties in the ſame Act expreſſed more at large. Which Act being put in execution, ſhall not onely redound and turne to the abatement of the Kings cuſtomes, but alſo grow to the vtter vndoing of his Graces ſubiects, cloth makers, and merchants, conueiers of the ſaid cloths; by reaſon that wooll is riſen to a far greater price, than it was at the making of the foreſaid act. For where a cloth was then commonly ſold at fiue markes, it is now ſold for foure pounds. And alſo by force of the ſaid act, the merchants ſhould be bound to dreſſe euery white cloth aboue the value of fiue markes on this ſide the ſea, after that they haue bought them: which white cloth ſo dreſſed, when they be brought into the parties beyond the ſea, and there by the buiers of them died and put in colours, then they muſt be newly dreſſed, barbed, ſhorne, and rowed: and ſo they ſhalbe thereby the leſſe in ſubſtance of thēſelues, and the worſe to the ſale, and ſold for leſſe price by ten or twelue ſhillings apeece beyond the ſea, than they ſhould be vndreſſed. Wherefore be it ordeined and enacted by the King our ſoueraigne Lord, his Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That euery white wollen cloth ſold for foure pounds & vnder: and euery coloured cloth ſold for three pounds and vnder, may be carried and conueied into the parties beyond the ſea, there to bee ſold at the pleaſure of the buyers of the ſaid cloth or cloths vnbarbed, vnſhorne, and vnrowed: any act or act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Clothes of what prizes may be carried ouer the ſea vnbarbed, vnſhorn and vnrowed.

The penalties of the offendors

And ouer this be it ordeined and enacted by the ſaid authority, That if any perſon or perſons ſend or conuey, or cauſe to be ſent and conueyed into the parts beyond the ſea, any white wollen cloth aboue the value of foure pounds, or any coloured cloth aboue the price of three pounds vnrowed, vnbarbed, and vnſhorne, in other forme than is aforeſaid: that then the perſon or perſons ſo offending, ſhall forfeit the value of the ſaid clothes, ſo carried and conueied into the parties beyond the Sea: the one moity of the ſame forfeiture to be to the vſe of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the King, and the other moity to euery perſon which will or ſhall ſue by bill, writ, information, or otherwiſe, againſt any perſon for the ſame. And that the defendant in any plee, vpon any ſuch action be not admitted to wage his Law, nor any protection, or eſſoine for any ſuch defendant be allowed in the ſame. Cap. XIIII.

In what manner Cuſtome ſhall be taken for leather.

WHere great quantity & much abundance of leather is daily conueyed out of this realme, as well by ſtrangers, as alſo by tanners and other the Kings ſubiects, inhabited in diuers parts of this realm, towards the ſea coaſts, and in eſpecially out of Wales, Cheſhire, and Cornwal, where little or no cuſtome is paid for the ſame, which lether is commonly packed by the ſaid ſtrangers, Tanners, and other the Kings ſubiects in their houſes, and ſo conueyed vnto the Ports and Hauens, where they intend to ſhip the ſame: which packes ſo conueyed & brought to ſuch ports and hauens to be ſhipped, be neuer there vnpacked, to be viewed what number of leather is contained in any ſuch packe, but entered in the cuſtomers bookes, by, and vpon information, and report of the ſaid ſtrangers, tanner, or other perſon tranſporter of the ſame lether. And albeit that the Kings highneſſe in ſuch places and ports, hath very little cuſtomes paid for the ſame, yet for aſmuch as in ſuch places there is no better ſearch nor view had for the perfect knowledge of the number, and quantity of the Leather, ſo by them packed, the Kings grace is much deceiued of ſuch his cuſtomes, as ought therefore to accrue to his Highneſſe. For wherein the Port of London, two perſons be named and appointed by the weigher of the Wools within the ſaid Port for the time being, to tell and number all ſuch leather by the hide, accounting ten hides to the dicker, and alſo all woollfels, as within the ſame Port ſhall be ſhipped from time to time, which two perſons be ſworne before the Cuſtomers of his great Cuſtome, truly and duly to doe and execute their offices, in telling and numbring all ſuch leather and woolfels, in the preſence of the ſaid Cuſtomers, and of the Comptroler of the ſame Cuſtome or of their deputies, who being preſent and viewing the ſame, doe make entry thereof in their bookes. And after ſuch tale made and entry taken, another perſon by the Maior of London for the time being conſtituted and appointed, is alſo ſworne truly to packe the ſame leather ſo told and entred into the cuſtomers bookes, euery of the ſame tellers and packers taking ſuch fees for their labours, as of old time haue beene vſed, limited, and accuſtomed, euery ſtranger paying for cuſtome of euery dicker foure ſhillings and nine pence, and euery deniſen foure ſhillings and a peny, which like cuſtome is alſo paid in the Port of Hampton, but not in any other Ports of this Realme, and ſpecially in Wales, Cheſhire, and Cornewall, out of the which parts, by reaſon of ſuch ſmall cuſtomes, more lether is conueyed ouer the ſea, than out of other places of this realm̃, which is an occaſion of dearth and great prices of the ſame leather. For the redreſſe whereof, and to the intent that one maner of cuſtome for euery ſuch dicker of leather ſo conueyed ouer the ſea, as well by deniſens as ſtrangers, ſhall be paied thorowout this Realme, Wales, and other the Kings Dominions: and alſo that the Kings highneſſe may bee the better aſſured of his cuſtomes to be paied of all ſuch lether as ſhalbe hereafter carried and conueied ouer the ſea. Be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that from henceforth no manner ſtranger nor deniſen ſhal pack or cauſe to be packed any manner of leather to be conueied or ſhipped ouer the Sea, out of this Realme, Wales, or other the Kings dominions, otherwiſe than in this Act is expreſſed, that is to ſay, that all ſuch leather ſhalbe hereafter packed by a packer ſworn in euery ſuch port, where any leather ſhall be ſhipped to be conueyed out of this Realme, Wales, or other the Kings dominions, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch leather as hereafter ſhalbe packed contrary to the purport of this Act, or of the value thereof. And alſo that from henceforth euery ſtranger and denizen, which ſhall ſhip ſend or conuey any leather ouer the ſea, out or from any part of this Realme, Wales, Cheſhire, or other the Kings dominions, ſhall pay like cuſtome for the ſame, as is vſed to be paied within the port of London, that is to ſay, euery ſtranger to pay for euery dicker of leather for cuſtome iiij.s.ix.d. and euery deniſen iiij.s.i.d.

The manner of telling of lether in London, and entring the ſame into cuſtomers bookes.

How much ſtrangers and how much Denizens doe pay for the cuſtome of a dicker of leather.

Leather to be carried beyond the ſea ſhall be told and packed by a man ſworn thereunto.

And be it alſo enacted, that within euery port, hauen, and creeke, within this Realme, Wales, and other the kings dominions, where no tellers nor packers at this preſent time be, nor before the making of this Act haue bin, that from henceforth the cuſtomers and Comptrollers of euery ſuch port, hauen, and creeke, where ſuch lether ſhalbe ſhipped to be conueyed into the parties beyond the ſea, ſhal haue power by authority of this act to name, conſtitute, and appoint one able perſon to tell and number all ſuch leather as ſhalbe any time there ſhipped, which perſon ſo named, ſhall be ſworne by the Cuſtomer and Comptroller of euery ſuch port, hauen, and creeke, truly and duly to execute his office in the preſence of the Cuſtomer and Comptroller of euery ſuch port, creeke, or hauen, where any ſuch leather ſhalbe ſhipped, or of his or their deputy or deputies, the ſame Teller taking of euery ſtranger for the telling of euery dicker of Leather ſix pence: whereof the ſame Teller to haue for his labour two pence, and foure pence to be to the Comminalty of the ſame towne and port, toward the paiment of their fee ferme, and other their charges. And of euery Deniſen, not being a freeman of the ſaid port and hauen, for euery dicker foure pence, whereof the teller to haue two pence, and the other two pence tõ be to the comminalty of the ſame port or hauen, for the intent aboue declared: and of euery dicker by any perſon being a freeman of ſuch port and hauen, but onely two pence for his labour. And that immediately after ſuch tale had, and entry thereof made by the cuſtomer or his deputy, another able perſon named, deputed, and aſſigned by the ſaid cuſtomers and controllers of euery ſuch port and hauen and before them ſworne, truly and duly to doe and execute his office ſhall pack all ſuch lather ſo told and entred, euery pack to contain as many dicker, vnder the number of vij. dicker, as it ſhall pleaſe the merchant or owner therof to appoint, taking for his labour for the packing of euery packe foure pence.

The ſeuerall forfeitures of the packer and teller not performing their duties.

And be it further enacted by the ſaid authority, that if any packer take vpon him to pack any lether before it be told or numbred, and entry thereof made by the cuſtomer or his deputy, or at any time packs more leather than ſhall be told and entred, according to the purport of this Act: that then the ſame packer to forfeit & loſe for euery time doing the contrary. v. li. and to ſuffer therfore impriſonment at the kings pleaſure. And alſo that if the teller within any ſuch port or hauen, at any time hereafter, take vpon him to tell or number any leather in the abſence of the cuſtomer, controller, or of his or their deputy or deputies, then the ſame teller for euery time ſo doing to loſe and forfeit v. markes.

In what ſort a ſtranger conueying lether from one port to another ſhall vſe it.

And for as much as diuers ſtrangers carry and conuey their lether from one port to another, and by the way cauſe the ſame lether to be packed, which packes ſo conueied be not vndone nor opened at their arriual within the ports wherunto they be ſo tranſported: but there only entred by and vpon the report and information of the Marchant eſtranger, or of his factor, whereby much cuſtome is conceled. Be it therfore alſo enacted by the ſaid authority, that if any ſtranger or other his factor, at any time hereafter do conuey and carry any lether from one port to another, to the intent to ſhip the ſame in ſuch other port whereunto it ſhall be ſo conueied the ſame ſtranger, or other his factor for him, before ſuch tranſporting of the ſame lether, ſhall cauſe the ſaid lether, firſt to be told within the ſame port, from whence hee will or intendeth to carry the ſame: and the ſame ſo told, cauſe to be entred by the cuſtomer of the ſame port, or his deputy: & cauſe to be alſo packed by the ſaid packer of the ſaid port, where it ſhall be ſo told, taking of the cuſtomer or cuſtomers of the ſame port or hauen, or their deputy or deputies a certificat expreſſing the number or quantity of dickers of all the ſame lether, ſo to be carried & tranſported, directed to the cuſtomer of the other port or hauen, whereunto the ſame lether ſhal be ſo conueied, making mention alſo in the ſame certificat, whether the cuſtome thereof accordingly bee truly paid or not. And in caſe any ſuch leather be carried or conueied from one port to another, there to be ſhipped without hauing of ſuch certificate: that then the ſame leather, or the value thereof to be forfeited.

None hauing a Tanhouſe ſhall tranſport tanned leather, or vntanned.

And be it further enacted, That no Tanner within this Realme, Wales, or other the Kings dominions, or other perſons occupying or hauing a Tanhouſe, ſhall from henceforth ſend, or cauſe to be conueied ouer the ſea, by way of merchandiſe or otherwiſe, any manner of leather tanned or vntanned, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch lether, or the value therof. Nor that any perſon or perſons at any time hereafter, ſhall carry or conuey ouer the ſea out of this Realme, Wales, or other the Kings dominions, any ſalt or vntanned hides, or any leather called backes, or ſole leather, the Kings ſpeciall licence not obtained for the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch hides and lether called backs or ſole leather, or the value thereof: the one halfe of all the ſaid forfeitures to be to the Kings highneſſe, and the other halfe to any of his ſubiects, that will purſue for the ſame in any his Courts by action of debt, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, in which ſuit none eſſoine, protection, wager of law, or other dilatory plea, for the defendant ſhall be admitted or allowed.

The Captaine of a ſhip & owner of a ſhip, in ſome caſe excepted out of this ſtatute.

Prouided alwaies, that this act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not be hurtfull, nor preiudiciall to any captaine of any ſhip in the time of warre, being in the retinue and ſeruice of the Kings highneſſe, nor to any owner or maſter of any ſhip the Kings Subiect going into Iſland, danſke, norway, or ſouthward beyond the ſtraits: but that euery ſuch captain and maſter of euery ſuch ſhip, during the war time, and euery maſter of ſuch ſhips, paſſing into the places before named may and ſhall at their pleaſure haue and carry ſalt hides in their ſhips, ſo that euery of them ſhall not haue at ſuch voiage, or during the war at any one time aboue the number of viij. ſalt hides. Preſeruation of Hauens in Deuonſhire and Cornewall.

WHere by a Stat. made in this preſent parliament, for, and concerning the amending & maintenance of the hauens & ports of Plimoth, Dartmouth, Tinmouth, Falmouth, &

Fowey, in the Countie of Deuonſhire and Cornewal, among other things it was ordained and enacted, That no perſon or perſons, from, and after the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel, which was in the xxiiij. yéere of the reigne of the Kings highneſſe that now is, ſhould labour or worke, or cauſe to be laboured or wrought in any manner of Tin works called Streme works, within the ſaid Counties of Deuonſhire & Cornwall, nigh to any of the freſh waters, riuers or low places, deſcending, or hauing courſe vnto the ſaid Hauens or ports, or any of them, nor ſhould labour, digge, or waſh any Tin in any of the ſaid Tin workes, called Streme workes, vnleſſe the ſaid digger, owner, or waſher ſhould make, or cauſe to be made ſufficient hatches and tyes in the end of their buddels and cords, and therein put and lay, or cauſe to be put and laid all the ſaid ſtones, grauell, and robell digged, about the enſearching, finding, and waſhing of the ſaid Tin, there to be wholly and ſurely kept by the ſaid hatches and tyes, out and from the ſaid freſh riuers or water courſes or any of them, ſo that the ſaid ſtones, grauell, and robell, ne any part thereof, be for lacke of ſuch hatches or tyes conueyed into the ſaid Ports and Hauens, or any of them, vpon paine to forfeit for euery time that any owner or digger ſhould digge or waſh, or cauſe to be digged or waſhed any Tin contrary to the forme aforeſaid, x. li. A rehearſall of the Statute of 23. H. 8. 8. made for the preſeruation of Ports and Hauens in Cornewall and Deuonſhire.

And becauſe ſith the making of the ſaid Statute, the inhabitants of the ſaid Port townes, or Hauens, hauing little regard, reſpect, loue, or affection to the amending, and maintenance of the ſame Townes and Hauens, nor to their poſterity, as they béen naturally bounden and obliged, haue permitted and ſuffered the ſaid owners and diggers to perſeuere and continue in digging, ſearching, and waſhing of Tinne, nigh the ſaid freſh waters, riuers, or low places, not making ſufficient hatches and tyes, as by the ſaid Statute is prouided and ordeined, without any manner of ſuit commenced or purſued by the ſaid Inhabitants, according to the tenour of the ſaid Act, to the great animation and encouragement of the offendors, and to the vtter vndoing and deſtruction of the ſaid Port, Townes, and Hauens. The Kings Maieſtie minding, and intending the ſupportation, and maintenance of his ſaid Townes, and Hauens, and the animaduerſion and correction of the ſaid offendors, hath by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, ordeined, enacted, and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon or perſons hereafter ſhall labour or worke, or cauſe to be laboured or wrought, in any manner of Tin works, called Streme works, within the ſaid Counties of Deuonſhire and Cornewall, nigh to any of the ſaid freſh waters, riuers, or low places, deſcending, or hauing courſe vnto the ſaid Hauens or Ports, or any of them, nor ſhall labour, digge, or waſh any Tin in any of the ſaid Tin workes, called Streme workes, vnleſſe the ſaid digger, owner, or waſher ſhall make, or cauſe to be made ſufficient hatches and tyes in the end of their buddels and cords, and therein put and lay, or cauſe to be put and layd, all the ſaid ſtones, grauell, and robell, digged about the enſearching, finding, and waſhing of the ſaid Tin, there to be wholly and ſurely kept by the ſaid hatches and tyes, out, and from the ſaid freſh riuers or water courſes, or any of them, ſo that the ſaid ſand, ſtones, grauell, and robell, ne any part thereof be for lacke of ſuch hatches or tyes, conuayed into the ſaid Ports and Hauens, or any of them, vpon peine to forfeit for euery time, that any Owner, Tinner, digger, or labourer ſhall digge, or waſh, or cauſe to be digged or waſhed, any Tinne contrary to the forme aforeſaid, xx. li. The one halfe thereof to be to the vſe of his Highneſſe, and the other halfe thereof to be to any his Graces ſubiects, that will ſue for the ſame in any of his Graces Courts, by Originall Writ, Bill, Plaint, Information, or otherwiſe, wherein the Defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his Law, ne any protection or eſſoine ſhall be allowable.

They that worke for Tin workes, ſhall make hatches and tyes in the ends of their cords or buddels.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons ſhall happen to be ſued, accuſed, indited, impriſoned, amerſed, condemned, or otherwiſe vexed or troubled in his perſon, lands, Tin workes, goods or cattels by any of the Miniſters or Officers of any the Kings Courts of Stannerie, or by any other perſon or perſons for purſuing or attempting any ſuit or action according to this eſtatute, againſt ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall offend contrary to the forme aforeſaid: that then all ſuch ſuits, accuſements, inditements, impriſonments, actions, condemnations, fines, amerciaments, and euery other Act or Acts to bée done in any of the ſaid Courts of Stannerie, or elſewhere, by any perſon or perſons againſt any perſon or perſons for ſuing or attempting any ſuit or ſuits by vertue of this Eſtatute ſhall be vtterly void and of none effect in the Law. And that the partie ſued, indited, accuſed, impriſoned, or otherwiſe grieued or moleſted for purſuing againſt any perſon or perſons offending this ſtatute, ſhal haue his action & remedy grounded vpon this ſtatute by originall writ, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe in any of the Kings Courts, againſt ſuch as ſhall procure, or attempt, to vex, trouble, or otherwiſe moleſt any ſuch perſon or perſons for ſuing

There ſhall be no penaltie inflicted for proſecuting according to this Statute.

A remedy to releiue him that ſhall be impriſoned for ſuing according to this ſtatute.

And if it ſhall happen any perſon or perſons, for purſuing any ſuit or action vpon this ſtatute, or by occaſion of the ſame hereafter to be impriſoned by any manner of perſon or perſons being officers or miniſters of the court of Stannerie, their deputies or ſubſtitutes: that then euery of the Iuſtices of Peace within any of the Counties aforeſaid, wherein the ſaid priſoner ſhall happen to be committed to priſon, vpon credible information thereof, taking ſuretie by his diſcretion for apparance of ſuch priſoner at the next generall Seſſions of Peace, ſhall haue power and authority as well to direct his Warrant to the Gaoler or Keeper of the priſon, as to any other perſon or perſons, to whom the ſaid priſoner ſhall be committed vnto, commanding him or them vpon paine of forfeiture of xl. li. to deliuer and put at large the ſaid priſoner, or priſoners, which if he refuſe ſo to doe, then euery ſuch offender ſhall loſe and forfeit the ſaid xl. li. The one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the vſe of our Soueraigne the Lord King, and the other halfe to him that is grieued by reaſon of ſuch impriſonment, to be recouered in manner and forme aforeſaid. And the defendant in any action or ſuit for the ſame ſhall not wage his law, ne haue any eſſoine, or protection allowed. And if it ſhall appeare vpon the appearance of ſuch priſoner at the quarter Seſſions by examination of the Iuſtices of the Peace there being, that he was impriſoned contrary to the forme of this Statute: that then he ſhall be forthwith diſmiſſed, and thereby diſcharged. And if he were lawfully impriſoned for any other iuſt cauſe, then to be remaunded to priſon by the diſcretion of the ſaid Iuſtices.

Prouided alway, that this Act or any thing therein conteined be not in any wiſe preiudiciall, or hurtfull to any of the officers of the Stannery, ne to any of their lawfull liberties, priuileges, vſages, lawes, or cuſtomes, ſauing only in the caſes and prouiſions conteined and limited within this preſent Act: which ſhall alway be put in execution, according to the tenor of this Act; any vſage, cuſtome, priuilege, ordinance or libertie to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

And be it likewiſe enacted, that the kings highneſſe ſhall haue and enioy according to this Act, the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of all and ſingular ſuch Monaſteries Priories, and other religious houſes, as ſhall appeare by the ſaid certificat remaining in the Kings Eſchequer, not to haue in lands, tenements rents, tithes, portions and other hereditaments, aboue the ſaid cleere yeerely value of two hundred pounds: ſo that his Highneſſe may lawfully giue, grant and diſpoſe them or any of them at his will and pleaſure, to the honor of God and the wealth of this realme, without further inquiſitions or offices to be had or found for the ſame.

A prouiſo for the Cels of other Monaſteries being vnder obedience.

The right of Founders and Patrons ſaued.

And further be it enacted, that all and ſingular perſons and bodies politike and corporate, to whom the Kings Maieſty, his heires or ſucceſſors hereafter ſhall giue, grant, let or demiſe any ſite, or precinct, with the houſes therupon builded, together with the demeanes of any Monaſtery, Priories or other religious houſes that ſhall be diſſolued or giuen to the Kings Highneſſe by this Act, his Heires, Succeſſors or aſſignes, euery ſuch perſon, body politike and corporate, ſhall be bounden by authority of this Act vnder the penalties hereafter, to keepe, or cauſe to be kept, an honeſt continuall houſe and houſhold in the ſame ſite or precinct, and to occupy yearely as much of the demeanes in plowing and tilling of huſbandry, that is to ſay, as much of the ſaid demeanes, which hath beene commonly vſed to be kept in tillage by the gouernours, Abbots, or Priors of the ſame houſes, Monaſteries, Priories, or by their fermer or fermers, occupying the ſame within the time of twenty yeeres next before this Act.

Hoſpitality and huſbandry ſhall be kept vpon the ſite of the houſes ſuppreſſed.
Rep. 21. Iac. 28.

And if any perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporat, that ſhalbe bounden by this Act, do not keepe an honeſt houſhold of huſbandry and tillage, in manner and forme as is aforeſaid, that then he or they ſo offending, ſhall forfeit to the Kings Highneſſe for euery moneth offending ſix pounds thirteene ſhillings and foure pence, to bee recouered to his vſe in any of his Courts of Record.

And ouer that it is enacted, ye all Iuſtices of Peace in euery ſhire, where any ſuch offence ſhal be committed and doe, contrary to the true meaning and intent of this preſent act, ſhall in euery quarter and generall Seſſions within the limit of their commiſſion, inquire of the premiſſes, and ſhall haue full power and authority to heare and determine the ſame, and to taxe and aſſeſſe no leſſe fine for euery of the ſaid offences, than is afore limited for the ſame offence, and eſtreats thereof to bee made and certified into the Kings Eſchequer, according, and at ſuch time and forme, as other eſtreats of fines, iſſues and amerciaments beene made by the ſame Iuſtices. ANNO VICESIMO OCTAVO HENRICI OCTAVI.

ACTS made in the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter the eighth day of Iune, in the eight and twentith yeare of the raigne of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord King HENRIE the eight, and there continued and kept till the diſſolution of the ſame Parliament, the eighteenth day of Iuly. CAP. I.

Felons abiuring for pety treaſon, &c. ſhall not haue Clergy.

WHere in the laſt Parliament begun and holden at London, the third day of Nouember, in the one and twentieth yeare of the Kings moſt Gracious Raigne, and from thence adiourned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuers and ſundrie prorogations. It was enacted amongſt other things, that ſuch perſon and perſons which did flee or reſort to any Pariſh Church, Cimitorie, or other like hallowed place for tuition tion of his life, by occaſion of any murder, robbery, or other felony by the ſame perſon committed, and thereupon confeſſed any murder, felony, or ether offence before a Crowner, for the which the ſame perſon by the Law of this Realme afore that time vſed, ſhould abiure, and paſſe out of this realm, ſhould be directed by the Crowner to take his abiuration to any one ſanctuary being within this Realme, which the ſame perſon would elect and chuſe, there to remaine as a Sanctuary man abiured, during his naturall life. And if after ſuch abiuration, any perſon ſo abiured came out of the ſame ſanctuary to the which he was aſſigned, and be taken without the ſame ſanctuary, not hauing the Kings ſpeciall pardon or licence ſo to doe: that then euery ſuch perſon abiured, and after abiuration taken without ſanctuary, whereunto hee was aſſigned, ſhould ſuffer like paine of death, and after ſuch like manner ſhould be ordered, as he ſhould haue done, and biden, in caſe he had abiured this Realme for murder or felony, and after ſuch abiuration had returned againe into this Realme, contrary to the Lawes of this land. And it was further ordeined by the ſame Act, that if any ſuch ſanctuary perſon ſo abiured, or any other perſon or perſons which then were, or at any time after ſhuld happen to be in any ſanctuary of this Realme, for doing of any pety Treaſon, Murder or Felony, or for being acceſſary to any ſuch offences: or if any perſon or perſons, which at any time after the making of the ſame Act, ſhould take any Sanctuary of this Realme, for any pety Treaſon, Murder, or Felony, or for being acceſſary to any ſuch offences, or vpon abiuration: and ſo being in Sanctuary for any ſuch cauſe matter, or offence, afterward commit any pety Treaſon, Murder, or Felony, within the ſame Sanctuary, or bee acceſſary to any ſuch offences, or goe out of the ſame Sanctuary, and commit any pety Treaſon, Murder, or Felony, or be acceſſary to any ſuch offences, and afterward come againe to the ſame Sanctuary, or take any other Sanctuary for the ſame: that euery ſuch perſon and perſons, being indicted for any of the ſaid cauſes or offences, ſhould loſe the priuilege of the Sanctuary by him taken, and of euery other Sanctuary within this Realme for any ſuch cauſe of pety Treaſon, Murder, felony, or abiuration, or for any acceſſary to any ſuch offences.

Triall of forren Pleas.

No peremptory challenge aboue the number of twenty.

And it was further ordained by the ſame act, that all forren pleas triable by the country, which ſhould be pleded by any perſon or perſons arraigned vpon any inditment for any pety treaſon, murder or felony, ſhould be tried before yͤ ſame Juſtices, afore whom ſuch perſons ſhould be arraigned, and by the ſame Jurors of the County, that ſhall try the pety treaſon, murder, or felony, without any further reſpect or delay: and that no perſon arraigned for any pety treaſon murder or felony, ſhould bee admitted to any peremptory challenge aboue the number of xx. which act was made to endure to the end of the next Parliament, as by the ſaid Act amongſt diuers clauſes and prouiſions contained in the ſame, more plainly is expreſſed.

23.H.8.1.

Clergy taken from diuers perſons which doe commit ſeuerall offences.

And where alſo in the ſame Parliament it was enacted, yͭ no perſon or perſons, which ſhould happen to be found guilty after the lawes of this Realme, for any matter of pety treaſon, or for any wilfull murder of malice prepenſed, or for robbing of any Churches, Chappels, or other holy places, or for robbing any perſon or perſons in their dwelling houſes or dwelling places, the owner or dweller in the ſaid houſe, his wife, his children, or ſeruants then being within, and put in feare and dread by the ſame: Or for robbing of any perſon or perſons in or néere about the high wayes, or for wilfull burning of any dwelling houſes or barnes, wherein any corne or graine ſhall happen to be: nor that any perſon or perſons being found guilty of any abetment, procurement, helping, maintaining or councelling of, or to any ſuch pety treaſons, murders, or felonies, ſhould be admitted the benefit of their Clergy (ſuch as be within holy Orders, that is to ſay, of the orders of Subdeacon or aboue, all onely except) with many other clauſes and prouiſions contained in the ſaid Act, as by the ſame Act more plainly appeareth: which Act was alſo made to continue and endure to the laſt day of the next Parliament.

And where alſo in the ſame Parliament, it was further enacted, that euery ſuch perſon and perſons, which ſhould happen to be indicted of any pety treaſon, wilful burning of houſes, murder, robbery, or burglary, or other felony, according to the tenour and meaning of the ſaid eſtatute next aboue rehearſed, and thereupon arraigned, did ſtand mute of malice or froward mind, or challenge peremptory aboue the number of xx. or elſe wil not anſwer directly to the ſame indictment and felony, wherupon they ſhall be arraigned: that then euery ſuch perſon and perſons ſhould loſe the benefit and priuilege of their Clergy.

25.H.8.3.

And it was alſo ordeined by the ſame Act, that if any perſon or perſons be endicted and found guilty for ſtealing of any goods or Cattels, in any County of this Realme, or being indicted, ſtand mute of malice, or challenge peremptory aboue the number of twenty perſons, or will not anſwer directly to the Law, ſhould alſo loſe the benefit of their Clergy, in like manner and forme as they ſhould haue done, if they had béene endicted, arraigned and found guilty in the ſame County, where the ſame robbery or burglary was done, if it ſhall appeare to the Juſtices by euidence or examination, that the ſaid felons or robbers arraigned before them, ſhould or ought to haue loſt their Clergy by force of the ſaid eſtatute, in caſe they had béene found guilty of the ſame felonies or burglaries in the ſame Shire where they were committed, as by the ſaid Act amongſt other things more at large is expreſſed.

And whereas alſo in the ſaid Parliament it was further ordained, that the deteſtable vice of buggery, committed with mankinde or beaſt, ſhould be felony, and that the offenders therein ſhould loſe the priuilege of their Clergy: which act was made to endure to the laſt day of the next Parliament, as by the ſame act amongſt other things it appeareth more at large. For as much as the ſaid Acts be beneficiall and profitable to the Commonwealth of this Realme, Be it therefore enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Acts and euery of them, and all clauſes and prouiſions contained in the ſame, ſhall ſtand in full ſtrength and Vertue, and from henceforth to continue and endure vnto the laſt day of the next Parliament.

Cap. IV.

In what manner Dowlas and Lockeram ſhall be brought into this Land.

Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the third day of Nouember in the xxi. yeare of the reigne of our ſoueraigne Lord King Henry the viii. amongſt other things it was enacted and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon nor perſons, Engliſh nor ſtranger, deniſen or alien, from or after the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel then next following, ſhould bring or conuey, or cauſe to be conueied or brought by any manner of meanes into this Realme of England, any linnen cloth, called Doulas or Lockeram, vnleſſe euery whole peece of Doulas contained in length fiue ſcore elles of aſſiſe, accounted to euery ell one inch of aſſiſe, and in breadth one yard of aſſiſe: And euery halfe peece fiftie ells in length, and one yard in breadth of like aſſiſe, and all the whole peece and halfe peece of one goodneſſe in making. And alſo it was there enacted and eſtabliſhed, that euery whole peece of Lockeram ſhould be of like length as the whole peece of Doulas: and euery halfe peece of Lockeram ſhould be of like length as the halfe peece of Doulas, and euery ſuch whole peece and halfe peece of Lockeram to be in breadth a whole yard, lacking a nayle of the yard: and euery peece and halfe peece to be in like goodneſſe by all the length of the ſame peece, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame Dowlas and Lockeram ſo to be brought or conueied into this Realme, not containing the full length, breadth, and goodneſſe, or the value thereof, as in the ſame ſtatute more plainly at large doth appeare. Sithens the making of which act a great number of the Kings Subiects, that is to ſay, Weauers, Tuckers, Spinners, Diers, and Wolpickers, and many others haue been idle and without worke to their great vnpoueriſhing, which more and more is like daily to increaſe, if remedy be not prouided: For as much as the Clothmakers, which before the making of the ſaid Act, were wont to conuey their ſaid Clothes into Britaine, where the ſaid linnen Cloth called Doulas and Lockeram is made, and from thence to bring with them the ſaid linnen Cloth called Doulas and Lockeram, which they cannot doe ſithence the making of the ſaid act, without danger and forfeiture of the ſaid linnen cloth, by reaſon that there ſhall no Engliſhman be ſuffered to carrie or conuey any of the ſaid clothes, called Doulas or Lockerams, from the parties of beyond the ſea into this Realme of the length contained in the ſaid Act: which will make the ſaid Clothmakers to leaue the making of their cloth, to the great and manifold perils of the Kings Subiects: Be it therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid xxi. yeare, be to all intents, purpoſes, and conſtructions in the Law, made vtterly void and of none effect, as if the ſaid Act had neuer beene had or made. Neuertheleſſe to the intent that the buyers of the ſaid linnen clothes ſhall not be at any time hereafter deceiued by the length of the ſaid clothes.

A rehearſall of the Stat. of 21. H. 8. 14. touching the length and breadth of Doulas and Lockeram.

By what meanes the Stat. of 21. H. 8. 14. is preiudiciall to Clothmakers.

A Repeale of the Stat. of 21. H. 8. 14.

Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that after the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next comming, no manner of perſon Engliſh nor Stranger, Deniſen nor Alien, put to ſale any whole peece, or halfe peece of the ſaid linnen cloth, called Doulas and Lockeram, vnleſſe there be mentiō expreſſed vpon euery of the ſaid whole peece or halfe peece of the ſaid linnen cloth called Doulas, or Lockeram, ſo put to ſale, as is aforeſaid, the whole and entire number of the yards or ells, that is contained in euery ſuch whole peece, or halfe peece, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame whole peece or halfe peece, not containing the number of yards or ells, ſo mentioned vpon euery of the ſaid whole peece, or halfe peece, ſo put to ſale as is aforeſaid: The one halfe of euery ſuch forfeiture to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to him that ſhall ſeaſe and will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe: in which action, ſuit, or information, no wager of Law nor Eſſoine ſhall be admitted or allowed.

The contents of euery peece of Doulas and Lockeram ſhall be ſet vpon the cloth.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, be not preiudiciall, ne hurtfull to any perſon, or perſons, that before the firſt day of this Parliament hath made any ſeiſure, or put in any information into any of the Kings Courts for any manner of forfeiture, done, or committed by any perſon or perſons, contrary to the ſaid eſtatute, made in the ſaid third day of Nouember, the one and twentieth yeare of the reigne of our Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eight.

Information againſt offenders before this ſtatute.

Cap. V.

Exactions ſhall not be taken vpon Apprentices in Cities, &c.

WHere in the ſaid Parliament begun at London the third day of Nouember in the xxi. yeare of the raigne of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eight, and from thence adiourned & proroged vnto Weſtminſter, the xvj. day of Ianuarie, in the xxij. yeare of the raigne of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, and there then alſo holden: it was; and is recited, that where before that time it was eſtabliſhed, and enacted in the nineteenth yeare of our late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the ſeuenth, that no Maſters, Wardens, and fellowſhip of crafts, or any of them, nor any rulers of the gyldes, or fraternities ſhould take vpon them to make any acts, or ordinances, ne to execute any acts, or ordinances by them before that time made, or then hereafter to be made, in diſheritance, or diminution of the prerogatiue of the King, nor of other, nor againſt the common profit of the people, except the ſame acts, or ordinances were examined, or approued by the Chancellor, and Treaſurer of England, or chiefe Iuſtice of either Bench, or three of them, or before the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe in their circuit, or progreſſe, in the Shire where ſuch acts or ordinances be made, vpon paine of forfeiture of fortie pounds, for euery time that they doe the contrarie, as more plainly in the ſaid act doth appeare. Sith which time diuers Wardens, and Fellowſhips haue made acts, and ordinances, that euery Prentice ſhould pay at his firſt entre in their common hall to the Wardens of the ſame Fellowſhip, ſome of them xl.s. ſome xxx.s. ſome xx.s. ſome xiij.s. iiij.d. ſome vj.s. viij.d. ſome iij.s. iiij.d. after their owne ſiniſter mindes, and pleaſure, contrarie to the meaning of the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid xix. yeare of the ſaid late King Henry the ſeuenth, and to the great hurt of the Kings true Subiects putting their children to bee Prentices; It was therefore in the ſaid Parliament, holden at Weſtminſter in the ſaid xxij. yeare of the raigne of King Henry the viij. eſtabliſhed and enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aduiſe of his Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the Commons in the ſame Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that no Maſter, Wardens, or Fellowſhips of Crafts, or Maſters of any of them, nor any rulers of fraternities ſhould take from thenceforth of any Prentice, or of any other perſon or perſons for the entrie of any Prentice into their ſaid fellowſhip, aboue the ſumme of ij s. vj.d. nor for his entry when his yeares and terme is expired and ended, aboue iij.s. iiij.d. vpon paine of forfeiture of xl. li. for euery time that they doe to the contrary, the one halfe to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to the partie that therefore ſhall ſue by action of debt, information or otherwiſe, and that in the action aforeſaid, no protection, or eſſoine ſhall be allowed: As by the ſame act amongſt other things therein contained more plainly may appeare. Sithen which ſaid ſeuerall acts eſtabliſhed, and made, as is aforeſaid, diuers Maſters, Wardens, and Fellowſhips of crafts, haue by cautell, and ſubtil meanes, compaſſed and practiſed to defraud and delude the ſaid good and wholeſome ſtatutes, cauſing diuers Prentiſes or young men immediately after their yeares be expired, or that they be made free of their occupation or fellowſhip, to be ſworne vpon the holy Euangeliſt at their firſt entry, that they nor any of them after their yeares or time expired, ſhall not ſet vp, or open any ſhop, houſe, nor ſellar, nor occupy as free men, without the aſſent and licence of the Maſter, Wardens, or Fellowſhips of their occupations, vpon the paine of forfeiting their Freedome, or other like penalty. By reaſon whereof, the ſaid Apprentices and Iourneymen bee put to as much or more charges thereby than they before time were put vnto for the obtaining and entering of their Freedome, to the great hurt and impoueriſhment of the ſaid Prentiſes, and Iourneymen, and other their friends. For remedy whereof be it now, by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament eſtabliſhed, ordained, and enacted, that no Maſter, Wardens, or fellowſhips of crafts, nor any of them, nor any rulers of fraternities, gildes, or brotherhoods from henceforth compel, or cauſe any Prentice, or Iourneyman by oath, or bond heretofore made, or hereafter to be made or otherwiſe, that he after his apprentiſhip or terme expired, ſhall not

Cap. VII.

Touching the ſucceſſion of the Crowne.

IN their moſt humble wiſe ſhewen to your moſt royall Maieſty, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and all other your moſt louing and obedient Subiects, the Commons in this your moſt high Court of Parliament aſſembled, that where in your laſt Parliament begun and holden at London the third day of Nouember, in the one and twentieth yeare of your moſt Gracious reigne and from thence adiourned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuers and ſundrie prorogations vnto the fifteenth day of Ianuary, in the xxv. yeare of your moſt Noble reigne, and then there holden: It was made and ordained an act concerning amongſt many things as well for ratification, and confirmation of your marriage, then had and ſolemnized betweene your Highneſſe and the late Lady Anne Boleine Marqueſſe of Pembroke, as for the limitation of the ſucceſſion of your Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, to the iſſue of your body begotten, and to be begotten of the body of the ſaid Lady Anne, with diuers remainders ouer for default of ſuch iſſue, as in the ſaid Act plainly and particularly more at large is expreſſed and mentioned. And where alſo by the ſaid Act it was ordained and eſtabliſhed, that all and ſingular your Subiects ſhould take a corporall oath for the fulfilling, maintaining and defending the whole effects and contents of the ſaid Act. And it was further ordained by the ſaid Act amongſt other things, that if any perſon or perſons, ſubiect or reſiant within this Realme, or within any your Graces dominions, after the firſt day of May, then next enſuing, by writing, print, deed or act procured, or did, or cauſed to be procured or done any thing or things to the preiudice, ſlander, diſturbance or derogation of the ſaid Matrimonie, ſolemniſed betweene your Maieſty and the ſaid Lady Anne, or to the perill, ſlander, or diſheriſon of any the iſſues, and heires of your Highneſſe, being limited by the ſame act to inherit, and to be inheritable to the Crowne of this Realme, whereby any ſuch iſſues or heires of your Highneſſe might be deſtroyed, diſturbed, or interrupted in body, or title of inheritance to the Crowne of this Realme, as to them is limited in the ſame act: that then euery ſuch perſon and perſons and their ayders, counſellers, maintainers, and abetters, and euery of them, for euery ſuch offence, ſhould be adiudged high traitors, and that euery ſuch offence ſhould be adiudged high treaſon. And the offenders and their ayders, counſellers, maintainers, and abetters, and euery of them being lawfully conuict of ſuch offence by preſentment, verdict, confeſſion or proceſſe, according to the cuſtomes and lawes of this Realme, ſhould ſuffer paines of death, as in caſes of high treaſon: as in the ſaid act amongſt many other articles, clauſes, and prouiſions, is more at large mentioned and ſpecified.

A rehearſall of the Stat. of 25. H. 8. 22. touching the Kings marriages, and limitation of ſucceſſion to the Crowne.

And alſo in the ſaid Parliament holden at Weſtminſter by prorogation in the third day of Nouember in the xxvi. yeare of your moſt Noble reigne another act was made for declaration and ratification of the ſaid oath, which diuers of your Subiects then had taken, and all your Subiects after that were bound to take for due obſeruation of the ſaid Act of the ſaid Succeſſion, as by the ſame Act amongſt other things is alſo ſpecified and expreſſed.

Stat. 26. H.8.2.

And albeit moſt dread Soueraigne Lord, the ſaid Acts were then made, as it was then thought by your Maieſty, Nobles and Commons, vpon a pure, perfect, and cleere foundation, thinking the ſaid marriage then had betweene your Highneſſe and the ſaid Lady Anne, in their Conſciences to haue beene pure, ſincere, perfect and good, and ſo was reputed, accepted, and taken in the Realme, till now of late, that God of his infinit goodneſſe, from whom no ſecret things can be hid, hath cauſed to be brought to light, euident and open knowledge, as well certaine iuſt, true and lawfull impediments vnknowne at the making of the ſaid Acts, and ſithen that time hath beene confeſſed by the ſaid Lady Anne, before the moſt reuerend Father in God Thomas Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Metropolitane and Primate of all England, ſitting iudicially

The marriage betweene the K. and L. Anne Boleine was neuer good, nor conſonant to Law.

The Lady Elizabeth not borne in lawfull marriage.

Treaſon committed by the L. Anne Boleine and others attainted and executed.

for the ſame: by the which plainly appeareth, that the ſaid mariage betweene your Grace and the ſame Lady Anne, was neuer good nor conſonant to the Lawes, but utterly void and of none effect. By reaſon whereof your Highneſſe was and is lawfully diuorced, and ſeparated from the bonds of the ſaid marriage in the life of the ſaid Lady Anne. And this notwithſtanding moſt gracious Soueraigne Lord, the Lady Elizabeth your Daughter, being borne under the ſaid unlawfull marriage, by vertue and authority of the Act of your ſucceſſion aboue remembred, for lacke of heire Males of your body ſhould immediatly ſucceede as your lawfull heire in the moſt royall eſtate of your imperiall Crowne of this Realme, againſt all honour, equity, reaſon, and good conſcience, if remedy ſhould not be prouided for the ſame. And ouer this, moſt dread Soueraigne Lord, albeit that your Maieſty not knowing of any lawfull impediments, entered into the bonds of the ſaid vnlawfull mariage, and aduanced the ſame Lady Anne to the honour of the ſoueraigne eſtate of Q. of this Realme: yet neuertheleſſe ſhe inflamed with pride, and carnall deſires of her body, putting apart the dread of God, and excellent benefits receiued of your Highneſſe, confederated her ſelfe with George Boleine late Lord Rochford, her naturall Brother, Henrie Norris Eſquier, Francis VVeſton Knight, VVilliam Brereton Eſquier, Gentlemen of your priuy Chamber, and Marke Smeton Groome of your ſaid priuie Chamber, and ſo being confederate, ſhe and they moſt traiterouſly committed and perpetrated diuers deteſtable and abhominable treaſons, to the moſt fearefull perill and danger of the deſtruction of your moſt royall perſon, and to the vtter loſſe, diſheriſon and deſolation of this Realme, if God of his goodneſſe had not in due time brought their ſaid treaſons to light: for the which being plainly and manifeſtly proued, they were conuict and attainted by the due courſe and order of your common Lawes of this Realme, and haue ſuffered according to their merits, as by the records therof more at large may appeare.

A repeale of the ſtatuts of 25. H. 8. 22. and 26. H. 8. 2.

And albeit moſt Gracious and moſt dread Soueraigne Lord, diuers and ſundry honourable, iuſt, true and reaſonable clauſes be conteined and expreſſed in the ſame act, made for the eſtabliſhment of your ſucceſſion, which be very neceſſary and profitable for the common wealth of this Realme: yet neuertheleſſe becauſe certaine Articles and clauſes contained in the ſame, concerning the ratification of your ſaid vnlawfull marriage, betweene your Highneſſe & the ſaid Lady Anne, and the limitation of your ſucceſſion to the iſſues of your body had by the ſaid Lady Anne, and the other expreſſed and mentioned in both the Acts aboue remembred for the defending and maintaining the whole effects and contents of the ſaid Act, which clauſes and articles be now become of late ſo diſhonourable and ſo farre diſtant from the due courſe of your Common Lawes of your Realme, and alſo ſo much againſt good reaſon, equity and good Conſcience, that they cannot be ſuſtained, nor tolerated to continue, and endure without great perill of diuiſion hereafter to be had, by occaſion of the ſame amongſt vs your ſaid moſt humble, louing, and obedient Subiects, and our poſterities. It may therefore pleaſe your Highneſſe of your moſt excellent and accuſtomable goodnes, and for the entire loue, fauour, and hearty affection, that your Maieſtie hath alwayes borne, and beareth to the common wealth of this your Realme, and for the conſeruation of the good peace, vnity, and reſt of vs your moſt bounden and obedient ſubiects, and of our ſaid poſterities, that it may be enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid ij. acts and euery of them, and all clauſes, articles, and prouiſions therein contained, from the firſt day of this preſent Parliament, ſhall be repealed, adnulled, and made fruſtrate, & of none effect.

They ſhall not be pardoned which haue offended before the firſt day of this Parliament.

Prouided alway that the ſaid repeale, and adnullation of the ſaid Act, which was made for the eſtabliſhment of your ſucceſſion, ſhall not be taken, expounded, nor vnderſtood to diſcharge any perſon or perſons which haue done or committed any offences of treaſō, or miſpriſion of treaſon, contrary to the ſame act, or any part thereof, at any time afore the firſt day of this preſent Parliament: but that ſuch offences of treaſon and miſpriſion of treaſon, done and committed by any perſon or perſons, contrarie to the ſame Act, afore the firſt day of this preſent Parliament, ſhall be, and remaine in the ſame degree and quality to be puniſhed by authority of the ſame Act, as if the ſame Act had not beene repealed: the repeale and adnullation of the ſame Act by authority of this preſent Parliament in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Some vpon good will and meaning to the K. that haue ſpoken or written againſt Q. Anne or her daughter, L. Elizabeth.

Neuertheles the Kings moſt royall Maieſtie, moſt graciouſly conſidering that diuers and many of his moſt louing and obedient Subiects now lately afore the beginning of this preſent Parliament, haue ſpoken, done, practiſed, procured, and attempted, as well by word, writing, printing, as by exterior Acts, not onely againſt the ſaid vnlawfull marriage, ſolemnized betweene his Highneſſe and the ſaid Lady Anne, and to the preiudice, ſlaunder, diſturbance, and derogation thereof, but alſo to the perill, ſlaunder and diſheriſon of the Lady Elizabeth the Kings Daughter illegitimate borne vnder the ſame marriage, and to the let, diſturbation and interruption of the ſaid Lady Elizabeth to the title of the Crowne: and alſo to depriue the ſaid Lady Anne, late Queene, and the ſaid Lady Elizabeth, and euery of them of their dignitie, title and name of their royall eſtates, contrarie to the tenors, purports, prouiſions, and ordinances, as well contained in the ſaid Act made in the laſt Parliament for the eſtabliſhment of the Kings ſucceſſion, as in any other Act made in the laſt Parliament for puniſhment of treaſons. Which words, doings, practices, procurements, and attempts of his ſaid Subiects, albeit they proceeded of no malice, but vpon true and iuſt grounds, for puniſhment of the ſaid late

Lady Anne, according to her deſerts, and for reformation of the ſaid vnlawfull marriage, for the ſurety of the Kings highneſſe, and for the vnitie and wealth of his Realme: yet neuertheles the Kings ſaid Subiects might hereafter happen to be impeached, troubled, and vexed for ſuch their words, doings, acts, procurements, and attempts, as well by reaſon of the ſaid eſtatute, made for the eſtabliſhment of the Kings ſucceſſion, and now repealed by this Act, as by occaſion of other Statutes heretofore made for puniſhment of treaſon and miſpriſion of treaſon, to the great danger and perils of the liues, lands, and goods of the Kings ſaid Subiects, which only for hearty good will, and faithfull obedience that they beare to the Kings Maieſty, incurred into the ſaid dangers and perils: The Kings Highneſſe therefore of his moſt bountifull mercy and benignity is pleaſed and contented that it be enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, That all and ſingular his louing Subiects, which haue ſpoken, done, practiſed, committed or attempted, or procured to be done, or attempted directly or indirectly, by words, writings, prints, or any exterior act: any thing or things whatſoeuer it be, againſt the ſaid marriage, ſolemnized betweene his Highneſſe and the ſaid late Queene Anne, or for the ſetting forth or preferment of the diuorce or diſſolution thereof: or againſt the ſaid late Queene Anne, or the ſaid Lady Elizabeth, or to any of their ſlanders, perils or deſheriſons: or haue wiſhed, willed, or deſired by words or writings, or inuented, imagined, practiſed or attempted any bodily harme to the ſaid late Queene Anne, or Ladie Elizabeth, or to depriue the ſame late Queene Anne, or Lady Elizabeth, or any of them, of the dignitie, title or name of their Royall eſtates, or haue ſpoken, done, or procured to be done, any other words, writings, printings, wiſhing, willing, thing or things, Act or Acts againſt the ſaid late Queene Anne or Lady Elizabeth, which is or might be deemed or interpreted for Treaſon, or miſpriſion of Treaſon by any conſtruction vpon any of the Statutes of this Realme heretofore made, ſhall be freely and cleerely pardoned, diſcharged, and releaſed by authoritie of this Act, of all thoſe and ſuch Treaſons and miſpriſions of Treaſons aboue mentioned. And that none of his ſaid louing ſubiects for any of the ſaid Treaſons or miſpriſions of treaſon aboue mentioned and ſpecified, ſhall hereafter at any time, by any manner of meanes be empeached, vexed, or troubled in their bodies, liues, lands, goods or cattels, any thing in this Act, or in any act or acts heretofore made for treaſons or miſpriſions of treaſon, to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

They pardoned which ſpake or did any thing againſt the K. marriage, Q. Anne or Lady Elizabeth.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid late Queene Anne, George Bolein, late Lord Rochford, Henry Norris, Eſquier, Francis VVeſton Knight, VVilliam Brereton, Eſquier, and Marke Smeton, for their abhominable and deteſtable treaſons, by them and euery of them moſt abhominably and traiterouſly committed and done againſt your Maieſtie and the Realme, ſhall be by authority of this preſent Parliament conuicted and attainted of high treaſon, in ſuch manner and forme, and accordingly as they bee, by the due courſe and order of your lawes of this Realme. And that the ſaid late Q. Anne, George Lord Rochford, Henry Norris, Francis VVeſton, VVilliam Brereton, and Marke Smeton, and euery of them ſhall loſe and forfeit to your highneſſe and to your heires, all ſuch their manors, meaſes, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, remainders, vſes, poſſeſſions, offices, rights, conditions, and all other hereditaments, of what names, natures, or qualities ſoeuer they be, which they or any of them, or any other to their vſes, or to the vſe of any of them had, or ought to haue had of any eſtate of inheritance in fee ſimple or in tale, in vſe or poſſeſſion, at the dayes of their ſeuerall treaſons committed, limited, and expreſſed in their inditement, or at any time after. Sauing to euery perſon and perſons, and bodies politike, and to the heires, aſſignes and ſucceſſors of euery of them (other than to the ſaid late Queene Anne, and the other traitors afore named, and the heires, aſſignes, and ſucceſſors of euery of them, and all and euery other perſon and perſons claiming by them, or any of them, or to their vſes, or to the vſes of any of them, or to the vſe of any of their heires) all ſuch right title, vſe, poſſeſſion, intereſt, condition, fees, offices, rents, annuities, commons, and all other commodities, and hereditaments, whatſoeuer they or any of them might, ſhould or ought to haue had, if this act had neuer beene had, ne made.

Q. Anne Bolein and her complices attainted of high treaſon, & their lands ſhal be forfeit to the King.

The right of al others ſaued, but of the offenders, &c.

And ouer this, moſt Gracious Soueraigne Lord, for as much as it hath pleaſed your moſt Royall Maieſty, notwithſtanding the great and intolerable perils and occaſions, which your Highneſſe hath ſuffered and ſuſtained, as well by occaſion of your firſt vnlawfull marriage, ſolemniſed betweene your Highneſſe and the Lady Katherine, late Princeſſe Dowager, as by occaſion of the ſaid vnlawfull marriage betweene your Highneſſe and the ſaid late Queene Anne, at the moſt humble petition and interceſſion of vs your Nobles in this Realme, for the ardent loue, & feruent affection which your Highneſſe beareth to the conſeruation of the peace, and vnitie of the ſame, and for the good and quiet gouernance thereof, of your moſt excellent goodneſſe to enter into marriage againe, and haue choſen and taken a right Noble, Vertuous, and excellent Lady Queene Iane to your true and lawfull wife, and haue lawfully celebrated, and ſolemniſed marriage with her, according to the Lawes of holy Church: Who for her conuenient yeares, excellent beauty, and pureneſſe of fleſh and bloud, is apt, (God willing) to conceiue iſſue by your Highneſſe: which marriage is ſo pure and ſincere, without ſpot, doubt, or impediment, that the iſſue procreated vnder the ſame, when it ſhal pleaſe almighty God to ſend it, cannot be lawfully, truly, nor iuſtly interupted or diſturbed of the right and title in the ſucceſſion of your crowne: It may therefore now pleaſe your moſt gracious Maieſty, at the moſt humble petition, and interceſſion of vs your nobles and commons, aſſembled in this preſent Parliament, as well for the cleere extinguiſhment of all ambiguities, and doubts, as for a pure and perfect vnitie of vs your moſt humble and obedient ſubiects, and of all our poſterities, that it may be enacted by your moſt gracious and royall Maieſty, by conſent of vs the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame in manner and forme as heereafter in articles enſueth.

Q. Iane married to the King according to the Lawes of the Church.

First, foraſmuch as the marriage heretofore ſolemniſed betweene your Highnes, and the ſaid Lady Katherine, late Princeſſe dowager deceaſed, which afore was lawfull wife to your naturall brother Prince Arthur, and by him carnally knowen, as hath duly beene proued by ſufficient witneſſes, at all times was, is, and ought to be deemed and determined, to be againſt the lawes of almighty God, and not diſpenſable by any humane authoritie, and ſo hath beene deemed and determined, as well by the whole Clergy of this Realme, in both Conuocations, and by both the Vniuerſities thereof, as by the Vniuerſities of Bonony, Padua, Paris, Orleance, Tolowes, Aniew, and diuerſe other, and alſo by a great number of priuate writings of many right excellent well learned men: Be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, according as it was ordained, and enacted in the ſaid Act made in the laſt Parliament for the eſtabliſhment of your ſucceſſion, That the ſaid marriage heretofore had, and ſolemniſed betweene your Highneſſe and the ſaid Lady Katherine, which was before lawfull wife to the ſaid Prince Arthur your elder brother, and by him carnally knowen, as doth duely appeare by ſufficient proofe in a lawfull proceſſe had and made before the ſaid moſt reuerend father in God, Thomas, by the ſufferance of God Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Metropolitan and primate of all England, ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent Parliament diffinitiuely, cleerely, and abſolutely declared, deemed, and adiudged to be againſt the lawes of almighty God, and alſo accepted, reputed and taken of no value nor effect, but vtterly void and adnichiled: And that the ſeparation thereof made by the ſaid Archbiſhop ſhall be good and effectuall to all intents, and purpoſes, any licence, diſpenſation, or any other Act or Acts going before, or enſuing the ſame, or to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And that euery ſuch licence, diſpenſation, Act or Acts, thing or things, had, made, done, or to be done to the contrary thereof, ſhall be to all intents void, and of none effect, and ſo ſhall be reputed, and taken by and amongſt vs your true ſubiects and inhabitants, our heires and ſucceſſors of and in your Realme and Dominions for euer. And that the iſſue borne and procreated vnder the ſame vnlawfull marriage, made and ſolemniſed betweene your Highneſſe, and the ſaid Lady Katherine, ſhall be taken, deemed, and accepted, illegitimate to all intents, and purpoſes, and ſhall be vtterly forcloſed, excluded, and barred to claime, chalenge, or demand any inheritance as lawfull heyre to your Highneſſe by lineall diſſent.

The mariage betweene the K. and Queene Katherine void.

The Lady Mary illegetimate and not inheritable to the King.

And alſo for as much as the marriage ſolemniſed betweene your Highneſſe, and the ſaid late Queene Anne vpon true and iuſt cauſes, was, and is deemed, and adiudged by the ſaid moſt reuerend Father, to be of no value ne effect, and a diuorce and ſeparation thereof had, and made by the due order and proceſſe of the lawes of the Church of England, before the ſaid reuerend Father: Be it therefore enacted, by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that the ſame marriage betweene your Highneſſe and the ſaid late Queene Anne, ſhall be taken, reputed, deemed and adiudged to be of no force, ſtrength, vertue, nor effect: and that the ſeparation and diuorce thereof had by the ſentence and iudgement of the ſaid moſt reuerend Father, ſhall be good and effectuall, and ſo hereafter ſhall be taken and reputed for euer by all your ſubiects, their heires and ſucceſſors. And that none appeale, repeale, reuocation or adnullation thereof, or any part of the ſame, ſhal hereafter be had, taken, allowed or admitted in any behalfe. And that all the iſſues and children borne and procreated vnder the ſame marriage betweene your Highneſſe and the ſaid late Queene Anne, ſhall be taken, reputed, and accepted, to be illegitimate to all intents, and purpoſes, and vtterly forcloſed, excluded, and barred to claime, challenge, or demand any inheritance as lawfull heire or heires to your Highneſſe by lineall deſcent, the ſaid former Act made in the laſt Parliament, for the eſtabliſhment of your ſucceſſion, or any thing therein contained, or any other thing or things to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The mariage betweene the King & Queene Anne was void, and the ſeparation & diuorce betweene them lawfull.

The Lady Eliſabeth illegitimate, and not inheritable to the King.

And furthermore, ſith many inconueniences haue fallen, as well within this Realme, as in others, by reaſon of marrying within the degrees of marriage, prohibited by Gods lawes, that is to ſay, the ſonne to marry the mother, or the ſtep-mother carnally knowen by his father, the brother the ſiſter, the father his ſonnes daughter, or his daughters daughter: or the ſonne to marrie the daughter of his father procreate and borne by his ſtep-mother: or the ſonne to marrie his aunt, being his fathers or mothers ſiſter: or to marrie his vncles wife carnally knowne by his vncle: or the father to marry his ſonnes wife carnally knowen by his ſonne: or the brother to marry his brothers wife carnally knowne by his brother: or any man married, and carnally knowing his wife, to marry his wifes daughter, or his wifes ſonnes daughter, or his wifes daughters daughter, or his wifes ſiſter.

Marriing within degrees prohibited by Gods law, and which be thoſe degrees 28. H. 8. 16.

And furthermore to dilate, and declare the meaning of theſe prohibitions, it is to be vnderſtood, that if it chance any man to know carnally any woman, that then all and ſingular perſons being in any degree of conſanguinitie or affinitie, as is aboue written, to any of the parties ſo carnally offending, ſhall be deemed and adiudged to be within the caſes and limits of the ſaid prohibitions of marriage. All which marriages, albeit they be plainly prohibited and deteſted by the lawes of God, yet neuertheleſſe at ſome times they haue proceeded vnder colours of diſpenſations by mans power, which is but vſurped, and of right ought not to be granted, admitted, nor allowed. For no man, of what eſtate, degree, or condition ſoeuer he be, hath power to diſpence with Gods lawes, as all the Clergy of this Realme in the ſaid Conuocations, and the moſt part of all the Vniuerſities of Chriſtendome, and we alſo doe affirme and thinke.

No man can diſpence with the law of God.

Be it therefore enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, according as it is declared and contained in the ſaid Act, made in the laſt Parliament for the eſtabliſhment of your ſucceſſion, that no perſon, or perſons, ſubiects, or reſiants of this Realme, or in any your dominions, of what eſtate, degree, or dignitie ſoeuer they be, ſhall from henceforth marry within the degrees afore rehearſed, what pretence ſoeuer ſhall be made to the contrary thereof. And in caſe any perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, dignitie, degree, or condition ſoeuer they be, that beene heretofore married within this Realme, or in any other the Kings dominions, within any the degrees aboue rehearſed, and by any the Archbiſhops, or Miniſters of the Church of England be ſeparate from the bond of ſuch vnlawfull marriages: that then euery ſuch ſeparation ſhall be good, lawfull, firme and permanent for euer, and not by any power, authoritie or meanes, to be reuoked or vndone hereafter. And that the children proceeding or procreate vnder ſuch vnlawfull marriage, ſhall not be lawfull nor legitimate, any forraine Lawes, Licences, Diſpenſations, or other thing or things to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. And that in caſe there be any perſon or perſons within this Realme, or in any the Kings dominions already married within any of the ſaid degrees aboue ſpecified, and not yet ſeparate from the bonds of ſuch vnlawfull marriage, that then euery ſuch perſon, ſo vnlawfully married, ſhall be ſeparate by the definitiue ſentence, and iudgement of the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other Miniſters of the Church of England, and in other your dominions, within the limits of their iuriſdictions and authorities, and by none other power or authoritie. And that all ſentences, and iudgements, giuen and to be giuen by any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, or other Miniſter of the Church of England, or in any other the Kings dominions, within the limits of their iuriſdictions, and authoritie, ſhall be definitiuely firme, good, effectuall to all intents, and be obſerued, and obeyed, without ſuing any prouocations, appeales, prohibitions, or other proceſſe, from or to the court of Rome, to the derogation thereof, or contrary to the Act made ſince the beginning of the laſt Parliament for reſtraint of ſuch prouocations, appeales, prohibitions, and other proceſſes.

No perſon ſhall marry within the degrees prohibited.

There ſhall be no appeales to the Church of Rome. 24. H. 8, 12.

And alſo be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all the iſſue hereafter to be had and procreate betweene your Highneſſe, and your ſaid moſt deere & entirely beloued lawfull wife, Queene Iane, ſhall be your lawfull children and heires, and be inheritable and inherit, according to the courſe of inheritance and lawes of this Realme, the imperiall Crowne of the ſame, with all dignities, honours, preeminences, prerogatiues, authorities, and iuriſdictions to the ſame annexed or belonging, in as large and ample manner, as your Highneſſe at this preſent time hath the ſame as King of this Realme, the inheritance therof to be and remaine to your ſaid children and right heires, in manner and forme as hereafter ſhall be declared, that is to ſay.

Firſt, the ſaid Imperiall crowne and other the premiſſes, ſhall be to your Maieſtie, and to your heires of your body lawfully begotten: that is to ſay, to the firſt ſon of your body betweene your Highneſſe and your ſaid lawfull wife Queene Iane begotten, and to the heires of the body of the ſame firſt ſonne lawfully begotten. And for default of ſuch heires, then to the ſecond ſonne of your body, and of the body of the ſaid Queene Iane begotten, and to the heires of the body of the ſame ſecond ſonne lawfully begotten, as aforeſaid, and ſo to euery ſonne of your body, and of the body of the ſaid Queene Iane begotten, and to the heires of the body of euery ſuch ſonne begotten, according to the courſe of inheritance in that behalfe.

The crowne of England entailed to the King & to the heires males of his body begotten, with ſeuerall remainders ouer.

And if it ſhall happen your ſaid moſt deere and entirely beloued wife Queene Iane to deceaſe without iſſue male of the body of your Highneſſe to be begotten (which God defend) then the ſame Imperiall crowne, and all other the premiſſes to be to your Maieſty, as is aforeſaid, and to the ſonne and heire male of your body lawfully begotten by any other lawfull wife, and to the heires of the body of the ſame ſonne and heire male lawfully begotten. And for default of ſuch iſſue, then to your ſecond ſonne of your body lawfully begotten, and to the heires of the body of the ſame ſecond ſonne lawfully begotten: and ſo from ſon and heire male, to ſon and heire male, and to the heires of the ſeuerall bodies of euery ſuch ſon and heire male lawfully begotten, according to the courſe of inheritance, in like manner and forme, as is aboue ſaid.

And for default of ſuch ſonnes of your body lawfully begotten: and of the heires of the ſeuerall bodies of euery ſuch ſonne lawfully begotten, that then the ſaid Imperiall crowne, and other the premiſſes, ſhall be to the iſſue female betweene your Maieſty and your ſaid moſt deere and entirely beloued wife Queene Iane begotten: and for lack of ſuch iſſue, then to the heires females of your body lawfull begotten by any other lawfully wife: that is to ſay, firſt to the eldeſt iſſue female, and to the heires of her body lawfully begotten, and ſo from iſſue female to iſſue female, and to their heires of their bodies one after another by courſe of inheritance according to their ages, as the Crowne of England hath beene accuſtomed and ought to ſucceed and goe, in caſe when there is heire female inheritable to the ſame.

For default of iſſue male of the Kings body, the crowne ſhall deſcend to the eldeſt iſſue female of his body begotten.

The perils that might enſue to the Realme, for want of knowledge of a lawfull ſucceſſor to the Crowne.

And foraſmuch as it ſtandeth at this preſent time in the onely pleaſure and will of almighty God, whether your Maieſtie ſhall haue heires begotten and procreated betweene your Highneſſe and your ſaid moſt deere and entirely beloued wife Queene Iane, or elſe any lawfull heires and iſſues hereafter of your owne body begotten by any other lawfull wife, and if ſuch heires ſhould faile, as God defend, and no prouiſion made in your life, who ſhould rule, & gouerne this Realme for lack of ſuch heires: that then this Realme after your tranſitory life ſhall be deſtitute of a lawfull Gouernour: Or elſe percaſe encombred with ſuch a perſon, that would couet to aſpire to the ſame, whom the ſubiects of this realme ſhall not find in their harts to loue, dread, and obediently ſerue, as their ſoueraigne Lord. And if your Grace afore it may be certainly knowen, whether ye ſhall haue heires or no, ſhould ſuddenly name & declare any perſon or perſons to ſucceed after your deceaſe, and for lack of heires of your body lawfully begotten, into the royall eſtate of the Imperiall crowne of this Realme: then it is to be doubted, that ſuch perſon that ſhould be ſo named, might happen to take great heart, and courage, and by preſumption fall to inobedience and rebellion, by occaſion of which premiſſes great diuiſion and diſſention may be, and is very likely to ariſe, and ſpring in this Realme, to the great perill and deſtruction of vs your moſt humble and obedient ſubiects, and of all our poſterities, if remedy for the ſame ſhould not be prouided. For reformation and remedy whereof, wee your moſt bounden and louing ſubiects, moſt obediently knowledging, that your Maieſty moſt victoriouſly, prudently, politikely, and indifferently hath maintained, defended, gouerned, and ruled this Realme in good peace, reſt, quietneſſe and obedience, during all the time of your moſt gracious reigne, which wee moſt hartily deſire might continue for euer, putting all our whole truſt and confidence in your Highneſſe, and nothing doubting, but that your Maieſtie, if yee ſhould faile heires of your body lawfully begotten (which God defend) for the hartie loue and feruent affection, that ye beare to this Realme, and for auoyding all the occaſions of diuiſion afore rehearſed, ſo earneſtly mindeth the wealth of the ſame, that ye can beſt and moſt prudently prouide ſuch a Gouernour for vs and this your Realme, as ſhall, and will ſucceed, and follow in the iuſt, and right trade of all your proceedings, and maintaine, keepe, and defend the ſame, and all the lawes, and ordinances eſtabliſhed in your moſt gracious time for the wealth of this Realme, which all wee deſire, whereby wee your ſaid moſt louing and obedient ſubiects, and our heires and ſucceſſors, ſhall and may liue, as neere as may be, in as good peace, vnitie, and obedience after your deceaſe, as wee haue liued in the time of your moſt gracious reigne, Doe therefore moſt humbly beſeech your Highneſſe, that it may be enacted, for auoiding of all ambiguities, doubts, diuiſions, and occeſions in that behalfe, by your moſt royall Maieſty, by the aſſent of vs the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this your preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that your Highneſſe ſhall haue full, and plenarie power, and authoritie to giue, diſpoſe, appoint, aſſigne, declare, and limit by your letters patents vnder your great Seale, or elſe by your laſt will made in writing, and aſſigned with your moſt gracious hand, at your only pleaſure, from time to time, hereafter the Imperiall crowne of this Realme, and all other the premiſſes thereunto belonging, to be, remaine, ſucceed, and come after your deceaſe, and for lack of lawfull heires of your body to be procreated and begotten as is afore limited by this Act, to ſuch perſon or perſons in poſſeſſion, and remainder, as ſhall pleaſe your Highneſſe, and according to ſuch eſtate, & after ſuch manner, forme, faſhion, order and condition as ſhall be expreſſed, declared, named, and limited in your ſaid letters patents, or by your ſaid laſt will. And we your moſt humble and obedient ſubiects, doe faithfully promiſe to your Maieſtie by one common aſſent, that after your deceaſe, and for lacke of heires of your body lawfully begotten, as is afore rehearſed, wee, our heires and ſucceſſors, ſhall accept, and take, loue, dread, ſerue and alonely obey ſuch perſon and perſons, males, or females, as your Maieſtie ſhall giue your ſaid Imperiall crowne vnto, by authority of this Act, and to none other, and wholly to ſticke to them, as true and faithfull ſubiects ought to doe, to their regall Rulers, Gouernours, and Supreme heads.

If the King die without iſſue of his body, hee may limit the crowne to any by his letters patents, or his laſt will in writing.

A ſubmiſſion to the Kings Aſſignee.

And for ſure corroboration thereof, be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that ſuch perſon and perſons, to whom it ſhall pleaſe your Maieſty to diſpoſe, limit, and aſſigne your ſaid Crowne, and other the premiſſes thereto appertaining, by your letters patents, or by your laſt will, as is aforeſaid, ſhall haue and enioy the ſame after your deceaſe, and for lack of heires of your body lawfully begotten, according to ſuch eſtate, and after ſuch manner, forme, faſhion, order and condition as ſhall be thereof expreſſed, mentioned, and contained in your ſaid letters patents, or in your ſaid laſt will, in as large and ample manner, as if ſuch perſon and perſons had beene your lawfull heires to the Imperiall crowne of this Realme, and as if the ſame crowne of this Realme had beene giuen and limited vnto them plainly and particularly by ſpeciall names and ſufficient termes, and words, by the full, and immediat authoritie of this your moſt high court of Parliament.

And it is further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if any of your heires or children hereafter doe vſurpe the one of them vpon the other in the Crowne of this Realme, or claime or chalenge your ſaid Imperiall Crowne in any other forme, or degree of diſcent, or ſucceſſion than is afore limited by this act: Or if any perſon or perſons, to whom it ſhall pleaſe your Highneſſe, of your moſt excellent goodneſſe, by authoritie of this act to giue and diſpoſe your ſaid Crowne and Dignitie of this Realme, or the heires of any of them, doe at any time hereafter demand, chalenge, or claime your ſaid Crowne of this Realme, otherwiſe, or in any other courſe, forme, degree or condition, than the ſame ſhall be giuen, diſpoſed and limited vnto them by your Highneſſe, by vertue and authoritie of this act. Or if any ſuch perſon or perſons, to whom your Maieſtie ſhall hereafter giue, or diſpoſe your ſaid Crowne by authoritie of this act, or any of their heires, do interrupt or let any of the heires of your Maieſtie, that is, or ſhall be begotten, borne, and procreated vnder your lawfull, pure, ſincere and vndoubted marriage now had and ſolemnized betweene your Highneſſe and your ſaid moſt deere and entirely beloued wife Queene Iane, or any other your lawfull heires hereafter to be begotten of your body by any other lawfull marriage, peaceably & quietly to keep, haue, and enioy the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, and other the premiſſes, by courſe of inheritance according to the limitation thereof, expreſſed and declared by this act: that then all and ſingular the offenders in any of the premiſſes contrary to this Act, and all their abettors, maintainers, fautors, counſailors and aiders therein, ſhall be deemed and adiudged high traitors to the Realme, and that euery ſuch offence ſhall be accepted, reputed and taken to be high treaſon, and the offenders therein, their ayders, maintainers, fautors counſailers, and abetters, and euery of them, for euery ſuch offence ſhall ſuffer ſuch iudgement and paines of death, loſſes and forfeitures of lands, goods and priuileges of Sanctuary, as in any caſes of high treaſon. And ouer that as well your ſaid heires, and children, as euery ſuch perſon and perſons, to whom your Highneſſe ſhall limit your ſaid Crowne, in forme as is aforeſaid, and euery of their heires for euery ſuch offence aboue ſpecified, by them or any of them to be committed, ſhall loſe and forfeit as well all ſuch right, title, and intereſt, that they may claime or chalenge in or to the Crowne of this Realme, as heires by diſcent, or by reaſon of any gift or act that ſhall be done by your Highneſſe, for his or their aduancement, by the authoritie of this act, or otherwiſe by any manner of meanes or pretence whatſoeuer it be.

A meanes to preuent vſurpation of the Crowne, and the penalty of the vſurpers.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons of what eſtate, degree, dignitie, or condition ſoeuer they be at any time hereafter, by words, writing, imprinting, or by any exteriour act or deed, maliciouſly or willingly procure or do, or cauſe to be procured or done, directly, or indirectly, any thing or things to the perill of your moſt royall perſon, or to the perill of the perſon of any of your heires or ſucceſſors, hauing the royall eſtate of the Crowne of this Realme: Or maliciouſly or willingly giue occaſion by words, writing, print, deed or act, whereby your Highneſſe or any your ſaid heires or ſucceſſors, hauing the royall eſtate of the crowne of this Realme, might be diſturbed or interrupted of the Crowne of this Realme: Or by words, writing, print, deed or act, procure or do, or cauſe to bee procured or done, any thing or things, to, or for the interruption, repeale or adnullation of this act, or of any thing therein contained, or of any thing that ſhall be done by your Highneſſe in the limitation and diſpoſition of your Crowne by the authoritie of the ſame. Or by words, writing, print, deed, or act procure or cauſe to bee procured or done, any thing or things to the preiudice, ſlander, diſturbance, or derogation of the ſaid lawfull matrimonies, ſolemnized betweene your Maieſtie and the ſaid Queene Iane, or any other your lawfull wife, or wiues hereafter by your Highneſſe to be taken: Or to the perill, ſlander, or diſheriſon of any of the iſſues, and heires of your Highneſſe, being limited by this act to inherit, and to bee inheritable to the Crowne of this Realme, in ſuch forme as is aforeſaid: Or to the interruption or diſheriſon of any ſuch perſon or perſons, to whom your Highneſſe ſhall aſſigne and diſpoſe your ſaid Imperiall Crowne by authoritie of this act as is afore remembred: whereby any ſuch iſſues or heires of your Highneſſe, or ſuch other perſon or perſons might be deſtroyed, diſturbed, or interrupted in fame, body, or title of the inheritance to the Crowne of this Realme, as to them is limited in this Act, in forme aboue rehearſed, or as to them ſhall bee limited and aſſigned by your Highneſſe, by vertue and authoritie of this Act: Or if any perſon or perſons by words, writing, imprinting, or any other exteriour act, directly or indirectly accept, or take, iudge or beleeue any of the marriages had, and ſolemnized betweene the Kings Highneſſe, and the ſaid Lady Katherine, or betweene the Kings Highneſſe and the ſaid late Queene Anne, to bee good lawfull or of any effect: Or by words, writing, printing, or any other exteriour act, directly or indirectly ſlaunder, interrupt, impeach, gaineſay, or impugne the lawfull iudgements, and ſentences of the ſaid moſt reuerend Father in God, Thomas Archbiſhop of Canterburie, and Primate of all England, for and concerning the Diuorces and ſeparations of the ſaid vnlawfull marriages or any of them. Or by words, writing, print, or any other exteriour act, directly or indirectly take, accept, name, or call by any pretence any of the children borne and procreated vnder any of the ſaid vnlawfull marriages, to be legitimate and lawfull children of your Maieſtie. heires of their bodies begotten, or any other the heires of the Kings body lawfully begotten, or any perſon or perſons, to whom the Kings Highneſſe ſhall diſpoſe, giue, and limit the Crowne of this Realme, by authoritie of this Act, or any of their titles, ſtiles, names, degrées, or royall eſtates or regall power. Or if any perſon or perſons at any time hereafter, being required or commanded by the Kings Highneſſe, or by ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhall be authoriſed by his grace, or his lawfull heires, to make or take an oath, to anſwer to ſuch queſtions, and interrogatories as ſhall be obiected to them, vpon any clauſe, article, ſentence or word, contained in this Act, doe contemptuouſly or vtterly refuſe to make or take ſuch oath, or without fruſtratorie delay doe not make, or take the ſame oath: or after the making or taking ſuch oath, doe contemptuouſly refuſe directly to anſwer to ſuch queſtions and interrogatories, as ſhall be obiected concerning the ſame or any part thereof: that then euery ſuch perſon and perſons, of what eſtate, degrée or condition ſoeuer he or they be, and their ayders, counſellers, maintainers and abettors, and euery of them, for euery ſuch offence afore declared, ſhall be adiudged high traitors. And that alſo euery ſuch offender, being conuict as is aforeſaid, ſhall loſe and forfeit to your Highneſſe, and to your heires or ſucceſſors Kings or regall Rulers of this Realme, all ſuch manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities and hereditaments, which they had in poſſeſſion as owners, or were ſole ſeaſed of, by or in any right, title, or meanes, or any other perſon or perſons had to their vſe of any eſtate of inheritance, at the day of ſuch treaſons and offences by them committed, and done. And ſhall alſo loſe and forfeit to your Highneſſe and your ſaid heires, as well all manner ſuch eſtates of fréehold, and intereſt for yeares of lands, and rents, as all other goods, cattels and debts, which they had at the time of their conuiction or attainder, of any ſuch offence: Sauing alway to euery ſuch perſon, and perſons, and bodies politike, to their heires, aſſignes, and ſucceſſors, and to the heires and ſucceſſors of euery of them, (other then ſuch perſon as ſhall be ſo conuict, or attainted, and their heires and ſucceſſors, and all other claiming to their vſes) all ſuch right, title, vſe, intereſt, poſſeſſion, condition, rents, fées, offices, annuities, and commons, which they, or any of them, ſhall haue in or vpon any ſuch manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities, or hereditaments, that ſo ſhall happen to be loſt and forfeit by reaſon of any conuiction or attainder, for any the treaſons and offences aboue rehearſed, at any time before the ſaid treaſons and offences committed.

None that committeth Treaſon ſhall haue the benefit of Sanctuary.

Be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, offending in any the treaſons contained and limited by this Act, or in any other treaſons, ſhall in any wiſe haue and enioy the priuilege, or immunitie of any manner ſanctuarie within this Realme, or elſewhere within any the Kings dominions: but ſhall utterly loſe and be excluded of the ſame, any vſe, grant, cuſtome, preſcription, confirmation, or any other thing or things to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

If the King die, his heire within age, in whoſe cuſtody the ſame heire ſhall be.

And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if your Maieſtie ſhall happen to deceaſe before any ſuch your iſſue and heire male of your body, which ſhould inherite the Crowne of this Realme, ſhall be of his age of xviii. yeares, or before that ſuch your iſſue and heire female, which ſhould inherite the Crowne of this Realme, ſhall be married, or be of the age of ſixtéene yeares, (which almightie God defend) that then the ſaid iſſue and heire male to the Crowne, ſo being within the age of eightéene yeares, or your ſaid iſſue and heire female to the Crowne, ſo being unmarried, or within the ſaid age of ſixtéene yeares, ſhall be and remaine, vntill ſuch time as ſuch iſſues and heires ſhall come to their ſaid ſeuerall ages afore limited, at and in the gouernance of their naturall mother, and of ſuch other your counſellers, and nobles of your Realme, as your Highneſſe ſhall limit and appoint by your laſt will made in writing, ſigned with your moſt gracious hand, if it ſhall be thought by your Highneſſe moſt conuenient ſo to be: or elſe the ſaid iſſues and heires ſhall be at, and in the gouernance of ſuch of your Counſellers and Nobles of your Realme, as your Maieſtie ſhall name and appoint by your laſt will made in writing, and ſigned with your moſt gracious hand, as is aforeſaid. And for the more ſure eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of your moſt royall Maieſty, according to the tenour and forme of this Act, be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that as well all the Nobles of your Realme ſpirituall and temporall, as all other your Subiects now liuing and being, or that hereafter ſhall be at their full ages, by the commandement of your Maieſtie, or of your heires or ſucceſſors, at all times hereafter from time to time, when it ſhall pleaſe your Highneſſe or your heires or ſucceſſors to appoint, ſhal make a corporall oath in the preſence of your Highneſſe, or your heires or ſucceſſors, or before ſuch other as your Maieſty or your heires or ſucceſſors will aſſigne for the ſame, for the keeping, obſeruing, defending, auowing, and maintaining of this act, and of all things that ſhall be done by your Highneſſe by authority thereof, according to the tenour of an oath hereafter enſuing, that is to ſay, Yee ſhall ſweare to beare faith, truth and obedience all only to the Kings Maieſty, ſupreme head in earth vnder God of the Church of England, during his life, and to his heires of his body of his moſt deere and entirely beloued lawfull wife Queene Iane, begotten and to be begotten and procreated: And further to the heires of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord, according to the limitation in the ſtatute made for ſurety of his ſucceſſion in the Crowne of this Realme, in the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter on the eight day of Iune, in the xxviii. yeare of the Kings moſt gracious raigne. And alſo for lack of ſuch heires, to ſuch perſon and perſons as the Kings Highneſſe ſhall limit and appoint to ſucceed to the Crowne, by vertue and authoritie of the ſame Act, and not to any other within this Realme, nor forreine authority, power, or potentate. And in caſe any other oath be made, or hath beene made by you to any perſon or perſons: that then ye to repute the ſame as vaine and adnichilate. And that to your cunning, wit, and vttermoſt of your power, without guile, fraud, or other vndue manner, ye ſhall obſerue, keepe, maintaine, and defend the ſaid act of ſucceſſion made in the ſaid Parliament, begun and holden at Weſtminſter in the ſaid viij. day of Iune, in the ſaid xxviij. yeare of the Kings moſt royall reigne, and all the whole effects, and contents thereof, and all things that ſhall be done by the Kings Highneſſe by authoritie of the ſame, and all other Acts and Statutes made in confirmation, or for execution of the ſame, or of any thing therein contained: and this ye ſhall doe againſt all manner of perſons, of what eſtate, dignitie, degree, or condition ſoeuer they be: and in no wiſe doe or attempt, nor to your power ſuffer to be done, or attempted directly, or indirectly any thing or things, priuily or appertly, to the let, hinderance, damage, or derogation thereof, or of any part of the ſame, or of any thing or things that ſhall be done by the Kings Highneſſe, by vertue or authority of the ſaid Act, by any manner of meanes, or for any maner of pretence, ſo help you God, all Saints, and the holy Euangeliſtes.

All the Kings Subiects ſhall take an oath for the performance of this Act.

The forme of the oath.

A diſpenſation of any former oath, and the ſame ſhall be reputed as void.

And it is alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all manner your Subiects, as well ſpirituall as temporall, ſuing liuerie, or ouſtre le maine out of the hands of your Highneſſe, or of your heires or ſucceſſors, or doing any fealtie to your Highneſſe, or to your heires or ſucceſſors, by reaſon of tenure of their lands, ſhall ſweare the ſaid corporall Oath aboue mentioned, And that they, nor any of them, ſhall hereafter haue any liueries, ouſtre le maine, or reſtitution out of your hands, nor out of the hands of your heires or ſucceſſors, till they ſhall haue made the ſaid corporall Oath, in forme aboue rehearſed. And if any perſon or perſons, being commanded by authoritie of this Act, to make the ſaid oath afore limited, obſtinately or wilfully refuſe that to doe, or will proteſt and ſay, when they ſhall be examined vpon any Interrogatories, that ſhall be obiected to them, for or concerning this act, or any thing therein contained, that they be not bound to declare their thought and conſcience, and ſtiffely thereon abide: that then euery ſuch perſon ſo doing, for euery ſuch offence ſhall be taken and accepted for offender in high treaſon:

What ſort of perſons ſhall take this oath.

The penalty of refuſers to take the oath.

And that euery ſuch refuſall ſhall be deemed and adiudged high treaſon, and the offender therein, being as afore is limited, lawfully conuicted or attainted thereof by the lawes of this Realme, ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines of death, loſſes, and forfeitures, and alſo loſe priuileges of Sanctuaries, in like manner and forme as is aboue mentioned, for the treaſons afore limited by this Act.

And be it further enacted by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that if it ſhall pleaſe the Kings Maieſty at any time hereafter, by his letters patents vnder his great Seale, or by his laſt will made in writing, and ſigned with his moſt gracious hand, to aduance any perſon or perſons of his moſt royall bloud to any title, ſtile, or name, of any eſtate, dignitie, or honour, whatſoeuer it be, and to giue to them, or to any of them, any caſtels, honours, manors, lands, tenements, liberties, franchiſes, or other hereditaments, in fee ſimple, fee taile, or for terme of their liues, or the life of any of them: that then all and euery ſuch letters patents, and laſt will of his Highneſſe, ſo to be made to any ſuch perſon or perſons of his bloud, ſhall be good and effectual to them, and euery of them, according to the tenour, purports, and effects of euery ſuch letters patents and laſt will. And that the ſaid perſon and perſons, and euery of them, ſhall haue and enioy as well all ſuch titles, ſtiles, and names of honour, dignitie and eſtate, which ſhall be contained, and expreſſed in any ſuch letters patents or laſt will of the Kings Highneſſe, as ſuch caſtels, honours, manors, lands, tenements, liberties, franchiſes, and all other hereditaments, which ſhall be ſpecified, and mentioned in euery ſuch letters patents, or laſt will, in ſuch manner, forme, faſhion, and condition, and according to ſuch eſtate, or eſtates in the law, as ſhall be expreſſed and limited in euery ſuch letters patents, or laſt will, in as large and ample manner to all intents and purpoſes, as if the titles, ſtiles, and name of honour, dignitie and eſtate, and the caſtles, honours, manors, lands, tenements, liberties, franchiſes, and other hereditaments, which ſhall be compriſed in any ſuch letters patents, or laſt will to bee made, were

CAP. XI.

Fruits taken during the vacation of a benefice, ſhall be reſtored to the next Incumbent, whoſe charge for firſt fruits ſhall begin from the firſt Vacation.

16. H. 8. 3.

Foraſmuch as in the Statute of the paiment vnto the Kings Maieſty, his heires & ſucceſſors of the firſt fruits of ſpirituall promotions, offices, benefices, & dignities within this realme, and other the Kings dominions expreſſe mention and declaration is not had, ne from what time the yeare ſhall be accounted, in which the firſt fruits ſhall be due and payable to his Highneſſe, that is to wit, whether immediately from the death, reſignation, or depriuation of euery incumbent, or from the time of admiſſion or new taking of poſſeſſion in euery ſuch promotion.

And alſo by reaſon that in the ſame Statute it is not declared who ſhall haue the fruits, tithes and other profits of the ſaid benefices, offices, promotions, and dignities ſpirituall, during the time of vacation thereof, diuers of the Archbiſhops and Biſhops of this Realme, haue not only when the time of perceiuing and of taking tithes (that is to ſay) Wooll, Lambe, Corne, and Hay, and of tithes vſually paid at the holy time of Eaſter) hath approached, deferred the collation of ſuch benefices as haue beene of their owne patronage, but alſo haue vpon preſentations of Clerkes made vnto them by the iuſt Patrons, protracted and deferred to inſtitute, induct and admit the ſame Clerkes, to the intent that they might haue and perceiue to their owne vſe, the ſame tithes growing, during the Vacation: So that through ſuch delayes (ouer and aboue the firſt fruits, which be iuſtly due to the Kings Highneſſe) they haue beene conſtrained alſo to loſe all, or the moſt part of one yeares profits of their benefices, and promotions, and to ſerue the cure at their and their friends proper coſts and charges, or vtterly to forſake and giue ouer their benefices and promotions, to their great loſſe and hinderance.

For reformation whereof, it is ordained and enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the ſaid yeare, in which the firſt fruits ſhall be paid to the Kings grace, ſhall begin, and be accounted immediatly after the auoidance or vacation of any ſuch benefice or promotion ſpirituall afore rehearſed. And that the tithes, fruits oblations, obuentions, emoluments, commodities, aduantages, rents, and all other whatſoeuer reuenues, caſualties, or profits certaine and vncertaine, affering or belonging to any Archdeaconrie, Deanery, Prebend, Parſonage, Vicarage, Hoſpitall, Wardenſhip, Prouoſtſhip, or other ſpirituall promotion, benefice, dignitie or office, (Chauntries only except) within this Realme, or other the Kings dominions, growing, riſing, or comming, during the time of vacation of the ſame promotion ſpirituall, ſhall belong, and affere to ſuch perſon, as ſhall be thereunto next preſented, promoted, inſtituted, inducted, or admitted, and to his executors, toward the payment of the firſt fruits, to the Kings Highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors: Any vſage, cuſtome, liberty, priuilege, or preſcription to the contrary had, vſed, or being in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The next Incumbents charged to the King, ſhall begin from the firſt vacation of the benefice.

The fruits taken during the vacation of a benefice, ſhall be reſtored to the next Incumbent.
Coke pla. fo. 368.

And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Archdeacon, Ordinary, or any other perſon or perſons, to their vſes and behoofe, at any time heretofore ſith the firſt day of May laſt paſt, haue perceiued, receiued, or taken, or at any time hereafter doe perceiue, receiue, or take the fruits, tithes, obuentions, oblations, emoluments, commodities, reuenues, rents, aduantages, profits, or caſualties, comming, growing, or belonging, or which hereafter ſhall come, grow, affere, or belong to any Archdeaconry, Deanery, Prebend, Parſonage, Vicarage, Hoſpitall, Wardenſhip, Prouoſtſhip, or other ſpirituall promotion, benefice, dignitie, or office (Chauntries only excepted) within this Realme, or other the Kings dominions, during the vacation of ſuch Archdeaconry, Deanery, Prebend, Parſonage, Vicarage, Hoſpitall, Wardenſhip, Prouoſtſhip, or other ſpirituall promotion, benefice, dignity or office (Chauntries only excepted.)

And the ſame vpon reaſonable requeſt from henceforth to be made, doth not render, reſtore, ſatiſfie, content, and pay to the next Incumbent, being lawfully inſtituted, inducted, or admitted to ſuch Archdeaconrie, Deanery, Prebend, Parſonage or Vicarage, or other promotion, benefice, dignitie, or office ſpirituall, except before excepted: or doe let or interrupt the ſaid Incumbent to haue the ſame: that then euery Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Archdeacon, Ordinary, or other perſon ſo doing, ſhall forfeit, and loſe the treble value of ſo much as hee ſhall then haue receiued of the fruits of euery Prebend, Parſonage, Vicarage, Hoſpitall, Wardenſhip, Prouoſtſhip, or other ſpirituall promotion, whereof hee ſo ſhall perceiue, receiue, or detaine, let, or interrupt the Incumbent, to perceiue, receiue, and haue the fruits, tithes, obuentions, oblations, emoluments, commodities, reuenues, rents, aduantages, profits, or caſualties: The moity of which forfeiture ſhall be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other moity thereof to the Incumbent of the ſame Prebend, Parſonage, or Vicarage, or other ſpirituall promotion, to be recouered in any of the Kings Courts by action, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, in which action or ſuit the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor any protection, or eſſoyne ſhall be vnto the defendant allowed.

The forfeiture of the Ordinarie which receiueth the fruits of a benefice during the vacation, and doth not reſtore them to the next Incumbent.

Prouided alway, that it ſhall be lawfull to euery Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Archdeacon, and Ordinarie, their officers and Miniſters, to retaine in his or their cuſtody, ſo much of the tithes, fruits, obuentions, oblations, emoluments, commodities, aduantages, rents, reuenues, caſualties, and profits, as ſhall amount to pay vnto ſuch perſon or perſons, as hath or ſhall ſerue or keep the cure of ſuch Archdeaconry, Deanery, Prebend, Parſonage, or Vicarage, or other ſpirituall promotion, during the vacation, his or their reaſonable ſtipend, or ſalary. And alſo for the collection, gathering, and leuying of ſuch tithes, fruits, emoluments, rents and other profits, riſing, and growing during the vacation aforeſaid: any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

What part of the fruits of a benefice the ordinary may retaine in his hands, and for what cauſes.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any of the Incumbents aforeſaid, happen to dye, and before his death hath cauſed any of his glebe landes to be [a] manured and ſowen at his proper coſtes and charges with any corne or graine: that then in that caſe, all and euery of the ſame Incumbents may make and declare their teſtaments of all the profits of the corne, growing vpon the ſame glebe lands, ſo manured and ſowen. Any thing contained in this preſent Act in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Incumbents may declare their wils of any corne ſowen by them vpon their glebe lands.

And where alſo before this time diuerſe and many Parſons, Vicars, and other ſpirituall perſons, being ſeaſed for terme of their liues, of and in the ſaid ſpirituall promotions aforenamed, as well for great ſummes of mony to them before hand paid, as for other cauſes and conſiderations, haue let in ferme for terme of yeares, by ſufficient writings, their ſaid parſonages, vicarages, and other ſpirituall promotions, or part thereof, vnto diuerſe and many of the Kings Subiects, and after ſuch leaſes by them ſo made, the Leaſors thereof haue often times vſed to reſigne their ſaid benefices, or ſpirituall promotions, ſo demiſed and letten in ferme: by reaſon of which reſignation, and other the acts of the ſaid Leaſors, the ſaid benefices, and other ſpirituall promotions haue beene void, and the title and intereſts of the ſaid leaſes, hath beene thereby adnichilate, and of none effect in the Law, contrary to right and good conſcience. For reformation whereof, and for a quietneſſe the better hereafter to be had and continued betweene the Kings Subiects: Be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that from the foreſaid firſt day of May laſt paſt, no manner of ſuch leaſe, by ſufficient writing heretofore made, nor hereafter to be made by any ſpirituall perſon within this Realme of England, Wales, or the Marches of the ſame, to any lay perſon, of any Parſonage, Vicarage, or other ſpirituall promotion aforeſaid within this Realme, vpon which leaſe the rent and ſeruices reſerued, with other the yearely charges of the leaſe, as in ſeruing the cure, and otherwiſe, ſhall amount within forty ſhillings by the yeare, of as much as the ſaid Parſonage, Vicarage, or other ſpirituall promotion aforeſaid, ſo letten, is rated and valued at, vpon the Kings bookes, for paying the firſt fruits, ſhall be adiudged void, adnichilate, or determined, by reaſon of any ſuch reſignation, or other auoidance of the ſaid benefice or ſpirituall promotion ſo letten by the only act of the ſaid leaſor, but that euery ſuch leaſſee or grantee of any ſuch benefices or ſpirituall promotions aforeſaid, their executors or aſſignes, ſhall haue and may enioy their termes and intereſts of, and in the ſame, for the terme of ſix yeares, to be accounted next and immediately after the ſaid auoydance, if the ſaid leaſor doe ſo long liue, and the leaſe ſo by him before made, do ſo long continue and endure. And that after ſuch auoidance, the ſucceſſor or ſucceſſors of euery ſuch leaſor ſhall and may diſtraine for the rent and ſeruices ſo reſerued, and haue their actions of debt, and all other aduantages by way of action, entry, or otherwiſe, againſt the ſaid leſſee, his executors or aſſignes, for recouery of the ſaid rent, and couenants vpon the ſaid leaſe reſerued, as the leaſour thereof might haue had, if no ſuch auoidance had beene had.

If a ſpirituall perſon do demiſe his benefice for yeares and after doth reſigne or die, how long the leſſee may enioy it. ALT. 1. & 2. P. & M. 17.

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if hereafter it happen any ſuch leaſour to deceaſe, and dye before the end of the terme by him ſo made, and that there be one yeare at leaſt to come of the ſaid terme: that then it ſhall be lawfull to the leaſee thereof, his executors or aſſignes, to hold and enioy their ſaid leaſe to the end of the ſame yeare, wherein he is ſo entered at the time of his ſaid leaſors death, if his ſaid leaſe doe ſo long continue, bearing and paying vnto the ſucceſſor of euery ſuch leaſor, all ſuch rent and ſeruices, as for the remnant of the ſaid yeare ſhall vpon euery ſuch leaſe be due: for the recouery whereof the ſaid ſucceſſor ſhall and may haue all ſuch wayes and aduantages, as before is limited and giuen to the ſucceſſor, where his predeceſſor maketh ſuch leaſe and reſigneth.

The ſucceſſor ſhall haue the parſonage houſe, and the glebe not ſowne.

Prouided alway, that euery ſucceſſor after the death of his predeceſſor, may and ſhall haue vpon one moneths warning after the time of his induction, the manſion houſe of euery ſuch parſonage, vicarage, or other ſpirituall promotion aforeſaid, with the glebe belonging to the ſame, not being ſowne at the time of his ſaid predeceſſors death, for maintenance of his houſhold, deducting therefore in his rent as heretofore hath beene borne for the ſame, or as it is reaſonably worth: any thing in this ſaid act contained to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

How the Curat ſhall be paid his wages, if the fruit be not ſufficient.

Prouided alway, that if the fruits of the vacation of the ſaid ſpirituall promotions be not ſufficient to pay the Curates ſtipend, and wages for ſeruing the cure the vacation time, that then the ſame time to be borne and paid by the next incumbent within xiiii. dayes next after that he hath the poſſeſſion of the ſaid promotions ſpirituall. 1. El. 4.

CAP. XIII.

Which ſpirituall perſons ſhall be reſident vpon their benefices, and which not, and for what cauſes.

A rehearſall of 21. H. 8. 13. touching reſidence of ſpiritual perſons vpon their benefices.

WHere in the Parliament begun at London, the third day of Nouember, in the xxi. yeare of the reigne of our Soueraigne Lord King Henry the viij. and from thence adiorned and proroged to the Palace of Weſtminſter, the xvij. day of December then next enſuing, amongſt other good acts and ordinances, then and there by the authority of the ſaid Parliament, it was eſtabliſhed ordained and enacted, that as well euery ſpirituall perſon, then being promoted to any Archdeaconry, Deanry, or dignitie in any Monaſtery, or Cathedrall Church, or other Church conuentuall or collegiall, or being beneficed with any Parſonage or Vicarage, as all and euery ſpirituall perſon and perſons, which ſhould after the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell, which was in the foreſaid xxi. yeare of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord K. Henry the viii. be promoted to any of the ſaid dignities or benefices with any parſonage or vicarage, ſhould from the ſaid feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell, be perſonally reſident and abiding at and vpon his ſaid dignity, prebend or benefice, or at one of them at the leaſt. And in caſe any ſuch ſpirituall perſon at any time after the ſaid feaſt, kept not reſidence at one of his ſaid dignities, prebend or benefices (as is aforeſaid) but abſent himſelfe wilfully by the ſpace of one moneth together, or by the ſpace of two moneths, to be accounted at ſeuerall times in any one yeare, and make his reſidence and abiding in any other places by ſuch time: that then he ſhall forfeit for euery ſuch default, x. pound ſterling, as in the ſame act more plainly doth appeare. In which act among other prouiſions contained and ſpecified in the ſame, it was prouided, that the ſaid act of none reſidence ſhould not in any wiſe extend ne be preiudicall to any Scholler or Schollers, being conuerſant & abiding for ſtudy without fraud or couin at any Vniuerſitie within this Realme, or without, as by the ſame prouiſion doth alſo appeare more at large. Sithence the making of which good act and ſtatute, diuers and many perſons being beneficed with cure of ſoule (as is aforeſaid) and being not apt to ſtudy by reaſon of their age, or otherwiſe, ne neuer extending before the making of the ſaid act to trauell in ſtudy within any of the ſaid Vniuerſities, for the increaſe of learning, but rather minding and intending their owne eaſe, ſinguler lucre and pleaſure, by the ſame prouiſion colourably to defraud the ſame good ſtatute and ordinance, doe daily and commonly reſort and repaire to the ſaid Vniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, and to either of them, where they vnder the ſaid pretence and color of ſtudy doe continue and abide, liuing diſſolutely, nothing profiting themſelues by ſtudy at all in learning, but conſume the time in idleneſſe, and in other paſtimes and inſolent pleaſures, giuing occaſion and euill example thereby to other young men and ſtudents within the ſaid Vniuerſities, little or nothing regarding their cure, & charge of ſoules, contrary to the mindes, and intent of the makers of the foreſaid good ſtatute and ordinance. And alſo diuers and many old beneficed men haue and doe continually remaine there, neuer exerciſing nor practiſing their learning, to the example of vertue, and maintainance of the Common weale, in diſcharge of their conſcience, according to their duety, hauing neuertheleſſe, and occupying ſuch roomes and commodities as were inſtituted and ordained for the maintenance and releefe of poore Schollers, to the great hinderance and detriment of the ſame.

Generall perſons vnder the color of ſtudy in one of the Vniuerſities do endeuour to defraud the meaning of the ſtatute of 21.H.8. 13.

Be it therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That all and ſingular ſpirituall perſon and perſons, which now be, or hereafter ſhall be to any benefice or benefices promoted as is aforeſaid, being aboue the age of xl. yeares, (the Chancellor, Vicechancellor, Commiſſary of the ſaid Vniuerſities, or any of them; Wardens, Deanes, Prouoſts, Preſidents, Rectors, Maſters, Principals, and other head Rulers of Colleges, Hals, and other Houſes or places Corporate within the ſaid Vniuerſities, or any of them; Doctors of the Chaire, Readers of Diuinity, in the common ſchools of Diuinity, in any of the ſaid Vniuerſities only excepted) ſhall be reſident and abiding at, and vpon one of their ſaid benefices, according to the intent and true meaning of the ſaid former act, vpon ſuch paine and penalties as be contained in the ſaid former act, made and appointed for ſuch beneficed perſons for their none reſidence. And that none of the ſaid beneficed perſons being aboue the age aforeſaid, except before except, ſhal from henceforth be excuſed of their none reſidence vpon the ſaid benefices, for that they be ſtudents or reſiant within the ſaid Vniuerſities or any of them: any prouiſo, or any other clauſe or ſentence ſpecified or contained in the ſaid former act of none reſidence, or any other thing or things to the contrarie hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Which ſpirituall perſons may be diſcharged from reſidence vpon their benefices, and for what cauſe.

And ouer this be it enacted by the authority beforeſaid, that all and ſingular ſuch beneficed perſons being vnder the age of xl. yeares, reſiant and abiding within the ſaid Vniuerſities, or any of them, ſhall not enioy the priuilege and liberty of none reſidence contained in the prouiſo of the ſaid former act, made for the Schollers of the ſaid Vniuerſities or any of them, vnleſſe hee or they be preſent at the ordinary Lecture and Lectures, as well at home in their houſes, as in the common ſchoole or ſchooles: and in their proper perſon keeps ſophemes, problemes, diſputations, and other exerciſes of learning, and be opponent, and reſpondent in the ſame, according to the ordinances and ſtatutes of either of the ſaid Vniuerſities, where he or they ſhall be ſo abiding or reſiant, any thing contained in the ſaid prouiſo or former act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Prouided alway that this act ſhall begin to take effect at the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell next comming, and not before.

Prouided alway, that this act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to any perſon or perſons, which now is, or hereafter ſhall be readers of any publique, or common Lecture in Diuinity, Law ciuill, Phiſick, Philoſophy, Humanity, or of any of the liberall ſciences, or publike, or common interpreters or teachers of the Hebrew tongue, Caldy, or Greeke, in whatſoeuer College or place of any of the ſaid Vniuerſities the ſaid perſons for the time being, ſhall read the ſaid common or publique Lectures: Nor yet to any perſon or perſons, which after or aboue the age of xl. yeares, which ſhall reſort to any of the ſaid Vniuerſities to proceed Doctors in Diuinity, Law ciuill, or Phyſicke, for the time of their ſaid proceedings, and executing of ſuch Sermons, Diſputations, or Lectures, which they be bound by the Statutes of the Vniuerſities there to doe for the ſaid degrees ſo obtained.

Readers of Lectures or interpreters of tongues in either of the Vniuerſities.

Proceeding Doctor in Diuinity, Law, or Phyſicke.

CAP. XIV.

At what prices Wines ſhall be ſold.

No perſon ſhall ſell Gaſcoyne or Guyon wine aboue viii.d. the galon. Stat.7.Ed.6.5. 5.El.5. REP.1.Iac.25. & 21.Iac.28.

BE it enacted by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that no perſon or perſons ſhall ſell any Gaſcoyne, Guyon, or French Wines aboue viij. pence the galon, that is to ſay, a penny the pint, two pence the quart, foure pence the pottle, and eight pence the Galon, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery pint to be ſold aboue the ſaid price, foure pence, and for euery quart ſold aboue the ſaid price, viij.d. and for euery pottle ſo ſold aboue the ſaid price, xii. d. And for euery galon ſo ſold, aboue the ſaid price afore limited, ij.s. And that no Malmeſeyes, Romneyes, Sacks, nor other ſweet Wines ſhall be ſold by retaile aboue xii. pence the galon, vi. pence the pottell, iii. pence the quart, and i.d.ob. the pint, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit iij.s.iiij.d. for euery galon, xx. pence for euery pottle, xii. d. for euery quart, and vi. pence for euery pint that ſhall be ſold contrary to this Act.

The prices of veſſels of wines ſhall be aſſeſſed by the Kings great Officers. St.37.H.8.23. 34.H.8.7.

Prouided alway, that the Lord Chancellor, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Preſident of the Kings moſt honorable Councell, Lord Priuy-ſeale, and the two chiefe Iuſtices of either Bench, or fiue, foure or thrée of them, ſhall haue power and authoritie by their diſcretions, to ſet the prices of all kinde of wines, that is to ſay, of the prices of the butte, ton, pype, hoggeſhead, poncheon, ters, barrell, or rundlet, when it ſhall be ſold in groſſe, ſo that they or any of them cauſe the prices by them ſet, to be written, and open proclamation thereof to be made in the Kings Court of Chancery openly in the Terme time, or elſe in the City, Borough or Towne, where any ſuch wines ſhalbe ſold in groſſe: any thing contained in this act to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

The forfeiture of them which ſell wines in groſſe, contrary to the prices aſſeſſed.

And it is further enacted, that if any perſon or perſons, after ſuch prices be ſet, and put in writing by the ſaid Lord Chancellor, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Preſident of the Kings moſt honorable Councell, Lord Priuie-ſeale, and the two chiefe Iuſtices, or by fiue, foure, or thrée of them, and proclamation thereof had (as is aforeſaid) doe ſell any wines in groſſe, by any fraud or couin, contrarie to the ſaid prices ſo ſet, and proclaimed: that then euery offender in that behalfe, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery veſſell by them ſold in groſſe, contrarie to the ſaid prices, xl. s. the one halfe of all which forfeitures to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe thereof, if it be within any City, Borough, or Towne corporat, to be to the Mayors, Sheriffes, Bayliffes, or other head rulers of ſuch Cities, Boroughes, or Townes corporat. And if it be without Citie, Borough, or Towne corporat, then to be to ſuch of the Kings Subiects as will ſue for the ſame. And that euery ſuch forfeiture ſhall be recouered by originall writ of debt, bill, plaint, or information, In which ſuit no wager of law ſhall be admitted, nor any protection or eſſoigne allowed.

I. of Peace and chiefe Officers in Boroughes, &c. ſhall enquire of, and puniſh offendors.

And it is alſo enacted, that the Iuſtices of Peace in euery Shire of this preſent Realme, and al Mayors, Sheriffes, Bayliffes, and other head Officers in Cities, Boroughes, and Townes corporat, that is to ſay, euery of them within the limits of their Commiſſions, and authorities, as well within franchiſes, as without, ſhall haue power and authority to examine, heare, inquire, and determine the defaults of ſuch as ſhall attempt to ſell any Wines in groſſe or by retaile contrary to this act, and to puniſh the offendors by impriſonment, or otherwiſe by their diſcretions.

The contents of euery veſſell of wine, and the Stat. of 1. R. 3. 13. and other Stat. made touching the ſame confirmed. St.18.H.6.17.

And whereas in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the firſt yeare of the reigne of King Richard the third, among other things it was eſtabliſhed, ordained, and enacted, that euery tun of Wine ſhould containe CClij. gallons, euery butte of Malmeſey ſhould containe Cxxvj. gallons, euery pipe Cxxvi. gallons, euery tercyan or poncheon lxxxiiij. gallons, euery hoggeſhead lxiii. gallons, euery tierce xli. gallons, and euery barrell xxxi. gallons and di. and euery rondelet xviii. gallons and di. And that no veſſell ſhould be put to ſale, till it were gauged, vpon paine of forfeiture, as by the ſame Statute it doth appeare more at large. Neuertheleſſe great deceit is daily vſed in ſelling of Wines, and Oyles in Caſkes and Veſſels, not bearing the contents aboue limited, to the great loſſe of the Kings poore Subiects. For remedy whereof, it is enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Statute made in the firſt yeare of King Richard the third, and all other Statutes heretofore made for true gauging and meaſuring of Wines, Oyles, Honey, or any other licours, which Statutes afore this time be not repealed nor expired, ſhall ſtand in their ſtrength and vertue, and be put in due execution, according to their tenours and effects in euery behalfe.

Euery veſſell of wine, &c. ſhal be truly gauged and marked vpon the head. St.27.Ed.3.8. 23.H.6.16.

And ouer that be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that euery gauger within this Realme ſhall truly and effectually within the limits of his office, gauge all the ſaid tons, buttes, pypes, terſes, poncheons, tercians, barrelles, hoggeſheads, and rundlets, and ſhall plainly and truly marke vpon the head of euery ſuch veſſell the content of the ſame, vpon paine to forfeit to the partie, to whoſe vſe the wine, oyle, or other thing therein being ſhall bée ſold, foure times the value of that which the veſſell ſo marked ſhall lacke of his lawfull content aboue written: the ſame forfeiture to be recouered ouer and beſide the coſtes of the ſuit, by the Kings originall writ, or by bill in any of the Kings Courts of his common lawes, or in any competent Court, hauing iuriſdiction in the place where that offence ſhall be committed, by action or bill of debt, in which action or ſuit none eſſoine, protection, nor wager of Law ſhall be accepted, admitted, or allowed to the defendant or defendants. Cap. XVI.

Releaſe of ſuch who haue obtained licenſes from the See of Rome.

WHere the Biſhop of Rome and his predeceſſors, of his and their couetous, and ambitious minde, to the intent to aduance, and enrich themſelues, and the See of Rome, to the great impoueriſhing of this Realme of England, and other the Kings Dominions, contrary to Gods law, the lawes and ſtatutes of this Realme, and in derogation of the Imperiall crowne of this ſaid realme, haue heretofore wrongfully pretended, extorted, vſed, & exerciſed within the ſame, diuers and many vſurped powers, iuriſdictions, and authorities, during, and by the which time the ſaid Biſhop, and his predeceſſors, arrogantly, and iniuſtly haue taken vpon them for great ſummes of money, and other profits to them giuen, to grant vnto the Kings Subiects, and other inhabitants within this Realme, and other the Kings dominions, many, diuers, and ſundry authorities, immunities, faculties, priuileges, licences, indulgences, and preeminences, of diuers kindes, natures, and qualities: which although they proceeded by an iniuſt, and vſurped authoritie, haue beene vntill now of late by the Subiects of this Realme timorouſly, and ignorantly accepted, receiued, vſed, and erroniouſly put in exerciſe, and execution: the which vſurped authority, iuriſdiction, and power is now iuſtly, truly, and ought to be cleerely, and abſolutely extinguiſhed, extirped, and aboliſhed within this Realme and other the Kings dominions. And foraſmuch as all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporat, which vnlawfully and without any manner of authoritie, or iuſt ground, heretofore haue timorouſly, and ignorantly accepted, receiued, vſed, and erroniouſly put in execution and exerciſe the ſaid faculties, immunities, authorities, priuileges, licences, indulgences, and preeminences, haue now ſincere, pure, and perfit intelligence, and knowledge of the ſaid vſurped authoritie, iuriſdiction and power: And that the ſaid faculties, authorities, priuileges, licences and indulgences, ſo as is aforeſaid accepted, receiued, vſed and erroniouſly exerciſed, were and beene to all intents and purpoſes, cleerely void, fruſtrate, and of none effect. Albeit if they ſhould be impeached, or interrupted of ſuch priuileges, liberties, preeminences, authorities, iuriſdictions, profits and other commodities, which they now haue, vſe, and exerciſe by colour of ſuch vaine, and void licences, diſpenſations, and faculties, it ſhould be to their intollerable inquietations, and vtter vndoing.

All Bulls and diſpenſations from the Biſhop or See of Rome to any Subiects of this Realme, ſhall be void.

Dyer.fo.233.
7.352.

Wherefore be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, That all bulls, breues, faculties, and diſpenſations, of what names, natures or qualities ſoeuer they be of, heretofore had, or obtained of the Biſhop of Rome, or of any his predeceſſors, or by the authoritie of the See of Rome, by, or to any ſubiects, reſiants or bodies politike, or corporat of or in this Realme, or of or in any other the Kings Dominions, ſhall from henceforth be cleerely void and of no value, force, ſtrength, nor vertue, and ſhall neuer hereafter be vſed, admitted, allowed, pleaded or alleaged in any places or Courts of this Realme, or of any other the Kings Dominions, vpon the paines contained in the Statuts of prouiſion, and premunire, made in the ſixteenth yeare of the reigne of King Richard the ſecond. Yet notwithſtanding at the moſt humble petition and interceſſion of the Lords Spirituall, and Temporall, and the Commons in preſent Parliament aſſembled, it may pleaſe the Kings Maieſty, of his moſt gratious benignitie, goodneſſe, and bleſſed diſpoſition, that it may be enacted by authority of this Parliament, that all marriages, had and ſolemniſed within this Realme, or in any other the Kings dominions, before the third day of Nouember, in the ſix and twentieth yeare of the Kings moſt gratious reigne, whereof there is no diuorce, or ſeparation had by the Eccleſiaſticall lawes of this Realme, and which marriages be not prohibited by Gods lawes, limited and declared in the Act made in this preſent Parliament for the eſtabliſhment of the Kings ſucceſſion, or otherwiſe by holy Scripture, ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent Parliament good, lawfull, and effectuall, and ſhal be from the beginning of ſuch marriages reputed, eſteemed, taken, adiudged, receiued, approued, and allowed by the authority of this preſent Parliament, to all, and ſingular purpoſes, effects, and intents, as good, as ſufficient, and as uaileable, as though no impediment of matrimony had euer beene betweene them that haue contracted, and ſolemniſed ſuch marriages: And that all children procreated, and to be procreated, in, and vnder ſuch marriages, ſhall be lawfull to all intents and purpoſes.

Stat. 28. H. 8. 7. A confirmation of former lawfull marriages.

And that it may be alſo enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, That all Archbiſhops and Biſhops of this Realme, or of any the Kings dominions conſecrated, and at this preſent time taken, and reputed for Archbiſhops and Biſhops, may by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, and not by vertue of any prouiſion, or other forrein authority, licence, faculty, or diſpenſation, keepe, enioy, and retaine their Archbiſhopricks and Biſhopricks, in as large, and ample manner, as if they had beene promoted, elected, confirmed, and conſecrated, according to the due courſe of the lawes of this Realme. And that euery Archbiſhop and Biſhop of this Realme, and of other the Kings Dominions, may Miniſter, vſe, and exerciſe all and euery thing and things, pertaining to the office or order of an Archbiſhop and Biſhop, with all tokens, inſignes, and ceremonies thereunto lawfully belonging.

A confirmation of all Archb. & Biſhops, and their authority, and other Eccleſiaſtill perſons and orders.

And that all Eccleſiaſticall perſons of the Kings Realme, and Dominions, which at this time be taken, had and reputed for Abbots, Priors, Abbaſſes, Prioreſſes, and other heads of religion (which be not neither ſhall be excluded from their dignities by the late Act of ſuppreſſion) and the religious perſons liuing vnder their obedience, and all perſons now taken and reputed as Maſters, Preſidents, Prouoſts, and Wardeins of Cathedrall Churches and Colleges, with the Companies and Fellowſhips of the ſame, all Prieſts & Clerkes, which haue receiued any of the Eccleſiaſticall Orders, all Archdeacons and Deanes, and other hauing Offices, Cures and dignities ſpirituall, may by authority of this Act, and not by the vertue of any forrein power or authority, adminiſter, vſe & exerciſe all things pertaining to their dignities, offices, orders, cures, religions and fellowſhips, and may lawfully hereafter vſe all tokens, inſignes, and ceremonies, which they haue beene accuſtomed to vſe in times paſt (ſo it be not expreſly againſt the lawes of God, & this Realme) any thing or things contained in any act or actes made ſithen the beginning of this preſent Parliament to the contrary of any the premiſſes in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And where diuers, and many of the Kings ſaid Subiects haue purchaſed and obtained many diſpenſations, bulles, breues, and faculties of the Biſhop of Rome for the time being, or by authority of the See of Rome, as pluralities, vnions, trialties, appropriations, commendams, exemptions, and other bulls, breues, and faculties, for diuers cauſes, and matters, other than be afore expreſſed, which be of no ſtrength or vertue, It may therefore pleaſe the Kings Maieſtie, that it may be enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euery his ſaid Subiects during the time of one whole yeare next after the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell next comming, may enioy, vſe, and haue by authoritie of this preſent Act, and not by the vertue of the ſaid bulls, breues, and faculties, all and euery the effects contained and ſpecified in ſuch bulls, breues, and faculties, in all ſuch caſes only as may be diſpenſed with, by the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, by authoritie of the lawes and ſtatutes of this Realme.

And that it may be further enacted by authority aforeſaid, That all and euery the Kings ſaid Subiects, bringing, rendring, and deliuering to ſuch perſons of his Counſell, or of the Maſters of his Chancery, as the Kings Highneſſe ſhall name and appoint, any bulls, breues, or any other faculties, concerning any the premiſſes: that then if it ſhall appeare to ſuch perſons, as the Kings Highneſſe ſhall ſo name and appoint to receiue ſuch bulls, faculties, and breues, after due examination thereof had, that the effects contained and ſpecified in ſuch bulls, faculties and breues, or any part thereof, may be lawfully granted by the ſaid Archbiſhop of Canterbury, by authoritie of the lawes and ſtatutes of this Realme: that then and in euery ſuch caſe the Kings ſaid Subiects, making humble ſuit to haue the effects contained in the ſaid bulls, breues, and faculties to be granted vnto them, ſhall haue, receiue, and obtaine of the Chancellor of England, or keeper of the great Seale for the time being, by ſufficient writing in due forme to be made, and to be ſealed vnder the Kings [d] great Seale, all and euery ſuch effects contained and ſpecified in ſuch buls, breues and faculties, as may be lawfully granted by the ſaid Archbiſhop of Canterbury, by authority of the lawes and ſtatutes of this Realme, paying only for the ſealing of euery ſuch writing, xx. s. iiij. d. And ouer that for the reaſonable coſts for paines of the writing thereof, iij. s. iiij. d. and not aboue, and for the paine taken for due examination of euery ſuch bulls, breues, and faculties, iij. s. iiij. d. and not aboue. And that this preſent Act ſhalbe ſufficient, and immediat warrant to the Chancellor or keeper of the great Seale, for the enſealing and deliuery of ſuch licences, faculties, diſpenſations and other writings, which ſhalbe made, granted, and ſealed vnder the Kings great Seale by vertue and authority of this Act.

The effect and contents of buls, breues, faculties, &c. purchaſed of the See of Rome, which be allowable ſhalbe confirmed vnder the great Seale.

Dyer.fo.233. 7.152.

And it is alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euery ſuch licence, diſpenſation, faculty, confirmation, or other writing, to be had, made, or granted vnder the Kings great Seale out of the ſaid Court of Chancery by authority of this Act, in forme as is aboue rehearſed, ſhall be good and effectuall to the ſaid parties ſuing for the ſame, according to the tenor and effects thereof, and ſhall be admitted, accepted, and allowed in all Courts and places of this Realme, and in all other the Kings Dominions: any vſage, preſcription, forreine lawes, cuſtomes, or ordinance to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. CAP. X.

How Lords in the Parliament ſhall be placed.

FOr as much as in all great Councels and Congregations of men, hauing ſundry degrees and offices in the Common wealth, It is very requiſit, and conuenient that an order ſhould be had, and taken for the placing and ſitting of ſuch perſons as beene bounden to reſort to the ſame, to the intent that they knowing their places, may vſe the ſame without diſpleaſure, or let of the Councell. Therefore the Kings moſt Royall Maieſty, although it appertaineth vnto his Prerogatiue Royall, to giue ſuch honor, reputation, and placing to his Councellors, and other his Subiects, as ſhall be ſeeming to his moſt excellent wiſdome, is neuertheleſſe pleaſed, and contented for an order to be had, and taken in this his moſt high Court of Parliament, that it ſhall be enacted by authority of the ſame, in manner and forme as hereafter followeth.

A knowen order of placing of great men according to their degrees is neceſſarie.

Firſt it is enacted by authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree, or condition ſoeuer he, or they be of, (except only the Kings children) ſhal at any time hereafter attempt, or preſume, to ſit or haue place at any ſide of the cloth of eſtate in the Parliament chamber, neither of the one hand of the Kings Highneſſe, nor of the other, whether the Kings Maieſtie be there perſonally preſent, or abſent. And for as much as the Kings Maieſty is iuſtly, and lawfully ſupreme head in earth vnder God of the Church of England, and for the good exerciſe of the ſaid moſt royall dignity and office, hath made Thomas Lord Crumwell, and Lord priuy Seale his Vicegerent, for good and due miniſtration of Iuſtice to be had in all cauſes, and caſes touching the Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdition, and for the godly information and redreſſe of all errors, hereſies, and abuſes in the ſaid Church. It is therefore alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid Lord Crumwell, hauing the ſaid office of Vicegerent, and all other perſons, which hereafter ſhal haue the ſaid office of the grant of the Kings Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall ſit, and be placed as well in this preſent Parliament, as in all Parliaments to be holden hereafter, on the right ſide of the Parliament chamber, and vpon the ſame forme that the Archbiſhop of Canterbury ſitteth on, and aboue the ſame Archbiſhop and his Succeſſors, and ſhall haue voice in euery Parliament to aſſent or diſſent, as other the Lords of the Parliament.

None ſhal ſit on either ſide of the cloth of eſtate.

The Kings Vicegerent in Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction.

And it is alſo enacted, that next to the ſaid Vicegerent ſhall ſit the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and then next him on the ſame forme and ſide ſhall ſit the Archbiſhop of Yorke: and next to him on the ſame forme and ſide, the Biſhop of London: and next to him on the ſame ſide and forme the Biſhop of Dureſme: and next to him on the ſame ſide and forme, the Biſhop of Wincheſter, and then all the other Biſhops of both Prouinces of Canterbury and Yorke, ſhall ſit and be placed on the ſame ſide after their ancienties, as it hath beene accuſtomed.

How the Biſhops ſhall be placed in the Parliament houſe.

And foraſmuch as ſuch other perſonages, which now haue, and hereafter ſhall happen to haue other great Offices of the Realme, that is to ſay, the Offices of the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Treaſurer, the Lord Preſident of the Kings moſt honorable Councell, the Lord priuie Seale, the great Chamberlaine of England, the Conſtable of England, the Marſhall of England, the Lord Admirall, the Grand Maſter or Lord Steward of the Kings moſt honourable houſhold, the Kings Chamberlaine, and the Kings Secretarie haue not heretofore beene appointed and ordered for

for the placing and ſitting in the Kings moſt high Court of Parliament by reaſon of their offices. It is therefore now ordained and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Treaſurer, the Lord Preſident of the Kings Councell, and the Lord Priuy ſeale, being of the degrée of Barons of the Parliament, or aboue ſhall ſit and be placed as well in this preſent Parliament, as in all other Parliaments hereafter to be holden, on the left ſide of the ſaid Parliament chamber, on the higher part of the forme of the ſame ſide aboue all Dukes, except onely ſuch as ſhall happen to be the Kings ſonne, the Kings brother, the Kings vncle, the Kings neuew, or the Kings brothers, or ſiſters ſonnes.

The great Chamberlaine, Conſtable, Marſhall, Admirall, Steward, &c.

And it is alſo ordained and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the great Chamberlaine, the Conſtable, the Marſhall, the Lord Admirall, the great Maſter or Lord Steward, and the Kings Chamberlaine, ſhall ſit and be placed after the Lord Priuie Seale, in manner and forme following, that is to ſay, euery of them ſhall ſit and be placed aboue all other perſonages being of the ſame eſtates or degrées, that they ſhall happen to be of, that is to ſay, the great Chamberlaine, firſt, the Conſtable next, the Marſhall third, the Lord Admirall the fourth, the grand Maſter or Lord Steward the fifth, and the Kings Chamberlaine the ſixth.

The Kings chiefe Secretarie.

And it is alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the Kings chiefe Secretarie, being of the degrée of a Baron of the Parliament, ſhall ſit and be placed afore and aboue all Barons, not hauing any of the offices afore mentioned. And if he be a Biſhop, that then he ſhall ſit and be placed aboue all other Biſhops, not hauing any of the offices aboue remembred.

Dukes, Marqueſſes, Earles, Vicounts, Barons.

And it is alſo ordained and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all Dukes not afore mentioned, Marqueſſes, Erles, Vicounts, and Barons, not hauing any of the offices aforeſaid, ſhall ſit and be placed after their ancientie, as it hath béene accuſtomed.

The places of great Officers vnder the degree of Barons.

And it is further enacted, that if any perſon or perſons, which at any time hereafter ſhall happen to haue any of the ſaid offices of Lord Chancellour, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Preſident of the Kings Counſell, Lord Priuie ſeale, or chiefe Secretary, ſhall be vnder the degrée of a Baron of the Parliament, by reaſon whereof they can haue no intereſt to giue any aſſent or diſſent in the ſaid houſe, that then in euery ſuch caſe, ſuch of them as ſhall happen to be vnder the ſaid degrée of a Baron, ſhall ſit and be placed at the vppermoſt part of the ſackes, in the middeſt of the ſaid Parliament Chamber, either there to ſit vpon one forme, or vpon the vppermoſt ſacke, the one of them aboue the other in order, as is aboue rehearſed.

Places in trials by Peeres.

Be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that in all trials of treaſons by Péeres of this Realme, if any of the Péeres that ſhall be called hereafter to be tryors of ſuch treaſons, ſhall happen to haue any of the offices aforeſaid, that then they hauing ſuch offices, ſhall ſit and be placed according to their offices, aboue all the other Péeres, that ſhall be called to ſuch trials, in manner and forme as is aboue mentioned and rehearſed.

Places in the Starre chamber, and other aſſemblies.

And it is alſo enacted by authority aforeſaid, that as well in all Parliaments, as in the Starrechamber, and in all other aſſemblies and conferences of counſell, the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Treaſurer, the Lord Preſident, the Lord Priuie ſeale, the great Chamberlaine, the Conſtable, the Marſhall, the Lord Admirall, the grand Maſter or Lord Steward, the Kings Chamberlaine, and the Kings chiefe Secretary ſhall ſit and be placed in ſuch order and faſhion as is aboue rehearſed, and not in any other place, by authority of this preſent act.

How tithes ought to be paid, and how to be recouered being not paid.

What hath encouraged diuers perſons to detain their tithes from Lay men which haue eſtates in them.

WHere diuers and many perſons inhabiting in ſundry Counties and places of this realme and other the Kings dominions, not regarding their duties to almighty God, and to the King our Soueraigne Lord, but in few yéeres paſt more contemptuouſly and commonly preſuming to offend and infringe the good and wholeſome Lawes of this Realme, and gracious commandements of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, than in times paſt hath béene ſéene or knowne, haue not letted to ſubtract and withdraw the lawful and accuſtomed tithes of Cornes, Hay, Paſturages, and other ſort of tithes and oblations commonly due to the owners, proprietaries, and poſſeſſors of the Parſonages, Vicarages, and other Eccleſiaſticall places, of and within the ſaid Realme and dominions, being the more incouraged thereto for that diuers of the Kings ſubiects being lay perſons, hauing Parſonages, Vicarages, and tithes to them and to their heires, or to them and to their heires of their bodies lawfully begotten, or for terme of life or yéers, cannot by the order and courſe of the Eccleſiaſticall lawes of this Realme, ſue in any Eccleſiaſticall Court for the wrongfull withholding and detaining of the ſaid tithes or other duties, nor cannot by the order of the common Lawes of this Realme haue any due remedy againſt any perſon or perſons their heires or aſſignes, that wrongfully detaineth, or withholdeth the ſame: by occaſion whereof much controuerſie, ſuit, variance, and diſcord is like to inſurge, and inſue among the Kings Subiects, to the great detriment, dammage, and decay of many of them, if conuenient and ſpéedy remedy therefore be not had and prouided.

Euery perſon ſhall ſet out and pay his tithes according to the cuſtome of the pariſh where they be due.

The offendor conuented before the ordinarie.

And in euery ſuch caſe of matter or ſuit, the ſame ordinary, commiſſary, or other competent Miniſter, or lawfull iudge, hauing the parties or their lawfull procurators before him or them, ſhall and may by vertue of this Act procéed to the examination, hearing and determination of euery ſuch cauſe or matter ordinarily, or ſummarily, according to the courſe and proceſſe of the ſaid Eccleſiaſticall lawes, and thereupon may giue ſentence accordingly.

And in caſe that any of the parties, for any cauſe or matter concerning that ſuit, do appeale frõ the ſentence, order, and difinitiue iudgement of the ſaid ordinary or other competent Iudge, as is aforeſaid, then the ſame Iudge by vertue of this Act, forthwith vpon ſuch appellation made, ſhall adiudge to the other party the reaſonable coſts of his ſuit therein before expended, and ſhall compell the ſame party appellant to ſatiſfie and pay the ſame coſts ſo adiudged by compulſory proceſſe, and cenſures of the ſaid lawes Eccleſiaſticall, taking ſurety of the other party to whom ſuch coſts ſhall be adiudged and paid, to reſtore the ſame coſts to the appellant, if after the principall cauſe of that ſuit of appeale ſhall be adiudged againſt the ſame party, to whom the ſaid coſts ſhall be yeelden. And ſo euery ordinary or other competent Iudge eccleſiaſticall, by vertue of this Act ſhall adiudge coſts to the other party vpon euery appeale to bee made in any ſuit, or cauſe of ſubtraction, or detention of any tithes or offerings, or in any other ſuit to be made for or concerning the duty of ſuch tithes or offerings.

The appellant ſhall pay coſts of ſuit to the other party.

And further bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons after ſuch ſentence difinitiue giuen againſt them, obſtinately and wilfully refuſe for to pay their tithes or ſuch ſummes of money ſo adiudged, wherein they be condemned for the ſame, that then two Iuſtices of the Peace for the ſame ſhire, whereof one to be of the Quorum, ſhall haue authority by this Act, vpon information, certificat, or complaint to them made by writing by the ſaid Eccleſiaſticall Iudge that gaue the ſame ſentence, to cauſe the ſame party ſo refuſing, to bee attached, and committed to the next gayle, and there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, till he or they ſhall haue found ſufficient ſureties to be bound by recogniſance or otherwiſe before the ſame Iuſtices, to the vſe of our Soueraigne Lord the King, to performe the ſaid diffinitiue ſentence and iudgement.

The offendor ſhall be bound by two Iuſtices of peace to obey the Ordinaries ſentence. St.27.H.8,20.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons ſhall bee ſued, or otherwiſe compelled to yeeld, giue or pay any manner of tithes, for any Manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments which by lawes or ſtatutes of this Realme are [a] diſcharged, or not chargeable with the paiment of any ſuch tithes.

St. 1. R. 3. 9.

No alien borne not made denizen being an Artificer ſhall take or occupy any houſe or chamber, nor ſoiourne with a ſtranger, nor occupy any craft.

THE King our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord calling vnto his bleſſed remembrance the infinite number of ſtrangers and aliens, of foraine countries and nations, which daily doe encreaſe and multiply within his Graces realme and dominions, in exceſſiue numbers to the great detriment, hinderance, loſſe and impoueriſhment of his Graces naturall lieges and ſubiects of this his Realme, and to the great decay of the ſame, remembring alſo the manifold Acts, and good ſtatutes, which haue been heretofore made, as well by his moſt noble progenitors, as by his owne moſt royall Maieſty for reformation of the ſame in diuers and ſundry Parliaments, that is to wit: Firſt in the firſt yeare of the raigne of King Richard the third, where it was enacted that no perſon not born vnder the ſame kings obeiſance, nor made denizen, taking vpon him to be an artificer, or handy crafts man, ſhould take nor occupy any houſe or chamber within this Realme, nor abide or remain in the ſame, nor ſoiourne with any ſtrange perſon, not being borne vnder the obeiſance of the ſame king as is aforeſaid, nor exerciſe or occupy any craft, or manuel occupatiõ within this ſame Realme: but that ſuch ſtrangers ſhould depart from this ſame Realme, within a certaine time appointed by the ſaid eſtatute, vnleſſe they were retained in ſeruice, to or with any ſubiects or lieges of the King onely which were expert in their crafts or occupations, vnder paine to forfeit all their goods.

An alien ſhall not make any cloth, ſell any ware by retaile, or ſhall take any ſeruant but the Kings ſubiect, or his owne child

And that no perſon, not being borne vnder the ſaid Kings obeiſance, nor made denizen, being an artificer or handy crafts man ſhould make any cloth within this Realme. And alſo that no ſuch ſtranger ſhould ſell any wares within this Realme but onely in groſſe, and not by retaile, vnder paine of forfeiture of the ſaid wares.

And moreouer, that no perſon, not being borne vnder the ſaid Kings obeiſance, abiding in any houſe or chamber within this realme, occupying any handy craft after a certaine time in the ſaid Act limited, ſhould take any ſeruant to worke with him, except it were his ſonne or daughter, or elſe one of the ſubiects of the ſaid King, and borne vnder his obeiſance, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch default xx. li. as in the ſaid Act amongſt other things more plainly appeareth.

Stat. 14. H. 8. 2. What prentices aliens muſt take and whom for Iourneyman, and they muſt be vnder reformation. St. 5. El. 4.

And where alſo in the xiiij. and xv. yeere of the raigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the king that now is, it was enacted that no ſtranger borne out of his Graces obeiſance, were hee denizen, or not denizen, vſing any handy craft, or occupation within this realme ſhould take any apprentice, except the ſame apprentice were borne within his graces dominions and obeiſance, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch apprentice ſo taken, x. li.

And that alſo no ſtranger, nor alien borne vnder like paine, vſing any handy craft within this Realme, after a certaine time limited in the ſaid Act, ſhould take or haue any Iourney man, or couenant ſeruant, except ſuch Iourney man or couenant ſeruant were borne vnder his Graces obeiſance.

St. 21. H. 8 16. Aliens ſhall be contributorie to charges with the Kings ſubiects they ſhall ſweare to be true to the King, and ſhall make no aſſemblies but at their Hals.

And that all manner of aliens borne as well being denizens, as not being denizens inhabiting within the city of London, or a certaine ſpace about the ſame, ſhould be vnder the ſearch, and reformation of the Wardens of the Fellowſhips of handy crafts within the ſaid Citie of London, as in the ſaid eſtatute among other things more plainly appeareth.

And where alſo in the Parliament of our ſaid ſoueraign Lord, holden at Weſtminſter in the xxj. yeere of his moſt gracious reigne, it was enacted among other things that no ſtranger ſhould keep any moe ſeruants ſtrangers but only two at one time, and that all denizens then made, or after to be made which would inhabit within the ſaid city of London, or within a certain circuit of the ſame, and would there keepe any houſe, or occupy any craft or occupation, ſhould be contributory to, and with the Kings graces ſubiects of the ſame craft or occupation within the ſaid city of London, paying, bearing, and ſuſtaining, ſuch charges of the ſame crafts men, as in the ſame Act is contained: And that they ſhould alſo preſent themſelues at the common hall, or meeting place of the ſaid crafts in the City of London, and there to take a corporall oath before the Maſter and Wardens of the ſame craft to be true to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King and his heires. And alſo that no ſtranger artificer, or handy crafts man, borne out of his Graces allegiance, not being denizen, ſhould ſet vp, or keepe any houſe, ſhops, or chambers wherein they ſhould exerciſe any handy craft or myſtery, within this Realme, vpon like penalties as beene mentioned in the ſaid former eſtatute. And that alſo no ſtranger, nor deniſen not being borne within this Realme, ſhould aſſemble in any company, fellowſhip, congregation, or conuenticle, but only in the common hall of their crafts with his Graces ſubiects of the ſame craft vpon like paine, as is aforeſaid, as in the ſaid Acts and Statutes, among many other things more plainly appeareth All which good wholſome and beneficiall Acts and Statutes beene in manner infringed, fruſtrated, and defrauded, chiefly by the means of diuers Letters Patents obtained by the crafty ſuits inuentions and practiſes of ſtrangers lately made denizens in great number, which Letters patents doth containe, that euery ſuch deniſen ſhalbe as free as Engliſhmen naturally borne within the Kings Graces Dominions and obeiſance, any acts or ſtatutes made, or to be made to the contrary notwithſtanding, by reaſon whereof the ſaid denizens refuſe to obey and performe ſuch orders and directions as in the ſaid former eſtatutes were limited, preſcribed, and declared, aſwell to, and for ſuch ſtrangers borne out of the kings obeiſance, as at that time were made denizens, or that after ſhould bee made denizens, to the great hinderance, and decay of the handy crafts men, being the Kings Graces naturall lieges and ſubiects.

For reformation whereof, the Kings moſt royall Maieſty is contented, and pleaſed, that it be enacted by his moſt Gracious Highneſſe, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That all manner of ſtrangers borne out of his Graces obeiſance which heretofore haue beene made denizens, or that hereafter ſhall be made denizens, from and after the firſt day of September next comming ſhall be bound and obedient, by, and vnto all the foreſaid Acts, and Statutes, and to all the contents of the ſame, and to all other Acts and Statutes of this Realme, heretofore made, now being in their force and not repealed: Any Letters Patents, or ordinances heretofore made, or hereafter to be made, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And that alſo in all and euery Letters patents of or for the making of any denizen, from and after the laſt day of this preſent Parliament to be made to any ſtranger not being borne vnder the Kings Graces obeiſance, ſhall be contained a prouiſo that he or they, to whom ſuch Letters Patents ſhall be ſo made and granted ſhall be bounden and obedient by and vnto all the Acts and eſtatutes of this Realme, as is aforeſaid, and to all and euery the contents of the ſame: Except it ſhall bee the Kings moſt gracious pleaſure to grant to any ſuch alien any ſpeciall liberties, or priuileges, more or otherwiſe than is contained in the ſaid eſtatutes. And in that caſe all ſuch liberties, and priuileges ſo to be granted to any ſuch alien, contrary to the forme of any of the ſaid eſtatutes ſhall be plainly wholly and particularly expreſſed, ſpecified, and declared by ſpeciall words, as well in the bill aſſigned with the Kings graces hand, for obtaining of any ſuch graunt, as in the letters patents to be made out of the Chancerie for and concerning the ſame.

All ſtrangers made denizens, ſhal be obedient vnto the ſtatuts 1.R.3. 14.H.8. 21.H.8.

A prouiſo in all Letters Pat. for making of denizens that they ſhal be obedient to the lawes.

And furthermore be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no alien or ſtranger denizen, or not denizen, vſing any handy craft, being borne out of the Kings Graces obeyſance, inhabiting within the Vniuerſities of Oxford or Cambridge, or within the precinct of S. No alien dwelling in Oxford, &c ſhall keep aboue two ſeruants that be ſtrangers at one time. St 5.El.4.

And that it be alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery alien, and ſtranger, borne out of the Kings obeiſance, not being denizen, which now or hereafter ſhall come in, or to this Realme, or elſewhere within the Kings Dominions, ſhall after the ſaid firſt day of September next comming, be bounden by, and vnto the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, and to all and ſingular the contents of the ſame.

Euery alien bound to the lawes of this Realme.

And that none of the Kings ſubiects ſhal retaine or keepe together at one time in his houſhold, ſeruice, or family, aboue the number of foure ſtrangers borne out of the Kings obeiſance, Nor that any alien, being denizen, and vſing no handy craft, ſhall retaine or keep in his houſhold, ſeruice or family together at one time aboue the ſaid number of foure ſtrangers, vpon pain that the offendor and offendors contrary to this article, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery ſtranger borne out of the Kings obeiſance, retained and kept aboue that number ten pound. The moity of all which forfeitures ſhall be to the Kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity thereof

A Proclamation publiſhed by the king for the paiment of Cuſtome.

Prouided alway that this Act nor any thing therein contained, ſhall be hurtfull or preiudiciall to ſuch Proclamation as the Kings Maieſty hath publiſhed, or proclaimed for, and concerning the paiment of cuſtome for ſtrangers, granted by the goodneſſe of his Maieſty to endure for certaine yeares, but that the ſame Proclamation ſhall abide, be, and remaine in the ſame plight and ſtrength that it is, and as if this Act had neuer beene made: Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Lords of the Parliament may keepe ſix ſtrangers. No ſtrangers except denizens may take any leaſes of houſes.

And that no ſtranger artificer, or handy craft man, borne out of the kings obeiſance, not being deniſen, ſhall after the ſame feaſt take any leaſe of any dwelling houſe, or ſhop within this Realme, or in any other the Kings dominions, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit for euery time doing contrary to this Act, one hundred ſhillings. CAP. XXII.

A Biſhop or his deputy taking oath vpon his accompt that he cannot leuy the tenth, &c. ſhall be diſcharged.

IN moſt humble wiſe beſeeching your moſt royall Maieſty, your humble Subiects, the Archbiſhops and Biſhops of this your Realme, that where in the Parliament begun at London, the third day of Nouember, the one and twentieth yeare of your moſt Gracious raigne, and from thence adiourned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuers prorogations, vnto the third day of Nouember, in the ſix and twentieth yeare of your moſt Noble raigne, it was enacted by the authoritie of the ſame Parliament among other things, that your Maieſtie, your heires and ſucceſſors, Kings of this Realme, for more augmentation and maintenance of the royall eſtate of your Imperiall Crowne, and Dignity of Supreme head of the Church of England, ſhould yearely haue, take, poſſeſſe and enioy, vnited and knit to your Imperiall Crowne for euer, one yearely rent or penſion, amounting to the value of the tenth part of all the reuenues, rents, fermes, tithes, offerings, emoluments, and of all other profits, as well called Spirituall as Temporall, then appertaining or belonging, or that hereafter ſhould belong to any Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke, Abbacie, Monaſtery, Priory, Archdeaconry, Deanry, Hoſpitall, College, Houſe collegiat, Prebend, Cathedrall Church, Collegiate Church, Conuentuall Church, Parſonage, Vicarage, Chauntery, free Chappell, and other Benefice or promotion Spirituall, of what name, nature or quality ſoeuer they then were, within any Dioceſſe of this your realme, or in Wales, the ſaid penſion or annuall rent to be yearely payed for euer to your Maieſty, your heires and ſucceſſors Kings of this Realme, at the Feaſt of the natiuity of our Lord God, as in the ſaid act more plainly appeareth.

By the Statut of 26.H 8.3. a tenth was granted to the King of all Spirituall liuings.

And furthermore it was enacted by the ſaid authority in the ſame Parliament, that after a certificat made vnto your Eſchequer, and tax ſet in ſuch maner and forme, as by the ſaid act is limited, euery Archbiſhop and Biſhop then being, and after that to bee, ſhould bee charged, and chargeable to leuy, collect and receiue within their proper Dioceſſe, as well in place exempt, as not exempt, all ſuch ſummes of mony, wherewith the dignities, benefices and other promotions ſpirituall afore named within their Dioceſſe chargeable by the ſaid act, ſhould be ſet, taxed and charged, towards the payment of the ſaid yearely penſion, and ſhould pay and content the ſaid ſummes of money before the firſt day of Aprill to the Treaſurer of your Chamber for time being, or to any other perſon or perſons, whom it ſhould pleaſe your Highneſſe to appoint to receiue the ſame: and that the Treaſurer, Chancellor, Chamberlaine and Barons of your Eſchequer, ſhould cauſe yearely proceſſe to be made by their diſcretions for non-payment of the ſaid penſion and yearely rent, as by the ſaid act among other things more at large appeareth.

Euery Biſhop charged with the collection of the tenth of all ſpirituall liuings within his Dioceſſe.

And foraſmuch as ſince the making of the ſaid act, all and ſingular Abbacies, Priories, Monaſteries and other religious houſes, which were then conuentuall, being cleerely diſſolued, and come to your Highneſſe by authority of Parliament, and otherwiſe by your Lawes, whereby the ſaid yearely rents and penſions, which before that time were of them ſeuerally to be payed, bee now not payable or leuiable: And alſo that the ſaid Archbiſhops and Biſhops, vpon certificat made into the ſaid Eſchequer, by reaſon of the ſaid Act made in the ſaid ſix and twentieth yeare of your raigne, beene charged and chargeable with the ſaid yearely rents or penſions of the tenth of diuers and many perſons, which were certified into your ſaid Eſchequer by the Commiſſioners aſſigned to tax and ceſſe the ſaid ſpirituall dignities and promotions, to haue perpetuities and chanteries, and other ſalaries, where neuer any ſuch chantery or perpetuall ſalary was founded or ordained, and many chanteries, and other perpetuities ſpirituall, then being in eſſe, beene ſince that time vtterly diſſolued and extincted: And alſo many Prebends, Parſonages and Vicaries, beene double certified by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and ſome certified to be in places where none ſuch be, In rerum natura, and ſome by wrong names or otherwiſe miſcertified, and alſo ſome parts of the profits and emoluments, which did then belong to ſome dignities, Parſonages, Vicarages, Cathedrall Churches, and Collegiat Churches, as in Prories, Sinodales, Oblations and Indulgences, Pardons and other profits be now decayed and diminiſhed by ſundry meanes, and many chanteries, and other ſmall promotions ſpirituall, beene ſince that time decayed and extinguiſhed, and no Prieſts thereon abiding.

Cauſes why the Biſhops could not leuy ſo much mony for tenths as by Commiſſions was certified to be due.

And alſo ſith the making of the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid ſix and twentieth yeare, there haue beene aſſurances made to your Maieſty by ſome of the ſaid Archbiſhops and Biſhops, of parcels of their poſſeſſions, charged with the ſaid rent or penſion, and parcell of the ſaid poſſeſſions charged with the payment of the ſaid yearely rent or penſion, beene comen to your hands by other lawfull meanes. By reaſon whereof, and of many other cauſes, doubts and ambiguities, which doe daily riſe, concerning the premiſſes, the ſaid Collectors cannot leuy the ſaid yearely rents or penſions, concerning many promotions or profits ſpirituall, certified in your ſaid Eſchequer, by the ſaid Commiſſioners: and yet that notwithſtanding the ſaid Archbiſhops and Biſhops, for lacke of ſufficient warrant, and authority to the Barons of your ſaid Eſchequer, for their diſcharge in that behalfe, beene greatly prolonged and letted, in yeelding of their accompts in your ſaid Eſchequer of the ſaid annuall rent or penſion, and put to great coſts and charges to their great inquietneſſe, charges, loſſes and troubles, where they haue nothing allowed them, or to any of their Officers, for the collecting, leuying, gathering or paying of the ſaid annuall rents, or penſions to the vſe of your Highneſſe.

It may therefore pleaſe your Highneſſe, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame. That it may be enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that, if the ſaid Archbiſhops and Biſhops, or any of them, their deputies or other accomptants or any of them, that now bee, or hereafter ſhall bee chargeable with the collection of the ſaid annuall rent or penſion, or of any part or portion thereof, ſhew and alleage by the oath of any of the ſaid Archbiſhops, Biſhops or other accomptants, or other perſon or perſons authoriſed to accompt for any of them, before the Treaſurer, Chancellor and Barons of your Eſchequer, or before the more part of them, or before ſuch other perſons as it ſhall pleaſe the Kings Highneſſe to appoint to heare the ſame accompt, that they or any of them, for any of the cauſes aboue ſaid, or for any other ſufficient cauſe or matter by any of them to be alleaged, cannot, or may not, in any wiſe lawfully leuy any ſuch particular ſumme or ſummes of mony of the ſaid annuall rent, or penſion, as they or any of them now be, or hereafter ſhall be chargeable and charged with, and no matter apparant there ſhewed to the contrary for your Highneſſe by any of your Sergeants at the Law, or by your Attourny generall for the time being, or by any other for your Maieſty: That then your ſaid Treaſurer, Chancellor, and Barons, or more part of them, or ſuch other perſons as ſhall bee appointed by the Kings Highneſſe, ſhall by vertue and authoritie of this Act, haue full power and authority by their diſcretions, to accept and allow that allegation, and thereupon, thereof to diſcharge the accomptant, or elſe by their diſcretions to direct the Kings writ vnto any of the Kings Courts, for to certifie vnto them the truth thereof. And thereupon the ſaid Treaſurer, Chancellor and Barons, or the more part of them, or ſuch perſons as ſhall bee thereunto appointed by the Kings Highneſſe, ſhall proceed further to heare and examine the ſame matter and cauſe, by witneſſe and depoſitions of ſuch as can enforme the Court, or the ſaid other perſons, as ſhall be thereunto appointed by the Kings Highneſſe of the truth thereof, or by any other wayes and meanes that they can beſt deuiſe: And if need require to award Commiſſions by their diſcretions, to certaine indifferent perſons in euery ſuch Dioceſſe, where any ſuch matter or cauſe ſhall be alleaged, without any charge aſking, or taking for the making of the ſame Commiſſions ſo to be awarded, which ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall and may by vertue of their Commiſſions, haue full power and authority to examine the ſame matter and cauſe ſo alleaged by any of the ſaid Biſhops, or other accomptants for them and in their diſcharge by the oathes of ſuch perſons as ſhall haue perfect notice therof, or otherwiſe, and thereupon to make certificat thereof to the ſaid Treaſurer, Chancellor and Barons, or to the more part of them in the ſaid Eſchequer, or to ſuch other perſons, as thereunto ſhall be appointed by the Kings Highneſſe.

If a Biſhop or any of his deputies will take his oath that he cannot leuy the tenth of any promotion, he ſhall be diſcharged thereof.

Commiſſions may be awarded to inquire the cauſe of any tenth defalked.

And vpon certificat ſo made of the ſaid matter, or if by any other matter or certificat, it ſhall appeare to the ſaid Treaſurer, Chancellor and Barons, or to the more part of them, or to ſuch other perſons as thereunto ſhall bee appointed by the Kings Highneſſe, that the ſaid matter, and the allegations thereof be good and true: Then the ſaid Treaſurer, Chancellor and Barons, or the more part of them, or the ſaid ſuch other perſons as thereunto ſhall bee appointed by the Kings Highneſſe, thereupon to make a cleare and ſufficient deduction, allowance, determination and diſcharge to any of the ſaid Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other accomptants, and to euery of them, of and for the ſame, without further ſuit or delay, and the ſame allowance and diſcharge, to cauſe to bee entered in that Court, there to remaine of record, as by their diſcretions ſhall bee thought requiſit from time to time, without further ſuit, charge, or other inquietting of any of the ſaid Archbiſhops, Biſhops, or other accomptants, or any of them, or any of the ſucceſſours or executors of any of them in that behalfe.

A meane how the King ſhalbe anſwered of the tenth of any ſpirituall liuing omitted in the former certificat.

And that it may be further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that in caſe it be hereafter certified by commiſſion or otherwiſe, by ſufficient and probable witneſſes, had and found before the ſaid Treaſurer, Chancellor, and Barons, or before the more part of them, or before ſuch other perſons as thereunto ſhall be appointed by the Kings Highneſſe, that any Benefice, Chantery, Hoſpitall, or other Eccleſiaſticall promotion, is omitted, and not ſpecified or not certified, by, or in the ſaid originall, or former certificat: That then vpon due proofe, information, knowledge or certificat thereof by any of the ſaid Archbiſhops or Biſhops, or otherwiſe made or declared before the ſaid Treaſurer, Chancellor or Barons, or before the more part of them, or before ſuch other perſons, as thereunto ſhalbe appointed by the Kings Highneſſe, of any ſumme or ſummes of mony, concerning the premiſſes ſo omitted, and not charged for lacke of knowledge or certificat thereof, whereof the King of right ought to be anſwered. The ſaid Treaſurer, Chancellor and Barons, or the more part of them, or ſuch other perſons as thereunto ſhall be appointed by the Kings Highneſſe, ſhall make a ſufficient entry thereof, to bee annexed to, and with the ſaid originall of the ſame tenth, and thereupon to charge the ſaid accomptants, to make, leuy, and anſwer thereof yearely from henceforth, ſo that the Kings Highneſſe may be truly anſwered thereof from time to time, according to his lawfull title in that behalfe. 1. El. 4.

CAP. XXIII.

CAP. XXIIII.

The lands and goods of Saint Iohns of Ieruſalem ſhall be in the Kings diſpoſition.

The Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, hauing credible knowledge, that diuers and ſundry the Kings Subiects, called the Knights of the Rhodes, otherwiſe called Knights of Saint Iohns, otherwiſe called Friers of the religion of Saint Iohn of Ieruſalem in England, and of a like houſe being in Ireland, abiding in the parties of beyond the ſea, and hauing as well out of this Realme, as out of Ireland and other the Kings Dominions, yearely great ſummes of money for maintenance of their liuings: Haue vnnaturally, and contrary to the duty of their alleagances ſuſtained, and maintained the vſurped power and authority of the Biſhop of Rome, lately vſed and practiſed within this Realme, and other the Kings Dominions, and haue not onely adhered themſelues to the ſaid Biſhop, being common enemy to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and to this his Realme, vntruly vpholding, knowledging, and affirming maliciouſly and trayterouſly, the ſame Biſhop to be ſupreme and chiefe head of Chriſts Church by Gods holy word, entending thereby to ſubuert and ouerthrow the good and godly Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, their naturall Country, made and grounded by authority of holy Church, by the moſt excellent wiſdome, policy, and goodnes of the Kings Maieſty, with the whole aſſent and conſent of the Realme, for the aboliſhing, expulſing and vtter extincting of the ſaid vſurped power and authority; but alſo haue defamed and ſlandered as wel the Kings Maieſtie, as the Noble men, Prelates, and other the Kings true and louing Subiects of this Realme, for their good and godly proceeding in that behalfe: haue therefore deeply pondered and conſidered, that like as it is, and was a moſt godly act of the Kings moſt royall Maieſty, and the ſaid Noble men, Prelates and Commons of this Realme, vtterly to expulſe and aboliſh not only from this Realme, but alſo from other the Kings Dominions, the ſaid vſurped power and authority of the Biſhop of Rome, and alſo the hypocriticall and ſuperſtitious religion in this Realme, and other the Kings Dominions, being his members and adherents, hauing their originall erection and foundation by the ſaid vſurped authority, by expulſing whereof Gods holy Word neceſſary for increaſe of vertue and ſaluation of Chriſten ſoules, is not onely purely and ſincerely aduanced and ſet forth, but alſo their extorted exactions of innumerable ſums of money, craftily exhauſted out of this Realme, and of other the Kings Dominions, by the colour of the ſaid vſurped authority is remoued and taken away, to the ineſtimable benefit and commodity of the Kings louing Subiects; ſo in like maner of wiſe, it ſhould be moſt dangerous to be ſuffered or permitted within this Realme, or in any other the Kings Dominions, any religion being ſparkes, leaues, and impes of the ſaid roote of iniquity: conſidering alſo that the Iſle of Rhodes, whereby the ſaid religion tooke their old name and foundation is ſurpriſed by the Turke: And that it were, and is much better, that the poſſeſſions in this Realme, and in other the Kings Dominions appertaining to the ſaid Religion, ſhould rather be employed and ſpent within this Realme, and in other the Kings Dominions for the defence and ſurety of the ſame, than conuerted to, and among ſuch vnnaturall Subiects, which haue declined not only from their naturall duty of obedience that they ought to beare vnto the King our Soueraigne Lord, but alſo from the good Lawes and Statutes of this Realme their naturall Countrey, daily doing and attempting priuily and craftily all that they can, to ſubuert the good and godly policie, in the which, thanks be to God, and our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord, this Realme, and other the Kings Dominions now ſtand in. In conſideration whereof, the ſaid Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, moſt humbly beſeechen the Kings moſt royall Maieſty, that it may be enacted by his Highneſſe, and by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that the Corporation of the ſaid religion, as well within this Realme, as within the Kings dominion and Land of Ireland, by whatſoeuer name or names they be founded, encorporated or knowne, ſhall bee vtterly diſſolued and void to all entents and purpoſes. And that Sir William Weſton Knight, now being Prior of the ſaid Religion of this Realme of England, ſhall not be named or called from henceforth Prior of Saint Iohns of Ieruſalem in England, but ſhall bee called by his proper name of William Weſton Knight, without further addition touching the ſaid Religion. And that likewiſe Iohn Rauſon Knight, now being Prior of Kilmainam in Ireland, ſhall not bee

And be it likewiſe enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any the Knights or Confreres of the ſaid religion being the Kings naturall Subiects, which now inhabite, abide, and dwell out of any the Kings Dominions, at any time after the firſt day of February next comming doe offend in any of the articles or offences next aboue rehearſed, that then euery of them ſo offending ſhall incurre and run into the paines, forfeitures, and penalties next aboue remembred.

The King ſhall haue al the manors, lands, &c. lately belonging to the Prior and brethren of S. Iohn in England and Ireland.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Kings Maieſty his heires and Succeſſors, ſhall haue and enioy all that Hoſpitall, manſion houſe, Church, and all other houſes, edificies, buildings, and gardens to the ſame belonging, being neere to the City of London in the County of Middl. called the houſe of Saint Iohns of Jeruſalem in England, and alſo all that hoſpitall Church, and houſe of Kilmainam in the land of Ireland, and all and ſingular Caſtels, honours, manors, meaſes, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, woods, meadowes, paſtures, parkes, warrens, liberties, franchiſes, priuileges, parſonages, tithes, penſions, portions, Knights fees, aduouſons, commandries, preceptories, contributions, reſponſions, rents, titles, entries, conditions, couenants, and all other poſſeſſions and hereditaments, of what natures, names, or qualities ſoeuer they bee, and whereſoeuer they bee, or lie within this Realme of England, or within the Land of Ireland, or elſewhere within any the Kings Dominions, which appertained or belonged to the ſaid Religion, or to the Priors, Maſters, or Gouernors, Knights, or other Miniſters profeſſed of or in the ſame, by the pretence, or in the right of the ſaid religion: And all and ſingular goods, cattels, debts, arrerages of rents and fermes, and all other things reall and perſonall, whatſoeuer they bee, whereof or whereunto any of the ſaid Priors, Brethren or Confreres, or perſons profeſſed in the ſaid religion, can haue nor claime any particular propriety to their owne proper vſe by the rules and ſtatutes of the ſaid Religion: To haue and to hold the premiſſes, and euery of them, to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and to his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, to vſe, and employ by his moſt excellent wiſdome and diſcretion, at his owne free will and pleaſure. It was amongſt other things there enacted and eſtabliſhed, that all ioynt tenants, and tenants in common, that then were, or hereafter ſhould be of any eſtate, or eſtates of inheritance in their owne rights, or in the right of their wiues, of any manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments within this realme of England, Wales, or marches of the ſame, ſhall and may be coacted and compelled by vertue of the ſaid Act, to make partition between them, of all ſuch manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments as they then held, or hereafter ſhould hold, as ioynt tenants, or tenants in common, as more plainly at large appeareth by the ſaid ſtatute. And foraſmuch as the ſaid ſtatute doth not extend to ioynt tenants, and tenants in common for terme of life or yéeres, neither to ioynt tenants, and tenants in common, where one or ſome of them haue but a particular eſtate for terme of life or yéers, and the other haue eſtate or eſtates of inheritance of, and in any manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments. Be it therfore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and by the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all ioyntenants and tenants in common, and euery of them, which now hold or hereafter ſhall hold ioyntly, or in common for terme of life, yéere or yéeres: or ioyntenants, or tenants in common, where one or ſome of them haue, or ſhall haue eſtate or eſtates, for terme of life or yéeres, with the other that haue, or ſhall haue eſtate or eſtates of inheritance, or fréehold in any manors, lands, tenements, or[a] hereditaments, ſhall and may bee compellable from henceforth by writ of partition to be purſued out of the Kings court of Chancery, vpon his or their caſe or caſes, to make ſeuerance, and partition of all ſuch manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, which they hold ioyntly, or in common for terme of life or liues, yéere or yéeres, or where one or ſome of them hold ioyntly, or in common for terme of life, or yéeres with other, that haue an eſtate or eſtates of inheritance or fréehold.

Iointtenants for life or yeares are compellable to make partition.

Cap. XXXIII.

Wrongfull diſſeiſin is no deſcent in Law.

WHere diuers perſons of their inſatiable mindes haue heretofore by ſtrength, and without title, entred into manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, and wrongfully diſſeiſed the rightfull owners and poſſeſſors thereof, and ſo being ſeaſed by diſſeiſin, haue thereof died ſeaſed, by reaſon of which dying ſeaſed the diſſeiſee, or ſuch other perſons as before ſuch diſcent might haue lawfully entred into the ſaid manors, lands and tenements were, and be thereby cleerly excluded of their entre into the ſaid manors, lands and tenements, and put to their action for their remedy and recouery therein, to their great coſts and charges. For reformation whereof be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the[b] dying ſeaſed hereafter of any ſuch diſſeiſor of, or in any manors, lands, tenemẽts, or other hereditaments hauing no right or title therin, ſhall not be taken or déemed from henceforth any ſuch diſcent in the law, for to toll, or take away the entrée of any ſuch perſon or perſons, or their heires, which at any time of the ſame diſcent, had good and lawfull title of entre into the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, Except that ſuch diſſeiſor hath had the peaceable poſſeſſion of ſuch manors, lands tenements or hereditaments, whereof he ſhall ſo dye ſeaſed, by the ſpace of fiue yéeres next after the diſſeiſin therein by him committed, without entre, or continuall claime, by or of ſuch perſon or perſons, as haue lawfull title thereunto.

A diſſeiſor dying ſeiſed taketh away no title of entrie from the diſſeiſee or his heire.

Cap. XXXIIII.

Grantees of reuerſions may take aduantage of reuerſions and couenants againſt the leſſees: and leſſees may haue the like remedy againſt Grantees, as they might haue had againſt their grantors.

A fine leuied by tenant in taile ſhalbe a barre to the heire of his body: but a fine leuied by a wife of her husbands lands deceaſed doth not binde, &c.

St.4.H.7.24.

For as much as in the fourth yeere of the raigne of the late King of famous memory, King Henry the ſeuenth, father of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, it was among many good and ſundry ſtatutes, and ordinances then made for the commonwealth, enacted ordained, and eſtabliſhed, the forme and manner how fines ſhould be leuied with proclamations, in the Kings Court before his Iuſtices of his common place, and that ſuch fines with proclamations ſo had and made, to the intent to void all ſtrifes, and debates ſhould be a finall end, and conclude as wel priuies as ſtrangers to the ſame, certain perſons excepted, and ſaued, as in the ſame ſtatute more plainly appeareth: Sithen which time by diuerſity of interpretation & expounding of the ſame ſtatute, it hath been, and yet is by ſome manner of perſons doubted and called in queſtion, whether fines with proclamations leuied, or to bee leuied before the ſaid Iuſtices by any perſon or perſons, hauing, or claming to haue in any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditamẽts compriſed in the ſame fine, in poſſeſſion, reuerſion, remainder, or in vſe, any manner of eſtate taile, ſhould immediatly after the ſaid fine leuied, engroſſed, and proclamation made, binde the right heire and heires of ſuch tenant in taile, and euery other perſon and perſons ſeiſed or claming to their vſe or vſes, by occaſion whereof diuers debates, controuerſies, ſuites, and troubles haue beene begun, moued, and had within this realme and moe be like to inſue, if remedy for the ſame be not prouided: for the eſtabliſhment and reformation wherof, and for the ſure and ſincere interpretation of the ſaid ſtatute, in auoiding all dangers, contentions, controuerſies, ambiguities, and doubts that hereafter may inſurge, grow, and happen. Our ſoueraigne Lord the King, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall, and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, hath enacted and ordeined, that all & ſingular fines as well heretofore leuied, as hereafter to be leuied, before the ſaid Iuſtices with[a] proclamations according to the ſaid ſtatute, by any perſon or perſons of full age of xxi. yeeres, of any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, before the time of the ſaid fine leuied in any wiſe entailed to the perſon or perſons ſo leuying the ſame fine, or to any the aunceſtors of the ſame perſon or perſons in poſſeſſion, reuerſion, remainder or in vſe ſhalbe immediatly after the ſame fine leuied engroſſed, and [b] proclamations made, adiudged, accepted, deemed, and taken to all intents and purpoſes, a ſufficient barre and diſcharge for euer againſt the ſaid perſon and perſons, and their heires, claming the ſame lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or any parcell thereof, onely by force of any ſuch entaile, & againſt all other perſons claming the ſame or any parcell therof, only to their vſe, or to the vſe of any manner of heire of the bodies of them, any ambiguity, doubt, or contrarioſity of opinion, riſen or grown vpon the ſaid eſtatute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

For remedy whereof be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that the executors and adminiſtrators of euery ſuch perſon or perſons, vnto whom any ſuch rent, or fée ferme is, or ſhalbe due, and not paid at the time of his death, ſhall and may haue an action of [b] debt for all ſuch arrerages againſt the tenant, or tenants that ought to haue paid the ſaid rent or fée fermes ſo being behind, in the life of their teſtator or againſt the executors and adminiſtrators of the ſaid tenants. CAP. XXXVIII.

What marriages are lawfull, and what not.

WHereas heretofore the vſurped power of the Biſhop of Rome, hath alwayes entangled, and troubled the meere iuriſdiction, and regall power of this realme of England, and alſo vnquieted much the ſubiects of the ſame, by his vſurped power in them, as by making that vnlawfull which by Gods word is lawful, both in marriages and other things, as hereafter ſhal appeare more at length, and till now of late in our Soueraigne Lords time, which is otherwiſe by learning taught than his predeceſſors in times paſt long time haue beene, hath ſo continued the ſame, whereof yet ſome ſparks be left, which hereafter might kindle a greater fire, and ſo remaining his power not to ſeeme vtterly extinct.

The enormity of auoiding marriages by precontracts.

The inconueniences of diſpenſations to marry.

Therefore it is thought moſt conuenient to the Kings highneſſe, his Lords ſpirituall and temporall, with the commons of this Realme aſſembled in this preſent Parliament, that two things ſpecially for this time bee with diligence prouided for, whereby many inconueniences hath enſued, & many moe elſe mought enſue and follow: as where heretofore diuers and many perſons after long continuance together in matrimony without any allegation of either of the parties, or any other at their marriage, why the ſame matrimony ſhould not be good, iuſt, and lawfull, and after the ſame matrimony ſolemnized, and conſummate by carnall knowledge, and alſo ſometime fruit of children enſued of the ſame marriage, vpon pretence of a former contract made and not conſummate by carnall copulation (for proofe whereof two witneſſes by that law were only required) beene diuorſed and ſeparat, contrary to Gods law, and ſo the true matrimony both ſolemnized in the face of the Church, and conſummate with bodily knowledge, and confirmed alſo with the fruit of children had betweene them cleerly fruſtrate and diſſolued: Further alſo by reaſon of other prohibitions than Gods law admitteth, for their lucre by that Court inuented, the diſpenſation whereof they alwayes reſerued to themſelues, as in kindred, or affinity betweene coſin germanes, and ſo to fourth and fourth degree, carnall knowledge of any of the ſame kin, or affinity before in ſuch outward degrees, which elſe were lawfull and be not prohibited by Gods law, and all becauſe they would get money by it, and keep a reputation of their vſurped iuriſdiction, whereby not only much diſcord betweene lawfull married perſons hath (contrary to Gods ordinance) ariſen, much debate and ſuit at the law with wrongfull vexation, and great dammage of the innocent party hath beene procured, and many iuſt marriages brought in doubt, and danger of vndoing, and alſo many times vndone, and lawfull heires diſherited, whereof there had neuer elſe, but for his vaineglorious vſurpation beene moued any ſuch queſtion, ſince freedome in them was giuen vs by Gods law, which ought to be moſt ſure, and certaine. But that notwithſtanding marriages haue beene brought into ſuch an incertainty thereby, that no marriage could be ſurely knit and bounden, but it ſhould lye in either of the parties power, and arbiter, caſting away the feare of God by meanes, and compaſſes to proue a precontract, a kindred, and alience, or a carnall knowledge, to defeat the ſame, and ſo vnder the pretence of theſe allegations afore rehearſed, to liue all the dayes of their life in deteſtable adultery to the vtter deſtruction of their owne ſoules, and the prouocation of the terrible wrath of God, vpon the places where ſuch abominations were vſed and ſuffered. Be it therefore enacted by the King our ſoueraigne Lord, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that from the firſt day of the moneth of July next comming in the yeere of our Lord God 1540. all and euery ſuch marriages as within this Church of England ſhall be contracted betweene lawfull perſons, (as by this Act we declare all perſons to be lawfull, that bee not prohibited by Gods law to marry) ſuch marriages being contract and ſolemnized in the face of the Church and conſummate with bodily knowledge, or fruit of children, or childe, being had therein betweene the parties ſo married, ſhalbe by authority of this preſent Parliament aforeſaid deemed, iudged, and taken to be lawfull, good, iuſt, and indiſſoluble, notwithſtanding any precon-

Priuileges granted to Phyſitians in London.

In moſt humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your Maieſty your true and faithfull ſubiects, and liege men, the Preſident of the corporation of the comminalty and fellowſhip of the ſcience and faculty of phyſick in your city of London, and the commons of the fellowes of the ſame, that whereas diuers of them many times hauing in cure, as well ſome of the Lords of your moſt honourable Councell, and diuers times many of the Nobility of this Realme, as many other your faithful and liege people, cannot giue their due attendance to them and other their patients with ſuch diligence, as their duty were and is to do, by reaſon they be many times compelled as well within the city of London, and ſuburbs of the ſame, as in other townes and villages, to keepe watch, and ward, and be choſen to the office of Conſtable, and other offices within the ſaid city, and ſuburbs of the ſame, as in other places within this your Realme, to their great fatigation and vnquieting, and to the perill of their patients, by reaſon they cannot be conueniently attended. It may therefore pleaſe your moſt excellent Maieſty, with the aſſent of your Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame to enact, ordeine, and eſtabliſh, that the Preſident of the ſaid comminalty and fellowſhip for the time being, and the commons and fellowes of the ſame, and euery fellow thereof that now be, or that any time hereafter ſhall bee their ſucceſſors, and the ſucceſſors of euery of them, at all time and times after the making of this preſent Act, ſhall be diſcharged to keep any watch and ward, in your ſaid city of London, or the ſuburbs of the ſame, or any part thereof: And that they or any of them ſhalbe choſen Conſtable, or any other officer in the ſaid city or ſuburbs. And that if any time hereafter the ſaid preſident for the time being, or any of the ſaid commons, or fellowes for the time being, by any wayes or meanes be appointed, or elected to any watch, or ward, office of Conſtable, or any other office within the ſaid city or ſuburbs, the ſame appointment, or election to bee vtterly void and of none effect, any order, cuſtome or law to the contrary before this time vſed in the ſaid City notwithſtanding.

The Phyſitians in London ſhall be diſcharged to beare certaine offices there.

And that it may pleaſe your moſt royall Maieſty, by the authority aforeſaid, that it may bee further enacted, ordained and eſtabliſhed, for the common wealth and ſurety of your louing ſubiects of this your realme, in, and for the adminiſtration of medicines to ſuch your ſaid ſubiects as as ſhall haue need of the ſame, That from henceforth the ſaid Preſident for the time being, commons, and fellowes, and their ſucceſſors, may yeerely as ſuch time as they ſhall thinke moſt meet and conuenient for the ſame, elect and choſe foure perſons of the ſaid commons, and fellows of the beſt learned, wiſeſt, and moſt diſcreet, ſuch as they ſhall thinke conuenient, and haue experience in the ſaid faculty of Phyſicke: And that the ſaid foure perſons ſo elected and choſen after a corporall Oath to them miniſtred by the ſaid Preſident, or his Deputy ſhall and may by vertue of this preſent Act, haue full authority and power, as often as they ſhall thinke meet, and conuenient, to enter into the houſe or houſes of all, and euery Apothecary, now or any time hereafter vſing the myſtery or craft of Apothecary within the ſaid Citie, onely to ſearch, view, and ſee ſuch Pothecary wares, drugs, and ſtuffes as the ſaid Apothecaries, or any of them haue, or at any time hereafter ſhall haue in their houſe or houſes, And all ſuch Wares, Drugs, and ſtuffes as the ſaid foure perſons ſhall then finde defectiue, corrupted, and not meet, nor conuenient to be miniſtred in any medicines for the health of mans body, the ſame foure perſons calling to them the Wardens of the ſaid myſtery of Apothecaries within the ſaid City for that time being, or one of them, ſhall cauſe to bee brent, or otherwiſe deſtroy the ſame, as they ſhall thinke meet by their diſcretion. And if the ſaid Apothecaries, or any of them, at any time hereafter doe obſtinately, or willingly refuſe, or deny the ſaid foure perſons yeerely elected and choſen, as is before ſaid, to enter into their ſaid houſe or houſes for the cauſes intent and purpoſe before rehearſed, That then they and euery of them ſo offending contrary to this act, for euery time that hee or they doe ſo offend, to forfeit C.s. the one halfe to your Maieſty, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill plaint, or information in any of the kings courts wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhall be allowed. And if the ſaid foure perſons, or any of them ſo elected and choſen as before is ſaid, do refuſe to be ſworne, or after his ſaid oath to him or them adminiſtred, do obſtinatly refuſe to make the ſaid ſearch, and view once in the yéer at ſuch time as they ſhall thinke moſt conuenient by their diſcretions, hauing no lawfull impediment by ſickneſſe, or otherwiſe to the contrary: That then for euery ſuch wilfull and obſtinate default, euery of the ſaid foure perſons making default, to forfeit forty ſhillings.

Any of the phyſitians of London may practiſe Surgery.

And foraſmuch as the Science of Phyſicke doth comprehend, include and containe the knowledge of Surgery, as a ſpeciall member and part of the ſame, therefore be it enacted, that any of the ſaid company or fellowſhip of Phyſitians, being able, choſen, and admitted by the ſaid preſident and fellowſhip of Phyſitians, may from time to time as well within the city of London, as elſewhere within this realme, practiſe, and exerciſe the ſaid Science of Phyſick in all and euery his members and parts, any Act, ſtatute, or prouiſion made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XLII.

The authority and liberties of Barbers and Surgeons in London, being made of one company.

THe king our Soueraigne Lord by the aduice of his Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, by all their common aſſents, duly pondering among other things neceſſary for the Common wealth of this realme, that it is very expedient and néedfull to prouide for men expert in the ſcience of Phyſick and ſurgery for the health of mans body, when infirmities and ſickneſſe ſhall happen, for the due exerciſe and maintenance whereof, good and neceſſary Acts be already made and prouided. Yet neuertheleſſe, foraſmuch as within the city of London, where men of great experience as well in ſpeculation, as in practice of the ſcience and faculty of ſurgery, bee abiding and inhabiting, and haue more commonly the daily exerciſe and experience of the ſame ſcience of Surgery, than is had or vſed within any parts of this Realme: And by occaſion thereof many expert perſons bee brought vp vnder them, as their ſeruants, apprentices, and others, who by the exerciſe and diligent information of their ſaid maſters, as well now, as hereafter ſhall exerciſe the ſaid ſcience within diuers other parts of this realme, to the great reliefe, comfort, and ſuccor of much people, and to the ſure ſafegard of their bodily health, their limbs and liues. And for as much as within the ſaid City of London, there bee now two ſeuerall and diſtinct Companies of Surgeons, occupying and exerciſing the ſaid Science and Faculty of Surgery, the one Company being commonly called the Barbers of London, and the other Company called the Surgeons of London, Which Company of Barbers bee incorporated to ſue, and bee ſued by the name of Maſters, or Gouernors of the Myſtery or Communalty of the Barbers of London, by vertue and authority of the Letters Patents vnder the great Seale of the late King of famous memory King Edward the fourth, dated at Weſtminſter the foure and twentieth day of February in the firſt yéere of his reigne, which afterward, as well by our moſt dread ſoueraigne Lord, as by the right noble and vertuous Prince King Henry the ſeuenth, father vnto the Kings moſt excellent highneſſe now being, were and be confirmed, as by ſundry Letters Patents thereof made, amongſt other things in the ſame contained more at large may appeare. And the other Company called the Surgeons, bee not incorporate, nor haue any manner Corporation: which two ſeuerall and diſtinct Companies of Surgeons were neceſſary to bee vnited and made one body incorporate, to the intent that by their vnion and often aſſembly together, the good and due order, exerciſe, and knowledge in the ſaid Science or Faculty of Surgery, ſhould bee as well in ſpeculation, as in practice, both to themſelues and all other their ſaid ſeruants and apprentices, now and hereafter to bee brought vp vnder them, and by their learning, and diligent, and ripe informations, more perfect, ſpéedy, and effectuall remedy ſhould bee than it hath béene, or ſhould bee, if the ſaid two Companies of Barbers and Surgeons, ſhould continue ſeuered aſunder, and not ioyned together, as they before this time haue beene, and vſed themſelues, not medling together. Wherefore in conſideration of the premiſſes, bee it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and by the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and by the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the ſaid two ſeuerall and diſtinct Companies of Surgeons, that is to ſay, both the Barbers, and the Surgeons,

By whom and at what time the Barbers of London were incorporate.

The benefit like to enſue by ioyning the Barbers and Surgeons in one company.

geons, and euery perſon of them being a free man of either of the ſaid Companies after the cuſtome of the ſaid City of London, and their ſucceſſors, from henceforth immediately be vnited, and made one entire and whole bodie corporate, and one Comminalty perpetuall, which at all times hereafter ſhall be called by the name of Maſters, or Gouernors of the myſtery and Comminalty of Barbers and Surgeons of London for euermore, and by none other name: And by the ſame name to implead, and be impleaded before all manner of Iuſtices, in all Courts, in all manner of actions and ſuits. And alſo to purchaſe, enioy, and take to them and to their ſucceſſors all manner of lands, tenements, rents, and other poſſeſſions whatſoeuer they be, and alſo ſhall haue a common ſeale, to ſerue for the buſineſſe of the ſaid Company and Corporation for euer. And by the ſame name peaceably, quietly, and indifferently, haue, poſſeſſe, and enioy to them, and to their ſucceſſors for euer, all ſuch lands and tenements, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer; which the ſaid Company, or Comminalty of Barbers haue and enioy to the vſe of the ſaid Myſtery and Comminalty of Barbers of London. And alſo ſhall peaceably, and quietly haue, and enioy all and ſingular benefits, grants, liberties, priuileges, franchiſes, and free cuſtomes, and alſo all manner of other things, at any time giuen or granted vnto the ſaid Companies of Barbers or Surgeons, by whatſoeuer name or names they or any of them were called, and which they, or any of them now haue, or any of their predeceſſors haue had, by acts of Parliament, Letters Patents of the Kings Highneſſe, or other his moſt Noble progenitors, or otherwiſe, by any lawfull meanes had at any time afore this preſent act, in as large and ample manner and forme, as they, or any of them haue, had, might, or ſhould enioy the ſame, this vnion, or communction of the ſaid Companies together notwithſtanding. And as largely to haue and enioy the premiſſes, as if the ſame were, and had beene ſpecially, and particularly expreſſed, and declared with the beſt and moſt cleareſt words, and termes in the law, to all intents and purpoſes. And that all perſons of the ſaid Company now incorporate by this preſent act, and their ſucceſſors, that ſhall be lawfully admitted, and approued to occupy Surgery after the forme of the ſtatute in that caſe ordained and prouided, ſhall be exempt for bearing of armour, or to be put in any watches, or inqueſtes: And that they, and their ſucceſſors ſhall haue the ſearch, ouerſight, puniſhment, and correction as well of Freemen, as of foreins, for ſuch offences as they, or any of them ſhall commit, or doe againſt the good order of Barbery, or Surgery, as afore this time among the ſaid myſtery and Company of Barbers of London, hath beene vſed and accuſtomed, according to the good and politike rules and ordinances by them made, and approued by the Lords Chancellor, Treaſurer, and two chiefe Iuſtices of either Bench or any three of them after the forme of the ſtatute in that caſe ordained and prouided.

The Barbers and Surgeons of London made one company, and incorporated.

The Barbers and Surgeons in London ſhall be exempt from bearing of armes, or to be in watches or enqueſts. 5.H.8.6.

19.H.7.7.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Maſters or Gouernors of the Myſtery and Comminalty of Barbers and Surgeons of London, and their ſucceſſors yearely for euer after their ſaid diſcretions at their free liberty and pleaſure, ſhall and may haue and take without contradiction foure perſons condemned, adiudged, and put to death for felony, by the due order of the Kings lawes of this Realme, for Anatomies, without any further ſuit or labour to be made to the Kings Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors for the ſame. And to make inciſion of the ſame dead bodies, or other wiſe to order the ſame, after their ſaid diſcretions at their pleaſures, for their further and better knowledge, inſtruction, inſight, learning, and experience in the ſaid Science or Faculty of Surgery. Sauing vnto all perſons, their heires and ſucceſſors, all ſuch right, title, intereſt, and demand, which they, or any of them might lawfully claime, to haue, in, or to any of the lands and tenements with the appurtenances belonging vnto the ſaid Companie of Barbers and Surgeons, or any of them, at any time afore the making of this Act, in as ample manner and forme as they or any of them had or ought to haue had heretofore: Any thing in this preſent act compriſed, to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Surgeons may take yearely foure condemned perſons for Anatomies.

And foraſmuch as ſuch perſons being of the Myſtery or Faculty of Surgery, oftentimes meddle, and take into their cure, and houſes ſuch ſicke and diſeaſed perſons, as beene infected with the peſtilence, great pockes, and ſuch other contagious infirmites, doe vſe, or exerciſe Barbery, as waſhing, or ſhauing, and other feates thereunto belonging, which is very perillous for infecting the Kings liege people, reſorting to their ſhops, and houſes there being waſhed or ſhauen. Wherefore it is now enacted, ordained, and prouided by the authority aforeſaid, that no manner perſon within the City of London, Suburbs of the ſame, and one mile compaſſe of the ſaid City of London, after the feaſt of the natiuity of our Lord God next comming, vſing any Barbery or ſhauing, or that hereafter ſhall vſe any Barbery or ſhauing within the ſaid City of London, Suburbs, or one mile circuit of the ſame City of London, he nor they, nor none other for them, to his, or their vſe, ſhall occupy any Surgery, letting of bloud, or any other thing belonging to Surgery, (drawing of teeth only except.) And furthermore in like manner whoſoeuer that vſeth the myſtery or craft of Surgery within the circuit aforeſaid, as long as he ſhall fortune to vſe the ſaid miſtery or craft of Surgery, ſhall in no wiſe occupy nor exerciſe the feat or craft of Barbery or ſhauing, neither by himſelfe, nor by none other for him to his or their vſe: And moreouer, that all manner of perſons vſing Surgery for the time being, as well free men, as fo-

No Surgeon in London ſhall vſe the craft of ſhauing.

rens, aliens, and ſtrangers within the ſaid City of London, the Suburbs thereof, and one mile compaſſe of the ſame City of London, before the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel next comming, ſhall haue an open ſigne on the ſtreete ſide where they ſhall fortune to dwell, that all the Kings liege people there paſſing by may know at all times whither to reſort for their remedies in time of neceſſity.

None ſhall be a Barber in London but a Freeman of that Company.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no manner of perſon after the ſaid feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next comming, preſume to keepe any ſhop of Barbery or ſhauing within the City of London, except hee be a Freeman of the ſame Corporation and Company.

Foure Wardens ſhall be choſen, and their authority.

The forfeitures of the offenders.

And furthermore at ſuch times as haue beene heretofore accuſtomed, there ſhall bee choſen by the ſame Company, foure Maſters or Gouernors of the ſame Corporation or Company, of the which foure, two of them ſhalbe expert in Surgery, and the other two in Barbery, which foure Maſters, and euery of them ſhall haue full power and authority from time to time, during their ſaid office, to haue the ouerſight, ſearch, puniſhment, and correction of all ſuch defaults, and inconueniences, as ſhall be found among the ſaid Company vſing Barbery, or Surgery, as well of freemen, as foreins, aliens, and ſtrangers within the City of London and the circuit aforeſaid after their ſaid diſcretions. And if any perſon or perſons vſing any Barbery, or Surgery, at any time hereafter, offend in any of theſe articles aforeſaid: then for euery moneth the ſaid perſons ſo offending ſhall loſe, forfeit, and pay fiue pounds, the one moity therof to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other moity to any perſon that will or ſhall ſue therefore by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any the Kings Courts, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhall be admitted or allowed in the ſame.

Prouided that the ſaid Barbers and Surgeons, and euery of them ſhall beare and pay lot and ſcot, and ſuch other charges, as they and their predeceſſors haue beene accuſtomed to pay within the ſaid City of London, this act or any thing therein contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Any perſon may keepe a Barber or Surgeon as his ſeruant.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall bee lawfull to any of the Kings Subiects, not being Barber or Surgeon, to retaine, haue, and keepe in his houſe, as his ſeruant, any perſon being a Barber or Surgeon, which ſhall and may vſe, and exerciſe thoſe arts and faculties of Barbery and Surgery, or either of them, in his maſters houſe, or elſewhere by his Maſters licence or commandement, any thing in this Act aboue written to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XLIII.

Seſſions ſhall be kept in Cheſter twice in the yeare only.

27.H.8.5.

WHere it is enacted and eſtabliſhed in the xxvij. yeare of our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, as well for the increaſe and augmentation of good rule and order, to be had and done in the County Palatine of Cheſter, & other Shires, as for the adminiſtration of iuſtice among the Kings Subiects there, that the Lord Chancellor of England, and the Lord Keeper of the great ſeale for the time being, ſhall haue authority from time to time to nominate and appoint Iuſtices of Peace, Iuſtices of Quorum, and Iuſtices of Gaole deliuery, as well within the ſaid County Palatine of Cheſter, and other Shires and parts of Wales by Commiſſion vnder the Kings great ſeale, which perſons named ſhall haue power and authority to enquire, heare, and determine all manner thing and things enquirable, preſentable, or determinable before Iuſtices of Peace, Iuſtices of Quorum, and Iuſtices of Gaole deliuery in other Shires of this Realme of England, and to doe, vſe, and execute euery thing and things as other Iuſtices of Peace, Quorum, and Gaole deliuery doe in other Shires of England, and that they ſhall keepe their ſeſſions there as they do in other ſhires of England, vpon like penalty as hath been ordained for ſuch abuſes, in ſuch Iuſtices in other ſhires of England: any law, act, ſtatute, vſage, cuſtome, priuilege, preſcription, or liberty to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding, as in the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid xxvii. yeare amongſt other things more plainly appeareth. By reaſon of which act it is now vſed to keepe Seſſions in the ſaid County Palatine of Cheſter, as it is vſed in other Shires of England. Alſo it is vſed in the ſaid County Palatine of Cheſter that the Iuſticer of the ſame for the time being hath, yearely time out of minde, vſed to keepe the Shires or County dayes, in manner and forme following (that is to ſay) one yeare viii. Shires or County dayes, and another yeare ix. Shires or County dayes, to the which the Gentlemen, freeholders, and ſuiters of the ſaid County are bounden of ancient cuſtome and duty to appeare, and giuen their attendance to ſerue the King, which Shires and County dayes come very oftentimes in the yeare. And now by reaſon of the ſaid new ſtatute of Iuſtices of the Peace had in the ſaid County, the ſaid Gentlemen, Freeholders, and ſuiters of the ſaid County being bounden of their ſaid old cuſtome, and law to giue their attendance and apparance to the ſaid Shires and Countie dayes, are now bounden alſo to giue their apparance and attendance at foure quarter Seſſions,

In what manner Shire dayes in the County of Cheſter had wont to be kept.

and other priuy Seſſions in the ſaid County: By meane whereof, the ſaid apparance and attendance commeth ſo often and thicke together, that at many times they cannot depart from the one Court, and attend their buſineſſe ſcarcely one day, or ſometime leſſe, but they muſt againe ride to ſerue the other Court, which is too painefull, chargeable, intolerable, and importune, for any man to ſuſtaine and abide. In conſideration whereof bee it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from henceforth the law and adminiſtration of Iuſtice, and all other things in the ſaid County in time paſt vſed to be had at the ſaid Shire dayes, ſhall be holden, had, made, done and executed by the Iuſticer of the ſaid County for the time being at two times in the yeare onely, that is to wit, at the Seſſions next after the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell, and at the Seſſions next after Eaſter yearely for euer, during ſo many dayes at euery of the ſaid times as need ſhall require, in like manner and forme as it is now vſed and executed in the County Palatine of Lancaſter. And that no actions ſuit, or proceſſe now or hereafter, to be depending in the ſaid Counties, ſhall be thereby diſcontinued, hurt, or impaired, nor any aduantage therein to be taken by error, diſcontinuance of Proces, ne otherwiſe, but the ſame to proceed after the ſame new order. And that from henceforth the ſaid old order, rule, and cuſtome in holding of the Counties or Shire dayes, ſhall vtterly ceaſe, and determine for euer: Any act, ſtatute, preſcription, grant, vſage, cuſtome, priuilege, law, liberty, conſtitution, or confirmation heretofore had, made, accuſtomed, or vſed, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Seſſions ſhalbe kept in the County of Cheſter, twice in the yeare only.

The old order of keeping the Countie dayes ſhall ceaſe.

For the more ſurety and eſtabliſhment whereof, and to the intent the Kings Maieſty his heires and ſucceſſors ſhall be the better ſerued in obtaining or hauing of the cuſtody of the bodies of his Highneſſe Wards, and their honors, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments into his graces cuſtody and gouernance, during the minority of ſuch wards, and alſo ſhall yeerely as well be truly anſwered, contented and paid for the ſale of the bodies of the wards and their lands bargained for them during the ſaid minority, and of other the premiſſes, as of the rents, fermes, iſſues and profits, riſing, comming, and growing, or which hereafter ſhall riſe and grow, of all and ſingular the caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, belonging, and which hereafter ſhall riſe, and belong to the King his heires and ſucceſſors, by reaſon of the ſaid wards and other the premiſſes in ſuch court, place, manner, forme and condition, as hereafter ſhall be limited, declared and appointed. and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that all and euery the ſaid Cloathes, from and after the Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, that ſhall bee brought to any common Markets or Faires, to bee vttered and ſold, ſhall be folded either in pleights, or cuttell, as the clothes of all other Countries of this Realme commonly haue beene vſed, and be vſed, to the intent that the buyers thereof may plainly ſee and perceiue the breadth, and goodneſſe of ſuch cloth and cloathes that he ſhall buy. And that euery piece of the ſaid cloathes, which after the ſaid feaſt ſhall be brought to any Market or Faire to be vttered, and ſold, contrary to the forme aboue ſaid, ſhall be forfeited, that is to ſay, the moity, or one halfe thereof to the vſe of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other moity thereof to any of the Kings ſubiects, which will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of Record, by action of debt, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, wherein the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor any protection, nor eſſoine, nor any other delatory plea admitted or allowed.

Cap. IIII.

The goodneſſe of Pewter and Braſſe, and in what places it ſhall be ſold or changed.

St.25.H.8.9.

None ſhall buy wares made of Tinne out of the Realme.

Where at the Parliament begun at London the third day of Nouember, in the one and twentieth yeare of the raigne of the King our Soueraigne Lord, and from thence adiourned to Weſtminſter, and there holden, and from that time continued by diuers prorogations vnto the fifteenth day of January, the xxv. yeare of his moſt Noble raigne: it was ordained, and eſtabliſhed by the aſſent of the Kings Maieſty, his Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid Parliament then aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that no perſon, nor perſons, from that time then inhabiting, or which after that time ſhould inhabite within this Realme, ſhould buy, or otherwiſe take by exchange for other wares, any manner wares made, or hereafter to be made out of this Realme, of Tinne, or mixt with Tinne, as platters, diſhes, ſaucers, pots, baſons, ewers, flagons, goblets, ſalts, ſaltſellers, ſpoones, or any other thing made of Tinne or Pewter, as aforeſaid, whatſoeuer it were, vpon paine of forfeitures of the ſame wares, in whoſe hands ſoeuer it might be found or taken, and alſo lawfull money currant in this Realme, to the full value thereof, the one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be to the vſe of the Kings Highneſſe, and the other halfe to be to the vſe of the finders of the ſame.

Searchers of wares made of Tinne brought into this Realme.

And further it was enacted, that it ſhould be lawfull to the Maſter and Warden of the Pewterers, aſwell within the City of London, as within euery other City, Borough, or Towne within this Realme, where ſuch Wardens were, and where no ſuch Wardens were, to the head Officer or Gouernor, head Officers or Gouernors of the ſame City, Borough, or Towne for the time being, to appoint diuers perſons moſt expert in knowledge of the ſame, to make ſearch and ſeiſure, and to take into their hands and poſſeſſion, all ſuch wares, as thereafter ſhould be brought contrary to the true intent and effect of the ſaid Act, in whoſeſoeuer hands or poſſeſſions any ſuch ſhould be found.

No Pewterer ſhall take a ſtranger borne to be his Prentice, &c.

And it was alſo enacted by the authority aboue ſaid, that no perſon nor perſons, occupying the ſaid craft or occupation of Pewterers within this Realme, ſhould ſet on worke, or retaine in his or their ſeruice any perſon or perſons, to be his or their Prentice or Iourneyman, eſtranger borne out of this Realme, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch Prentice and Iourneyman x. li. ſterling: And that not ſtranger borne out of this Realme, ſhould occupy, exerciſe or vſe, from the Feaſt of Pentecoſt then next comming, the ſaid craft of Pewterers, ne worke any manner of veſſels, or other ware aforeſaid, to be made of Tinne or Pewter, within any place or places of this Realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of x. li. ſterling, and alſo vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame Pewter or Tinne ſo wrought, in whoſe hands ſo euer it ſhould be found or taken.

No ſtranger borne ſhall worke any Pewter or Tinne.

No Pewterer ſhall teach this trade in a forein Realme.

And it was further enacted by the ſaid authority, that no perſon nor perſons being borne within this Realme, then occupying or exerciſing the ſaid craft of Pewterers, ſhould from thenceforth reſort into any ſtrange regions, or countries, there to vſe, teach, or exerciſe the ſaid craft of Pewterers vpon paine to loſe the priuilege and benefit of an Engliſh man. And if in caſe any of the Kings Subiects, at that time being dwelling in any ſtrange countrey, or region, and there occupying the ſaid craft of Pewterers, did not repaire into this Realme within three moneths next after requeſt and warning to him to be giuen by writing ſealed with the common Seale of the Wardens of the ſaid craft within the ſaid City of London, and here in this Realme continually from thenceforth dwell, and inhabit, that then, and from henceforth he ſhould be reputed and taken as no Engliſhman, but ſhould ſtand and be from henceforth out of the Kings protection.

And it was then further enacted, that where ſundry euill diſpoſed perſons, which commonly were called haukers, by authority of the Kings Letters Patents or Placard, did not onely goe about from place to place within this Realme, vſing, buying, and ſelling of Braſſe and Pewter, and by colour and pretence of the ſame Licences or Placards, did not only vſe vnlawfull and deceiuable weights and beames, but alſo did vſe to ſell both braſſe and pewter, which was not good, nor truly or lawfully mixt or wrought, to the great deceit of the Kings true liege people, contrary to the forme and effect of a good and laudable act and ſtatute, made in the fourth yeere of the Kings ſaid moſt noble reigne, that all ſuch licences and placards afore that time had, made, or granted to any ſuch perſon or perſons, contrary to the true meaning, forme, and effect of the ſaid eſtatute, ſhould be from thenceforth by the authority of the ſaid Parliament clearely void and of none effect. And whereas in the ſaid act of Parliament, concerning the ſaid craft of Pewterers and Braſiers, made in the ſaid fourth yeere, for diuers cauſes and conſiderations in the ſame Act conteined, amongſt other things it was expreſſed that no perſon nor perſons, vſing the ſaid craft of pewterers or braſiers ſhould from henceforth ſell or change any pewter or braſſe, new or old, at any place or places within this Realme, but only in open faires or markets, or in their owne dwelling houſes, except they were deſired by the buyers of ſuch wares, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery ſuch default x.li. And ſo then the ſame forfeiture being to the only vſe of the Kings Highneſſe, and the partie ſearching or finding the ſame, not being intituled to haue any benefit thereby, it was not knowne, that any perſon or perſons had taken any paines, to enſearch or make any inquirie thereof, by reaſon whereof diuers and many euill diſpoſed perſons, then vſing buying and ſelling aſwell of braſſe as pewter, and not regarding the ſaid good act, nor the ſaid penalty, went daily about from village to village, towne to towne, and from houſe to houſe, to ſell ſuch pewter and braſſe, which was not good, and alſo vſed diſceiuable weights and beames, as they did before the making of the ſaid act, to the great hurt and diſceit of the Kings true liege people and ſubiects. Wherefore it was enacted by the authority of the ſaid Parliament, that as well the moity of the ſaid forfeiture of x.li. limited in the ſaid ſtatute, made in the ſaid fourth yeere, as alſo the moity of all other forfeitures and penalties, expreſſed and ſpecified in the ſaid acts, and euery of them, ſhould be to the vſe of the Kings Highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity of the ſame forfeitures & penalties, & euery of them, to the vſe of him or them that would ſeiſe, finde, or preſent the ſame forfeitures, or any of them, or that would ſue for the ſame in any competent court or courts within this realme, by action of debt, bil, plaint, or information, wherein the defendant ſhould in no wiſe be admitted to wage his law, or any protection or eſſoine to any perſon or perſons, which ſhould be impeached to haue offended contrary to the forme and effect of this eſtatute, ſhould be allowable, as in the ſaid act more plainly appeareth, which act was appointed to endure only to the end of the next Parliament then next following: and which act was after renued in the Parliament holden at Weſtm. in the xxviij. yeere of the raigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord, to endure to the end of the next Parliament then next following: and which act was alſo renued at the Parliament holden at Weſtm. in the xxxj. and xxxij. yeeres of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lords reigne, to endure vntill the laſt day of the next Parliament then next enſuing.

Licences and placards made to hawkers of Pewter ſhall be void. 4.H.8.7.

Pewter and Braſſe ſhall be ſould only in faires or markets, or in their owne houſes.

Who ſhall haue the penalties forfeited by the Stat. of 4.H.8.7. & 25.H.8.9. and by what meanes they ſhall be recouered.

28.H.8.9.

31.H.8.7.

Prayen therefore in this preſent Parliament our ſaid Soueraigne Lords true and obedient Subiects, the Pewterers of this his ſaid Realme, and other the true commons of the ſame, becauſe the ſame act is beneficiall, and neceſſary for the Common wealth of this Realme: That it may be enacted by the King our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and other the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, foraſmuch as the ſame act, and euery thing therein conteined, is good and beneficiall to the Common wealth of this Realme, that all and euery the ſaid acts and ſtatutes, and all and euery article, ſentence and clauſe compriſed in the ſame, may from henceforth ſtand, and abide in full ſtrength, and effect for euer more from henceforth to endure, according to the purport, tenor, and effect of the ſame act, and acts, as though the ſaid articles, ſentences, and clauſes, were ſpecially limited, recited, or declared in this preſent act.

The ſtatute of 25.H.8.9. made perpetuall.

And that no perſon ne perſons from henceforth buy, or take by exchange, or otherwiſe take into, or within this Realme, to the intent to ſell any ſuch things or wares aboue rehearſed, made, or to be made out of this Realme, vpon paine of like forfeitures, and penalties, as are and were expreſſed in the ſaid ſeuerall acts, the ſame penalties and forfeitures to be leuied as is afore expreſſed.

And that it may be further enacted by authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons doe vnlawfully withſtand, interrupt, diſturbe, or let the Maſter and Wardens, or their deputies of the ſaid craft of Pewterers for the time being, or the head Officer or Gouernor, head Officers or Gouernors of Cities, Townes, and Boroughes, within this Realme, wherein no ſuch Maſter and Wardens are, or ſhall be, or any of them, in ſearching, ſeaſing, and taking into their hands and poſſeſſions, ſuch wares as ſhall happen to be bought, or brought into this Realme, contrary to the purport and effect of the ſaid eſtatute, made in the ſaid xxv. yeere of the reige of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, that then euery ſuch perſon and perſons ſo offending, in letting, diſturbing, or withſtanding the ſaid ſeiſure, or taking of ſuch wares, as is aforeſaid, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery time ſo doing, the ſum of v.li. ſterling, the one halfe whereof, ſhall be to the Kings vſe, and the other halfe to him or them, that will or ſhall ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, writ, bill, plaint, or information in any the Kings Courts of record. In which action or ſuit, no protection, priuilege, nor wager of law ſhall be allowed nor admitted.

The penalty for withſtanding or letting of ſearching or ſeiſing of pewter, &c.

Inconueniences enſuing the vſe of Croſſebowes and Handguns.

WHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the fifteenth day of Ianuary, in the fiue and twentieth yeare of the Kings moſt gratious reigne, and there continued & kept vntill the thirtieth day of March then next enſuing, among diuers and ſundry wholeſome and laudable acts, ſtatutes, and ordinances, one ſtatute and ordinance was made, and ordeined for the auoiding and eſchewing of ſhooting in Croſſebowes and Handguns: Since the making of which act diuers malicious and euill diſpoſed perſons, not only preſuming wilfully and obſtinately the violation and breach of the ſaid act, but alſo of their malicious, and euill diſpoſed minds, and purpoſes, haue wilfully and ſhamefully committed, perpetrated, and done diuers deteſtable & ſhamefull murders, robberies, felonies, riots, and routs, with Croſſebowes, little ſhort Handguns, and little Hagbuts, to the great perill and continuall feare and danger of the Kings moſt louing Subiects, and alſo diuers Keepers of Foreſts, Chaſes, and Parks, aſwell of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, as other his Nobles and Commons, and diuers Gentlemen, Yeomen, and Seruing men, now of late haue laid apart the good and laudable exerciſe of the Longbow, which alwayes heretofore hath beene the ſurety, ſafegard, and continuall defence of this Realme of England, and an ineſtimable dread and terror to the enemies of the ſame. Cap. VII.

No man may conuey any Braſſe, &c. ont of the Kings Dominions.

21. H.8.10.

Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the third day of Nouember, in the one and twentieth yéere of the raigne of our ſoueraigne Lord the King that now is, amongſt other things it was enacted, That no perſon or perſons ſhould from thenceforth carry or conuey any braſſe, copper, latten, bell metall, gunne metall, ne ſhroffe metall into any part or parts beyond the Sea, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſaid metall, as by the ſaid act more plainely appeareth. Sith the making of which eſtatute, diuers perſons, as well Engliſh men as ſtrangers, haue by deceit fully obtained licences of the Kings Highneſſe, to cary ouer bell metall, and other broken metall, ſurmiſing the ſame metals not to be méet for making of gunnes, and other engins of warre, nor for implements neceſſary for houſhold, which ſurmiſe is proued vntrue, as the common experience thereof daily declareth: So that all other Realmes and Countries be full of Artillery and munitions, and this Realme like to lacke, if more haſty remedy to ſtop the conueiance of the ſame be not further prouided than is in the ſame act.

No perſon ſhall conuey any braſſe, copper, latten, bell metall, &c. out of the Kings Dominions.

Wherefore may it pleaſe the Kings Highneſſe, and the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame to enact, that no perſon nor perſons from henceforth ſhall carry, or conuey by water or otherwiſe, any braſſe, copper, latten, bell metall, pan metall, gunne metall, nor ſhroffe metall, whether it be cleane or mixed (tinne and lead only excepted) into any part beyond the Sea, or into any outward Realme or Dominion whatſoeuer it be, vpon paine to forfeit the double value of the ſame metall ſo carried and conueyed, the one halfe thereof to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other to the partie that will ſue for the ſame by writ, bill, plaint or information, in the which no eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed.

Triall within this Realme of a forren Acte.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that for the true meaning of this eſtatute, that the arriuall, diſcharge and deliuery of the ſaid metals in any parts beyond the Sea, or in any other forein Realme or Dominion, ſhall be tried and determined within this Realme, in ſuch County or place where the ſaid metall or metals were ſhipped, or firſt caried, with like proceſſe and determination as all other informations or actions to be tried and adiudged within this Realme, or as the ſame fact had béene done within this Realme and Dominion.

He that carieth braſſe, &c. in any ſhip, ſhall bee bound to diſcharge the ſame within this Realme.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon nor perſons at any time hereafter, ſhall ſhip, or carry any of the ſaid metals afore rehearſed, to carry or diſcharge the ſame in any part of this Realme, vnleſſe ſuch perſon or perſons before the ſhipping thereof, doe declare and manifeſt vnto the Cuſtomer of ſuch Port or cricke, where the ſame metall ſhall bée ſhipped, the true weight of all ſuch metall as ſhall bée ſhipped, and alſo ſhall make a ſufficient obligation in the Law, in the which hée ſhall bée bounden to the ſaid Cuſtomer to the Kings vſe, in ſuch ſumme as ſhall amount to the double value of the ſaid metall ſo declared, and manifeſted, with condition that the ſame ſhall be diſcharged at ſome Port or cricke within this Realme, and in no other place, vpon peine to forfeit the ſame, in manner and forme aboue rehearſed. And that euery ſuch perſon or perſons, that ſhall ſhip ſuch metals, and bée and ſhall bée bounden as is aforeſaid, ſhall within eight moneths next after the ſhipping thereof, bring a true certificat from the Cuſtomer of the Port, cricke, or place, where hée or they ſhall happen to diſcharge the ſame metall, teſtifying that the ſame metall ſo ſhipped, and the true weight thereof, is there diſcharged: which certificat the Cuſtomer of ſuch place where the ſaid metall ſhall be diſcharged, ſhall vpon the diſcharge thereof, make and deliuer to the partie ſo diſcharging, or to his factor without any delay.

The penalty of a Cuſtomer making a falſe certificat.

And be it further enacted, that if any Cuſtomer or his deputy, by couin, or by any other vndue meane, doe make any falſe, or vntrue certificat concerning the ſaid diſcharging of ſuch metall, contrary to the true meaning of this act, that then ſuch Cuſtomer, ſo falſely or vntruly certifying, as is aforeſaid, ſhall loſe his office, and alſo the value of the goods ſo concealed out of the ſaid certificat.

A remedy if the metall bee drowned or robbed.

Prouided alway, that if the ſaid metall by tempeſt of weather be drowned, or by enemies or pirats robbed and ſpoiled, and that ſufficiently proued without fraud or couin before the Cuſtomer and Comptroller, or their ſufficient deputies, in the Port where the party or parties ſo ſhipped the metals aforeſaid or any of them, by the ſaid party or parties, or their executors, that then he or they ſo bringing ſuch ſufficient proofe, ſhall haue his obligation to him deliuered, or elſe hée and his executors thereof to be acquited and cléerely diſcharged, any thing in this act to the contrary conteined notwithſtanding.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this act ſhall only take his effect and be put in execution from and after the firſt day of April next comming. St.2. Ed.6.37.

CAP. IX.

Artillery ſhall be maintained, and vnlawfull games debarred.

Moſt humbly complaining, ſhew vnto your Highneſſe your daily Orators, the Bowyers, Fletchers, Stringers, and Arrow-head makers of this your Realme, that where for the aduancement and maintenance of Archery, the better to be maintained and had within the ſame, and for the auoiding of diuers and many vnlawfull games and playes, occupied and practiſed within this Realme, to the great hurt and let of ſhooting and archery, diuers good and lawfull Statutes haue beene deuiſed, enacted and made, amongſt which one was made in a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the third yeare of your moſt Gracious reigne, and the ſame act made perpetuall in the Parliament there holden, in the ſixth yeare of your ſaid reigne: The which good and laudable act notwithſtanding, diuers and many ſubtill, inuentatiue, and crafty perſons, intending to defraud the ſame eſtatute, ſithens the making thereof, haue found and daily find many ſundry new and crafty games and playes, as logating in the fields, ſlide thrift, otherwiſe called ſhoue grote, as well within the City of London as elſewhere, in many other and diuers parts of this Realme, keeping houſes, playes and alleyes for the maintenance thereof, by reaſon whereof archerie is ſore decayed, and daily is like to be more and more miniſhed, and diuers Bowyers and Fletchers, for lacke of worke, gone and inhabite themſelues in Scotland, and other places out of this Realme, there working and teaching their ſcience to the puiſſance of the ſame, the great comfort of eſtrangers, and detriment of this Realme.

3. H. 8. 3.
6. H. 8. 2.

Seuerall new deuiſed games, the cauſe of the decay of archery.

And where alſo your Graces ſubiects, Bowyers, Fletchers, and other artificers afore named, from time to time reſort, repaire, and come out of all places of this your Realme, vnto the City of London, for lacke of liuing, and do inhabite nigh the ſame City, or in the Suburbs of the ſame City, and in ſtreets and lanes of the ſame City, being no free mes of the ſame City, nor bearing neither ſcot, lot, nor other charges within your ſaid City, as other Citizens and Free men of the ſame City doe, and are bound to doe, and by their oathes are ſworne to doe, and which Citizens and Free men of your ſaid City of the myſteries and crafts before rehearſed, which haue beene brought vp as prentiſes from their youth, dwelling within the freedome of your ſaid City of London, are alwaies in readineſſe to furniſh your Graces affaires when they ſhalbe commanded: By reaſon of the which reſorting and abode of ſuch foreiners and ſtrangers, of the myſteries and crafts before rehearſed, in the ſuburbs, ſtreets, and lanes of the ſame City, other Cities, townes, Villages, and places within this Realme remaine and be vnfurniſhed of artificers & crafts men before rehearſed, to the great decay of the archery of this Realme. And forſomuch as it appeareth by the preamble of the ſaid eſtatute, enacted the ſaid third yeare, which was eſtabliſhed and made perpetual in the foreſaid ſixth yeere of your moſt Gracious reigne, that your Highneſſe, calling to your moſt Noble and Gracious remembrance, that by the feat and exerciſe of the Subiects of this your Realme, in ſhooting in long bowes, there hath continually growen and beene within the ſame great number and multitude of good archers, which hath not only defended this Realme, and the Subiects thereof, againſt the cruel malice and danger of their outward enemies in time heretofore paſt, but alſo with little number and puiſſance, in regard, haue done many notable acts and diſcomfitures of warre, againſt the Infidels and other, and furthermore ſubdued and reduced diuers and many regions and countries, to their due obeyſance, to the great honour, fame and ſurety of this Realme and Subiects, and to the terrible dread and feare of all ſtrange nations, any thing to attempt or doe to the hurt or damage of them or any of them: yet neuertheleſſe archery and ſhooting in long bowes, was little vſed, but daily did miniſh, decay and abate more and more, for that much part of the comminalty and poore people of the Realme, whereby of old time the great number and ſubſtance of archers hath growen and multiplied, were not of power or ability to buy them long bowes of ewe, to exerciſe ſhooting in the ſame, and to ſuſteine the continuall charge thereof, and alſo by meanes and occaſion of cuſtomable vſage of tennis play, boules, cloyſh, and other vnlawfull games, prohibited by many good and beneficiall eſtatutes, by authority of Parliament in that behalfe prouided and made, great impoueriſhment hath enſued, and many heinous murders, robberies and felonies were committed and done, and alſo the Diuine ſeruice by ſuch miſdoers on holy and feſtiuall daies not heard or ſolemniſed, to the high diſpleaſure of almighty God, as by the foreſaid preamble more plainly may appeare.

The cauſes of the decay of Archery.

It may therefore be enacted by your Highneſſe, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons

Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the xxxii. yeere of the reigne of our Soueraigne Lord King Henry the viii. that now is: it was amongſt other enacted that notwithſtanding viii. county daies in one yeere, and ix. County daies another yeere, were before that time holden and kept within the County Palatine of Cheſter, before the Iuſticer of the ſame County, that from that time forthward the ſaid Iuſticer ſhould hold and keepe but only ii. ſeſſions euery yeere within the ſame county, the one whereof to be kept after Michaelmas and the other after Eaſter, and that from thenceforth all the ſaid County dayes ſhould cleerely ceaſe and determine for euer, as by the ſame Act at large more plainly appeareth. And for as much as within the ſame County Palatine it hath not beene vſed, nor ſeene, that the Sheriffe of the ſame County hath kept any ſhire Court for determination of plaints, and calling the exigends, as is commonly vſed in other Shires of this Realme, there was therfore neuer ſithen the making of the ſaid Act any exigend of felony or other clauſe proclaimed within the ſaid county, to the no little hindrance of iuſtice, & to the great boldneſſe of offenders. For reformation whereof be it enacted by the King our ſoueraign Lord, by the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall and the commonons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame that the Sherife of the ſaid County for the time being, after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, ſhalbe bound to keepe his Shire Court in the Shire hall of the ſaid County euery moneth for euer, for determination of plaints and actions vnder xl. s. and for proclamations, and calling of exigends Certaine Lordſhips and Pariſhes in Wales annexed to the County of Flint.

And where the lordſhips, townes, and hamlets of Hope and Aſſaph, haue of old time béene reputed, accepted and taken as part and parcell of the county of Flint, and ſo haue béene continued vntill now of late, that by an Act of Parliament, made in the xxvii. yéere of the raigne of our moſt dread ſoueraigne Lord the Kings Maieſty that now is, the ſame were aſſigned to the county of Denbigh. Who may buy Worſted yarne in Norwich, and who not, &c, Worſted yarne is the priuate commodity of the city of Norwich, and the County of Norffolke.

Whereas for the moſt part in all the ſhires and counties of this realme of England, there be, and haue béene certaine priuate commodities, growing and ariſing onely within the ſaid Shires or Counties, by which onely commodities politikely prouided for, and continued, the Cities and Townes within the ſaid Shires and Counties, and the inhabitants of the ſame, be, and haue béene without any forraine aid or ſuccour plenteouſly and wealthily kept, maintained, defended, and preſerued: all which commodities, by the deceit and ſubtill practices, as well of Merchants ſtrangers, as of diuers other couetous and euill conſcioned perſons, haue béene and bee many times clérely deſtroyed, and ſubuerted to the great loſſe, and decay as well of the ſaid Cities and Townes, within euery ſuch Shires and Counties, as of the inhabitants of the ſame, Amongſt the which ſaid Cities Townes, Shires, and Counties, hauing priuate commodities, the city of Norwich, and diuers other, and many Townes in the Countie of Norf. hath béene alwaies heretofore kept, preſerued, and maintained, and the poore men and other dwellers and inhabitants in the ſame, godly, honeſtly, and vertuouſly brought vp, occupied, and exerciſed, by a commodity growing and riſing onely within the ſaid County, that is to ſay by the making and weauing of Worſteds, and other clothes, which hath béen made & wouen of the yarne called Worſted yarne, ſpunne of the Wooll growing and comming of the ſheep bred onely within the county of Norffolk and in no place elſe where. And foraſmuch as the ſaid commodity of making, and weauing of Worſteds, within the ſaid city of Norwich, and county of Norffolk, by the deceit, and crafty practiſes of the great multitude of regrators, and buyers of the ſaid yarne, called Worſted yarne, is wholly decaied, and taken away from the ſaid dwellers, and inhabitants in the ſaid City and Shire, that is to ſay, in that, that the ſaid regrators doe buy the ſaid yarne by ſmall parcels of many men, and after that they haue ſo by little and little bought a great quantity of the ſaid yarne, doe not cauſe it to be wouen or otherwiſe wrought in the ſaid City or county, but doe ſell, ſend, and carry away the ſame yarne out of this Realme of England, into France, Flanders, and ſuch other like places beyond the ſea, wherewith the ſaid yarne, ſtrangers not being borne vnder the Kings dominions, doe make and weaue ſayes, ruſſels, worſteds, and diuers and ſundry other clothes and things, the which after they haue ſo made and wouen the ſaid ſtrangers doe ſell againe to vs Engliſhmen within this ſaid Realme of England, to their great profit, lucre, and aduantage, and to the cleere decay, and deſtruction of the ſaid commodity: by reaſon whereof, the ſaid city of Norwich and other the ſaid townes in the ſaid county of Norf. are not only moſt likely to be brought to vtter ruine and decay, and the poore men and other dwellers and inhabitants of the ſame, which haue beene heretofore ſet on worke, kept, and maintained only by the ſaid commodity, illuded and deceiued thereof, but alſo are very likely to bee left deſtitute and vnprouided of a liuing, or any manner of art, or occupation, by the which they ſhalbe able within the ſaid city or county to acquire to themſelues, their wiues and children, any honeſt way and trade to liue. Be it therefore ordained and enacted by the aſſent of the Kings moſt roiall maieſty, and the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that no perſon ne perſons from henceforth ſhall buy, ne ne cauſe to be bought within the ſaid city of Norwich, or county of Norf. any yarne called worſted yarne the which ſhall be ſpun within the ſaid city or county, but only ſuch perſon or perſons, being weauers, or other artificers, the which ſhall weaue or otherwiſe worke, or cauſe to be wouen or otherwiſe wrought the ſaid yarne ſo bought within the ſaid city and county, in the ſaid city of Norwich, or ſome other market towne or townes, or elſewhere within the ſaid county of Norffolke vpon the paine of forfeiting for euery pound weight of yarne called worſted yarne, ſo bought within the ſaid city of Norwich or county of Norf. and not wouen or otherwiſe wrought within the ſaid city or county, as is aforeſaid, xl.s. the one halfe thereof to our Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other halfe to him or them that ſhall ſo take the ſaid yarne, or ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe in which ſuit none eſſoine, protection, ne wager of law ſhall be allowed or admitted.

Who only may buy Worſted yarne in the City of Norwich, or County of Norffolke.

And be it further ordeined and enacted by authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons do from or after the firſt day of April next enſuing, ſhip to carry or conuey, or cauſe to be ſhipped, to carry or conuey into the parties beyõd the ſea, or elſe doe carry or conuey, or cauſe to be carried and conueyed into the parties beyond the ſea, any yarne called Worſted yarne not wrought or made in cloth, ſo ſuch yarne bee ſpunne or made within this realme of England: that then euery perſon and perſons, ſo ſhipping, conueying, or carrying, or cauſing ſuch yarne ſo to bee ſhipped, carried or conueyed, ſhall forfeit for euery pound of worſted yarne, ſo ſhipped, conueyed, or carried, xl.s. the one halfe thereof to be vnto our ſoueraigne Lord the King, the other halfe vnto him or them that wil ſue for the ſame in any court of record, by information, bil, plaint, or otherwiſe, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine or protection ſhalbe allowed. CAP. XXIII.

Proceeding againſt confeſſors of treaſon, &c. by commiſſion of Oier and Terminer, without remanding them to the Shire where the offence was committed.

And albeit that after great trauell taken in the examinations of ſuch perſons, it appeare to the ſaid Councel by confeſſion, witnes, or vehement ſuſpect, that ſuch perſons bee rather guilty of ſuch offences, whereof they bee ſo examined, than otherwiſe: yet neuertheleſſe ſuch offendors ſo examined, by the courſe of the Common law of this Realme, muſt bee indicted within the Shires or places where they committed their offences, and alſo tried by the inhabitants or Freeholders of ſuch Shires and places, although by their confeſſions, or by ſufficient witneſſe their offences bee certainely knowne to the Kings Councell: By reaſon whereof, beſide the trauaile and paines of the Kings Maieſties Councell in ſuch caſes, the Kings Highneſſe is oftentimes put to great charges and expences, in remaunding ſuch perſons to the Countreyes where they offended, there bee indicted and tried of their offences. And ſometime the Inhabitants and Freeholders of the Shires, or places where ſuch offences were done, be compelled to appeare out of the Shires and place for ſuch cauſes, to their great charges, for the triall or declaratton of ſuch offences: And ſometime by occaſion of the charges for remaunding of ſuch offendors to bee indicted and tried by the courſe of the Common Law, ſuch offendors lye ſtill in priſon, and bee forgotten, whereby many times by helpe of their confederates they eſcape vnpuniſhed, to the great courage and euill example of euill doers. Bee it therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and by the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons, being examined before the Kings Councel, or three of them, vpon any māner of treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons or murders, doe confeſſe any ſuch offences, or that the ſaid Councell or three of them, vpon ſuch examination, ſhall thinke any perſon ſo examined, to bee vehemently ſuſpected of any Treaſon, miſpriſions of treaſons, or murder: That then in euery ſuch caſe by the Kings commandement, his Maieſties commiſſion of Oier and Terminer, vnder his highneſſe great ſeale, ſhall be made by the Chancellor of England to ſuch perſons, and into ſuch Shires or places, as ſhalbe named and appointed by the kings highneſſe for the ſpeedy triall, conuiction or deliuerance of ſuch offenders, which Commiſſioners, ſhall haue power and authority to enquire, heare, and determine all ſuch treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons, and murders, within the Shires and places limited by their Commiſſion, by ſuch good and lawfull perſons as ſhalbe returned before them by the Sheriffe or his miniſter, or any other hauing power to returne Writs and Proces for that purpoſe, in whatſoeuer other Shire or place within the Kings dominions or without, ſuch offences of treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons or murders ſo examined, were done or committed, and that in ſuch caſes no challenge for the ſhire or hundred ſhall be allowed.

The inconueniences enſuing the remanding of ſome ſuſpect perſons into the countries where they offended, to be tried.

In ſome caſes there ſhall be triall of treaſon &c. in any countie where the King by Commiſſion will appoint. Alt. 1. & 2. P. & M. 10. for Treaſon Triall by Peeres.

Prouided alſo, that if any the Peeres of the realme ſhall happen to be indicted of any of the offences aforeſaid by vertue of any ſuch Commiſſion to be granted by authority of this Act,yet neuertheleſſe they ſhal haue their triall by Peeres,in like manner and forme as heretofore hath bin vſed,any thing in this Act conteined,or any thing to bee done by vertue thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And it is ordeined and enacted by authority aforeſaid, that peremptory challenge ſhall not from henceforth be admitted or allowed in any caſes of high treaſon, nor miſpriſion of high treaſon. No man ſhalbe Iuſtice of aſſiſe in the Countie where he was borne or doth dwell.
